My daughter, aged 13, a typical teen-aged girl, saw an article which developed another theory about Oswald. It was based on the memory of several years back without notes, of a stenographer who typed out for Oswald an account of his sojourn in Russia. She recalled that he had carried off all her notes and copies, even her carbon paper, but she was willing and eager to speculate that, because of his bitter criticism of every aspect of politics and life in Russia, he was probably functioning as an American spy sent by our own government. My daughter's horrified comment was "Would we pick a person like that to spy for us?"

I agree that it takes a far stretch of the imagination to see any government entrusting an important mission to an unreliable, unstable, egocentric, rebellious, disobedient, untruthful erratic character such as Oswald seems to have been since childhood.

Now regarding his disorganized behavior after the assassination; it is absolutely typical of the psychopathic personality. They will plan a course of action to the tiniest detail, rehearsing, checking, taking endless precautions, and the plan will end completely at a climactic point. The planner then proceeds to act at random and irrationally, exactly as Oswald did after the shots were fired.

You could make a parallel with John Wilkes Booth, and you could make an informative and reliable instructive account that would do you more credit as a writer if you developed that story as the "Climatic End of a Psychopathic Personality's Life Long Egocentric Career."

Sincerely yours,

Milton H. Erickson

SUMMARY OF OSWALD CASE

Was Lee Harvey Oswald under hypnosis when he shot President Kennedy? Was he subjected to intensive psychological brain-washing techniques in Russia, perfected even further than in Korean War days? Was he given a post-hypnotic suggestion that he would shoot the Pres at the first feasible opportunity and upon being given a certain signal which would set him in motion? Was this suggestion periodical enforced by Red psychological experts working in this country, and did they lay the basic framework of planning which put Oswald in the Texas School Book Depository with a rifle in his hands at the time the presidential motorcade passed?

In many ways the Lee H. Oswald case parallels the fictional case detailed in the Novel and movie, "The Manchurian Candidate." In Richard Condon's novel, a psychologically disturbed young man was brainwashed in a POW camp to such an extent that he carried out every order given him by his Red captors, even murdering a fellow GI. He was given a post-hypnotic suggestion that upon seeing the card, the queen of hearts, he would carry out any orders given him. By having him play games of solitaire, Red agents in the U.S. were able to use him as an assassin to murder key personnel in this country.

Why Lee Oswald would have made a good subject for such a Red plot:

(1) He was available, having gone to Russia to denounce his citizenship. (The Russians put him off for some reason, yet they did not order him out of the country.)

(2) He was a citizen of the U.S. and could return at will to this country. (This might explain why he was refused Russian citizenship.)

3. He was a Communist sympathizer.

4. He had a deep hatred of authority, and the President represented the supreme U.S. authority.

6. He was not a Red agent and would not be connected directly to the Soviet espionage network in the investigation which would undoubtedly follow the President's death.

7. He was a psychologically disturbed young man, an ideal subject for such a plot. (Ten years ago New York psychiatrists exami that he couldn't control them if they came to the surface. Their re

Facts which seem to point toward the theory that Oswald was under hypnosis:

1. Oswald seemed to have no set plan of escape. After carefull laid plans which put him in the Texas School Book Depository right on the motorcade route, he seemed to move aimlessly after the shooting. Being a fairly intelligent young man, Oswald must have known that without a silencer it would be known immediately which building the shots came from. And when he didn't return to his job that afternoon it would be reasonable to assume that he would be the number one suspect. Yet, he went back to his apartment, got a jacket and a revolver and set off on foot in a direction which led him deeper into a residential area--not a place where he could catch a train, plane or bus or even hitchhike a ride out of town. It seemed that he either was headed for a rendezvous with an accomplice or really did not have a plan of escape. Perhaps his Red bosses had planned it that way--so that he would be killed resisting arrest and his lips would be sealed and he wouldn't be subject to psychologic examination.

2. When stopped by Officer Tippit, a woman eyewitness said Oswald first leaned inside the car and talked with him. It was only when the officer got out of the car to take him in that Oswald drew his pistol and shot him--as if Oswald had been preconditioned to resis apprehension by authority. The woman who saw him shoot the officer he shoot her at? Obviously she could later identify him to police. A witness reported seeing Oswald walking down a street openly reloading his gun after killing the officer. Later, he was seen fleeing from doorway to doorway, finally running into the Texas Theater on Jefferson Ave. This flight was more like the unplanned, struggles of an animal to escape. It contrasts with the detailed planning of the cool, calculating killer who had planned the assassination down to the last detail, even drawing a diagram of the motorcade route and the path of the bullets from the sixth-floor window to the presidential car. It also contrasts with the conduct of the cool assassin which a witness described as a sniper who took his time, carefully scoring three hits with three shots. It was as if escape had never entered into the planning of the murder. Yet, if Oswald had wanted to commit suicide, he could have done so easily by continuing to fire from the sixth-floor window at the police which represented the authority he hated. It seemed that Oswald had been a puppet and someone, after they were finished with him, had cut the strings, hoping he would be killed in his feeble escape attempts.

3. When the Texas Theater was flooded with police and it was obvious that escape was impossible, Oswald put up a suicidal-type resistance. He leaped to his feet and shouted, "It's all over." Then he drew his pistol and would have shot it out with the officers had not the gun misfired. (This misfire could have been part of the plan to make sure Oswald would be shot in his escape attempt.)

4. After his apprehension, Oswald declined all knowledge of either the President's assassination or the police officer's death. (This was similar to the behavior of the assassin in "The Manchurian Candidate" who, under hypnotic suggestion, forgot all the details of his crimes.) Why did Oswald leap up and shout post-hypnotic suggestion that when his capture seemed inevtible he was to shout, "It's all over," and then forget all about his crimes? Despite overwhelming evidence against him and intense questioning, Oswald steadfastedly maintianed that he was innocent and knew nothing about either crime.

5. Oswald's behavior seemed strangely unlike the normal pattern of a fanatic who would shoot a President then brag, "Yes I did it and I'm glad. He seemed cool, composed in custody, and didn't give his interrogaters any information at all. When his wife and mother visited him he told them not to worry, that it was all a mistake. He was concerned that his wife should buy some shoes for one of their children. His own mother was convinced of his innocence after her visit to the jail. It was as if Oswald's mind had been erased of all knowledge of the crimes. This cool attitude of innocence by a man of average intelligence in the face of overwhelming evidence that he murdered the President, together with conclusive evidence including an eyewitness that he killed Officer Tippit, is unbelievable

6. In New Orleans and at two Dallas addresses Oswald lived near public parks--a likely location to meet Red agents who may have been controlling his actions.

7.Oswald was in Mexico from Sept. 26 to Oct. 3 of this year. Could this hypnotic suggestion been given to him at that time--when he visited the Cuban embassy? It is a known fact that the Castro regime promulgates a theory of assassination of heads of state as part of their hemispheric revolution plan. And the Cuban regime's hatred of Kennedy was well-known.

If the hypnotic suggestion originated in Russia and was reinforced by Soviet agents in this country, what would the Russians hope to gain by Kennedy's death? There are several possibilities.

1. They may have figured that his successor would be less firm in opposing Red moves throughout the world.

2. The assassination may have been a subtle warning to any presidential successor that the Reds can murder our president any time they choose if his policies stir their wrath.

3. Perhaps Oswald had been instructed to kill both Kennedy and Vice-President Johnson to paralyze the country as a prelude to an all-out attack. (At a distance, Gov. Connally and Johnson look very much alike, and Oswald might have been thinking that both would likely be in the same car.)

The actions of the Russians while Oswald was in the Soviet Union stir several questions. It seemed that something else--perhaps the psychological grooming of an assassin--was going on under the surface. Quoting from a column by Victor Riesel on Dec. 6:-

"The Russians have said officially they denied Oswald Soviet citizenship because he was a "Trotskyite." This means he was declare an enemy of the state--a few days ago. But why was he permitted, back in 1959, to travel freely inside the Soviet Union? This is a coveted privilege. Official permission is needed by foreigners for bus and train travel. Yet he went some 420 miles from Moscow to Minsk.

"Why did the Soviet employment services direct him to a job? This must have happened. He spoke no Russian then. He read no Russian....Who vouched for his identity card? Who got him his work permit? Such documents are absolutely necessary--especially for foreign workers,...Who approved Oswald's membership in a Russian union?....If the Soviet authorities believed Oswald to be a "Trotskyite" and an American spy, why did they permit him to might have eluded the secret police for a few weeks but not for more than two years. Why did the secret police permit him to marry a Russian girl? Why was he permitted to quit his job and then travel freely from Minsk to Moscow? Workers are not yet absolutely frozen to their jobs inside Russia. But few just pick themselves up and leave. How did Mrs. Oswald get permission to abandon her job in a land starved for workers. Finally, how did the alleged assassin get his wife and child out of the Soviet Union? Mighty few have accomplished this...."Why were the Russians so kind, and why did they offer so many privileges to a "Trotskyite?"

A final question: Was the wife of Oswald allowed to leave so readily by the Russians because she was the one who was to trigger the hypnotic suggestion and give Oswald hid orders?

I have noticed a parallel between the Lee Harvey Oswald case and the fictional case detailed in the novel and movie, "The Manchurian Candidate." In "The Manchurian Candidate," a psychologically disturbed young man was brain-washed in a Manchurian POW camp to such an extent that he would obey unquestioningly any orders given him by the Reds. He was given a post-hypnotic suggestion that when he saw the card, the queen of hearts, he was to carry out any orders given him immediately after viewing the card.

In many ways this disturbed young man was like Lee Oswald. He was disliked by most people, had few friends, was a loner, didn't talk much and was filled with hate for those in authority in particular and all the world in general. He had been dominated by a strong-willed mother.

Upon his return to the United States, the former POW was used by Red agents to assassinate. First it was minor officials that he murdered, but the Reds were grooming him to kill the man likely to win election as President of the United States. The agents would call the former POW on the phone when he was alone and tell him that it was time he played a game of solitaire. This triggered the post-hypnotic suggestion and he would play solitaire. When he had had time to view the queen of hearts, the agents would call him again and give him his orders to kill. The man obeyed as if a zombie, having no memory of his crimes after they were committed.

Here are a few questions I would appreciate your views on:

1. Is it possible in theory to induce a person to kill under hypnosis?

2. Is it possible to have a person under hypnosis obey your every order by giving him a code word or some symbol to set him off, such as the playing card in "The Manchurian Candidate"?

3. Could an individual of Oswald's type--said by psychiatrists given a post-hypnotic suggestion, then have it reinforced periodical that he would kill?

4. Is it likely that a post-hypnotic suggestion could be kept alive by reinforcement over a period of 17 months?

5. How long would a hypnotic indoctrination take that would put Oswald completely under the power of agents so he would kill for them

6. Would there be noticeable changes in a person's behavior if he were under such a post-hypnotic suggestion?

7. Could a person in such a state be made to forget all about a crime once it was committed?

8. If x the plot of "The Manchurian Candidate" were unrealistic under what circumstances and through what means could a person be hypnotized to kill?

9. Do you know of a case where a person had been induced to crime through hypnosis? Or do you know of an experiment by scientist which would indicate that this might be feasible?

10. Do you know of a theory developed in the writings of an exp on hypnosis which holds that "The Manchurian Candidate" type of case possible? Can you give me any names or works of psychiatrists who have written on the subject?

11. From what you have read of Oswald's personality, what is your view of his psychological state?

12. Would drugs play a role in inducing such a hypnotic state where a person's will could be controlled?

DL 100-10461

The Bureau's interest in interviewing JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY stems from information received from Mrs. JO FISCHER, as follows:

Mrs. JO FISCHER, Personnel Director, Statler-Hilton Hotel, 1914 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 26 or 27, 1963, Mrs. LAURA LAYFIELD, who was formerly employed as a receptionist in this office, and who is presently employed as a hostess in the Court Club, Statler-Hilton, Dallas, mentioned the following to her:

On 10/31/63, three young men came into the personnel office of the Statler-Hilton. Two of the men requested applications for bellmen, while the third man waited on the other two. The two men completed the applications and turned them over to Mrs. LAYFIELD, who checked the applications for completeness and accuracy.

Mrs. LAYFIELD recalled that one of the young men indicated on the application he completed the tenth grade; he was married, with two children, one being two weeks old; he had been previously employed as a printer; and he spoke Russian.

She informed Mrs. FISHER that since one of the men indicated he spoke Russian, which appeared somewhat unusual for a bellman applicant in Dallas, she asked the young man where he learned to speak Russian. He became very angry and informed Mrs. LAYFIELD it was none of her business. He did state, however, he was married to a Russian girl. He left in a state of anger.

Mrs. LAYFIELD recalled the application was hand printed and she believed the name on the application was (FNU) OSWALD.

Mrs. FISCHER advised that during her conversation with Mrs. LAYFIELD about the above matter, she asked Mrs. LAYFIELD what happened to the young man's application. She said Mrs. LAYFIELD remarked at first that she apparently retained the application because she believed she noted in writing on the application "Very Nasty", or some similar wording. Mrs. FISCHER said during the same conversation Mrs. LAYFIELD mentioned that the young man, while in a state of anger, grabbed his application from her and tore it up. Mrs. FISCHER said she has no personal knowledge of the above matter. She added that Mrs. LAYFIELD is prone to exaggeration at times and she (FISCHER) would not express an opinion as to the authenticity of the above.

Mrs. FISCHER stated that applications executed by anyone applying for employment at the Statler-Hilton are retained by this office. She said applications of persons rejected are destroyed after six months. She searched her files but could locate no application under the names LEE HARVEY OSWALD, LEE HARVEY, LESLIE OSWALD, A. HIDELL, A. J. HIDELL, ALEK J. HIDELL, ALEK JAMES HIDELL, or O. H. LEE.

Mrs. FISCHER advised that according to Mrs. LAYFIELD the second young man in the group was informed they had no openings for a bellman but the hotel did have an opening for a helper in the hotel employees' cafeteria. He accepted that position and began his employment on November 1, 1963. Mrs. LAYFIELD identified the young man as JAMES MURPHY.

Mrs. FISCHER made available the application of MURPHY, whom she had interviewed on two occasions, which reflected the following information (additional description of MURPHY as furnished by Mrs. FISCHER appears in parentheses below):

Name	JAMES MURPHY
Address	1715 Canton St., Dallas, Texas
Social Security No.	488-42-7335
Date of Birth	6/16/36

Haskell Drive In, Haskell Ave., Dallas, Texas, 1/61 to 10/61, kitchen helper. Reason left--not enough pay.

Olan Mills Studio, Chattanooga, Tennessee, 10/60 to 2/61, salesman. Reason for leaving--company folded.

Hollywood Beach Hotel, Hollywood, Florida, 11/61 to 12/61, bellhop. Reason for leaving--seasonal work.

Jefferson Davis Hotel, Nashville, Tennessee, 1960-1961, bellman. Reason for leaving--more money.

Mrs. FISCHER made available the Permanent Record card for MURPHY which reflected the following additional information:

Education:	11th grade
Military service:	None indicated
Have you ever been arrested?	No
What languages other than English do you speak?	None
What office machines can you operate?	None
Number of dependents:	None

Mrs. FISCHER recalls JAMES MURPHY personally because after being employed here for about one week, he came to see her and requested an advance on his salary. His first pay check was due on November 21, 1963. He informed Mrs. FISCHER he had been "kicked out" of the Salvation Army at 800 Browder Street, Dallas, after five days and had to find a room elsewhere. He said he had been in a rented room for a week and had to pay his rent or leave.

She related that she did not see MURPHY again until November 26, 1963, when he came to her and submitted his resignation. He informed Mrs. FISCHER that he was "shaken up" over the President's death and was going to New Orleans, Louisiana, to live with his sister. Mrs. FISCHER said she noted the above information on an exit interview card, which is a part of MURPHY'S file.

Mrs. FISCHER said when MURPHY mentioned he was going to New Orleans she boked up at him with somewhat of a surprised look, after which he immediately stood up and shouted he did not know OSWALD. Mrs. FISCHER said she never mentioned OSWALD to him.

A "Past Work Record" reflected MURPHY was employed on the 6 A.M. to 3 P.M. shift, six days a week, beginning 11/1/63. Mrs. FISCHER ascertained from MURPHY'S supervisor that his scheduled day off each week was Monday and that although he was on the 6 A.M. to 3 P.M. shift, his shift could change, depending on the need, to the 8 A.M. to 5 P.M., or 12 Noon to 9 P.M. shift.

Mrs. FISCHER ascertained from the payroll office that on Friday, 11/22/63, MURPHY checked in for work at 9:23 A.M. and checked out at 8:50 P.M. A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD taken on 8/9/63, was exhibited to Mrs. FISCHER, and she said she had never seen him in the personnel office at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

On interview, Mrs. LAURA LAYFIELD, Hostess, Court Club, Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, reiterated information attributed to her by Mrs. FISCHER, as set out above.

MURPHY was last known to be in Gainesville, Florida, as follows:

Dr. ALLEN DE LANEY, 1110 Northwest 8th Ave., Gainesville, Florida, made available his records on 12/18/63, which records reflect he treated JAMES MURPHY in the emergency room of the Alachua General Hospital, Gainesville, at 10:25 A.M., 12/8/63. He treated MURPHY for an inflammation of the fingernail and spent only three or four minutes with MURPHY and classified him as a wanderer; thereby not charging him for the treatment, as MURPHY indicated he was without funds. Dr. DE LANEY recalls MURPHY as being well dressed, had clean-cut appearance, and did not appear to be the typical itinerant using the emergency room for treatment. MURPHY made no comment as to where he came from, or where he was going. MURPHY gave his date of birth as 6/16/36, and the record revealed he had group insurance with the Sheraton-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas. Dr. DE LANEY described MURPHY as about 5'8", 150 - 160 pounds, blond hair, sallow complexion, and thin build.

On 12/20/63, Mr. JOSEPH MULLER, Salvation Army, 1125 East Church St., Jacksonville, Florida, made available records concerning JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY, born 6/16/36, and described as a white male, 5'10", 145 pounds, brown hair, gray eyes, ruddy complexion, and Social Security No. 488-42-7335. Records show this individual last registered 12/9/63 for one day, and listed his closest relative as

JEAN MURPHY, 1309 Bourbon St., New Orleans, Louisiana. MURPHY had previously registered five times at the Salvation Army between 12/9/61 and 12/9/63 for one nights lodging and always indicated he was transient.

Captain GUY SMITH, Salvation Army, Gainesville, Florida, advised MURPHY last registered the night of 12/6 or 7/63.

Extensive investigation has been conducted by several field offices to locate MURPHY, which investigation includes interviews with all known relatives and acquaintances. Interviews reflect MURPHY is transient and does not maintain regular contact with any relative or other known person. Further investigation reflects he frequently obtains lodging at YMCA and Salvation Army Shelters and has travelled, or has relatives, in the states covered by offices receiving this communication.

The Bureau is requested to approve the enclosed proposed circular letter and notify each office receiving this communication of the Bureau's approval to circulate same. Ten extra copies of this communication are designated for the Bureau for use in notifying the various offices of the Bureau's decision regarding the proposed circular letter.

Upon receipt of Bureau approval, each office receiving instant communication will complete the circular letter as to that office's address and telephone number, make necessary copies and distribute to all YMCAS, Salvation Army Centers and Shelters, as well as other similar known shelters in the states of Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Texas.

Stated has been drifting around the country for several years and in September, 1963, drifted through various cities throughout California and in early or mid-October, 1963, hitchhiked and "rode rails" to Dallas, Texas, where he secured dishwasher's job at Haskell Drive-In Restaurant and lodging at Salvation Army. On 10/31/63 he went alone to Statler-Hilton Hotel Personnel Office, Dallas, arriving there between 9:00 and 9:30 a.m. to seek employment. Only other applicants observed at Statler-Hilton in office at this time were elderly Negro male and white female about 30 to 35 years of age. MURPHY stated was interviewed by Employment Supervisor shortly thereafter and accepted job as helper in employees' cafeteria. Went directly from personnel office downstairs in hotel where he changed into uniform and punched in on time clock to begin work immediately. Did not return to personnel office on 10/31/63 and would have been clocked in on duty as of 12:30 p.m., 10/31/63. Employed at Statler-Hilton Hotel until 11/26/63 when work hours were cut to 2-3 hours per day because of lack of business as result of President's assassination, causing MURPHY to quit this job. MURPHY stated he was extremely nervous because of events in Dallas and left the city. Since then he has hitchhiked throughout the South, arriving Nashville, Tennessee, 12/28/63. He emphatically stated he went alone to obtain employment at Statler-Hilton; stated has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD or had any association with him and knew nothing of OSWALD allegedly attempting to secure employment

On December 28, 1963, Bill ARNOLD, Night Clerk, Salvation Army Center, 600 Demonbreun Street, Nashville, telephonically advised SA HENDERSON HILLIN, JR., that he was contacting the FBI in response to a stop placed at the Salvation Army Center on December 19, 1963, against the name JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY, Mr. ARNOLD advised he had given lodging to a white male using the name JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY who had indicated he was born June 16,1936, at Natchez, Mississippi. Mr. ARNOLD advised that MURPHY had been lodged as an itinerant for the night of December 28, 1963, and could be contacted in the dormitory room of the Salvation Army Center.

JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY, a fixed witness was interviewed at the Salvation Army Center, 500 [illegible] Street, [illegible], Tennessee. After being informed of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the inquiry, MURPHY advised that he is the JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY who was employed as a [illegible] helper at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas, from [illegible], 1963, to November 26, 1963.

MURPHY advised that he is a "loner" and an itinerant drifter and has been drifting around through the United States for the past few years, completely out of touch with his family. His last regular employment was with the Olan Mills Portraits home office in Chattanooga, Tennessee. This employment was about 2 years ago. He has no fixed address and has no desire to communicate with any member of his family.

In September, 1963, he was drifting throughout various cities in California, stopping over at Salvation Army Centers and Rescue Missions in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and other larger cities. In early or mid-October, 1963, he left California hitchhiking his way through Arizona and arrived in El Paso, Texas. He "rode the rails" from El Paso to San Antonio, Texas, with about 5 other transients, names not recalled, and stayed in San Antonio over night at the Salvation Army Center. He then hitchhiked to Austin, Texas, and stopped overnight there at the Salvation Army. He hitchhiked from San Antonio to Dallas, Texas, where he immediately checked in at the Salvation Army Center as an overnight lodger. Since he could only stay one night at the Salvation Army, he then obtained lodging at the nearby Dallas Rescue Mission on Commerce Street near City Hall. At this time the Texas State Employment Office in Dallas obtained a job for him as a dishwasher at the Haskell Drive-In Restaurant located on Haskell Avenue in Dallas. This was a Greek restaurant owned by a man by the name of "JOHNNY" (Last name unknown) who, with about 5 other members of his family, operated the establishment. He worked at this restaurant for about a week and then quit because of low pay. He was continuing to reside at the Dallas Rescue Mission and on October 31, 1963, decided on his own initiative to go to the Statler-Hilton Hotel to seek any kind of employment. He recalled that on October 31, 1963, he left the Dallas Rescue Mission early on that morning and visited a commercial employment office situated on Main Street in Dallas near the [illegible] left his name at this agency but [illegible] the immediate prospects of employment [illegible]. After leaving the commercial employment agency he went to the Statler-Hilton Hotel Personnel Office arriving there between 2:30 and 3:00 P.M. He recalled that there was a young white female in her 20's red hair working in the personnel office at the time he entered it. The Employment Supervisor, a Mrs. FISHER, was also in the office or an adjacent office. He believed that he was the first applicant on this date as he could not recall any others being in the office at the time he arrived. As he was filling out the employment application, a male Negro in his 40's about 5'10", weighing 140 - 150 pounds, came into the office and inquired as to the prospects of securing employment as a baker. This individual was informed that no baker's jobs were available and a few minutes thereafter MURPHY had completed his papers and was called into an office for an interview with Mrs. FISHER. He noted that at about this time a white female, about 30-35 years old, short and stocky build, had entered the personnel office. He did not know if this lady actually secured employment. He did not see anyone enter the Employment Supervisor's Office prior to his entry.

During his interview with Mrs. FISHER he was informed that there was probably nothing at the hotel which she could offer him in the way of employment except as a cafeteria worker. He informed her that he was in desperate need of employment and wanted the position. He was informed that the position was his. He executed some additional papers in connection with his employment and was told to report downstairs in the hotel to obtain a uniform. He did not leave the hotel on this date until after work hours. He went immediately from the personnel office downstairs where he changed into a uniform and clocked in to work sometime between 11:00 and 11:30 a.m. as a helper in the employees' cafeteria. He stated that he was positive that he was on duty working as of 12:30 p.m., October 31, 1963, in the cafeteria and did not return to the hotel personnel office that day.

MURPHY continued that he had no associates or friends in Dallas, Texas; however, during his employment at the Statler-Hilton Cafeteria he had a casual acquaintanceship with a fellow employee whom he described as a male Mexican, probably a Spanish American, about 20 - 24 years old, 5'10", 175 pounds, heavy build, black hair, dark complexion, and wore thick horn-rimmed glasses. This individual informed MURPHY he could find a room for MURPHY and loaned MURPHY $7.00 to pay a week's room rent in advance. The room which this individual secured for MURPHY was next to the house in which this individual resided the exact address at which MURPHY resided during this period being unrecalled; however, it was, to the best of his knowledge, located off Florence Street. He stated he did not want to make a definite allegation of such a serious nature but from this Mexican's general demeanor he believed he might have had homosexual tendencies and may have had designs on MURPHY as MURPHY recalled he seemed to want to make everything "convenient" for him. MURPHY resided at this place for about a week and then returned for one night stop-overs the Salvation Army and then after securing his first pay at the Statler-Hilton Hotel obtained a room about November 21, 1963, on the top floor of the Dallas YMCA where he resided until he left Dallas. MURPHY could not furnish the name of this Mexican acquaintance or his last stated he had no further information concerning him. This individual had never made any statements which would have made MURPHY question his loyalty to the United States.

MURPHY continued that after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY in Dallas on November 22, 1963, and subsequent events in Dallas, the entire citizenry appeared to be highly panicky and nervous. He stated he became quite excited and nervous and fearful that possibly riots might break out in the city. Clients began leaving the Statler-Hilton Hotel and consequently his work hours were cut to 2 - 3 hours per day, making his employment not profitable. Because of this he decided to resign and leave the city. He recalled that he did go in for an interview with Mrs. FISHER or someone in the personnel office at the time he left the job and may have appeared nervous to the interviewer. He does not recall making any statement about LEE HARVY OSWALD at this time but stated it was possible that he mentioned the assassination of the President as one of the reasons he was leaving Dallas and his employment. He reiterated that he was highly nervous at this time and is by nature a nervous individual. He left the hotel, went to the YMCA, checked out, and took a train from Dallas to New Orleans, Louisiana. Since that time he has hitchhiked extensively throughout the South, stopping over in New Orleans, Gulfport, Mississippi; Mobile, Alabama; Pensacola, Florida; Tallahassee, Florida; Jacksonville, Florida; Gainsville, Florida;

Ocala, Florida; Savannah, Georgia; [illegible]
Florence, South Carolina; Fayetteville, North Carolina;
Raleigh, North Carolina, Durham [illegible]
North Carolina, High Point, North Carolina, [illegible]
Carolina; Charlotte, North Carolina; [illegible]
Henderson, South Carolina; Athens, Georgia; [illegible]
Chattanooga and Nashville, Tennessee, where he stated he [illegible] on December 28, 1963, and went directly to the Salvation Army.

MURPHY stated he has never been a member of the [illegible] he ever had any affiliation or association with any [illegible] designated by the Attorney General of the United States. He advised that he had never heard of the "[illegible] Committee" until the publicity erupted after the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated that to his knowledge he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never had any association with him. He stated he knew nothing concerning OSWALD allegedly attempting to secure employment at the Southland Hilton Hotel on October 31, 1963, and denied any knowledge of 2 white males going together to the hotel to secure employment. He reiterated that he went to the hotel alone, secured his employment on his own initiative, and has no friends or associates in that city other than the Mexican who befriended him at the hotel. He stated he definitely had no information concerning events surrounding the assassination of President KENNEDY or subsequent events in Dallas.

MURPHY stated he has never owned a firearm of any nature and has no military background or knowledge of the operation of firearms. He advised he has no criminal record with the exception of one or two arrests for vagrancy in various cities during his travels throughout the city. He advised that he has been examined twice by the Selective Service System and has been classified 4-F because he "cannot adjust to military life." He exhibited a Selective Service Registration Certificate indicating that he was registered with Local Draft Board at Natchez, Mississippi, under Selective Service No. 1-28-132-106, on August 1, 1954. He exhibited a Notice of Classification from this Board dated November 2, 1961, indicating he was classified 4-F.

MURPHY stated he was planning to hitchhike to St. Louis, Missouri, via U. S. Highway 41 North. He stated he is not planning to visit anyone in that city but is continuing his wandering. He advised he knew of no employment opportunities in the Nashville or Tennessee area and might attempt to obtain a job somewhere in Missouri. He advised that he has no one who would know his whereabouts at all times.

Specimens received 12/26/63

Q350 Blue jacket

Results of examination:

Several brown head hairs and head hair clippings were found in the debris removed from the Q350 jacket. These hairs match in microscopic characteristics the previously submitted K7 hair sample of Oswald and originated either from him or from another Caucasian person whose head hairs exhibit the same microscopic characteristics.

It is pointed out that hairs do not possess enough individual microscopic characteristics to be positively identified as originating from a particular person to the exclusion of all others.

Several brown limb hair fragments of Caucasian origin were also found in the debris removed from Q350; however, these hairs did not contain enough microscopic characteristics to be of value for comparison purposes.

None of the textile fibers previously removed from the #1 gun could be associated with the Q350 jacket.

The jacket, Q350, was microscopically examined and chemically processed to determine if any gunpowder residues were present and no nitrates or nitrites such as would be present in gunpowder residues were found. It is pointed out that the absence of nitrates and nitrites does not necessarily indicate that the jacket was not worn by a person firing a weapon since such residues are not normally deposited on a shooter's clothing.

PLAIN TEXT

AIRTEL PRIORITY

To: Director, FBI

From: Legal Attache, Paris (62-148) (P)

Subject: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

Re Bucab 11/30/63 and Paris cab 12/2/63 re Assassination of the President.

In accordance with Bureau instructions, SERGE FLIEGERS, Chief European Correspondent, Hearst Newspapers, and Broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System, was contacted on his return to Paris on Sunday 12/1/63. He was not available for interview until the afternoon of 12/2/63 at which time he advised as follows:

The information used in his broadcast from Vienna on November 24, 1963 was not received from an official Austrian source but from an unofficial contact in Vienna who visits Prague from time to time and may have, in turn, received information from a source there. FLIEGERS stated that he often refers to his "intelligence sources" meaning unofficial contacts who furnish him with "intelligence information". He admitted that this is misleading since it infers that his sources are official intelligence sources rather than unofficial, but that he prefers to use this term since it is a vague undefined description of his sources.

He stated that his source advised him that at the time OSWALD arrived in Russia in 1959 he was probably questioned by the KGB in a routine manner. This questioning was probably done by a low level KGB officer asking him for the reason for his coming to Russia, how long he intended to stay, etc. FLIEGERS' source reasoned that after this interview by the KGB he was probably placed in contact with Soviet Military Intelligence in view of his Marine Corps background. FLIEGERS stated that this may not have been the official GRU but could be another Soviet military group.

His source then reasons that because of OSWALD's Marine Corps background he probably would have been sent to a Soviet Military Intelligence sabotage school. This school could have been located in Moscow, or since OSWALD is reported to have resided in Minsk for several years, it could have been in that city.

FLIEGERS' source reasons that there is a strong military group in Russia which is anti-KHRUSHCHEV and thus pro-Peking. This group which would be strong Stalinists would naturally be opposed to the KHRUSHCHEV-KENNEDY relationship which had developed during the past two years. FLIEGERS' source also reasons that this military group would be interested in perpetuating the cold war in order to perpetuate their own military hierarchy. This source therefore reasons that this group may have ordered OSWALD to return to the United States and later instructed him to assassinate the President.

FLIEGERS recalls that one STEFAN BANDERA, a Russian Ukrainian refugee, was assassinated in Munich, Germany, in 1959 by a Russian agent named BOGDAN STASCHINSKY. He stated that STASCHINSKY was arrested by German authorities and is presently in a German prison. The story came out that STASCHINSKY had attended a Soviet sabotage school where he was taught methods of assassination in Minsk, Russia. He stated that if STASCHINSKY actually attended such a school, he may know if OSWALD also was trained in a similar manner. He suggested that the Bureau may wish to consider having STASCHINSKY interviewed in Germany in this connection. It is noted, however, that STASCHINSKY was apparently arrested in 1959 prior to the time that OSWALD was in the Soviet Union. GER

FLIEGERS was carefully questioned as to the nature of his sources and whether his sources had specific information or were speculating on the possibility of the above information. He repeated that his source is an unofficial contact in Vienna who visits Prague from time to time, that he may have received this information from another source in Prague who, in turn, may have contacts in Russia. He was pressed for the identity of his source and was asked if it would be possible for us to personally contact him. FLIEGERS stated that he doubts this strongly, but volunteered to recontact his source, if possible, to determine if he is willing to have his identity revealed. FLIEGERS stated that it is impossible for him to contact this source in Vienna by telephone and, therefore, it may take some time to receive an answer.

Paris 62-148

It appeared from the interview with FLIEGERS that his information was vague, that he had received it probably third hand and that the information is largely speculation on his part and on the part of his source. This office is not in possession of detailed information regarding OSWALD's background and the Bureau is in a better position to evaluate this information and determine if it should be pursued in some manner. I have asked FLIEGERS to keep me advised of any specific information which he may receive in instant matter and he agreed to do so.

Information has been reported to Bureau that on 11-24-63 radio station WHN, New York City, carried broadcast from Vienna, Austria, wherein Serge Fliegers, chief European correspondent of the Hearst Newspapers, and a broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System, interviewed a "Mr. X" concerning the Oswald case. "Mr. X" expressed suspicion that Oswald had been trained as a Soviet intelligence agent during his visit to the USSR and that his assassination of President Kennedy may have been done on behalf of an anti-Khrushchev and pro-Peking faction in the Soviet Union.

New York Office has obtained tape recording of broadcast in question which was carried at 2 p.m., 11-24-63 by WHN. This recording has been monitored and it has been determined that "Mr. X" described only as a source familiar with Soviet intelligence operations, expressed suspicion that Oswald may have been acting for a Soviet intelligence group. In this connection he pointed out that Oswald had "probably" been questioned by Soviet intelligence upon his entry into the USSR in 1959 and that because of his Marine Corps background he "probably" would have been sent to a Soviet intelligence sabotage school.

"Mr. X" reasoned that there is a strong military group in Russia which is anti-Khrushchev and pro-Peking; that this group would naturally be opposed to the Khrushchev-Kennedy relationship which had developed during the past two years; that this group would be interest in perpetuating the cold war; and that, therefore, this group "may have" ordered Oswald to return to the U. S. and assassinate the President. At no point did "Mr. X" claim to have any specific or positive knowledge to support the foregoing speculation.

On instructions from Bureau, our Legal Attache in Paris interviewed Serge Fliegers on 12-2-63 regarding this matter. Fliegers described his source as "an unofficial contact in Vienna who visits Prague from time to time and may have, in turn, received information from a source there." He was pressed for the identity of the source and was asked if it would be possible for us to personally interview the source.

SOVIET SECTION

Fliegers declined to identify his source but volunteered to recontact source to determine his willingness to have his identity revealed. However, Fliegers does not expect to be in touch with the source in the immediate future. Fliegers had no additional information to support the speculation and he promised to keep the Legat, Paris, advised of any further data he might obtain in this regard.

OBSERVATIONS:

Based on the facts developed, it appears this allegation regarding Oswald's possible activities on behalf of the Soviets is based entirely on speculation and is not supported in any way with facts. This appears to represent simply a case of "sensational" reporting on the part of Fliegers.

ACTION:

This is for information. No further action is being taken relative to this broadcast at this time.

Rerep SA J. Stanley Rotz dated 12-20-63 at BA, no copy to SL, which reported interview of Garrett Brock Trapnell on 11-23-63.

Although Trapnell's story is similar in most respects to previous story furnished by him in 8/63 and investigation at that time developed no information to confirm its accuracy, Bureau desires that MM immediately conduct investigation to determine whether there is a pool hall located on Flagler St., MM, and whether there is a small building located on corner of Tamiami Trail and Ninth, Tenth or Eleventh Street, MM, as described on pages 16 and 17 of rerep. Submit results in report.

REC-47 105-82555-1252

For information of SL, Trapnell, an inmate of Clifton L. Perkins Hospital for Mental Defectives, Jessup, Md., JAN 8 1964 aimed on 11-23-63 he recognized subject as one of the 4 persons in pro-Castro group whom he had previously reported as plotting to kill the Attorney General. In prior interviews on 8-19 and 29-63 Trapnell identified the 4 individuals as Miguel Amador Fuentes, Antonio Ventura Bart, Cubans with whom he had associated in Cuba in 1958, Bart's wife and a Negro named Sousa. Investigation in 8/63 developed no information to show that those individuals and the meeting places in MM described by Trapnell existed. On 11-23-63 Trapnell furnished substantially the same information but changed identification of the persons involved. During latter interview, he named the conspirators as Fuentes, (FNU) Oswaldo, a girl Marta (LNU), and a dark-skinned male name unknown. He identified Oswaldo as subject. Also contrary to information furnished by him in 8/63 that he first met Fuentes in Cuba, he advised on 11-23-63 he first met Fuentes in the U.S. Army at Ft. Campbell, Kentucky, and described him as short, heavy-set American of Cuban ancestry, 5'7" or 5'8" 147 pounds. In 8/63 Trapnell described Fuentes as aged 28, 5'7", 200 pounds, fat, brown eyes, black curly hair, mustache.

SL at Federal Records Center determine whether one Miguel Amador Fuentes was ever assigned to U.S. Army at Ft. Campbell, Kentucky. For additional information, during 8/63 it was determined that Miguel Armando Fuentes Cabrera, born 7-4-23, was not identical with this individual.

NOTE: [illegible]

Although Trapnell has history of mental instability and a long criminal record and although MM was previously unable to identify the alleged plotters or the alleged meeting places in MM, we should cover above leads so as to completely discredit Trapnell's story particularly in view of several other unfounded reports that subject had been reported seen in Fla.

DL tel to Bureau and CV dated 1/1/64.

On the afternoon of 12/31/63, an anonymous male telephonically furnished the following info to the CV Office:

He stated that early in 1963, he met a prostitute in CV, named NANCY, who was living with LEE OSWALD at the Dakota Hotel on E. 18th St., CV. This NANCY also knew JACY RUBY in Dallas. Source stated that OSWALD was attempting to locate a gun, talked of committing some armed robberies, and threatened one of NANCY's customers with a knife when the customer did not pay her. Source said that NANCY and OSWALD left CV intending to hitchhike to Tuscon, Arizona. Source stated that several months later, he again saw NANCY in CV, at which time she stated that OSWALD had not gone to Arizona, but instead went to Dallas. Source stated that sometime in 1963, NANCY was arrested by BAILEY and KENNELLY of the CV PD Vice Squad on a charge of prostitution at the Greyhound Bus Station, CV, and also arrested with her was FRANK REYNOLDS, who was charged with being her pimp. Source stated that he did not know the disposition of NANCY's case, but believed that REYNOLDS was acquitted. Source stated that REYNOLDS is presently incarcerated in the Cuyahoga Co.

Workhouse. Source refused to identify himself, but promised to call back on 1/ /64, so that he could be questioned further, if necessary.

A review of the CV indices shows that a NANCY JANE MC CLAIN, aka Nancy Marlowe, Nancy Ritz, was arrested on 9/25/63, by Officers JAMES KENNELLY and JOHN BARRY of the CV PD on a charge of prostitution, operating at the Cleveland Greyhound Station and also in the vicinity of E. 14 and E. 16 Streets, and Prospect Avenue, CV. (It is noted that the Dakota Hotel, where the anonymous caller said she lived with OSWALD is on E. 18th St., near Prospect Ave.) Also arrested by Officers KENNELLY and BARRY in connection with the investigation of NANCY MC CLAIN was a FRANKLIN REYNOLDS and WILLIAM MARLOWE. NANCY stated that she and MARLOWE had just come to CV, two days ago from Tuscon, Arizona.

NANCY MARLOWE was interviewed by SAs of the CV Office on 9/26/63, at which time she stated that she first met MARLOWE in CV about one year ago and has been living in a common-law relationship with MARLOWE since April, 1963; that she is separated from but not divorced from her husband, EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; that she and MARLOWE had been living together in Phoenix, Arizona, but left there and hitchhiked to CV, arriving separately on 9/21/63 and 9/23/63.

NANCY JANE MC CLAIN is a white female, born 12/2 /41, at Shelby, Michigan. It appears that she is identical with the NANCY who was referred to by the anonymous caller. It is noted that there is no evidence in the CV files to indicate that she was ever in Dallas, the anonymous caller having stated that she knew JACK RUBY in Dallas.

It is not believed that a report in this case is warranted and, unless advised to the contrary by either the Bureau or the Dallas Office, none will be submitted.

It is requested that you promptly locate and interview Nancy Jane McClain, aka Nancy Marlowe, to determine if she does, in fact, have any information pertaining to the captioned subject or Jack Ruby. Even though it appears unlikely that she has such information, this allegation must be run out. Determine if she was ever in DL and, if so, complete details of her visits to that city, her associates, acquaintances, et cetera.

NOTE: An anonymous caller on 12-31-63 advised the CV office that one Nancy who had been arrested by officers of the CV PD on a vice charge at the Greyhound Bus Station during 1963 with one Frank Reynolds was living with Lee Oswald at the Dakota Hotel during early 1963 in CV and knew Jack Ruby in DL, Texas. He alleged that Nancy and Oswald left CV intending to hitch hike to Tuscon, Arizona. Several months later Nancy who was back in CV advised the anonymous caller that subject had gone to DL instead of Arizona. CV believes that Nancy is identical with Nancy Jane McClain who was arrested at the Greyhound Bus Station 9-25-63 on a charge of prostitution. Also arrested with her was Franklin Reynolds and William Marlowe. At that time she said she had come to CV 2 days previously from Tuscon, Arizona. She was interviewed by CV agents 9-26-63 and said that she had met Marlowe in CV about a year ago and had been living with him since April, 196

To Mr. Robert F. Kennedy

Dear Sir:

I ask you to forgive these few bold lines addressed to so distinguished a person.

Mr. Robert, I am a Mexican by race and nationality. Also, Mr. Robert, I am communicating with you because I do not trust anyone in the matter I intend to deal with.

I am referring to the death of your brother. Perhaps, my information may prove quite helpful even though various officials of the United States may be involved and affected by it. I, your servant, am willing to identify them. I will tell you only later; however, with patience. It concerns the plan which I never thought would be carried out.

I used to be a friend of Lee Oswald and, also, of Albert (7), as well as three more people. I knew about the plan, but I never thought that it would turn out to be a true plan.

I lost their friendship because I did not accept to introduce communist propaganda into my Mexico. To be more specific, I separated from them and never saw them again until I found out about the death of the President, your brother.

FRANCISCO ANTONIO GAVARRETTE CARDOVA, Busboy at the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, advised as follows:

He presently resides at 14 East Lewis Street, Las Vegas, Nevada, and he has just recently returned to Las Vegas from a two and one-half month vacation. He, accompanied by his wife and three children, left Las Vegas approximately the middle of September, 1963, in his personally owned automobile for Guatemala, Central America; however, when attempting to enter Mexico at Nogales Arizona, they learned that his wife's Guatemala passport was not up to date. To obtain the necessary stamps on his wife's passport they drove to the Guatemala Embassy, New Orleans, Louisiana, where they also obtained their permit to enter Mexico. They entered Mexico at Roma, Texas, and drove by automobile to Guatemala.

He returned to the United States along just a day or so before President KENNEDY was assassinated. His wife and children continue to reside in Guatemala; however, he will bring them to the Las Vegas area as soon as he can save enough money for their transportation. He sold his personally owned automobile while in Guatemala and returned by train and Greyhound bus.

He does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor does he know of anyone who has been acquainted or associated with OSWALD. He does not at this time belong to any organizations, nor has he ever been a member or sympathizer of the organization known as "Fair Play for Cuba". Previously when in Guatemala he was a member of the anti-Communist group which threw the pro-Communist element out of that country.

He and his wife, MARTHA, are both from Guatemala, and both have relatives in that country. He pointed out that his wife's name on her Guatemala passport is MARTHA SALAZAR GONZALEZ and that to his knowledge his wife did not know OSWALD.

GEORGE HARDING, JR., 2155 Nelson Way, Sparks, Nevada, advised as follows:

He recalls that the organization in Los Angeles, California with which he was associated was named the First Church of Christ Christian or Church of Christ Christian. He first became interested in the organization through his cousin HARRY WILSON who operates the Early American Chair Company, Los Angeles, California.

He does not recall the names of all the individuals he met in this organization but at the time he furnished all of the names in his possession to Special Agents of the FBI in Los Angeles, California. He recalls that the head of the organization was Doctor WESLEY SWIFT. The second in command was a Colonel WILLIAM GALE, an attorney, who was supposed to have been the youngest intelligence officer under General MAC ARTHUR.

This organization in California intended to assassinate three hundred public officials in high positions of the government and industry. Eight men were to be assigned to each of the three hundred victims and not one of the eight would know the other seven, and the mass assassination would take place as simultaneously as possible.

He never did formally join this organization but was given to understand he was "in". He was also told by JAMES SHOUP that he might be tapped for one of the eight men. They led him to believe they were serious and that anything he did was at the risk of his neck and if he did any talking it would mean he would be taken care of and his children by a previous marriage would be harmed.

He had made up his mind to leave Los Angeles, California, and after talking to the FBI in Los Angeles he did not attend any more meetings and attended one private meeting at which time he informed the members of the organization he had a job and would have to leave Los Angeles. He did not tell anyone where he was going and the only person who has his address is his cousin HARRY WILSON.

He came to Reno, Nevada, and obtained a job as a milkman for Model Dairy. He begins work each day at 4:00 A.M.

MISCELLANEOUS

On November 26, 1963, Mr. MONROE N. WEST, Box 373, Needles, California, a Mining Engineer, and his wife personally contacted the Las Vegas Office to advise that on this day while in conversation with Mr. EARL HARVEY, Proprietor of the Service Station at Arrowhead Junction, California, regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY, HARVEY said he had received a letter about three weeks ago from a Doctor JOSEPH JEFFERY (ph), Phoenix, Arizona, saying that President KENNEDY would be assassinated. Mr. WEST was so astounded by the statement he did not look at the letter. WEST said HARVEY is about 76 years old, very religious and eccentric; however, he has known him over five years and HARVEY is not the type of individual to make up stores. WEST said Arrowhead Junction, California, is approximately fifteen miles south of the Nevada-California State line on U.S. Highway 95 and consists only of a service station operated by HARVEY.

JIM STALAKER, employee of the "Las Vegas Sun", a daily Las Vegas newspaper, telephonically advised on November 27, 1963, that he had received a telephone call from an unknown individual who stated he had been in Dallas, Texas, some two weeks before the assassination of President KENNEDY. This individual, according to STALAKER, said OSWALD was a friend of his and that when he first saw OSWALD he looked very afraid. This unknown individual further advised STALAKER that OSWALD had told him that someone was trying to frame him. This individual told STALAKER to pass this information on to the FBI; however, according to STALAKER when he tried to get this individual to identify himself he hung up.

STALAKER advised that in his opinion this individual's voice sounded sober, approximately in his mid-twenties, and that he did not sound like a "nut".

STALAKER also advised he would advise the local FBI should he receive any other telephone calls from this individual or should he learn the identity of the unknown caller

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY
DALLAS, TEXAS

A news article datelined, Dallas, Texas, December 7, 1963, appeared in the Washington Post on December 8, 1963, speculating on the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald in November, 1963, had a telescopic sight mounted on a rifle which was different from the one used in the assassination of President Kennedy. The article also referred to Mrs. Edith Whitworth, who allegedly identified Oswald and his wife as persons who were in her second-hand furniture store in the early part of November and asked Mrs. Whitworth "something pertaining to a gun."

Our investigation has failed to establish any basis to support either of the above allegations and investigation points to the fact that Oswald had only one rifle, which is the rifle definitely identified as the weapon used in the assassination of President Kennedy. Previous stories have appeared in the press, based primarily on rumor and speculations, to the effect that Oswald had a confederate and that a second rifle must have been involved.

The article in the Washington Post of December 8, 1963, refers to the possibility that a gunsmith in Irving, Texas, may have mounted a scope on a rifle for a person named "Oswald" and this weapon was different from the assassination weapon. The gunsmith referred to is Dial D. Ryder, service manager of the Irving Sport Shop in Irving, Texas, who was previously interviewed by the Dallas Office on November 25, 1963, concerning work which he performed for a person using the name of "Oswald" between November 1, and November 14, 1963. Ryder could not positively identify Lee Harvey Oswald as the customer and he was not certain of the type of weapon the scope was mounted on, but he believed it was an Argentine made rifle. Investigation conducted in this case, including interview of Mrs. Oswald, check of available records, has indicated that Oswald had only one rifle and this was the 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano bolt-action rifle used in the assassination of President Kennedy.

The allegation of Mrs. Edith Whitworth referred to in the Washington Post article is not supported by the facts. Mrs. Whitworth alleged that two individuals, whom she believed to be Lee Harvey Oswald and his wife, came into her used-furniture place in Irving, Texas, between 2:30 and 3:00 p.m., on November 6 or 7, 1963, making inquiry about the location of a gun shop. Mrs. Whitworth stated that these persons left in an automobile with a man driving.

Investigation by the Dallas Office has shown that Lee Harvey Oswald was working at the Texas School Book Depository in Dallas at the time these persons were allegedly seen by Mrs. Whitworth. Investigation has further established that Lee Harvey Oswald could not drive an automobile and Mrs. Ruth Paine, landlady of Mrs. Oswald in Irving, Texas, has stated that Mrs. Oswald was definitely at her residence at the time the individuals were allegedly seen by Mrs. Whitworth.

On December 10, 1963, MICHAEL RALPH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, was interviewed concerning his family background. PAINE advised that his mother is Mrs. ARTHUR YOUNG of Paloi, Pennsylvania. His father is GEORGE LYMAN PAINE, Jr. of Los Angeles, California. He has a younger brother named CAMERON PAINE who resides in Baltimore, Maryland.

PAINE advised that in 1941, his mother married GILES THOMAS who died a couple of years later and in 1946, married ARTHUR YOUNG, her present husband.

PAINE stated that his mother and father were divorced when he was four years of age, and he has not resided with his father since that time. PAINE stated that he had no particular filial devotion towards his father, and he did not believe that his father had any particular paternal love for him.

PAINE stated that his father is presently employed as an architect for the Bank of America in Los Angeles, California. III. CONNECTIONS WITH LEE HARVEY OSWALD AND MARINA NIKOLAEVNA OSWALD

On November 22, 1963, MICHAEL PAINE, of 2377 Dalworth, Grand Prairie, Texas, was interviewed at the Dallas Police Department by SA RICHARD E. HARRISON regarding his association with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised as follows:

In approximately the spring of 1963, he and his wife, RUTH HYDE PAINE, from whom he is presently separated, met LEE OSWALD and his wife, MARINA, at a party of a mutual friend, one EVERETT GLOVER, of Dallas, Texas. At that time, his wife, RUTH PAINE, had indicated a desire to meet a Russian person since she was interested in improving her Russian speaking ability. LEE OSWALD and his wife had supper at his residence on a few occasions, and on one occasion he, MICHAEL PAINE, took OSWALD to a meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Dallas, Texas.

PAINE described OSWALD as a mixed up type of person who always took the opposite side of free enterprise in any political discussion.

PAINE advised that in approximately July, 1963, RUTH PAINE took MARINA OSWALD and her children to New Orleans, Louisiana, but in view of numerous quarrels between LEE OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD, MARINA returned to Dallas approximately six weeks previous to November 22, 1963, and moved into the residence of RUTH PAINE in Irving, Texas. PAINE stated that during this time he was separated from his wife but would visit his wife and children in Irving, Texas, on week ends, at which time LEE OSWALD would also be visiting his wife and children. PAINE stated that during these visits, LEE OSWALD was disrespectful to his wife and insulted her frequently. PAINE stated that at the time MARINA OSWALD moved into the residence of RUTH PAINE, they also brought numerous possessions of LEE OSWALD which were placed in the garage attached to the residence of RUTH PAINE. MICHAEL PAINE advised that he recalled two duffel bags and a blanket among these possessions.

MICHAEL PAINE stated he had never seen a rifle or any other weapon in the possession of LEE OSWALD; however, he did recall LEE OSWALD stating that he had been a member of a gun or rifle club when he resided in the Soviet Union.

On November 24, 1963, MICHAEL PAINE was interviewed at the home of his estranged wife, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, by SAs BARDWELL D. ODUM and JOSEPH G. PEGGS, at which time he stated that one time he went into the garage at 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, to obtain some of his property, at which time he moved an object wrapped in a blanket which was the property of LEE OSWALD. He recalled it was about 40" long, and he thought it contained metal tent poles or something similar thereto. MICHAEL PAINE estimated the weight of the object inside of this blanket as approximately seven pounds.

PAINE stated that on one occasion he took LEE OSWALD to a meeting of the ACLU which was held at Southern Methodist University (SMU), Dallas, Texas. This was in October, 1963, exact date not recalled. During this meeting, there was some discussion of alleged anti-Semitism in the John Birch Societies. LEE OSWALD then spoke up and gave what appeared to be logical and appropriate instances of anti-Semitism by the John Birch Society.

On the way home from the meeting, LEE OSWALD asked MICHAEL PAINE the identity of an elderly man who was involved in the discussion with OSWALD. PAINE did not know the name of the individual. Thereupon OSWALD stated the man must be a Communist.

PAINE stated that OSWALD told him that he attended a meeting held in Dallas, Texas, on a night in October, 1963, exact date not recalled. This meeting was held in the Dallas Civic Auditorium and was sponsored by what PAINE presumed to be the John Birch Society. This was a meeting held the night before ADLAI STEVENSON, U. N. Ambassador, appeared in Dallas, Texas, and STEVENSON was later involved in an incident from persons opposed to him.

PAINE stated that in about April, 1963, LEE OSWALD went to New Orleans, Louisiana, to get a job since he had lost his job in Dallas at a photo engraving plant.

MICHAEL RALPH PAINE was interviewed on November 26, 1963, at 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, by SAs BARDWELL D. ODUM and JAMES P. HOSTY, JR., at which time he advised he first met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA OSWALD, on April 2, 1963, when he drove to their apartment at 214 Neeley Street in Dallas and picked them up to drive them back to his house in Irving, Texas, where he, PAINE, and his wife and the OSWALDs ate dinner together. PAINE stated he did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD again until October 4, 1963, when OSWALD visited his wife and children at PAINE's residence in Irving, Texas. He saw OSWALD again on October 18, 1963, and saw him for the last times on November 8, 9, and 10, 1963.

PAINE stated he had several conversations with OSWALD during this time but was unable to converse with Mrs. OSWALD since he does not speak Russian and she does not speak English. PAINE stated he could not recall exactly on which dates OSWALD made certain statements, but he does recall the composite of different conversations with OSWALD. PAINE stated he asked OSWALD why he left the Soviet Union, but OSWALD could never give a satisfactory answer. OSWALD just stated he did not like his job, and he did not like to be told where to live. He stated that in Russia one could not own a rifle, one could only own a shotgun, and he objected to this restriction. OSWALD stated the only way a person in Russia could shoot a rifle was to join a rifle club, which was a paramilitary type club, and he did not like belonging to such a club.

OSWALD stated he became a Marxist in this country and that he learned Marxism from reading books. OSWALD stated he never met a Communist before he went to Russia but did not mention whether he met any Communists in America after returning from Russia.

OSWALD stated that no one where he worked wanted to discuss politics. PAINE asked OSWALD why he wanted to change the system in the United States, and OSWALD stated he did not believe in the exploitation of man by man. PAINE stated that OSWALD was always quoting from MARX and would never depart from this line.

PAINE stated he told OSWALD that he, PAINE, was against violence in any form, but OSWALD did not reply to this. PAINE also stated he was opposed to violent revolution, and again OSWALD did not answer.

PAINE stated that during the visits OSWALD had at his house they also discussed hunting, and OSWALD spent considerable time watching football on television as he was an avid football fan.

George Lyman Paine, Jr., born November 16, 1901, currently residing at 2331 Holgate Square, Los Angeles, California, in the past has been a national leader of the Johnson - Forest Group, an organization cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450. He is currently a member of the Los Angeles Local - Correspondence (LALC) (See Appendix). Frances Drake Paine, wife of George Lyman Paine, Jr., as of February, 1963, was chairman of the LALC.

SECRET

LOS ANGELES LOCAL, CORRESPONDENCE (LALC)

On August 1, 1958, a confidential source advised that as a result of the split within the Johnson-Forest Group (JFG), which occurred in 1955, two factions emerged--the Johnson Faction and the Forest Faction. The Johnson Faction is composed of the followers of C. L. R. JAMES, also known as JAMES JOHNSON, and the Forest Faction is composed of the followers of RAE DUNAYER, also known as FREDDIE FOREST and RAYA DUNAYEVSKAYA. The co-founders of the JFG were C. L. R. JAMES, known as JOHNSON, who was deported from the United States as an undesirable alien in 1953, and RAE DUNAYER, known as FOREST.

On July 8, 1960 [WAYNE CLEVE MATTHEWS and NORMA LEE MATTHEWS,] members of the JFG from 1953 to 1955 and of the LALC from 1955 to 1960, who, from 1953 to 1960, furnished information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, advised that the Johnson Faction of the JFG was commonly known as Correspondence, Correspondence Club, and Correspondence Group and that its headquarters were located in Detroit, Michigan. They further advised that LALC was an affiliate of Correspondence and the "Correspondence" was an official publication of Correspondence.

On December 10, 1962, another confidential source advised that, in early 1962, a split took place within Correspondence as a result of which that organization, as of June, 1962, consisted of the National Headquarters located in Detroit, Michigan, and the LALC. The confidential source further advised that the LALC is a local of and affiliated with Correspondence, that the LALC is in current existence, and that the aims and purposes of the LALC are identical to those of Correspondence.

JFG has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

2. Diaz exiled Cuban newspaperman regarded as reliable by Miami, has stated he was told by a source in Mexico that Oswald on day following his arrival in Mexico together with Sylvia Duran of Cuban Consulate, Mexico City, met in a restaurant on outskirts Mexico City with an official of Cuban Embassy. This allegation was originally reported to White House with embellishment that the Cuban official was the Cuban Ambassador and that Oswald and Ambassador left the restaurant in the Ambassador's car for a conversation under secure conditions. Diaz now says he knows nothing about use of the car and merely refers to the Cuban as an official of the Embassy. He reported the story to Fernandez who in turn passed it along to the source who reported it to White House. Apparently the embellishment was either that of Diaz or Fernandez/

JOHN JOSEPH METCALF, white, 23, unemployed, who had been drinking, on 12/6/63 claimed he could by investigation prove LEE HARVEY OSWALD innocent of assassination of President KENNEDY. He furnished no facts as basis of his claim. Claimed to have talked to OSWALD or "his twin" in Baltimore, Md., sometime between Aug. and Dec., 1962. METCALF has no record with Louisville PD.

DETAILS:

Re: JOHN JOSEPH METCALF

On December 6, 1963, JOHN JOSEPH METCALF, 519 North 26th Street, Louisville, Kentucky, appeared at the Louisville Office and advised SA GEORGE W. HUTCHISON as follows:

He, METCALF, had been drinking. He claimed that he could prove that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was innocent of assassinating President KENNEDY. He was unable to furnish any facts to support this claim and indicated that he thought that he would be able to go to Texas and "get more information quicker that the FBI" and thereby "clear this case" more quickly than the FBI.

METCALF said that he had talked with OSWALD about a year ago in Baltimore in a bar located "two bars from the Gaiety," a strip joint. He indicated that both he and the man he thought to be OSWALD were drunk. He could furnish no details of his conversation with "OSWALD" saying only that they "talked like a couple of drunks." When pressed to be more definite about the time of his claimed conversation with "OSWALD," METCALF indicated that it would have been between August and December, 1962. METCALF indicated that the man he now thought to be OSWALD did not identify himself by name but that he looked like OSWALD. METCALF finally said that the man was either OSWALD or OSWALD's twin brother.

METCALF indicated that he had been stationed in the Army at Fort Meade, Maryland, with the 555th Ordnance Battalion and that he had received a "208 discharge", (undesirable) from the post stockade at Fort Meade on June 24, 1963.

METCALF indicated that he had first furnished this information to an unidentified news reporter in the offices of the Courier-Journal or Louisville Times, Louisville, Kentucky. Thereafter, he went across the street from the newspaper building and talked with someone in a building which, according to METCALF's description of the building, was the Federal Building, Louisville, Kentucky. METCALF was unable to say to whom he had talked on the second occasion but indicated that this individual sent him to the FBI.

The following description was obtained concerning METCALF during the course of the interview:

Full name:	JOHN JOSEPH METCALF
Residence:	519 North 26th Street, Louisville, Kentucky
Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Age:	23
Born:	January 22, 1940, at Louisville, Kentucky
Height:	6'
Weight:	160
Hair:	Brown
Eyes:	Hazel
Scars and Marks:	Heart with initials JM on left upper arm
Military Service:	United States Army April 17, 1961, to June 24, 1963, Serial Number RA 23180706
Marital Status:	Married
Wife:	EILEEN, one child, 519 North 26th Street, Louisville, Kentucky
Mother:	GERTRUDE SOWDER, 628 North 26th Street, Louisville, Kentucky

On December 6, 1963, Special Agent TOM QUICK, Secret Service, Louisville, Kentucky, telephonically advised SAC PAUL H. STODDARD that one JOHN METCALF, 519 North 26th Street, who claimed to have information about OSWALD, had been sent to the FBI Office by QUICK.

On December 6, 1963, Officer ADAM HAAS, Record Bureau, Louisville Police Department, advised he could locate no arrest record identifiable with JOHN JOSEPH METCALF, born January 22, 1940.

A check of the name JOHN JOSEPH METCALF against the indices of the Louisville Office resulted negatively.

We are now in receipt of communications from the Dallas Office requesting minor changes be made in investigative reports previously submitted by Dallas which already have been disseminated to the Commission. Dallas requests are as follows:

1. Report of SA Warren C. Debrueys, 12-2-63, Dallas. That an additional page number be shown opposite a name in the index of the report. This can be done by ink notation in Bureau copies of the report. In view of the minor nature of the change, no action is necessary to correct the reports forwarded to the Commission.

2. Report of SA Warren C. Debrueys, 12-8-63, Dallas. The name Bissle and Bissel on page 216 should be changed to Biffle. Biffle was a reporter for the "Ft. Worth Press" and wrote three stories in 1959 and 1960 when he was in contact with Mrs. Marguerite Oswald while her son was in Russia. The information is nonsubstantive in character and does not materially add to the case. The name should be corrected in the copies of the report maintained at the Bureau. It is not necessary to change the reports forwarded to the Commission.

   Dallas has submitted an amended page 211. The amended page shows the proper person to subpoena in the event Western Union records from Del Rio, Texas, are needed. It is highly unlikely that the particular record would be needed by the Commission since it has no direct pertinence to the Oswald case. Amended pages should be inserted in Bureau copies of the report. No action with the Commission is necessary.

Dallas also has submitted an amended Cover Page H. The amended page shows that the records of Western Union, Del Rio, Texas, were made available by Madlyne Hodge. The amended cover page can be inserted in the Bureau copies of the report. Since the cover pages were not transmitted to the Commission, no action is necessary.

3. Report of SA Robert P. Gemberling, 12-10-63, Dallas. Dallas requests that on page 172 the date 10-24-59 should correctly be shown as 10-24-56. This relates to a selective service record prepared on information furnished by Oswald 9-14-59. Reportedly, Oswald served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 10-24-59 (Dallas says should be 1956) to 11-7-59, when he was honorably discharged. Based on the fact that the information was supplied 9-14-59, both dates 10-24-59 and 11-7-59 are patently incorrect. Oswald actually served in the Marine Corps from 10-24-56 to 9-11-59. The incorrect date indicated by Dallas can be corrected in the Bureau's copies of the report. No action is necessary with respect to the Commission since they have our report which contains the accurate record of his service in the Marine Corps.

Dallas requests that amended page 737 be inserted in report. The amended page shows the identity of the person to be subpoenaed if records of the General Telephone Company, Del Rio, Texas, are needed. The information from the records was negative in character and there appears to be no reason why a subpoena would be necessary.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. SULLIVAN
RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Dallas also requested that we insert amended Cover Page E for this report. The amended page shows the identity of the person who made available records of the General Telephone Company, Del Rio, Texas.

Amended page 737 and Cover Page E can be inserted in Bureau copies of the report. No action is necessary with respect to the reports furnished to the Commission.

ACTION:

This should be referred to the Consolidation Unit of the Files and Communications Division for handling in accordance with the above.

It is obvious that the Agents who dictated the FD-302's reporting results of interviews and investigation are detecting these minor errors such as above. We can expect to have additional amended pages and corrections submitted. Since it has been explained to the Commission that the reports are raw material, we should not take any affirmative action to correct these reports unless it is something of major significance. In the future, we will handle these corrections in line with the above. Any major changes will be the subject of separate memoranda.

This has no effect on procedures in Records Branch. We will continue to make changes of Bureau records only under existing authority. FWW. 12/30/63

Re Dallas teletype 1/3/64.

SA W. L. Collier received retel on 1/3/64. The Dallas Office requested permission to certify on the back of six photographs that the original documents from which the photographs were made appear genuine and there is no evidence of fraudulent change.

The photographs in question are photographs of birth certificates, military discharge papers of the subject, etc., which the U. S. Secret Service advised the Dallas Office are needed by Marina Oswald to make a claim with the Social Security Administration in view of the subject's death.

Since certification that the original documents are genuine cannot be made without genuine similar documents for comparison, at 8:18 PM, 1/3/64, SA Collier called the Dallas Office to clarify this matter and talked to the Duty Agent, SA W. H. Brown.

At 9:00 PM, SA Brown telephoned SA Collier after conferring with SAC Shanklin and SA Wallace Heitman, the agent handling this matter. SA Brown advised that the photographs had been furnished the Dallas Office by the U. S. Secret Service on behalf of Marina Oswald. On the back of each photograph was the stamped impression: "The original document of which this is a photocopy appears to be genuine and unaltered and to have been made at the time purported. Signed_____. Date_____. Title_____."

SA Collier advised SA Brown that Dallas could certify only that the photographs were accurate copies of the original documents furnished to the Bureau.

SA Collier advised Dallas to furnish this information to the U. S. Secret Service and to suggest to the Secret Service that they might take the photographs to the agencies involved and obtain certifications from the appropriate agencies. SA Collier advised that the Laboratory is prepared, if requested, to make an examination of the documents for alterations.

SA Brown stated that Dallas would contact the Secret Service and would advise the Bureau as to further developments.

On 1/6/64, SAC, Shanklin telephoned SA Collier and requested that an examination of the pertinent documents be made for evidence of alterations. If no evidence of alteration was found, Dallas will then certify that each photograph is a true and accurate copy of the original document and that no evidence of alterations were found.

The original documents which are listed as items 434, 344, 173, 447, 425, and 427 in the revised inventory which were forwarded to the Dallas Office by Bulet 12/24/63, have been examined and no evidence of any alterations was found. Dallas has been advised of the results of the examination by teletype of 1/6/64.

ACTION: None. For your information.

Enclosed for recipient offices is copy of self-explanatory Legat, Mexico City, cable number 274 dated 1-7-64.

For information New Orleans, John Howard Bowen is believed to be the person who sat next to Oswald on the Mexican Red Arrow bus on trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City on 9-26/27-63. This person was described by Dr. and Mrs. John McFarland, Liverpool, passengers on bus in question, as being an 80-year-old male, U. S. citizen, who looked in 60's and who lived in Cuernavaca, Mexico, and Tennessee. He told McFarlands that he was retired school teacher who taught in India and Arabia and was currently writing book on Lisbon earthquake of 1775. He is also believed to be identical to a person sitting next to Oswald on the bus in question described by two Australian girls, Patricia Winston and Pamela Bamford, who boarded bus Monterrey, Mexico, evening 9-26-63 en route Mexico City. Girls described this person as Englishman in late 60's, heavy build, gray hair, balding, who was retired and lived in Mexico for many years. En route subject told girls he had lived in Russia and had been to Mexico City previously where he stayed at Hotel Cuba as it was inexpensive. He said he was not stopping at Hotel Cuba this trip. En route the Englishman, believed to be Bowen, opined that subject apparently had been to Mexico City before.

and if he can furnish any information concerning subject's departure from Mexico. Ascertain when and how Bowen left Mexico. Bowen is believed to have resided in Mexico doing missionary work for many years. While it was reported that he intended to travel in late 1963 to several European countries, there is no record of him in State Department files. In view of representations he apparently made to the Netherlands and the Australian girls, bear in mind Bowen may tend toward exaggeration.

Synopsis:

J. B. SCHEIHING, Chula Vista, California, furnished information indicating one "LON" BONNER of Chula Vista, California, made comment in August, 1963, to the effect someone had told BONNER that President KENNEDY, Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY, California Governor EDMUND BROWN and U. S. Supreme Court Chief Justice EARL WARREN "would be wiped out within a year".

DETAILS:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Date December 3, 1963

Mr. J. B. SCHEIHING, Trailer Space F-6, Brentwood Trailer Park, 1100 Industrial Boulevard, advised as follows: Chula Vista, Calif

He is employed as the gardener and caretaker at this trailer park. In August, 1963, he had a conversation with a resident of the trailer park who resides in trailer space F-14; one "LON" BONNER, BONNER is a white male, age approximately 38, who resides here with his widowed mother. BONNER is employed in the Los Angeles, California area.

SCHEIHING does not recall many specific comments made during this August, 1963 conversation but does remember that the gist of it was BONNER said he had been told by someone that President KENNEDY, Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY, California Governor ELMUND BROWN and U. S. Supreme Court Chief Justice EARL WARREN "would be wiped out within a year". SCHEIHING asked BONNER who told him this but BONNER did not say. BONNER's source for this information is not known to SCHEIHING but he, SCHEIHING, somehow got the impression the person who had said this to BONNER may have been a fellow employee.

After President KENNEDY's assassination, SCHEIHING spoke with BONNER and referred to their August, 1963 conversation. Again BONNER's source was not identified but BONNER did repeat the identity of the same four individuals mentioned in August, 1963, that is President KENNEDY, Attorney General KENNEDY, Governor BROWN and Chief Justice WARREN.

BONNER resides at this trailer park on weekends but works in the general Los Angeles area during the week. He is a member of local 11 of some Electrical Workers Union in Los Angeles and his occupation is that of an electrical lineman. Currently, he stays at the Ho Hum Motel, 103 East Coast Highway, Long Beach, California, and is on the payroll of the R. S. Schulman Co. of Imperial Street, Los Angeles. This company is a contractor to the Edison Electric Company and BONNER is employed at the Edison Rio Hondo Substation, Long Beach, California.

Synopsis: Anonymous letter sent Oklahoma City Office, FBI, advised four Latin-appearing men observed in Oklahoma travelling northeast high rate of speed in Cadillac, with Florida license 3WW-2471, on day President KENNEDY assassinated. DETAILS:

On December 24, 1963, the Oklahoma City Office advised they had received an anonymous letter dated December 20, 1963, together with one copy of a newspaper editorial by RUSSELL KIRK, titled "Was There an Assassination Plot?". A copy of this letter, which was signed "Just a Citizen" advised that the writer had clipped the article referred to above, as it made him think that he might have seen a car that could have come from Dallas the day President KENNEDY was killed. The writer stated that he is a delivery man, and makes two or three trips a day from Norman (Oklahoma), and on the day President KENNEDY was killed, he noted a Cadillac pass him at a high rate of speed. He stated the car stopped at a stop light in Moore (Oklahoma), and he drove after the car, obtained the tag number, and noticed the car contained four men, who appeared to be "Latin Americans". He said they had CASTRO type beards. He stated that he could not tell much about the individuals in the front seat, but one appeared to be moving around like he was nervous, and the driver "looked sort of like Dan Durea only he was dark". The letter stated the Cadillac bore Florida license 3WW-2471.

On December 31, 1963, Jacksonville Office reported Florida license 3WW-2471 was registered to a 1961 Cadillac, vehicle identification number 61G-102526, in the name of GERALD G. KOZAK, 10102 Nebraska Avenue, Tampa, Florida, with a lien in favor of General Finance Corporation, 902 Tampa Street, Tampa, Florida, in the amount of $5,448.68, which lien was dated November 14, 1961. There was no stolen report for this automobile.

On January 6, 1964, DIANE FLORES, Tampa Police Department, advised SA WILLIAM C. HAY she was unable to locate any arrest record in the files of this department for GERALD G. KOZAK. On the same date, Mrs. EVELYN GOELITZ, Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office, Tampa, advised SA HAY she was unable to locate any arrest record for KOZAK.

ANGIE MC ELVY, Tampa Credit Bureau, advised SA HAY on January 6, 1964, that the files of this firm contained no record of GERALD G. KOZAK

The 1962 Tampa City Directory lists GERRY KOZAK and wife, EDITH, living at 10102 Nebraska Avenue, Tampa. GERRY KOZAK is listed as a wrestler. The Tampa City Directory for 1963 contains no listing for KOZAK.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
IS - R AND CUBA

Reference is made to the memorandum dated 1/3/64, from Mr. Rosen to Mr. Belmont in the above-captioned matter. Memorandum set forth a statement in an article in the 12/30/63, issue of the "U. S. News and World Report" to the effect that a hole was found in the Presidential car's floor pan which speculation has indicated is a bullet hole. Allegedly this was discovered when the car was sent to Detroit to be "armor-plated." Liaison was requested to check with Secret Service to obtain details concerning the examination of the vehicle and details concerning the alleged "bullet hole" in the floor pan of the car.

On 1/6/64, Liaison Agent Bartlett discussed instant matter with Mr. Robert I. Bouck, Special Agent in Charge, Protective Research Section, U. S. Secret Service. Mr. Bouck said he was familiar with the article in question and that many inaccuracies were contained in this article including the speculation that a bullet hole was found in the car's floor pan. Mr. Bouck advised that this is one writer's opinion and that there is no truth in it. Mr. Bouck said that the car has been thoroughly examined both by the Bureau and the Secret Service and that all data developed by the Secret Service has been furnished to the Bureau.

This proposes that San Francisco (SF) be authorized to afford R. Gallant, an inmate of a California prison farm (forgery conviction) a polygraph examination. Gallant has told a wild story of being the leader of a large underground anti-Castro force in Mexico and says that he met Oswald in Mexico City in July, 1963.

BACKGROUND:

Gallant was formerly an Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution - Forgery fugitive, who was located in Mexico in August, 1963, was deported and was arrested by San Antonio on 8-21-63. He is presently serving a 10-month sentence on the forgery conviction at the Milpitas California Jail Farm. On 12-12-63 he told SF the story that he has been active in the Anti-Castro underground in Mexico for the past 6 years under the name of General Roberto Cortez. He said he had under his command a secret army of 3500 men throughout Mexico and that he had a secret agent whose identity he refused to divulge working in the Cuban Embassy, Mexico City. He said that Lee Oswald went to the Cuban Embassy, Mexico City, on 7-12-63 to obtain a visa to go to Russia via Cuba and that Oswald stayed in Mexico City at that time for about a week. He claims his secret agent pointed out Oswald to him in Mexico City 7-12-63.

Unbeknownst to us (on 12-12-63) Gallant previously on 11-16-63 wrote to the Attorney General (AG) stating that he commanded a force of 92 agents operating in Cuba, Mexico and South America; that he had furnished vital information concerning the communist movement in Latin America to this Government and that he had information concerning the shipment of Cuban arms to Mexico and South America. He asked the AG to attempt to free him from prison so that he could carry on his anti-Cuban work. His 11-16-63 letter to the AG was forwarded to us by the Department on 12-23-63 and we in turn referred it to SF 12-27-63 with instructions that Gallant be thoroughly interviewed concerning his statements to the AG. SF advised on 12-26-63 that Gallant has executed a waiver giving his consent to be interviewed with the polygraph.

OBSERVATIONS

Gallant has an extensive criminal record dating back to 1942 for burglary, forgery and impersonation. His wild stories probably have no basis in fact. We know that Oswald was employed in New Orleans on 7-12-63. It is believed, therefore, advisable to afford Gallant a polygraph examination. If he shows evidences of deception, this may force him to recant his statements.

RECOMMENDATION:

That SF be authorized to proceed with the polygraph examination. Attached is an airtel to SF instructing that Gallant first be questioned concerning his allegations regarding Oswald and that he thereafter be questioned on the polygraph concerning his representations to the AG.

This will supplement previous letterhead memorandum concerning above-captioned individual.

On December 21, 1963, William Ralph McKay, A/B, 3337th School Squadron, U. S. Air Force, Amarillo Air Force Base, Texas, advised he had met Lloyd Wilson while stationed at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

McKay advised Wilson seemed nice and he had noticed nothing about Wilson's behavior or attitude that indicated he was mentally unbalanced or held extraordinary political views.

McKay advised he was not particularly close to Wilson and stated he could furnish no information regarding Wilson's membership in any Nazi group, racial discrimination group, or any radical political views held by Wilson.

McKay advised Wilson had been transferred to an Air Force Base in Illinois and he had not heard from him since his transfer.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On December 26, 1963, James Lawrence Hodge, A/B, 3337th School Squadron, U. S. Air Force, Amarillo Air Force Base, Texas, advised he had met Lloyd Wilson in the U. S. Air Force Recruiting Office at Spokane, Washington, October 31, 1963, and that they had flown from Spokane to Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, together after enlisting.

Hodge advised he and Wilson were in the same barracks and were good friends. Hodge stated he noticed nothing about Wilson's behavior that indicated that he might have been mentally unbalanced, although he had been suspicious of Wilson's comments regarding a Nazi group he (Wilson) said he had started. He further stated that he had written a threatening letter to President Kennedy while a member of this Nazi group.

Hodge stated Wilson had mentioned the fact that he (Wilson) had been involved with a Nazi organization which had had something to do with racial discrimination in the South. Hodge stated Wilson had quoted Nazi slogans and had bragged about reading the book, "Rise and Fall of the Third Reich."

Hodge advised that Wilson had mentioned living in San Francisco, California, and also knowing a wrestler there named Ray (last name unknown), whom he mentioned seeing at the Cow Palace Arena in San Francisco.

Hodge advised he had never heard Wilson mention the name Lee Harvey Oswald or say anything bad against President Kennedy. Hodge stated further that Wilson had mentioned being interviewed by FBI Agents while in the State of Washington due to his membership with the Nazi group.

Hodge advised that about two hours after President Kennedy's assassination, Wilson went to the Commander at Lackland Training School, Major Tate, and told him he had written a threatening letter to the President while he was active in the Nazi racial discrimination group, and felt badly about writing it.

Hodge stated Wilson had been transferred to Chanute Air Force Base, Illinois, and he had not heard from him since the transfer.

POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION REPORT

ROBERT EDMOND GALLANT was given a polygraph examination 1/7/64, at the Santa Clara County Jail by SA DAVID E. TODD. SA C. DARWIN MARRON was present during the examination.

The emotional responses recorded by the polygraph were not the responses of a normal person telling the truth but were indicative of an emotionally unstable individual. GALLANT was vague and rambling in his speech, made general statements unsupported by specific examples and manifested the symptoms of paranoia, namely, fixed suspicions (that all political leaders in Mexico are Communists); and delusions of grandeur (that he is a doctor of electronic engineering, and industrial adviser to a Mexican manufacturer, a general in a secret Mexican army, and an associate of Mexican millionaire).

In view of above, the results of the polygraph examination are inconclusive but it is the opinion of the examiner that GALLANT's allegations that he saw OSWALD in Mexico City in July 1963, and learned OSWALD was attempting to get Cuban and Russian visas are untrue.

LHM follows.

Result of examination:

It was concluded that the questioned handwriting in Q439, which is on a blank sheet which faces the inside back cover, was written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, K4 and K5 in this case. The remaining brief notations in Q439 are too limited for an adequate handwriting examination.

The various isolated words appearing in Q440 are too limited for an adequate comparison with the known writings of OSWALD, K4 and K5. However, some handwriting and hand printing similarities were noted common to the questioned writings in Q440 and the known writings of OSWALD.

No indented writings of significance were noted in Q439 and Q440.

The submitted evidence is retained.

SUBJECT: LEO J. TURCK
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING

At 1:40 a.m., 1/9/64, Midnight Supervisor William E. Assmus received a telephone call from Leo J. Turck, 25 South Street, New York City. Turck stated that he was the man who murdered Surge Rubenstein in New York in 1955. He also claimed to be a buddy of Lee Oswald who assassinated President Kennedy.

Turck asked that he be arrested in connection with his murder of Rubenstein and association with Oswald.

Bufiles disclose that on 9/20/58 Leo Turck telephoned the Bureau from Baltimore and announced that he was the murderer of Surge Rubenstein and wanted to give himself up. This information was furnished the Baltimore Police Department who arrested Turck. Investigation determined that Turck had no connection with the Rubenstein murder case. It was indicated Turck had in the past placed calls to the New York Police Department confessing to different murders as he enjoyed waiting for the police to come to pick him up for questioning. Turck has also alleged he has received shock treatments for psychoneurosis. (66-3182-5167)

The above information together with Turck's background was furnished to Midnight Supervisor William Ahrens, New York Office, with instructions that Turck be located and it be determined if, in fact, he was acquainted with Oswald and is in any way implicated in the assassination of President Kennedy.

THOMAS GERALD WILLIS

On January 6, 1963, captioned individual was arrested by the Del Rio, Texas, Police Department on suspicion of having a stolen car. WILLIS was interviewed by a Special Agent of the FBI, and he advised that he had left East Point, Georgia, about December 20, 1963, after recently being released from the Milledgeville, Georgia, State Mental Hospital and had bought a flag of the United States after arriving in Texas. WILLIS stated he purchased this flag in order to take it and put it on the grave of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, accused assassin of President KENNEDY, as he felt "OSWALD had got a raw deal." WILLIS advised he did not belong to any group and did not have any opinion one way or the other concerning the assassination of the President, but he only felt that OSWALD had not been treated fairly and he felt that his putting a flag of the United States on the grave of OSWALD would be of some consolation to the wife of OSWALD.

WILLIS indicated that he planned to travel to Los Angeles, California, and would return to his home in East Point, Georgia, after several months there.

A description of WILLIS based on interview and observation is as follows:

Name:	THOMAS GERALD WILLIS

vice to the Nation over the years.

However, I'm like so many Americans in that I write only when I gripe. The report that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald was solely responsible for the assassination of President Kennedy seems not to consider the pattern of the man and his activities.

Oswald, a penurious man, was not the kind who would pay out of his own pocket the purchase price of the high powered rifle with which he attempted to kill General Walker and with which he did assassinate the President. It is not unreasonable to feel that some person or group who hated President Kennedy and the General put up the money for that weapon.

Since Oswald could not drive a car, one or more persons must have driven him to General Walker's home. He certainly never walked through the streets of Dallas that night nor rode public transportation carrying a high powered rifle. Oswald was not alone in that attempted murder.

Oswald next tried to infiltrate a militant anti-Castro Cuban group in New Orleans. His Communist profession and associations would indicate that this was not an act likely to be taken without Communists to whom he could pass information.

Oswald, a few days later, was discovered passing out Fairplay for Cuba pamphlets. Other activities, all in the interest of Castro, show Oswald to be dedicated to their cause and to have established himself with them.

Oswald next went into Mexico, which we are told is a staging area for Castro's terrorists to North and Latin America. This man, with already established relations with Castroites in the United States did not spend four or five days in Mexico merely going to Cuban and Soviet embassies looking for visas.

EX-103 REC-23 105-82555-1299

Oswald, upon his return to the United States, was on two occasions observed at a firing range outside Dallas, to be hitting bullseyes and grouping his shots in small bunches. This indicates a lot more practice with his rifle for you do not hit bullseyes without a lot of practice.

JAN 10 1964

There is a pattern there and it indicates that Oswald could not be alone in his atttempt to kill General Walker and in his assassination of President Kennedy.

Yours very truly,

Patrick J. Hennessy

On December 31, 1963, Mr. MELVIN R. KURR, 838 Woodbine, Oak Park, Illinois, advised complaint clerk, RANDALL L. SWAN, of the following:

While watching a television rerun of the assassination of President KENNEDY on NBC, KURR and his wife believed they saw a man in the window of the building in the background of the picture. This man appeared to be firing a rifle and in the opinion of KURR, fired, worked the bolt of the rifle and fired again. After the second shot, the man threw the rifle to the side and stood up. Mr. KURR advised that both he and his wife believed this man had been wearing a suit and tie and was not dressed in the manner that OSWALD was dressed. "Dear Sir:

"I am writing in regard to the newsreel taken at the time of President Kennedy's assassination. To clarify -- the film that was kept running as your reporter jumped out of his car, part of the motorcade, and ran towards the President's car.

"Shown on this newsreel is a view of a building, presumably the Texas School Book Depository, from which the shots were fired. On the upper right-hand corner of this film I believe I saw a man fire a weapon, reload and fire again, then throw the weapon to the side and at the same time stand up, look out of the window and then leave.

"If this was the case I would very much like to know (1) Why was this picture not blown up and printed in the newspapers?

(2) Why out of the millions of viewers, who saw the same film, no-one questioned who this man was?

(3) Could it be my imagination and if so why then did I see him work the bolt of the weapon when at this time it was unknown by the public that a bolt-operated weapon was used.

"As to it being my imagination, I should add that my wife also remembers seeing a man at the window of said building; but assumed if she saw it then it did not go unnoticed by all other viewers.

Chief OTTO ALBUSCHAT, Villa Park, Police Department, Villa Park, Illinois, furnished the following information:

B. Appx 1928

One BOB NEWTON, who formerly resided at 510 Monterey Street, Villa Park, Illinois, and who was employed by Sears, Roebuck Company, Chicago, Illinois, was transferred to Dallas, Texas, by the Sears, Roebuck Company in October, 1963, to the best of his knowledge, NEWTON currently resides on Camelot Street, in Dallas and is employed as a Regional Manager with Sears Roebuck Company in Dallas.

On or about December 23, 1963, NEWTON returned to Villa Park, Illinois, for a visit with friends at which time he (ALBUSCHAT) engaged in a casual conversation with NEWTON. During the above conversation the incident pertaining to the assassination of President KENNEDY arose at which time NEWTON informed Chief ALBUSCHAT that his neighbor in Dallas, Texas, whom he did not identify informed that she had a brother who was the owner of a Lincoln - Mercury Dealership in Dallas. NEWTON further informed that this neighbor told him that her brother informed her that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had purchased a 1963 Lincoln automobile and was to pick up this car on November 22, 1963, the date of the assassination of President KENNEDY. NEWTON informed him that there is a Lincoln - Mercury Dealership located in Dallas, Texas, near the theatre where OSWALD was apprehended subsequent to the assassination of President KENNEDY. Chief ALBUSCHAT added that NEWTON is a long-time acquaintance and described him as a white male, approximately 35 years of age, married and he considered him to be a reliable person of good reputation.

STAN WHITE, 466 Vallette Street, Elmhurst, Illinois, furnished the following information:

He currently is employed as a District Sales Manager for the General Electric Company, 3800 North Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. He advised that from 1954 to May, 1957, he and EDDIE BRACKEN, television, radio and screen star, were partners in a company called Stan White, Incorporated, 725 South La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois, which company was concerned with selling various types of hi-fi equipment. His business venture with BRACKEN was terminated in 1957 as a result of a disagreement with BRACKEN of how the business should be operated and due to BRACKEN's disapproval of bringing other individuals into the firm. His disagreement with BRACKEN lasted approximately one and one-half years; however, they are now "cordial" and they occasionally mix socially. BRACKEN currently has a daily radio interview program in New York and he has tentative plans to build a recording studio in the New York area.

ILL. D.Y.

On or about November 24, 1963, BRACKEN called him regarding his intentions to secure him (WHITE) to assist in designing the above mentioned studio. During the above conversation, the incident concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY came up and BRACKEN expressed "abhorrent" at the incident and of course appeared to be very saddened and emotionally disturbed. He cannot recall BRACKEN's condition but in essence he said "it was not an isolated thing. That sort of thing exists in the minds of a group on the West Coast." He further mentioned that this group "has mentioned or spoken of a revolution and has unlimited financial support." BRACKEN did not identify the group to which he was referring and he, WHITE, did not ask to what group BRACKEN might be referring. There were other brief comments that he could not recall but it was his opinion that there was no additional exchange of conversation concerning the "group" which BRACKEN mentioned.

From his association with BRACKEN, he observed him to be a "rather conservative individual" and one who was not strongly politically for any party or on any subject. In reference to the financial aid reportedly received by BRACKEN, BRACKEN did not leave him with the impression that this financial aid might be coming from the "group" which he referred to as being located on the West Coast. It was his impression that the financial aid that BRACKEN would receive would come from the other investors or interested parties who would go into the business venture with BRACKEN in building the recording studio in New York. He was not aware of the identities of these persons who might be involved in this venture with BRACKEN but he was certain that BRACKEN could not go into this venture by himself due to the apparent amount of finances needed. He was not aware that any persons associated with BRACKEN were anything other than legitimate businessmen.

However, upon closer inspection, he noted that the shoulder piece did not slide on the strap and was not adjustable, as on all other guitar straps he had seen. Also, it had a large number of holes in the bottom or end piece of the strap that are not on regular straps.

Mr. RUKOVITS concluded that the strap may not be a guitar strap, or only a part of a guitar strap, or perhaps it is a strap made in another country.

Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, was contacted on January 6, 1964, in order to ascertain some addresses of Lee Harvey Oswald during 1944-1946.

Mrs. Oswald advised that she was not cooperating with the FBI, or the Secret Service, any longer, as conversation with the FBI and Secret Service was "one sided". Mrs. Oswald said that she has cooperated to the best of her ability and told everything; however, that she has not been told anything.

Mrs. Oswald said, specifically, that at the present time, she is very angry because the FBI and the Secret Service will not let her see her daughter-in-law, Marina Oswald, and her two grandchildren. Mrs. Oswald was advised that the FBI had absolutely nothing to do with her contacting her daughter-in-law and in no way was preventing her from seeing her daughter-in-law.

Mrs. Oswald said that she had contacted her daughter-in-law's attorney and business manager and that she was told that the daughter-in-law and grandchildren were fine and in good health, but each person said that they "were unable to divulge where she was living". Mrs. Oswald said that she was "fed up" with all the government, as everybody is against her.

Mrs. Oswald said further that every day she goes to a different place to eat in Fort Worth, so that people can see her and know her as she wants to be seen and she wants to be known. However, Mrs. Oswald said that she returns promptly to her home at 11 A.M. in order that she may be there to receive her mail. Mrs. Oswald said after exposing herself to as many people as she can by eating out and being seen in Fort Worth, that since November 22, 1963, she has not had one visitor in her home with the exception of law enforcement officers and reporters.

Mrs. Oswald stated that she does not desire to talk to "ordinary" agents in Fort Worth, or Dallas, from the Secret Service or the FBI, and that she now wants to talk only to high officials in Washington, D.C. Mrs. Oswald said the only way she could help at this particular time would be to be taken personally by airplane to Washington, D.C., this date, as her baggage was already packed and would go if taken.

Mrs. Oswald stated that she believes her son, Lee Harvey Oswald, was sent to Russia by the Central Intelligence Agency, or some Government agency, at the time he defected, or "was sent". When questioned about this, Mrs. Oswald stated she was unable to furnish any facts, but that she had the "big picture" in her head and could only relate it to a person if "they would take time to sit down and listen". Mrs. Oswald was advised that the interviewing Agents were willing to take any information that she had at this time, but Mrs. Oswald refused to divulge, or to give, any further information.

Mrs. Oswald said she believes her son is the "goat and fall guy" for high officials of Government. She said she did not have any facts to back up such a claim and again said she had all the facts in her head. Mrs. Oswald said she had a lot of information in her head, but would only talk to high officials in Washington.

Mrs. Oswald said at one time, just after November 22, 1963, that the FBI, or Secret Service, broke into her home to get her papers. Mrs. Oswald was advised that at no time did the FBI ever break into her home or take any papers from her home.

Mrs. Oswald said further that she is now unable to even mail letters out of Fort Worth, as she is sure someone always opens her mail. Mrs. Oswald said that she had written in the past to a certain person in the State Department, name not mentioned, and he apparently received the letters. However, she said she has just received a letter returned to her, mailed recently to this person, and was marked, "Return for better address".

Mrs. Oswald said further that "everyone is against" her. She said that the newspapers' accounts of information concerning her son and his truancy in New York City was incorrect.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

She said further that they quoted in the newspapers that her son was a truant for 45 or 46 days, at which time she knew that he was in a home in New York, after being put there by a Judge.

Mrs. Oswald said she had called a press conference in Fort Worth some weeks past, and that the newspapers did not print everything she said and printed only what they wanted to print.

Mrs. Oswald stated that she is willing to take all information she possesses and give it to the proper authorities, but insisted on going to Washington and seeing "higher officials".

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Airmail letter dated on December 9, 1963, addressed to Miss Dinah R. Rosenblatt, 853 Fillmore Avenue, Buffalo 12, New York, U. S. A., from:

Marticeva 10/II
Zagreb I
Yugoslavia.

Zagreb, December 9, 1963

Dear Miss Rosenblatt:

I am worried because you have not written for such a long time. Are you all right?

I received your last letter dated July 29, 1963. I wrote to you at the beginning of September and at the end of October. At the end of November I wrote to you on the occasion of the terrible tragedy concerning President Kennedy.

On October 25, I received from you "The Week Evening News," section 5 (sic), September 7, 1963, for which I thank you very much.

At the beginning of December I sent you a set of four little napkins in popular design as a registered letter and I hope that you will receive it.

The murder of President Kennedy has made a deep impression upon our people and I cannot recall that anyone was ever mourned so much. Here, such a thing could not have happened; for everyone knows that an accused person is transported from one prison into another only at night and not in the daytime and with the knowledge of the public. I do not believe that Oswald was the only guilty person, but that an organized group had the President murdered.

At the beginning of December I sent you a publication which also showed your now deceased President and our President together.

Miss DINAH ROSENBLATT, 853 Fillmore Ave., Buffalo, N.Y., appeared at the Buffalo Office on 12/27/63 and was interviewed by Security Supervisor GEORGE J. VOPAL, after she had initially telephonically conversed with SA FRANCIS D. CONNERS of this Office. Briefly, Miss ROSENBLATT was prompted in coming to this Office after reading an article in the 12/26/63 "Buffalo Evening News", which stated in effect that, according to many persons in Mexico, the assassination of the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY was a conspiracy on the part of persons or organizations unknown, rather than an individual matter perpetrated by LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Miss ROSENBLATT pointed out that she has been in correspondence with captioned individual for seven or eight years, but has never known or seen him personally. She said several years ago at the urging of former President EISENHOWER, she submitted her name to Letters Abroad, New York City, as an individual who would be willing to correspond with persons in foreign countries. She was subsequently given the name of captioned individual to whom she could correspond, and the correspondence has continued regularly since that time. She said she has never engaged in any political discussions with him in their correspondence, and has never inquired into his personal life. From her correspondence she surmises that subject is perhaps 50 years of age, and evidently has no family, meaning he is single. She pointed out that once he sent her a photograph of an apartment building where he lives, and mentioned that he has one room in which he resides.

Miss ROSENBLATT surmises that he must be some official with the Yugoslavian Government, and perhaps some superintendent or director of insurance. She said he drives an automobile and travels considerably outside of Yugoslavia. In his travels she has received cards from him from such areas as Syria, Lebanon, North Africa, Spain or Portugal, and many other countries. She said that initially his correspondence to her was typically European, in that he would "needle" her concerning, for example, criticism of American educational system, the superiority of the Soviet space accomplishments initially, etc. She pointed out, however, that he has been a perfect gentleman in all his correspondence, and that he is evidently a well-educated individual. She said in recent years he has changed completely and has complimented American accomplishments in space, and has expressed amazement at the evident technical knowledge on the part of people in the United States.

She said that periodically they send each other newspapers, books, or some articles, most of which Miss ROSENBLATT would have reason to question. She said, for example, he one time requested that Miss ROSENBLATT obtain for him a copy of the controversial BORIS PASTERNAK book. He has sent books and periodicals, primarily because there were no duties imposed by his government on such articles. She said none of the material sent by him has contained propaganda nor any reference to political, religious, or social differences.

At one time subject inquired as to the possibility of his coming to the United States for a visit. Miss ROSENBLATT suggested that he first proceed to the American Embassy in Yugoslavia, and if arrangements could be made she would assist in whichever way it would be possible for her to do in this country. Miss ROSENBLATT contemplates traveling to Israel within the next few years, and subject has invited her to visit him first in Yugoslavia, and even suggesting that possibly he might accompany her to Israel thereafter.

In a letter from subject dated 12/9/63, subject expresses his deep concern over the assassination of President KENNEDY and expresses his opinion that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was not alone in the assassination of the President but that it was rather an undertaking by others in concert with OSWALD. This letter is written in the German language, Miss ROSENBLATT pointing out that to improve his English, she corresponds in English, and to improve her German, he corresponds in German, although he does write short notes in the English language.

Miss ROSENBLATT has all correspondence received from subject since she initiated correspondence with him several years ago. She also has copies of all correspondence she has written to him during this period, with the exception of correspondence written to him from a hospital bed approximately one year ago when Miss ROSENBLATT was hospitalized with a broken hip. She said she would willingly make all this material available to this Office if desired by the FBI. She pointed out that she has no doubts or reservations in her mind about subject himself, but was prompted in coming to the Office solely because of his expressed opinion that perhaps the assassination of President KENNEDY was accomplished by more than one individual. She pointed out that she thoroughly enjoys her correspondence with subject, and has learned a great deal about Europe and the Near East through this correspondence. Miss ROSENBLATT mentioned, also, that after her accident, for example, subject has expressed a great deal of concern as to her health.

Subject's address is Zagreb I, Yugoslavia, Jurisiceva 10/II.

Buffalo files reveal that Miss ROSENBLATT has been the complainant in other matters in the past. Background data concerning Miss ROSENBLATT is set forth in Buffalo letter and letterhead memorandum to the Bureau, dated 8/2/63 in case entitled

We determined Villanueva claimed to be a friend of Oswald and several other individuals in Mexico, who were involved in a plot to introduce communist propaganda into Mexico. We interviewed Villanueva and he indicated he met Oswald in Mexico on two different occasions during 1962 and that Oswald himself and three Cubans discussed introduction of Cuban propaganda into Mexico. He also alleged that Oswald reportedly had laid plans to eliminate President Kennedy. FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Secret Service Agent GEORGE WEISHEIT accompanied SA THOMAS B. WHITE, JR. in connection with an interview of RICHARD CASE NAGELL in the El Paso County Jail. This interview was conducted in response to a request made by NAGELL to be interviewed by a Secret Service Agent.

Secret Service Agent WEISHEIT was introduced to NAGELL who attempted an interview with NAGELL, however, NAGELL stated that the information he originally desired to report to the Secret Service was "too late now."

At the conclusion of the short interview with NAGELL, he advised that he had been acquainted with MARINA, Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD's wife, and pointed out that OSWALD was having marital difficulties with MARINA. He pointed out that he knew "certain things" in the Fort Worth-Dallas area. He wanted to let the Secret Service know that someone like OSWALD was in that area, however, he knew nothing of OSWALD's intention to assassinate the President. He stated that the requests made by prisoners in the El Paso County Jail for interviews were at times honored and at other times they were not.

"El Paso, Texas

"I, Richard Case Nagell, do hereby make the following free and voluntary statement to Edward Joseph Murphy and George E. Aiken, who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. They have advised me that the information furnished herein may be used in court. No threats, promises or force of any kind was used to get me to make this statement.

"I was born in Greenwich, N.Y. on August 5, 1930.

"I was arrested on September 20, 1963, in El Paso, Texas. On September 21, 1963, I was arraigned before the United States Commissioner in El Paso, Texas, on a charge of bank robbery, at which time I entered a plea of not guilty and was bound over for indictment by the Federal Grand Jury. Bail was set at $25,000. On September 21, 1963 I was incarcerated in the El Paso County jail, where I since have been and am presently confined.

"On September 24, 1963, the United States District Court ordered that I be given a psychiatric examination to determine my mental competency to stand trial, and that if determined necessary by the examining psychiatrist, to conduct such examination, to be committed to the Federal Correctional Institution, La Tuna, Texas, for a period not exceding two weeks.

"On November 4, 1963, the court nullified that part of the aforesaid order, pertaining to the committment, and re-ordered that I be committed to Beaumont Army Hospital, El Paso, Texas, for said psychiatric examination.

"On September 24, 1963 and again on November 4, 1963, the U.S. District Court ordered that further prosecutive action against me, be deferred until such time as the Court is in receipt of the results of said psychiatric examination.

"As of this date I have not received the aforementioned psychiatric examination nor have I been committed to either of the aforementioned institutions for such examination, nor have I been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury.

"I believe that an unnecessary and undue delay has occurred in bringing me to trial, as a result of my reluctance to participate in a psychiatric consultation and/or examination. I believe that this is a violation of my right to a speedy trial as guaranteed to me by Amendment 6 of the Constitution.

"In relation to the foregoing statement, I believe that I, as an accused person, am not required by law to emit any statement or to answer any questions, whatsoever, to any person, whomsoever, including a psychiatrist, psychologist, or physiologist, nor that I am required by law to participate in any examination, test or activity, verbal, written or otherwise, if I do not so elect. To be coerced to do so, is a violation of my rights under Amendment 5 of the Constitution.

"An attempt has been made to indirectly coerce me to incriminate myself, by a court appointed psychiatrist known to me as Doctor Bennett, in that he queried me as to my motive for committing the alleged offense and stated to me that if I did not give him such information, I was being uncooperative, and that I might have to be sent to Springfield Medical Center, if I did not cooperate with him.

"I further believe that I am being coerced into taking a psychiatric examination and/or consultation by the resulting undue delay in bringing me to trial.

"I have read this statement consisting of this and 3 other pages, and it is true and correct.

Bureau copies have been so handled. Bureau felt above statement tends to clarify Nagell's relationship with captioned matter and this should help resolve possible inquiry from the Presidential Commission.

Re Los Angeles airtel to Director and Dallas 12-18-63.

A search of the Dallas indices has failed to develop any information which would indicate that the persons mentioned in reairtel might be connected with captioned case, and further that telephone number ME. 1-2509 was connected on 8-31-63 and is currently listed to the following: SHIRLEY ROCK, NANCY SANDERS, BERNICE RINGLE, SUSAN THOMPSON, whose residence is located at 2424 Inwood Road, Apt. 146, Dallas, Texas.

SA ROBERT LISH of the Dallas Office advised that telephone company officials state all prior records to 8-31-63 concerning prior assignment of number ME. 1-2509, have been destroyed.

A search of directories and sources available to the Dallas Office was made with negative results concerning BERTHA SHAW, 121 West Rosslyn Avenue, telephone number LA. 6-5052. It is noted that there is no such street in Dallas or its suburbs as West Rosslyn.

Inasmuch as no connection has been established between the names in referenced airtel and the OSWALD case, no further action is being taken by the Dallas Office.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Lee:

In accordance with your request of Inspector J. R. Malley on December 17, 1963, we have obtained copies of income tax returns filed by Lee Harvey Oswald; his mother, Marguerite C. Oswald; and his brother, Robert L. Oswald, for the period 1956 through 1962.

Enclosed are Photostats of returns filed by Lee Harvey Oswald for the years 1956, 1958 and 1962. It should be noted that attached to the latest return are a letter by Oswald and a copy of a statement of earnings from the Leslie Welding Company, Inc. The Internal Revenue Service has advised that Lee Harvey Oswald also filed an income tax return for 1955 which has been destroyed but records indicate that he received a refund of $41.80.

Also enclosed are Photostats of income tax returns filed by Marguerite C. Oswald for the years 1956 through 1962 and Photostats of tax returns filed by Robert L. Oswald for the same period together with Photostats of pertinent communications and attachments to the returns.

The enclosed material was obtained through liaison arrangements with the Internal Revenue Service and it is suggested that you contact the Internal Revenue Service in the event it is desired to publicize this material in the future.

inquiry abroad to have those individuals outside the U.S. interviewed. Bureau will also set out lead for Kansas City to interview Herbert Voorhees.

SA endeavor to locate and interview Agapito Del Rio. Also endeavor at Nuevo Laredo to develop further identifying data re Elena S. DeCoronado and Berta Alicia Ramos (page seven of incoming). In connection with the bus manifest enclosed herewith, SA endeavor to ascertain if any of the individuals on this manifest destined for Laredo left Mexico at Nuevo Laredo 10-3-63. If so determined and if identifying data is available, set forth leads to have such individuals interviewed for purpose of ascertaining if they can throw any light on the travel of Oswald on the morning of 10-3-63.

Legat, Mexico City, refer to the nine pages of the register of the Hotel Del Comercio. Note in this connection that during Oswald's entire stay at the hotel in Room 18, one Rodolfo Rodriges of Chihuahua, Mexico, resided in Room 17. Endeavor to identify this individual and, if possible, to interview him for info re Oswald's activities in Mexico City and particularly at the hotel. Ascertain through hotel employees if other individuals who resided at the hotel during Oswald's stay there are known to such officials and if they can be readily located for interview. If so determined, arrange for interview.

NOTE: The eight individuals we are interested in interviewing are people who were checked out of Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 10/3/63 by the Immigration Inspector who worked the midnight to 8 a. m. shift. It was this man who checked Oswald out of Mexico. Some of these peo may have information concerning Oswald leaving Mexico and it is poss if they were traveling by car that he may have obtained a ride with i route to Dallas where he arrived on evening of 10/3/63. We do no know how he got from Laredo to Dallas. Persons identified by name i this airtel are among the eight. Rodriges is the obvious exception.

States several persons in attendance at party wondered how OSWALD was able to leave Russia with his Russian wife to come to the United States without any difficulty. States thought arose in her mind that since Russian people had not apparently accepted OSWALD, that he had been given an assignment in the U. S. by the Russian government so that when he returned he would be accepted. She stated, however, after further consideration of OSWALD, she finally decided he was a mental case. GEORGE BOUHE, who also attended party, stated he did not feel OSWALD was Russian Agent nor did he feel any other Russian speaking guests at the party felt OSWALD was Russian agent, but that they felt OSWALD was "crazy". ROBERT MAC NEIL, National Broadcasting Company (NBC) News Correspondent, on evening of November 30, 1963, furnished the following typewritten statement, signed by him, to Special Agents GERALD V. CASWELL and JAMES J. ROGERS as these agents were leaving NBC offices, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, Manhattan, New York.

"Just before the shooting of the President in Dallas on November 22, I was riding in the first press bus of the motorcade, some seven or eight cars behind the president. On hearing the shots I got out of the bus immediately and followed some police officers who were running up the grass slope to the right of the road on which the President was shot. We climbed a fence and I followed the police who appeared to be chasing someone, or under the impression they were chasing someone, across the railroad tracks. Wanting to phone news of the shooting, I left there and went to the nearest place that looked like an office. It was the Texas School Book Depository. I believe I entered the front door about four minutes after the shooting. I went immediately into the clear space on the ground floor and asked where there was a phone. There were, as I recall, three men there, all I think in shirt sleeves. What, on recollection, strikes me as possibly significant is that all three seemed to be exceedingly calm and relaxed, compared to the pandemonium which existed right outside their front door. I did not pay attention to this at the time. I asked the first man I saw-- a man who was telephoning ffom a phone by a pillar in the middle of the room.--where I could call from. He directed me to another man nearer the door, who pointed to an office. When I got to the phone, two of the lines were already lit up. I made my call and left. I do not believe any police officers entered the building before me or until I left. I was in too much of a hurry to remember what the three men there looked like. But their manner was very relaxed. My New York news desk has since placed the time of my call at 12:36 Dallas time

Mrs. RUTH M. SMITH, 5315 Tremont, Dallas, Texas, who is employed as a field worker in the Public Welfare Department, furnished the following information:

MRS. CHARLES SMITH RUTH MARSHALL SMITH

On the morning of November 22, 1963, she was on the second floor balcony of the old red courthouse located on Main Street, Dallas, Texas. She noted that the Texas School Book Depository is not visible from this balcony as the corner of the courthouse obstructs the view.

She had been there approximately thirty minutes when the motorcade of President KENNEDY passed turning right on Houston Street shortly thereafter. The President's car passed out of her vision when it turned right on Houston Street but came back into sight after turning onto Elm Street.

After the motorcade had passed, she was watching a newsman on Main Street in front of the balcony when she heard what she felt was a shot. She stated there was a pause then two more shots fairly close together. At this time people seemed to panic and were dashing in all directions. She looked back toward President KENNEDY's car after the first shot and thinks he raised his hands to his face. The car seemed to slow or perhaps stop after the first shot and then just after the third shot a Secret Service man from the second car ran up to the rear of the President's car and threw himself into the rear seat. The car immediately sped away.

Mrs. SMITH stated there were a number of people on the balcony, but the only one she could recall specifically was MARVIN C. GAGE who is employed in the Public Welfare Department. She said most of the people on the balcony did not realize President KENNEDY had been shot thinking that the shots were fireworks or that the Secret Service had shot someone in the crowd.

Mrs. SMITH stated she had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and did not know either OSWALD or JACK RUBY and knew of no association between them.

MARVIN C. GAGE, 8319 Banque, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is employed as a Supervisor in the State Welfare Department, Old Courthouse Building, Dallas, Texas, and on November 22, 1963, was watching out the window of the second floor of that building. You cannot see the Texas School Book Depository Building from this window as the courthouse obstructs the view. He advised he heard the three shots, but did not know what they were, and thought they were fireworks or backfires, and did not realize the President had been shot. He was actually watching the motorcade as it came down Main Street and could not see it after it turned on to Houston Street.

GAGE advised he did not know of anyone who actually saw the President shot, nor did he know of anyone who had seen OSWALD.

He advised he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, JACK RUBY, nor did he know of any association between them.

FRED LEETH, 1304 Arbor Vita, was interviewed at his residence, at which time he was advised of the identity of the interviewers as Special Agents of the FBI. Mr. LEETH was questioned as to where he was working on November 22, 1963, whereupon he furnished the following information:

LEETH was working on an airconditioning job in the vicinity of Inwood and Lemmon Streets, Dallas, Texas, in connection with a building project on a large drive-in. At no time during the day, on November 22, 1963, did LEETH have occasion to drive to the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building, and on that date he had no occasion to drop anyone off in the vicinity of the TSBD. He stated that his truck was with him during the day of November 22, 1963, and there would be no possibility that his truck would have been near the TSBD.

Mr. LEETH denied driving a man to the TSBD in his truck and letting a man out of the truck on November 22, 1963. He also denied having any knowledge of anyone driving a pickup truck with the word airconditioning on the side in, or around, the vicinity of the TSBD on November 22, 1963.

It was noted that the word airconditioning was on the side of the truck in black letters; however, the letters were not in the shape of a crescent.

Mr. LEETH noted that the intersection of Beckley and Brookhaven Streets is in the close proximity of his residence.

POWELL, Special Agent, Region II, 112th INTC, Army Intelligence Corps, 912 Rio Grande Building, advised that on November 22, 1963 he had taken a photograph of the Texas School Book Depository and later turned this photograph in the form of a Kodachrome transparency over to Lieutenant Colonel E. E. BOYD, Region II, Army Intelligence Corps, Dallas.

Mr. POWELL stated that the Kodachrome transparency was obtained from a photograph of the Texas School Book Depository building which was taken, to his best estimate, approximately 30 seconds following the shots fired at President KENNEDY. POWELL was approximately one-half block east of the intersection of Elm and Houston, and the Presidential Motorcade had already turned west on Elm, when he heard the shots fired at President KENNEDY. He then ran to the southeast corner of the Elm and Houston Street intersection and, seeing some people pointing to the Texas School Book Depository building, he took the picture. To his best recollection, this picture was taken at 1/25th of a second at F-11 with his Minolta 35 mm camera, set at infinity. POWELL believes the film used was Kodachrome X with ASA ~~setting~~ rating of 64. He had the film processed at the Cardinal Card and Camera Store, Dallas, Texas. POWELL stated that he took the picture from across the street in a diagonal direction from the Texas School Book Depository, and estimated the distance as approximately 100 feet.

POWELL stated that upon development, the film disclosed the Texas School Book Depository, and on about the fifth floor, a Negro male was observed in one of the windows. POWELL stated that he could not see anything otherwise significant in this picture.

POWELL stated that he recalls having heard two shots fired and possibly a third. He recalls having questioned a man in the vicinity of the entrance of the Texas School Book Depository, however, he did not obtain the man's identity inasmuch as the Dallas Police Department immediately took the man under control for questioning. POWELL believes this man was a beer company employee.

Date 12/20/63

WILLIAM J. HONEA, Route 2, Box 442, Irving, Texas, was advised of the identity of the interviewers as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Mr. HONEA furnished the following information:

On the afternoon of Sunday, December 1, 1963, HONEA was driving his Jeep exploring the area near a high tension electrical tower southeast of Texas Highway 183 above a bend in the Elm fork of the Trinity River. He found two cardboard ammunition boxes marked Italian 6.5 near the high tension electrical tower on the ground.

Mr. HONEA stated he subsequently turned the ammunition boxes over to the Dallas County Sheriff's Office in view of having read of the type of ammunition used in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

Mr. HONEA accompanied interviewing Agents to the vicinity of a high tension electrical tower southeast of Texas Highway 183 above a bend in the Elm fork of the Trinity River and indicated the area where he had found the ammunition boxes. The area is a relatively flat rise of land overlooking the bend of the Elm fork. The opposite banks of the Elm fork, approximately one-fourth mile away, are eroding; and there is no visible indication that ammunition has been fired into any area of the banks of the Elm fork.

A search of the area indicated by Mr. HONEA by the interviewing Agents revealed no spent ammunition or ejected rifle shells or other material of an evidentiary nature.

Mr. HONEA stated that from time to time in the past he has noted that individuals have fired rifles in the vicinity of the Elm fork of the Trinity River diversionary channel below the John W. Carpenter Freeway. Mr. HONEA accompanied interviewing

On December 12, 1963, Chief M. W. STEPHENSON, Dallas Police Department, TEXAS supplied the following information to SA EMORY E. HORTON:

Mr. W. A. THOMPSON, Thompson Tool Company, TEXAS 2328 Lansford Street, phone RIverside 8-4165, came by his office at 10:10 AM, and gave following information:

He had read in the morning paper where witnesses had identified OSWALD as practicing on range near Grand Prairie; that at the time he was at the range he was accompanied by another white male and gave a meager description.

Mr. THOMPSON employed one HENRY O. CHENYWORTH, white male, age approximately 25, 6'3", dark hair, about two weeks before President was slain. He gave his address as 306 East Seventh Street, Dallas. He worked up to the weekend of November 22, 1963. He did not show up for work on Monday, November 25, 1963. The shop was open that date. He came back and worked Tuesday, November 26, 1963. The next time he showed up was Friday, November 29, 1963. He came by early and stated he was leaving and would send someone to pick up his check later in the day. Around noon he returned to the shop and Mr. THOMPSON paid him and asked him when he would be back to work. He stated he did not know, that his brother in Jasper, Texas, was sick, was in the hospital, and they wanted him to go there to stay with his brother.

Mr. THOMPSON advised he has not seen him since. He stated the day the President was slain, he heard CHENYWORTH say to another employee, BENNY REEVES, "I bet I will know who did it by morning." When CHENYWORTH picked up his check, he also remarked to REEVES, "I don't know whether I will be around by morning, I may be in jail".

THOMPSON stated after reading the paper he thought possibly if the story were authentic this subject may have been the other man referred to as being with OSWALD.

He stated two or three times while CHENYWORTH worked for him he was picked up in the afternoon, when getting off duty, by a woman driving a 1953 to 1954 Ford, a dirty white and light brown two tone color, and as many as two or three people were in the car on one or two occasions. CHENYWORTH stayed pretty well to himself and was a good worker. He did talk about the good deer hunting around Jasper and had planned to go to Jasper the week-end the President was killed. THOMPSON did not know whether he did go to Jasper.

THOMPSON said about December 4, 1963, a young white male came to his office and applied for a job, stating he lived at 308 East Seventh Street. He was not hired as he was not needed. On December 9, 1963, the same man came by again and applied for work. THOMPSON stated CHENYWORTH wore very large shoes (appeared boot type, the toes of which turned up) and that once or twice he had started to ask CHENYWORTH about the large shoes he was wearing.

THOMPSON said that on December 9, 1963, when the above young white male applied for a job, he was driving the car which had picked CHENYWORTH up when getting off work.

THOMPSON said CHENYWORTH was wearing dark green uniform with his name over the right shirt pocket when last seen.

Date 12/21/63

ERNIE X COLLIER, 306 East Seventh Street, Dallas, Texas, a structural iron worker, last employed by Fairway Construction Company, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed to establish whereabouts of HENRY O. CHENYWORTH and for purposes of obtaining background information concerning him.

COLLIER said that he had rented a room to HENRY O. CHENYWORTH at 306 East Seventh Street, Dallas, Texas, for a period of four or five weeks, ending December 20, 1963, CHENYWORTH being related in some way to Mrs. BOBBY X COLLIER of Vida, Texas, COLLIER's sister-in-law.

CHENYWORTH left Dallas, Texas, on December 20, 1963, to return to his home near Jasper, Texas, at Peach Grove, where his mother and stepfather, as well as his grandparents, reside, their names unknown to COLLIER. CHENYWORTH's stepfather is a foreman at the Chicken Plant in Jasper, Texas. CHENYWORTH, having no car of his own, had hitchhiked to Jasper, Texas.

COLLIER said that CHENYWORTH never had expressed anything to him which would indicate he had knowledge concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD. On November 21, 1963, Thursday evening prior to the assassination, CHENYWORTH was at the COLLIER home watching television. On Friday, November 22, 1963, Mrs. COLLIER had taken CHENYWORTH to and from his work at Thompson Tool Company, 2328 Lansford, Dallas, Texas, in the COLLIER 1954 two tone white and brown Ford, as had been the custom of COLLIER and his wife. On Friday evening, November 22, 1963, and throughout the weekend which followed, CHENYWORTH was at the COLLIER residence. COLLIER said he had not permitted him the use of the COLLIER Ford; whenever and wherever CHENYWORTH ventured, the COLLIERS had provided the transportation.

CHENYWORTH had no associates in Dallas, his friends being limited to the COLLIERS and another roomer, RAY X GAULDOCK, who had moved there from Spokane, Washington, since the assassination. According to COLLIER, GAULDOCK had twice applied for work, without success, at Thompson Tool Company where CHENYWORTH had been employed.

CHENYWORTH worked at Thompson Tool Company only a short time; quit because he was too lazy to work, in the opinion of COLLIER. After this, he had worked briefly as a rodman in highway construction at Dallas, but quit, again only to relax about the COLLIER house watching television and playing with the COLLIER children.

COLLIER, who said that he considered CHENYWORTH to be a loyal American, and favorable to the administration of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, described CHENYWORTH as follows:

Name	HENRY O~~X~~CHENYWORTH
Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	20
Height	5'11" to 6'
Weight	150
Hair	Black; wavy
Eyes	Unknown

BOBBY JOE REEVES, Route 1, Red Oak, Texas, employee of Thompson Tool Company, 2328 Langsford Street, Dallas, Texas, telephone RI. 8-4165, advised he has known HENRY O. CHENYWORTH for approximately five weeks.

Benny REEVES advised CHENYWORTH was employed by Thompson Tool Company on or about November 15, 1963 and continued his employment until approximately November 25, 1963.

REEVES advised on November 22, 1963 when news was first received on the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY in Dallas, Texas, CHENYWORTH made the statement: "I bet I will know who did this by morning". REEVES advised he could not give an explanation as to why CHENYWORTH would make such a statement, and, in his opinion, he felt that CHENYWORTH was just a "bragging, country hick".

REEVES advised CHENYWORTH had made a statement to the effect that he, CHENYWORTH, may be in jail by the next morning, and the only reason he (REEVES) could give for this was the fact that CHENYWORTH had indicated he had received a speeding ticket earlier during the month and that the police may be looking for him.

REEVES advised he had furnished the aforementioned information to Mr. W. A. THOMPSON, his supervisor, inasmuch as CHENYWORTH failed to return to his employment after November 25, 1963.

REEVES advised he was convicted in Federal Court for mail theft and has served time on two different occasions.

Under date of December 20, 1963, the FBI Laboratory furnished the following information concerning a photographic examination requested by the Dallas Office, December 5, 1963:

Specimens received 12/6/63

K51 One Bell and Howell Zoomatic 8mm motion picture camera SN AS13486, obtained from Mr. Abraham ~~Z~~apruder

Result of examination: TEXAS

The K51 8mm motion picture camera has been tested to determine the running speed of this camera, and it has been determined that this camera when operated at normal "RUN" speed operates at 18 1/3 frames per second.

While it is not possible to establish accurately from the film the moment of impact of the first two shots, applying the above camera speed to the film previously submitted which was exposed by Abraham Zapruder and which recorded the assassination, it has been determined that the best estimate of the elapsed time between the first and third shots lies between approximately five and six seconds. It is noted that the President's car moves behind a signboard at about the time of the first shot, and the President's movements during this period are not observable. However, he begins to fall forward immediately upon emerging from behind the sign.

Informant advised that the exact time of this conversation was not available and that it was not known from which of the [telephone numbers the call] originated.

On December 23, 1963, MICHAEL PAINE was interviewed at 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, by Special Agent BARDWELL D. ODUM. Mr. PAINE advised that on November 23, 1963, he did not make any statement to anyone that he felt sure LEE HARVEY OSWALD had killed the President but did not feel OSWALD was responsible. He stated he did not say that he knew who was responsible. Mr. PAINE advised that what he did say, in fact, in a conversation with his wife, was that he was not sure that OSWALD had killed the President because at that time he had no facts at his command. Mr. PAINE stated he realized that OSWALD could do such a thing but that it seemed so unreasonable he, at that time, had his doubts.

Mr. PAINE flatly denied at any time saying that he felt he knew who was responsible for the President's death other than OSWALD.

Mr. GEORGE J. APPLIN, 3423 Weisenberger, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employment, Rollform Corporation, 3837 Singleton Boulevard.

APPLIN advised that he went to the Texas Theater, 231 West Jefferson Street, on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963. He stated that just prior to entering the theater at approximately 12:45 p.m., he overheard on his car radio that President KENNEDY had just been shot.

APPLIN advised that the movie started at approximately 1:00 p.m., and that the main feature started approximately twenty minutes later, following the news and the cartoon. He said that after approximately ten minutes of the main feature, the lights in the theater went on. He said that a uniformed police officer carrying a shotgun or riot gun walked down one aisle and that another uniformed police officer walked down the other aisle. He said that when the officers entered, he, APPLIN, got up from his seat, which was located approximately five or six rows from the rear of the center section, and walked toward the lobby of the theater to see what was going on. He said he got behind the cement block partition which separates the seat sections from the lobby of the theater, and looked toward the seat section to see what was going on.

APPLIN stated that when the lights of the theater went on, he noticed there were only five or six persons sitting in the downstairs section of the theater including himself. He said that the two officers "shook down" two men who were sitting near the front of the theater and in the center section. He said that after this, one of the officers came toward the lobby and approached a lone white male who was sitting in the center section of the theater. Shortly thereafter, the officer hollered out "Here he is" and several other officers came to his assistance.

He said he heard OSWALD pull the trigger, but the gun did not go off. He stated he believed when OSWALD pulled the trigger, the gun was on the officer's shoulder.

APPLIN said there were four or five uniformed officers and one plain clothes officer who came to the first officer's assistance and they started wrestling with OSWALD.

He said the one officer who was carrying a shotgun hit OSWALD in the side of the head with the butt of the shotgun and the officer soon got OSWALD under control.

APPLIN said after they got OSWALD under control, they took him out of the theater. He said he did not follow them out so does not know what happened.

GENE ROBERTS, ~~1657 Nob Hill Street~~, WHitehall 6-4822, advised on November 22, 1963, at approximately 1:05 P.M., he was sitting in the Beckley Club Cafe drinking coffee. He said the lady that owned the cafe had a radio on the counter and that they were listening to reports of the assassination of the President. A white male and female were sitting in the back of the cafe and walked to the front whereupon the white male asked "What's going on?" Mr. ROBERTS stated that the President had been shot and the unknown white male stated that this was the best news that he had heard. The white female with him said he should not have said that. Mr. ROBERTS advised that the cafe owner also heard this comment. Mr. ROBERTS advised that the white male was about 20 to 25, appeared to be of Cuban, Puerto Rican, or foreign extraction, 5'10" to 5'11", dark complexion and dark hair. He advised the white female was about 18 to 20, 5'2" to 5'3", slender build, dark hair.

Mr. ROBERTS advised he finished his coffee and then drove past the area where Officer TIPPIT was shot and noticed a number of squad cars in the area. He said he asked some woman standing nearby what had happened and they told him that a police officer had been shot and the body had been removed. At this time ROBERTS stated he observed the same white male and female from the cafe walk into a house directly across the street from where Officer TIPPIT had been shot and enter a side door. He said this was about 405 E. 10th Street. He said the male was wearing a light green cloth jacket with leather patches on his elbows when he entered the house and had the same jacket on when he came out alone about two minutes later. He said he was straightening the jacket as if he had something hidden inside. He said the white male kept looking back and forth over his shoulder and never inquired of any police officers what had taken place. ROBERTS advised that he thought this was quite unusual and notified a police sergeant on the scene about this individual. He advised the police sergeant told him that the man did not fit the description of the person that had shot officer TIPPIT.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mr. ROBERTS advised he had numerous friends on the police department and city council and he got in touch with some of them and arrangements were made for him to see Detective JOE R. CODY which he did shortly thereafter. He said he and CODY went to the area of 405A E. 10th Street, which Detective CODY determined was occupied by a Mr. and Mrs. PETER CIMINO. He said he made this determination through checking the mailbox and cars parked in the area. He advised that he thought the sergeant at the scene should have arrested this man and found out who he was since he did act very suspicious as far as he was concerned.

ROBERTS advised that since the above he has heard a few rumors and wondered whether or not they had been checked out. He said that he learned from Constable T. A. VINES, offices in Oak Cliff Court House, Beckley and 12th Streets, that the woman who was the night manager of the Dobbs House, Beckley and Colorado, allegedly has claimed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY used to come into her restaurant two or three times a week during the early morning hours.

He said he further heard that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had purchased his bullets for the rifle he was using from Ray's Gun Shop on Singleton Boulevard.

Mr. L. H. RICH residing at the Cardinal Home, a home for the elderly, Box 33, Route 2, Palestine, Texas, advised he has not received any long distance telephone calls for approximately six months. She could not think of anyone who could have called her from the public telephone booth located at the Enco Service Station, 1030 North Zangs Boulevard, and she has no recollection of ever having placed a call from this public telephone booth to her residence, or to any other individual.

Mrs. DURDEN stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK L. RUBY were unknown to her prior to the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, on November 22, 1963. She is not personally acquainted with these two individuals and the only information she has concerning them is what she has read in the newspapers and from television and radio.

TEXAS

New Orleans on December 20, 1963, advised that JOHN LAURELL FORD was located on December 19, 1963, at 207 Louis Anne Avenue, Monroe, Louisiana. FORD stated he was employed at JERRY DUNCAN's service station in Dallas, Texas, from September, 1963, to November, 1963, and resided at 203 Elston Drive and 2423 Marfa Street, Dallas, during this period. FORD stated he placed a telephone call from the pay telephone located at Duncan Service Station to his mother's telephone, 323-6530, Monroe, Louisiana, sometime in the middle of October, 1963. FORD denied any contact or any knowledge of OSWALD and stated that the photograph of OSWALD does not remind him of anyone he has ever seen at the service station or in the neighborhood. FORD advised that the only person he drank beer with from the neighborhood of the station was a white male, 18-20 years of age, 5'3", 125-130 pounds, reddish blond hair, light complexion, dressed in cowboy boots and Western shirt, who rented a room from Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON across the street from the service station. FORD believes this person, name unknown, was employed at an auto parts store on Jefferson Street. FORD further advised this person does not resemble the photograph of OSWALD.

JERRY DUNCAN, operator, Enco Service Station, 1030 North Zangs Street, Dallas, advised SA HENRY J. OLIVER on December 21, 1963, that he had previously advised that he thought OSWALD had gone out on one occasion to drink beer with JOHN L. FORD, a former employee of this station. DUNCAN advised that the only information he can furnish regarding this is that the person he thought might be OSWALD got in a car with FORD and left with him one night after work. He cannot place the exact date but it possibly was in October, 1963. He only saw this man in the car with FORD, and he was some distance away from him at the time. He stated the person with FORD to the best of his recollection did resemble OSWALD and appeared to be similar in size. He advised he cannot furnish any further information in this regard, and it is possible he might be mistaken.

Mrs. A. G. JOHNSON, 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, on December 21, 1963, advised SA OLIVER that she has a roomer at this address, a FLOYD DE GRAFFENRED, who wears cowboy clothing and who was formerly employed by some auto parts concern. She stated that DE GRAFFENRED is presently employed by Sears Roebuck and Company and has always appeared to be a person of good character.

Mr. FLOYD G. DE GRAFFENRED, 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas employed Sears Roebuck and Company, Mail Order Division, Dallas, on December 21, 1963, advised that he is acquainted with JOHN FORD, who formerly was employed at the Enco Service Station at 1030 Zangs Street. He stated he on one occasion around October, 1963, was at the service station talking to JOHN FORD and they decided to go drink a beer after FORD got off from work. FORD needed a clean shirt, so he, DE GRAFFENRED, went to his room and got a clean shirt for FORD. After getting this shirt, he returned to the service station and got into a car which belonged to FORD or one of his relatives. FORD got off in a few minutes and they left together and had a few beers. DE GRAFFENRED advised he can never recall seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD around the Enco Service Station, and to his knowledge, FORD is not acquainted with OSWALD. OSWALD did reside at 1026 North Beckley while DE GRAFFENRED resided at this same address. DE GRAFFENRED advised he does not believe he saw OSWALD more than four or five times and then mainly in the television room. OSWALD would not speak to anyone, and DE GRAFFENRED never at any time talked to him. DE GRAFFENRED stated he could not furnish the names of any friends or associates of OSWALD. He never saw OSWALD talk to anyone and never saw him have any visitors. DE GRAFFENRED stated he does not know JACK RUBY and does not know of any association between RUBY or OSWALD.

Date December 24, 1963

Mr. DALE E. BASYE, 1311 Whispering Trail, Dallas, Texas, furnished copies of a summary of the LEE HARVEY OSWALD case which he had sent to Mr. MILTON H. ERICKSON, M. D., Phoenix, Arizona. He, also, furnished copies of the return letter of Doctor ERICKSON sent to BASYE dated December 13, 1963.

BASYE's summary of the OSWALD case is quoted as follows:

"SUMMARY OF OSWALD CASE

"Was Lee Harvey Oswald under hypnosis when he shot President Kennedy? Was he subjected to intensive psychological brain-washing techniques in Russia, perfected even further than in Korean War days? Was he given a post-hypnotic suggestion that he would shoot the President at the first feasible opportunity and upon being given a certain signal which would set him in motion? Was this suggestion periodically enforced by Red psychological experts working in this country, and did they lay the basic framework of planning which put Oswald in the Texas School Book Depository with a rifle in his hands at the time the presidential motorcade passed?

"In many ways the Lee H. Oswald case parallels the fictional case detailed in the Novel and movie, "The Manchurian Candidate." In Richard Condon's novel, a psychologically disturbed young man was brainwashed in a POW camp to such an extent that he carried out every order given him by his Red captors, even murdering a fellow GI. He was given a post-hypnotic suggestion that upon seeing the card, the queen of hearts, he would carry out any orders given him. By having him play games of solitaire, Red agents in the U. S. were able to use him as an assassin to murder key personnel in this country.

"Why Lee Oswald would have made a good subject for such a Red plot:

"(1) He was available, having gone to Russia to denounce his citizenship. (The Russians put him off for some reason, yet they did not order him out of the country.)

"(2) He was a citizen of the U.S. and could return at will to this country. (This might explain why he was refused Russian citizenship.)

"3. He was a Communist sympathizer.

"4. He had a deep hatred of authority, and the President represented the supreme U. S. authority.

"5. He was a skilled marksman and adept in use of firearms. (While in Russia he was a rifle club member. Were the Reds sharpening an assassin's skills.

"6. He was not a Red agent and would not be connected directly to the Soviet espionage network in the investigation which would undoubtedly follow the President's death.

"7. He was a psychologically disturbed young man, an ideal subject for such a plot. (Ten years ago New York psychiatrists examined Oswald and reported that he 'had some violent feelings inside him'--and that he couldn't control them if they came to the surface. Their report said Oswald had schizophrenic tendencies and Oswald was 'potentially danger.'

"Facts which seem to point toward the theory that

Oswald was under hypnosis:

"1. Oswald seemed to have no set plan of escape. After carefully laid plans which put him in the Texas School Book Depository right on the motorcade route, he seemed to move aimlessly after the shooting. Being a fairly intelligent young man, Oswald must have known that without a silencer it would be known immediately which building the shots came from. And when he didn't return to his job that afternoon it would be reasonable to assume that he would be the number one suspect. Yet, he went back to his apartment, got a jacket and a revolver and set off on foot in a direction which led him deeper into a residential area--not a place where he could catch a train, plane or bus or even hitchhike a ride out of town. It seemed that he either was headed for a rendezvous with an accomplice or really did not have a plan of escape. Perhaps his Red bosses had planned it that way--so that he would be killed resisting arrest and his lips would be sealed and he wouldn't be subject to psychological examination.

"2. When stopped by Officer Tippit, a woman eye-witness said Oswald first leaned inside the car and talked with him. It was only when the officer got out of the car to take him in that Oswald drew his pistol and shot him--as if Oswald had been preconditioned to resist apprehension by authority. The woman who saw him shoot the officer yelled at him, but Oswald just looked at her and fled. Why didn't he shoot her also? Obviously she could later identify him to police. A witness reported seeing Oswald walking down a street openly reloading his gun after killing the officer. Later, he was seen fleeing from doorway to doorway, finally rushing into the Texas Theater on Jefferson Ave. This flight was more like the unplanned struggles of an animal to escape. It contrasts with the detailed planning of the cool, calculating killer who had planned the assassination down to the last detail, even drawing a diagram of the motorcade route and the path of the bullets from the sixth-floor window to the presidential car. It also contrasts with the conduct of the cool assassin which a witness described as a sniper who took his time, carefully scoring three hits with three shots. It was as if escape had never entered into the planning of the murder. Yet, if Oswald had wanted to commit suicide, he could have done so easily by continuing to fire from the sixth-floor window at the police which represented the authority he hated. It seemed that Oswald had been a puppet and someone, after they were finished with him, had cut the strings, hoping he would be killed in his feeble escape attempts.

"3. When the Texas Theater was flooded with police and it was obvious that escape was impossible, Oswald put up a suicidal-type resistance. He leaped to his feet and shouted, 'It's all over.' Then he drew his pistol and would have shot it out with the officers had not the gun misfired. (This misfire could have been part of the plan to make sure Oswald would be shot in his escape attempt.)

"4. After his apprehension, Oswald declined all knowledge of either the President's assassination or the police officer's death. (This was similar to the behavior of the assassin in 'The Manchurian Candidate' who, under hypnotic suggestion, forgot all the details of his crimes.) Why did Oswald leap up and shout something curious such as, 'It's all over!'? Had he been given a post-hypnotic suggestion that when his capture seemed inevtible he was to shout,

'It's all over,' and then forget all about his crimes? Despite overwhelming evidence against him and intense questioning, Oswald steadfastedly maintained that he was innocent and knew nothing about either crime.

"5. Oswald's behavior seemed strangely unlike the normal pattern of a fanatic who would shoot a President then brag, 'Yes I did it and I'm glad.' He seemed cool, composed in custody, and didn't give his interrogaters any information at all. When his wife and mother visited him he told them not to worry, that it was all a mistake. He was concerned that his wife should buy some shoes for one of their children. His own mother was convinced of his innocence after her visit to the jail. It was as if Oswald's mind had been erased of all knowledge of the crimes. This cool attitude of innocence by a man of average intelligence in the face of overwhelming evidence that he murdered the President, together with conclusive evidence including an eyewitness that he killed Officer Tippit, is unbelievable.

"6. In New Orleans and at two Dallas addresses Oswald lived near public parks--a likely location to meet Red agents who may have been controlling his actions.

"7. Oswald was in Mexico from Sept. 26 to Oct. 3 of this year. Could this hypnotic suggestion been given to him at that time--when he visited the Cuban embassy? It is a known fact that the Castro regime promulgates a theory of assassination of heads of state as part of their hemispheric revolution plan. And the Cuban regime's hatred of Kennedy was well-known.

"If the hypnotic suggestion originated in Russia and was reinforced by Soviet agents in this country, what would the Russians hope to gain by Kennedy's death? There are several possibilities:

"1. They may have figured that his successor would be less firm in opposing Red moves throughout the world.

"2. The assassination may have been a subtle warning to any presidential successor that the Reds can murder our president any time they choose if his policies stir their wrath.

"3. Perhaps Oswald had been instructed to kill both Kennedy and Vice-President Johnson to paralyze the country as a prelude to an all-out attack. (At a distance, Gov. Connally and Johnson look very much alike, and Oswald might have been thinking that both would likely be in the same car.)

"The actions of the Russians while Oswald was in the Soviet Union stir several questions. It seemed that something else--perhaps the psychological grooming of an assassin--was going on under the surface. Quoting from a column by Victor Riesel on Dec. 6:

"'The Russians have said officially they denied Oswald Soviet citizenship because he was a 'Trotskyite.' This means he was declared an enemy of the state--a few days ago. But why was he permitted, back in 1959, to travel freely inside the Soviet Union? This is a coveted privilege. Official permission is needed by foreigners for bus and train travel. Yet he went some 420 miles from Moscow to Minsk.

"'Why did the Soviet employment services direct him to a job? This must have happened. He spoke no Russian then. He read no Russian....Who vouched for his identity card? Who got him his work permit? Such documents are absolutely necessary--especially for foreign workers....Who approved Oswald's membership in a Russian union?....If the Soviet authorities believed Oswald to be a 'Trotskyite' and an American spy, why did they permit him to associate freely with his fellow factory workers? Such activity might have eluded the secret police for a few weeks but not for more than two years. Why did the secret police permit him to marry a Russian girl? Why was he permitted to quit his job and then travel freely from Minsk to Moscow? Workers are not yet absolutely frozen to their jobs inside Russia. But few just pick themselves up and leave. How did Mrs. Oswald get permission to abandon her job in a land starved for workers. Finally, how did the alleged assassin get his wife and child out of the Soviet Union? Mighty few have accomplished this....'Why were the Russians so kind, and why did they offer so many privileges to a 'Trotskyite?'

"A final question: Was the wife of Oswald allowed to leave so readily by the Russians because she was the one who was to trigger the hypnotic suggestion and give Oswald his orders?

"I have noticed a parallel between the Lee Harvey Oswald case and the fictional case detailed in the novel and movie, 'The Manchurian Candidate.' In 'The Manchurian Candidate,' a psychologically disturbed young man was brainwashed in a Manchurian POW camp to such an extent that he would obey unquestioningly any orders given him by the Red

He was given a post-hypnotic suggestion that when he saw the card, the queen of hearts, he was to carry out any orders given him immediately after viewing the card.

"In many ways this disturbed young man was like Lee Oswald. He was disliked by most people, had few friends, was a loner, didn't talk much and was filled with hate for those in authority in particular and all the world in general. He had been dominated by a strong-willed mother.

"Upon his return to the United States, the former POW was used by Red agents to assassinate. First it was minor officials that he murdered, but the Reds were grooming him to kill the man likely to win election as President of the United States. The agents would call the former POW on the phone when he was alone and tell him that it was time he played a game of solitaire. This triggered the post-hypnotic suggestion and he would play solitaire. When he had had time to view the queen of hearts, the agents would call him again and give him his orders to kill. The man obeyed as if a zombie, having no memory of his crimes after they were committed.

"Here are a few questions I would appreciate your views on:

"1. Is it possible in theory to induce a person to kill under hypnosis?

"2. Is it possible to have a person under hypnosis obey your every order by giving him a code word or some symbol to set him off, such as the playing card in 'The Manchurian Candidate'?

"3. Could an individual of Oswald's type--said by psychiatrists to have had schizophrenic tendencies with deep feelings of hate--be given a post-hypnotic suggestion, then have it reinforced periodically so that he would kill?

"4. Is it likely that a post-hypnotic suggestion could be kept alive by reinforcement over a period of 17 months?

"5. How long would a hypnotic indoctrination take that would put Oswald completely under the power of agents so he would kill for them?

"6. Would there be noticeable changes in a person's behavior if he were under such a post-hypnotic suggestion?

"7. Could a person in such a state be made to forget all about a crime once it was committed?

"8. If the plot of 'The Manchurian Candidate' is unrealistic, under what circumstances and through what means could a person be hypnotized to kill?

"9. Do you know of a case where a person had been induced to crime through hypnosis? Or do you know of an experiment by scientists which would indicate that this might be feasible?

"10. Do you know of a theory developed in the writings of an expert on hypnosis which holds that 'The Manchurian Candidate' type of case is possible? Can you give me any names or works of psychiatrists who have written on the subject?

"11. From what you have read of Oswald's personality, what is your view of his psychological state?

"12. Would drugs play a role in inducing such a hypnotic state where a person's will could be controlled?"

The letter of Doctor ERICKSON is quoted as follows:

"December 13, 1963

"Mr. Dale E. Basye
1311 Whispering Trail
Dallas, Texas 75241

"Dear Mr. Basye:

"I have perused your analysis of the Oswald case with care. In my opinion, based on 40 years experience in hypnosis at a professional level, the reading of practically every book and article on the possibilities of the use of hypnosis to instigate anti-social compulsions which are at a scientific level of approach, and many years' experience in connection with correctional institutions and psychological and psychiatric examination and treatment of criminals, I must express a complete disagreement with your theory from beginning to end.

"To begin with, the book and the movie, 'The Manchurian Candidate,' are complete, utter, and pernicious nonsense from beginning to end. If there is a single idea in it which reveals a grasp of the nature of hypnosis or of the psychopathic or sociopathic type of personality, I have not found it.

"In answer to your suggested questions the answers are completely in the negative. You have outlined a plot which by the nature of the inter-personal relationship known as hypnosis is impossible.

"In a protected laboratory situation, hypnotic subjects will perform acts that have the semblance of being anti-social. In experiments where wrongful acts are actually to be committed against others, the evidence is very much against such anti-social acts being induced by hypnosis.

"Cases which are cited as examples of anti-social behavior overlook the all-important factors of the demands of an expermental situation, the implicit agreement of a subject to carry out an experimental procedure, and the prestige and responsibility of the experimenter, all of which are as fully operative in experiments in which hypnosis has no place, as in those in which it is utilized.

"Reiter's book Antisocial Or Criminal Acts And Hypnosis, (Munksgaard-Copenhagen) has often been cited as proof that an actual crime could be performed by one person hypnotizing another and instructing the hypnotized person to perform the crime. In this particular instance two criminals, each separately guilty of major crimes, met in prison, became friends and upon release one robbed a bank and gave as an alibi the statement that he had been hypnotized into doing it, the other claiming innocence because he had committed no crime. The relationship between the two men was a peculiar and pathological mixture of dominance, homosexuality, esoteric interests and criminality.

"Later both men recanted their stories explaining that they had dreamed up the 'perfect crime and perfect alibi.' Also, there was no proof that one of the men had been hypnotized by the other. In other words, I know of no genuine instance in which hypnosis has been used for anti-social purposes except newsstories of questionable merit.

"As any well experienced hypnotist knows, any subject, regardless of whether the trance is light, deep, or medium, can bring back to memory all trance events at will regardless of posthypnotic suggestions.

"One reference which you might find of value in the evaluation of the experimentation into so-called instigation of anti-social behavior is the chapter by Martin T. Orne, M.D. in the book 'Hypnosis: Current Problems,' edited by George Estabrooks (Harper & Row).

"In the very detailed analysis of Oswald's behavior as a result of a supposed plot, rather than as the egotistical and deliberate act of a disturbed psychopathic personality, one tends to lose sight of a simple fact. This is a consideration which a more naive view_point can sometimes set clear with a straight forward, simple, wondering comment.

My daughter, aged 13, a typical teen-aged girl, saw an article which developed another theory about Oswald. It was based on the memory of several years back without notes, of a stenographer who typed out for Oswald an account of his sojourn in Russia. She recalled that he had carried off all her notes and copies, even her carbon paper, but she was willing and eager to speculate that, because of his bitter criticism of every aspect of politics and life in Russia, he was probably functioning as an American spy sent by our own government. My daughter's horrified comment was 'Would we pick a person like that to spy for us?'

"I agree that it takes a far stretch of the imagination to see any government entrusting an important mission to an unreliable, unstable, egocentric, rebellious, disobedient, untruthful erratic character such as Oswald seems to have been since childhood.

"Now regarding his disorganized behavior after the assassination; it is absolutely typical of the psychopathic personality. They will plan a course of action to the tiniest detail, rehearsing, checking taking endless precautions, and the plan will end completely at a climactic point. The planner then proceeds to act at random and irrationally, exactly as Oswald did after the shots were fired.

"You could make a parallel with John Wilkes Booth, and you could make an informative and reliable instructive account that would do you more credit as a writer if you developed that story as the 'Climatic End of a Psychopathic Personality's Life Long Egocentric Career.'

Sincerely yours,

s/ Milton H. Erickson

"P. S. That 'trigger one' or 'trigger word' is just as childish an idea as is the 'pass word' to the little boys 'Secret Six Club'.

BASYE pointed out that Doctor ERICKSON is supposed to be one of the most capable psychiatrists in the United States but emphasized that in his opinion the Russian people may have made considerably more progress in hypnosis than have the experts in this country.

The following investigation was conducted by ASAC KYLE G. CLARK:

On November 27, 1963, Patrolman BILLY MILTON, Texas Highway Patrol, Kaufman, Texas, telephonically advised that he had been contacted by Dr. LEINART, who owns and operates a clinic in Terrell, Texas. Dr. LEINART furnished the following information to Patrolman MILTON:

A man known as GEORGE MERCER, white, male, 6'1", 37 years, 215 pounds, resident Route 1, Lone Oak, Texas, employment Wesco Material Company, Terrell, Texas, reportedly contacted Dr. LEINART'S Negro maid and yard man. He is reported to have made remarks to these people that he was a good friend of OSWALD and knew OSWALD was going to kill or attempt to kill the President even before it happened. In addition, he indicated to the maid and the yard man that OSWALD had planned the killing while in Russia, and it was the intention that he commit the killing sometime after his return.

Dr. O. S. LEINART, JR., Leinart's Clinic, Terrell, Texas, advised that on the morning of November 25, or 26, 1963, Mrs. WILLIE MAE WIMBLEY, a maid at the clinic, told him that an individual, who was subsequently identified as GEORGE MERCER, was waiting just outside the clinic for the clinic to open and had made statements to Mrs. WIMBLEY that he was a good friend of OSWALD and knew that OSWALD was going to kill, or attempt to kill, President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY even before it happened on November 22, 1963. Mrs. WIMBLEY said that MERCER stated that OSWALD had planned the killing while in Russia and it was OSWALD'S intention to commit this murder sometime after his return from Russia.

Dr. LEINART stated that he did not hear any of the conversation between WIMBLEY and MERCER and that the only other person who might possibly have overheard this conversation would have been PAUL MC INTOSH, a general handyman at the clinic.

According to Dr. LEINART'S records, GEORGE MERCER was in the clinic on July 22, 1963, for a pre-employment physical for Wesco Materials Company, Inc. According to the records, MERCER was described as a white male, age 37, 215 pounds, 61", married and residing at Route 1, Lone Oak, Texas. MERCER made no other visits to the clinic until the morning of November 26, or 27, 1963. On the morning of November 26, or 27, MERCER came to the clinic in connection with a bad check which was mis-sent to him at Lone Oak, Texas, and the matter was straightened out. Dr. LEINART stated that one of the nurses had billed the wrong MERCER and that the GEORGE MERCER of Lone Oak had not submitted a bad check in payment for services rendered by the clinic.

Mrs. WILLIE MAE WIMBLEY, residence 112 Daniel, Terrell, Texas, employed as a maid at the O. S. Leinart Clinic, Terrell, Texas, advised that on the morning of November 26, or 27, 1963, prior to opening the clinic, she was sweeping the sidewalk outside the clinic and an individual, whose name she subsequently learned was GEORGE MERCER, who was waiting for the clinic to open, started a conversation with her and stated "old OSWALD got KENNEDY". This individual said he knew OSWALD well and knew that OSWALD had the "guts" to do it. Mrs. WIMBLEY stated she told this individual that the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY would make Dallas look bad and that MERCER had stated that the assassination of the President would not have any effect on Dallas.

She said that this individual appeared to be proud of what OSWALD had done. Mrs. WIMBLEY stated that to the best of her recollection, MERCER did not say anything about OSWALD'S being in Russia, or that OSWALD had planned the assassination while in Russia, and that he was to commit this murder some time after his return from Russia.

She stated that she and MERCER were the only two people present during the conversation and that she thereafter told Dr. O. S. LEINART, JR. of this conversation.

She further advised that MERCER had stated that he was at the clinic to get a "hot check" straightened out.

WAYNE JANUARY, owner, American Aviation Company, 101 Terminal Building, Red Bird Airport, was reinterviewed at which time he advised that the story concerning a man who approached him last summer, who resembled LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and who wanted to charter a flight to the Mexican Island of Cozumel, as it appeared in the news media, was inaccurate and many of the facts in the story were the conclusions of the reporter who interviewed him. JANUARY reiterated the fact that the man who approached him last summer regarding this charter flight to Mexico was definitely not LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said that when this man and his female companion were leaving his office, he, JANUARY, noted another man who was waiting outside in an automobile. He said that this man from a distance appeared to somewhat resemble OSWALD as he later appeared in local television, although he could not be definite in this respect as he never personally met OSWALD. JANUARY pointed out the fact that he was viewing this man from a considerable distance and he was inside an automobile at the time.

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES W. BOOKHOUT and SA GEORGE W. H. CARLSON:

On December 5, 1963, Mr. WARREN CASTER, Manager, Southwestern Publishing Company, Room 203, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that he purchased two rifles at Sanger Brothers in Dallas, Texas, on November 20, 1963, one a 30:06 Mauser by Kodiak and a .22 Remington single shot. He stated that they were in cardboard cartons, and he brought the two rifles to the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building after he purchased them during his lunch hour on November 20, 1963. He stated that prior to bringing the rifles to his office he showed the rifles to Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Superintnedent., TSBD, whose office is also on the second floor. He said he did not show the two rifles to anyone else. He stated at approximately 4:30 p.m. on November 20, 1963, he carried the two rifles in separate cardboard cartons to his 1962 Ford Galaxie and put them in the trunk of the car. He said he did not show the rifles to anyone outside the building. He also advised that both the .22 and the 30:06 rifles have open sights and not telescopic sights.

On December 5, 1963, Mr. J. L. SMITH, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised that the first parking area to the west of the TSBD building is used by the employees of the Dallas County Sheriff's Office, and there is no attendant present. He stated that he recalls that he was working at approximately 4:10 p.m. on November 19, 1963, but he did not see anyone showing a rifle to anyone else.

SA's BOOKHOUT and CARLSON observed that there is another parking area located between the first and second railroad tracks west of the TSBD building which apparently is used by employees of the TSBD building. There is no attendant on duty in this area. It is also to be noted that there is a parking lot between the second and third tracks to the west of the above building, and this area is also apparently used by employees of the TSBD building.

On December 5, 1963, Mr. OSCAR MC VEA, Simmons Plaza Parking Lot, advised that he is the attendant on duty and that the fourth parking lot which is located between the third and fourth track is operated by the Simmons Plaza Parking Lot Company, and this is also west of the TSBD building. He stated that the entrance and the exits are the same for this area. The entrance to this parking area is by way of a service road that branches off from Elm Street and Houston Street and runs west past TSBD building into the track area west of the TSBD building.

On December 31, 1963, Mr. ED CREWS, Chief Deputy, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised that he did not know of any of the Sheriff's Department employees owning a 1955 or 1956, blue Buick automobile and that after checking with several of his employees, he was unable to determine whether any of the people in the Sheriff's Office owned such an automobile.

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM G. BROOKHART:

WGB:mja

On December 31, 1963, Mrs. FRANCES HERNANDEZ, residence 1917 Annex, Dallas, Texas, was re-interviewed in her place of employment, McKell Sportswear Company, Second Floor, 501 Elm Street. Mrs. HERNANDEZ advised that she recalls it was raining the day before President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY was to come to Dallas, Texas, and that she and two of her fellow workers, Mrs. HENRIETTA VARGAS and Mrs. JOSEPHINE SALINAS, were leaving their parking lot, west of the TSBD building. They had to stop because a 1955 or 1956 Buick was in the exit way and she noticed two men standing behind the Buick, and the older man reached into the trunk of the car and handed a rifle to the younger man.

She said she particularly noticed this activity since it reminded her of a man working at McKell Sportswear who had gone deer hunting and she thought these men were going to do the same thing. She only saw the back of the older man's head and can only say the younger man was rather slim. She cannot describe either of these two men as being identical to LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY; and thought of the above incident only after the President was assassinated. She said she and her friends were frightened and reluctant to become involved and were very excited and confused for some time, but now that she has had time to think about this, she is certain of the above facts.

On December 31, 1963, Mrs. HENRIETTA VARGAS, residence 511 Capitol Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at her place of employment, McKell Sportswear Company.

Mrs. VARGAS advised that she and two of her fellow workers at McKell Sportswear Company, Mrs. FRANCES HERNANDEZ and Mrs. JOSEPHINE SALINAS, were leaving their parking lot behind the TSBD building when they observed two men standing near a light colored automobile, make unknown. She said that she could not recall whether this was the Tuesday, or the Thursday, before President JOHN F. KENNEDY came to Dallas and was assassinated, but she does recall that it was raining at that time. Mrs. VARGAS said that she noticed that the older man took a rifle out of the trunk of his car and gave it to the younger man, who walked toward the railroad tracks, west of the TSBD building. She did not see the face of the younger man and cannot describe him, and she does not recall his getting into the automobile. She did not see the face of the older man, only the back of his head and she has no idea of who he was. She said she could not identify either man as LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY since she did not see their faces. She recalls the older man was of medium height and build, and the younger man appeared to be rather slim.

On December 31, 1963, Mrs. JOSEPHINE SALINAS, residence 13740 Birch Lawn, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at her place of employment, McKell Sportswear Company. Mrs. SALINAS advised that the day before President JOHN F. KENNEDY was killed, she and two of her fellow workers, Mrs. HENRIETTA VARGAS and Mrs. FRANCES HERNANDEZ, were leaving the parking lot west of the TSBD building. She recalls it was raining and wondered whether the President would be able to be seen in the parade scheduled for the next day, and noticed that there were two men standing near the rear of a 1955 or 1956 Buick, which was blocking the exit road. The older man took a rifle out of the trunk of the car and gave it to the younger man. She did not see the face of the older man since she could only observe him from his back and could not describe him further. The younger man who was of slender build walked away from the Buick carrying the rifle, but she did not see where he went, or whether he got into an automobile.

Mrs. SALINAS advised she cannot describe either of these two men she observed as being identical to LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

VI. ALLEGATIONS REGARDING ACQUAINTANCESHIP OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD AND JACK L. RUBY

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date December 12, 1963

MR. BILL ALEXANDER, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County Court House, Dallas, Texas, advised that his office is in receipt of information to the effect that on December 11, 1963, DOUGLAS MOORE, described as white male, age twenty-one, of 2537 West Kiest Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, telephone FE 1-5170, telephonically contacted their office at 2:30 PM and advised substantially as follows:

That he, MOORE, heard on WBAP-TV, at either 6:00 PM or 10:00, Saturday, December 7, 1963, that a professor at Southern Methodist University, not further identified, was believed to have recent and authoritative information of an unknown nature which would connect JACK RUBY with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MOORE further advised that on the day after the murder of OSWALD, he, MOORE, called the "City Desk" at the Police Department, at approximately 6:00 PM. MOORE advised that he was told by a lady at the City Desk that she had been informed that RUBY had employed OSWALD three years ago.

MOORE stated that he had no idea whether or not this information would be of any value but in the interest of good citizenship, he felt it was his duty to call.

DALLAS, TEXAS

DOUGLAS MOORE, 2537 West Kiest Boulevard, an engineering student at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed concerning information which he was said to have drawn from remarks by Professor ILYA A. MAMANTOV in MAMANTOV's television appearance on December 10, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, that JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been associated with one another.

MOORE said he had drawn the conclusion RUBY and OSWALD were associated when Professor MAMANTOV had reported that OSWALD had requested he be represented by Attorney JOHN ABT of New York City, New York. MOORE said he considered OSWALD's request for this particular attorney to be "some sort of code" between OSWALD and RUBY. This, he said, was the only basis for his having concluded there must be this relationship between RUBY and OSWALD, as drawn from remarks by Professor MAMANTOV. He added that he had not heard the telecast in question but had made his analysis from a report by his mother as to what MAMANTOV had said.

MOORE said it was evident to him, having followed reports closely in the manner of a detective, that RUBY shot OSWALD "to shut him up". He expressed his suspicion of the results of any investigation which might refute reports that the two were associated in the assassination of President KENNEDY. He wondered, too, where OSWALD had gotten "all that money" found in his possession upon his arrest.

MOORE said his interest in following this case had prompted him to call the Dallas Police Department during the afternoon on the day after RUBY shot OSWALD, hopeful that he could get some inside information. His call was switched to one whom he felt to be a young girl. In talking to her, he said he had deduced that some years in the past OSWALD had been employed by RUBY. He expressed uncertainty as to exactly what he had been told and could provide no information which might assist in identifying his source, a girl at the Dallas Police Department.

MOORE said that his father, a realtor, had expressed interest in part-time employment in undercover assignments for the FBI.

MARY LAWRENCE, 4425 Chestnut, Mesquite, Texas, employed as Head Waitress, Night Shift, Lucas B & B Restaurant, 3520 Oaklawn, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

She has been employed as Head Waitress at the Lucas B & B Restaurant, Dallas, for approximately five months each year during the past eight years. During this period, she has known JACK RUBY as a customer at Lucas B & B Restaurant. He would come into the restaurant several nights each week, usually during the early morning hours. She has seen JACK RUBY in the restaurant with a number of different people, both men and women, but she is not acquainted with and does not know the names of any of RUBY's associates. LAWRENCE is also acquainted with RUBY's sister, Mrs. EVA GRANT, who has been a customer frequently at the B & B Restaurant during the past eight years.

DET - RUBY TEXAS

On Friday, November 22, 1963, at approximately 1:30 AM, a young man described as white, in his 20's, 5'7" - 9", medium build, 140 lbs., dark hair, came into the restaurant and sat down at a table and when approached stated he was waiting for Mr. RUBY, who would be in in a few minutes. About 2:15 or 2:30 AM, November 22, 1963, JACK RUBY came into the B & B Restaurant and, after looking at the young man at the table, sat down at a table behind the cash register. He did not order his usual food, stating he didn't feel good and ordered a large glass of orange juice. A few minutes later, the young man who was seated at the table went over to RUBY's table. Thereafter, RUBY paid the bill for both himself and the young man who had eaten. Mrs. LAWRENCE had never seen this young man in the restaurant before nor had she ever seen him with JACK RUBY prior to this occasion. On November 22, 1963, after the assassination of President KENNEDY and after the arrest of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Mrs. LAWRENCE saw OSWALD on television and stated the photograph of OSWALD on television appeared very similar to the young man who was with JACK RUBY in the B &B Restaurant earlier on the morning of November 22, 1963. Subsequently, Mrs. LAWRENCE and BOBBY (LNU), the cashier on the night shift at the B & B Restaurant, discussed the young man who was with RUBY on the early morning of November 22, 1963, and they agreed that he appeared very similar to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. LAWRENCE was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she stated the young man who was with JACK RUBY in the B & B Restaurant on the early morning of November 22, 1963, was similar in description and appearance to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She recalled, however, that the young man she had seen in the B & B Restaurant had a small scar near his mouth, either on the right or left side.

Mrs. LAWRENCE advised she has no knowledge of the activities of JACK RUBY other than her acquaintance with him as a customer at the B & B Restaurant. She was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen him to her knowledge, unless he could have been the man who was with RUBY on the morning of November 22, 1963.

JEAN CLARK, Clerk, American Bakeries Regional Office, Meadows Building, 5646 Milton Street, Dallas, Texas, assisted in check of records at the request of JAMES J. BROWN, Regional Manager. CLARK located a record for one JAMES JACKSON on August 27, 1960, which indicated he earned $66.17 less $7.40 Federal income tax and $1.99 Social Security with the net being $56.78. He was paid with Check No. 82-19356 and worked at the Dallas Cake Plant as a machine operator at $1.66 per hour. During the week ending August 27, 1960, he worked five days, 38 regular hours, one half hour regular overtime and 14½ hours night overtime. His employee number is 7577, and he listed two dependents.

The records were checked for period ending August 13, 1960, however, no record for JACKSON could be located. On August 20, 1960, he worked one day and received a check for $14.69, Check No. 82-19311. JAMES A. JACKSON, 2301 South Ervay, advised that he resides 5107 Junius and has no home telephone. He said he was employed at American Bakery Co., 2301 South Ervay, as a "mixer" and has been so employed since August, 1960. He states his Social Security No. is 465-54-6916, and noted that he formerly used Social Security No. 465-50-6916, until he was advised by the Social Security Administrator that he should not use 50 as it was assigned to another person. This mixup occurred while he was in the Armed Forces or shortly after he got out, when he first went to work for American Bakery Co. He advised he has never known any person named LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY, also known as JACK RUBENSTEIN. He said he had heard of these names since the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, and the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. JACKSON said he first lived at 1204 McKee for about a year, then he moved to 214 West Neely, where he and his wife lived for about nine months, and thereafter moved to 701 North Boulevard Terrace until July, 1963, when he and his wife separated. Her name is SALLY ANN JACKSON, nee Bryer. She now resides at 830 Sabine, Dallas, Texas.

JACKSON states that his mother, Mrs. GUY ALEXANDER, resides 1825 Denton Drive in Carrollton, Texas, and she is the person listed on his employment record as the person to notify in case of death or accident. Mr. JACKSON said his immediate supervisor is Mr. OMAR CURTIS at the American Bakery Co., 2301 South Ervay.

JACKSON said he had no idea how LEE HARVEY OSWALD might have come in possession of a paycheck stub which apparently belonged to him, JACKSON, but that it was possible he might have accidentally dropped this checkstub on the street and someone could have picked it up, but he did not recall ever losing one.

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM G. BROOKHART at Dallas, Texas:

On December 30, 1963, Mr. M. W. GEORGE, Tucker-Manning Insurance, 5651 North Central Expressway, advised that he is currently the owner of the property located at 214 West Neeley, Dallas, Texas, having acquired this property on November 14, 1962. This property was previously owned by LILLIE MAE HOOVER, 212 West Neeley, who left for Florida immediately after selling the property which is a duplex building with the address of both 212 and 214 West Neeley, to Mr. GEORGE.

TEXAS

Mr. GEORGE advised that Mrs. HOOVER does not have any known relatives in Dallas, Texas and has no idea of what her present address is.

Mr. GEORGE advised that his rental records do not show that a JAMES A. JACKSON resided at 214 West Neeley, Dallas, Texas since he acquired the property on November 14, 1962. Mr. GEORGE believes this would indicate that JACKSON lived at 214 West Neeley when the property was owned by Mrs. HOOVER.

Mrs. LAURA TOWNSEND advised that she was the personnel manager for Industrial Machinery Company, Incorporated, 212 Page Street. She stated she had no knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever applying for a job with them, or having any other contact with their company.

She caused a check to be made of her personnel files which failed to reflect that OSWALD had ever worked for them, been interviewed or had he filled out an application for a job. She contacted various officials and foremen in the plant and none of them could recall OSWALD ever appearing at the plant.

TOWNSEND further advised that her company frequently ran advertisements in local papers when they needed extra men and it was possible that OSWALD had learned of their company in this manner and had considered applying for employment with that firm.

Mrs. ED MILEY, 6421 Highgate, Dallas, TEXAS advised that during April or May, 1963, she was working in her husband's photography shop, Ed Miley's Photography, 1416 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, at which time an individual whom she believes to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD came into the office to apply for a job. Mrs. MILEY did not recall OSWALD until approximately two weeks ago when, through reading the Saturday Evening Post magazine, she learned that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had previously worked for Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall Company, 522 Browder, Dallas, Texas. She also has observed pictures of OSWALD in the press and she is sure as a result of her observations, that it was OSWALD who came to ED MILEY's office to apply for a job.

Mrs. MILEY stated that she could not be definite about the date of OSWALD's appearance at the office, however, she indicated she would review her husband's appointment book and determine therefrom the date upon which he had appeared. Her husband was out of the office on the date OSWALD came. The following day, OSWALD telephoned Mrs. MILEY and asked why he had not been called by Mrs. MILEY's husband relative to his application for employment. OSWALD was quite angry during this telephone conversation and asked Mrs. MILEY if she had his name and telephone number, and asked her to read his name and telephone number to him to prove that she had retained it.

On the occasion of his visit at the office which was approximately 2:00 or 3:00 P.M., Mrs. MILEY had asked OSWALD his experience in photography and he said he had been working in the Photographic Department of Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall and had been laid off because business was slow. Mrs. MILEY thought that this was odd because the MILEY business had been very good, and she was of the belief that it was the time of year when the photography business was good. OSWALD also told Mrs. MILEY he had worked since January for Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall. OSWALD also indicated he had prior military service in the Marine Corps. Mrs. MILEY recalls that OSWALD waited in the ED MILEY office for the return of ED MILEY and during his waiting, he appeared to be quiet and polite. Mrs. MILEY finally told him that she would take his name and telephone number and advise her husband upon his return. She jotted OSWALD's name and telephone number on a note pad and he left. The following morning when OSWALD telephoned, she tore the slip of paper that she had written his name and telephone number on from the pad, and placed it on a spindle. This slip of paper sometime later was thrown out or otherwise destroyed.

Mrs. MILEY stated that she does not know how this applicant for a job was referred to her, unless it was through the Texas Employment Commission with whom Ed Miley Photography had registered for a photographer.

Mrs. MILEY recalled that this individual when he called at the office was dressed in light-colored sport clothes. During the conversation on the telephone the following day, she noted the sound of children's voices in the background. She could not recall the telephone number that this individual had left, however, she does recall that the telephone number had the prefix "BL". Mrs. MILEY could not recall whether this individual had given any background information as to being married or place of birth, and she had no application executed by him.

On December 31, 1963, Mrs. ED MILEY was recontacted at which time she advised that she had reviewed her husband's appointment book, and as a result thereof, she was unable to definitely state what date it was that OSWALD had come in. She was of the belief that it could have been April 10, April 24 or May 14, 1963 that this individual had come to her husband's office, because on those particular dates her husband was away on assignments.

ED MILEY, Photographer, Room 514, 1416 Commerce Street, advised that his wife had mentioned to him recently that she believes an applicant for a job at Mr. MILEY's studio during April or May, 1963, was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. MILEY vaguely recalls that a young man had applied for a job as a photographer, however, Mr. MILEY could not recall what this person looked like, and has no sufficient recollection of this person. Mr. MILEY believes that this person came to his office and talked with Mrs. MILEY at which time Mr. MILEY was away on an assignment. Mr. MILEY further believes that this individual came into the office on the following day, at which time Mr. MILEY told him he did not need him.

Mr. MILEY stated that inasmuch he had no recollection of this applicant and he made no impression on him, and due to the fact that Mr. MILEY did not have the man execute an application, he could not furnish any information regarding him.

Mr. MILEY stated that an individual by the name of CRUMP of the Graphic Arts Department, Texas Employment Commission, was the person who referred applicants to Mr. MILEY. MILEY stated that he at no time had advertised in the local papers for applicants.

Mr. MILEY also had a listing with the Central Employment Service, 5602 East Mockingbird Lane, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. ROTHE stated that his office had previously conducted a search of appropriate records of the Texas Employment Commission at the request of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, at which time no record was located identifiable with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. RE: JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY

The following investigation was conducted by SAS HENRY J. OLIVER and LOUIS M. KELLEY:

Examination of the city directory for 1963 of Dallas, Texas, on December 18, 1963, reflects that there is no address of 1715 Canton Street, Dallas, Texas.

By physical observation, on December 18, 1963, it was determined that the Dallas Power and Light Company is located at 1711 Canton Street and occupies the entire block. It was noted, however, that the Salvation Army is located just down and across the street from the Dallas Power and Light Company.

WAYNE WALKER, Salvation Army, 800 Browder, Dallas, Texas, advised on December 18, 1963, the records of the Men's Social Center contain the following information:

The transient file reflected JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY was referred on October 13, 1963, from the Salvation Army Headquarters for a free bed. WALKER stated a bed is only furnished for one night free, but MURPHY paid 90 cents per night for his bed on the nights of October 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 21, 26 and 31, 1963. WALKER stated that apparently MURPHY had obtained a job and a free bed was furnished to him until he received his first pay.

The records were examined from November 1, 1963, to December 18, 1963, and no further reference to MURPHY was located.

VERNON STACEY, Night Watchman, Salvation Army Men's Social Center, 800 Browder, Dallas, Texas, advised SAS HENRY J. OLIVER and LOUIS M. KELLEY, on December 18, 1963, he recalled MURPHY had stayed off and on during October and November, 1963, but did not know anything about him except that MURPHY worked for a while for the Statler Hilton Hotel. He said MURPHY did not become friendly with anyone at the Salvation Army.

Mrs. AMBROSE MARTINEZ, Welfare Department, Salvation Army, 500 Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, advised SAS HENRY J. OLIVER and LOUIS M. KELLEY, on December 18, 1963, that the records of that Department reflect JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY first appeared on March 17, 1962. He stated to the Salvation Army he had come from New Orleans and was on the way to Los Angeles, California, to locate work. He returned on October 13, 1963, at which time he advised the Salvation Army he was en route from Los Angeles, California, to New Orleans, Louisiana. He was again referred to the Men's Social Center, 800 Browder, but returned on October 14, and again on October 19, 1963, at which time he stated he had a spot job but was now out of work. He was denied free lodging on these occasions. On November 1, 1963.

MURPHY returned and stated he had worked at the Haskell Drive In, 2010 North Haskell, Dallas, but now had obtained a job at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

C. STEVENS, Haskell Drive In, 2010 Haskell Street, Dallas, Texas, advised SAs HENRY J. OLIVER and LOUIS M. KELLEY, on December 18, 1963, that JAMES MURPHY had worked there about three or four days a couple of months ago, but he knew nothing about MURPHY or his whereabouts.

CARL GRAVES, Physical Director, Downtown YMCA, Dallas, Texas, advised SAs HENRY J. OLIVER and LOUIS M. KELLEY on December 18, 1963, that the records reflected JAMES MURPHY employed by the Statler Hilton Hotel, Commerce Street, Dallas, was assigned to room 917 on November 21, 1963 and checked out on November 26, 1963.

MURPHY furnished the following information:

Parents's name	FRANK JAMES MONROE MURPHY USN
Age	27
Health	Good
Marital status	Single
In Dallas	3 months
In Case of Accident Notify	MRS. JEAN MURPHY, 1309 Burbon Street, New Orleans, Louisiana
Business Reference	DONALD ALONZO, Coach, Cathedral High School, Pine Street, Natchez, Mississippi
Character Reference	CHARLIE YOUNG, 1715 McCollie Avenue, Chattanooga, Tennessee (correct address - 414 Bonnawood, Hermitage, Tennessee)

ALONZO advised by letter the following could also provide information concerning MURPHY:

Monsignor FULLAM, St. Mary's Cathedral, Natchez, Mississippi
Bishop R. O. GEROW, Jackson, Mississippi

The following investigation was conducted by SA LOUIS M. KELLEY:

MRS. THELMA BREG, Personnel Department, Statler Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas, advised on December 19, 1963, that JAMES MURPHY was not employed by that hotel long enough for him to have hospitalization insurance. She said he was employed only a short time and it was necessary to be employed for six months before the insurance was effective.

RPG:mja

Under date of December 29, 1963, the Memphis Office advised that JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY had been located on the night of December 28, 1963, as an itinerant lodger at the Salvation Army, Nashville, Tennessee.

MURPHY advised he had been drifting around the country for several years, and on October 31, 1963, went alone to the Statler-Hilton Hotel Personnel Office, arriving between 9:00 and 9:30 A.M. MURPHY advised he recalled there was a girl in her twenties with red hair working in the personnel office. MURPHY filled out an employment application form, and to his knowledge, was the only applicant in the office at the time. MURPHY stated he was interviewed by the employment Supervisor, a Mrs. FISHER, shortly thereafter, and accepted a job in the employees' cafeteria.

MURPHY stated his only associate at the Statler-Hilton Hotel was a male Mexican, name unrecalled, who was also employed in the employees' cafeteria, and that this individual assisted MURPHY in obtaining a room next door to his residence, exact address unrecalled. MURPHY advised he resided in this room approximately one week and then moved into the Y.M.C.A. where he resided until he left Dallas.

MURPHY emphatically stated he went alone to seek employment at the Statler-Hilton Hotel and stated he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and denied any knowledge of OSWALD, or his activities. MURPHY stated he knows nothing concerning OSWALD'S alledgedly attempting to obtain employment at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, and denied any knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the assassination of President KENNEDY.

JO FISCHER

Mrs. JO FISCHER advised she is Personnel Director of the Statler-Hilton Hotel at Dallas, Texas and that she does not believe LEE HARVEY OSWALD had ever sought employment at the hotel. She said LAURA LAYFIELD tends to dramatize her job and has quite an imagination.

She said LAURA talked to BARBARA LANATELLA, TEXAS her (FISCHER's) secretary, on November 26, 1963 and told her that she believed OSWALD was an applicant and that he had been very rude and discourteous when he was interviewed. LAURA told BARBARA she was going to come into the Statler personnel office and attempt to find his application. Mrs. FISCHER said LAURA never did come in and search the records for this information.

She said Mrs. SMITH and BARBARA, employees of her office, did attempt to locate the application, and this attempt was made more out of curiosity than anything else. No note concerning the application and no form concerning OSWALD's application was located in the records of her office. She said another search was made at the time that she was interviewed by SA JAMES E. GARRIS when he came down, and during her interview with SA GARRIS she made a pretext telephone call to LAURA, and the facts developed as a result of this call were furnished to SA GARRIS.

She said that LAURA was told that the "tearing up of the application" and the fact that she, LAURA, claimed to have written "nasty" on the bottom of it, were not reasonable, in her opinion. She said that she requested LAURA to explain how the application could have been torn up and then how she might have written any notations on it after it had been destroyed and LAURA told her "I guess that it was someone else". Mrs. FISCHER stated that JAMES MURPHY did not use the name JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY when he applied for work at the Statler-Hilton on October 31, 1963. He was interviewed by Mrs. THELMA BREG who referred him to the Executive Chef, FRANK KANKRLIK, who hired him to work as a kitchen helper in the employees' cafeteria to begin work on November 1, 1963.

Mrs. FISCHER said that BARBARA LANATELLA (who has red hair) is her personal secretary and she determined from BARBARA that BARBARA was present and did recall that MURPHY made an application for work. BARBARA advised her she did not recall if other persons were present when MURPHY applied for employment and she said that BARBARA did not recall a Negro male making an application for employment as a baker on October 31, 1963. Mrs. FISCHER said she personally did not recall this man applying for work as a baker on that date.

She said THELMA BREG was the interviewer who talked to MURPHY before he was sent to be interviewed by FRANK KANKRLIK. She produced the time cards for JAMES MURPHY and they reflected he first reported for work at 10:39 A.M., November 1, 1963 and finished that day's work at 6:45 P.M. She said he was continuously employed by the hotel until November 26, 1963 and on that date he worked from 7:46 A.M. to 12:11 P.M., and quit because his hours were cut to two or three hours per day so he could get two meals each day, however, he seemed to think he would not be earning enough and told her he was going to New Orleans.

She said that MURPHY was processed on November 1, 1963 and that she believed he could have been confused about going to work on the 31st of October when he was sent down to be interviewed by the Chef.

She said he definitely was not put on the payroll until November 1, 1963 and that Mrs. KATIE MOORE, supervisor of the employees' cafeteria, could confirm this fact. Mrs. FISCHER said she did not talk to MURPHY on the day he applied for work but she recalled she did talk to him on several occasions after that and he did "blow up" when he got his first check and saw what his deductions were. She said MURPHY worked with MIKE MEDRANO who is presently a bus boy in the Statler-Hilton Hotel Coffee Shop and that she believed MIKE assisted MURPHY in locating a place to live. Mrs. FISCHER said she personally called the Salvation Army and talked to a Mrs. BURNSIDE to get a room for MURPHY about a week after he started to work at the hotel. At that time, arrangements were made for MURPHY to have a room at no charge at the Salvation Army.

TAVIS

She said she had not called the information to the FBI Office with reference to MURPHY's "blow up" when he left until after LAURA LAYFIELD called BARBARA LANATELLA because she felt MURPHY was "upset" over the death of President KENNEDY.

Mrs. FISCHER said LAYFIELD is presently employed as a hostess at the Court Club in the hotel and normally reports for work at 5:00 P.M., remaining until closing time.

She said she had no personal knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY, also known as JACK RUBENSTEIN, and that she had never been in any of RUBY's clubs and did not believe she had ever personally seen him. She knew nothing or any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mrs. JO FISCHER advised that persons in her office have made a very thorough and complete check of all applications for the period October 29 to November 3, 1963 and had not discovered any application that would indicate that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had appeared at the Personnel Office to seek work as a bell man during that period.

Mrs. KATIE MOORE advised she is a supervisor in the employee's cafeteria, Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas, and she consulted her "time book" and advised that JAMES MURPHY first reported for work and was put on the time work record on November 1, 1963. She said he was employed in the employees' cafeteria of the Statler-Hilton Hotel until November 26, 1963 when his hours were cut down from a normal eight-hour work-day to a two to three hour work-day and at that time he told everyone he worked with that it was his intention to depart for New Orleans.

She said she recalled that he appeared at the hotel two or three days after November 26, 1963 and attempted to gain entrance to the employees' cafeteria and to borrow some money from a former fellow employee, MIKE MEDRANO.

She said she did not know JACK RUBY and had never been in either of his clubs and knew of no relationship between him and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and that she had never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MIKE MEDRANO advised he resides at 605 Liberty in Dallas, Texas and he is presently employed as a bus boy in the Statler-Hilton Coffee Shop, Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas. He said he met JAMES MURPHY when MURPHY reported for work as an employee in the employees' cafeteria of the hotel on November 1, 1963, and that MURPHY requested his assistance in locating a place to live, so he helped him get a room at 601 Liberty in Dallas, Texas in a rooming house.

MEDRANO said he did not know the name of the owner or operator of this rooming house, and he remarked that after MURPHY occupied the room there for a week, MURPHY requested that he advise the landlady he would not return and to let his room go.

He said he did not know any of MURPHY's associates and has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never has known JACK RUBY or attended either of RUBY's clubs at any time.

He observed the photograph of JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY and identified him as the same person he knew as JAMES MURPHY. He observed New Orleans Police Department Photo No. 112723 dated August 9, 1963, which is a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he said he had never seen this person prior to all of the publicity on television, radio and news reports that came out subsequent to the assassination of President KENNEDY at Dallas, Texas on November 22, 1963.

Mrs. LAURA LAYFIELD advised she resides at 1810 Moser; her telephone number at home is TA. 7-7877. She said she has been employed at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas, Texas for about 14 or 15 months and is presently the receptionist and hostess at the Court Club in the hotel. She said that she recalled on October 30, 1963, she was the receptionist in the Personnel Department of the hotel and during the period 12:30 - 1:30 P.M. on that date, she was alone in the Personnel Office when three persons came in about the same time. One person was JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY whom she identified by viewing a photograph of MURPHY; another person she thought was possibly LEE HARVEY OSWALD; and she was unable to identify the third person. She said this third person did not ask for or complete an application.

Upon examining the New Orleans Police Photo No. 112723 dated August 9, 1963 of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she said this photograph appeared to be of a much larger person than the applicant she had previously thought might have been OSWALD, and on later reflection she said she believed the applicant whom she had believed to be OSWALD, was in his 30's and he bore a strong resemblance to her step-brother. She said she recalled this applicant took the application form after it was completed and tore it up in her presence and she reiterated the fact as previously told in an interview with SA JAMES E. GARRIS, that she had written the words "nasty - ill-tempered" on this application before the person took it and tore it up. She said she recalled that the applicant gave a "Fort Worth address, spoke Russian, and had a week-old baby".

Mrs. LAYFIELD said she recalled that the three men did not talk to each other during the time they were in the Personnel Office with her, and she said it is possible that the application and card which she made up for this person might have been pulled with the six months old records and destroyed inadvertently. She said she recalled that she had mentioned the unusual behavior of this applicant to a fellow employee, MARGARET "PEGGY" SMITH, after the three men left the Personnel Office and she said she thought she had remarked to PEGGY that this applicant was a "nasty human being". She also said that Mrs. SMITH was quite busy when she made this remark to her, and it is possible that she could have forgotten all about it.

Mrs. LAYFIELD said that Mrs. SMITH was never up in the front office during the period of time the three men were in the Personnel Office, and she recalled that these three men all left the office about the same time. She said she told them "We have no openings" (she paused for a moment or so) and then remarked "except for a cafeteria helper". She said the applicant knew that he could not get a job so she felt sure that was his reason for not returning, and then she probably tore up the application even though she was not supposed to according to the rules of the hotel. She said it was hard to definitely recall each individual that she interviewed when she was working as a receptionist in the Personnel Office, due to the fact that some 300 to 400 applications are turned in each month to that office and it was easy to "mix up the facts and not get them all straight".

Mrs. LAYFIELD said she had known JACK RUBY for about four years but had never worked for him and she knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

She again looked at the New Orleans Police Photo of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and said it was definitely not the picture of the person who made application for a position as a bell man and said that he spoke Russian before he got mad and left the office.

Mrs. MARGARET "PEGGY" SMITH advised she resides at 6373 Bordeaux and has no telephone at home. She said she is presently employed as an interviewer at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas, Texas and has been employed by the hotel for a little over four years. She said that she was first employed as a Secretary in the Personnel Department; later, she held a combination job of insurance clerk and interviewer, and she has been a senior interviewer for the past several months.

She said that about one month before President KENNEDY was assassinated in Dallas, Texas on November 22, 1963, she recalled a fellow employee, LAURA LAYFIELD, came to her office in the rear of the Personnel Department and commented to her that an applicant had been "rude". She said LAURA told her she had brushed this applicant off and had not referred him for an interview. No other information was given by LAURA at that time.

She said since that time LAURA mentioned to her that Special Agent JAMES E. GARRIS of the FBI had interviewed her, and LAURA came to her and asked her "When was the man (applicant) here?" Mrs. SMITH said she told her she did not remember anything about the incident, but after giving it some consideration, she said she recalled that LAURA tended to dramatize many incidents that happened in the front office, and she did not put any particular credence in what she had said about this person being discourteous.

Mrs. SMITH said it is not unusual to have a discourteous applicant in the personnel office; that many of them come in a half-drunk condition, and when they are told there is no position available, they tend to become unruly and discourteous.

She said LAURA LAYFIELD never did tell her that she had accepted or received an application from LEE HARVEY OSWALD - she only remarked that she had had a "very discourteous" applicant.

ROBERT LEE OSWALD was interviewed at the Acme Brick Company, Denton, Texas, and advised as follows:

In regard to a telephone conversation between JOHN EDWARD PIC and himself on November 24, 1963, he advised that PIC had asked him if he felt he was in any danger. ROBERT recalls answering that he was not concerned about himself, but that other people were concerned about him. He feels that the statement he made was misinterpreted by PIC, as he actually meant to say that other people were concerned about his (ROBERT's) welfare, such as his employer, fellow employees and friends who were all aware that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was his brother. ROBERT advised that if he had in fact indicated that others were concerned about themselves, he would have meant his mother, or LEE HARVEY OSWALD's wife, MARINA OSWALD.

THOMAS RAY, resident of Northeast Blossom, Texas, telephone 384-5244, an employee of the Gulf Oil Company, Paris, Texas, appeared at the Paris, Texas, Resident Agency of the FBI and volunteered the following information:

RAY explained that he was married to a Russian girl in Germany in 1946, and he soon thereafter returned to the United States with her. She was subsequently naturalized and received her citizenship papers in Federal Court in Paris, Texas.

RAY stated that there is a group of former Russians throughout the State of Texas who try to keep in touch with one another from time to time and that because his wife was a native-born Russian she was invited to a party in Dallas, Texas, on December 28 - 29, 1962, in attendance at which were many other Russians. The party lasted two days and among those present was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. RAY stated that in view of OSWALD's presence he felt that the people at this party might have information concerning OSWALD and should possibly be contacted by the FBI in connection with the investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

RAY advised that many of the people present at the party would have considerable information about OSWALD and his family.

RAY stated he did not pay too much attention to OSWALD at the party since OSWALD talked mostly to the Russian-speaking people at the party. He commented that OSWALD spoke Russian fluently and that Mrs. RAY had talked to OSWALD at length, and she expressed her amazement at OSWALD's understanding of Russian and his talk concerning the Communist Party line.

Mr. RAY stated that the party described above was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DECLAN T. FORD, 14057 Brookcrest Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone AD 9-5642. He stated that Mrs. DECLAN T. FORD is a Russian.

THEOFIL MELLER

Also at this party were Mr. and Mrs. TEOFIL MELLER, 5930½ LaVista Drive, telephone TA 3-2219, Dallas, Texas. Both of these people are Russian born.

BOR - USSR

DALLAS, TEXAS

Also present at the party was an individual named FRANK RAY and his Russian-born wife. FRANK RAY is no relation to THOMAS RAY, and THOMAS RAY stated he did not know their address and that they may now be separated.

RAY explained that a businessman, C. E. HARRIS, JR., 904 East 12th Street, Georgetown, Texas, telephone VN 3-3086, and his wife, who is Russian born, were also at the party.

When the party broke up at the FORD residence, many of the persons present, including the RAYs, went to a very lavish home somewhere in Dallas. The owners of this home, both American, were supposedly business people, and the husband is the son of a pioneer of Dallas. RAY stated that this man's wife remarked that her husband owned "ten acres of downtown Dallas".

RAY explained that BOUHE, the MELLERs and the FORDs befriended OSWALD, and one of these families had allowed Mrs. OSWALD to live with them for a long period of time. It was understood that OSWALD mistreated his wife a great deal and that he did not appreciate any help given to him for his ill-kept family.

THOMAS RAY, GERMANY six miles northeast of Blossom, Texas, advised that since he had been previously interviewed he had discussed all of the information he had previously reported with his wife, and she had made every effort to recall everything she had discussed with her countrymen and LEE HARVEY OSWALD at Dallas, Texas, over the holiday weekend of December 28-30, 1962. He stated that he did not know of anything else he could furnish since, as he had previously reported, he did not enter into the conversations that the former Russian citizens had had among themselves and with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said, however, that during his discussions with his wife, they had agreed that the name of the couple who lived in a lavish home and were from an old pioneer Dallas family, was named JACKSON. He said he did not know the address of the JACKSONS but was sure that some of the Dallas people at the Ford party could furnish that information. RAY said that one matter that has caused his wife much concern since he had talked to her was the fact that OSWALD had been so easily married in Russia, and the fact that the OSWALDS encountered no difficulty in getting out of Russia to come to the United States. He said that apparently this matter had been discussed by several Russian members at the party on the evening of the Ford party and subsequent meetings during the weekend in Dallas in December, 1962. RAY explained that his wife would be able to furnish more complete information.

Mrs. THOMAS RAY (NATALIE) was interviewed at her home approximately six miles northeast of Blossom, Texas, but prior to the interview she was advised of the identity of SA DEL D. DRAKE, JR.

Mrs. RAY stated that she had been born in Russia and had married her husband in 1946 in Germany, where she was a displaced person. He was a former GI who had taken a job as a civilian radio operator. She subsequently moved to her present home in Blossom, had become a naturalized American Citizen, and had received her papers in Federal Court, Paris, Texas.

Mrs. RAY stated that in 1962, through mutual friends, Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES E. HARRIS, Georgetown, Texas, (Mrs. HARRIS is Russian born, but now an American Citizen) the RAYS were invited to attend a New Year's celebration in Dallas, Texas, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DECLAN FORD, 14057 Brookcrest Drive, on December 28, 29, 1962. She said that they met the FORDS in Dallas; went to this party at the FORDS; and to the best of her recollection the following persons attended the party and she wished to explain that she had never met any of these people prior to the party with the exception of the HARRIS':

1. FNU JACKSON, apparently very prominent people in Dallas, who apparently were close friends of GEORGE BOUHE, and to whose home some of the people went after the party at the FORDS. (The JACKSON home was a very lavish home in a big residential district of Dallas).

2. Mr. and Mrs. FRANK RAY, no relation to Mr. and Mrs. THOMAS RAY. (Mrs. FRANK RAY was Russian born) Mrs. THOMAS RAY stated that this couple was apparently having marital difficulties and was supposed to have obtained a divorce.

3. GEORGE BOUHE, a bachelor, 4740 Homer Street, Apartment O, telephone TA 7-2288, who Mrs. RAY described as a person who was very much interested in all of the Russian people keeping track of one another and giving a helping hand to one another. She said BOUHE was considered the leader of the Social group. U.S.A.

4. JOHN and ELAIN HALL - No known address and nothing more known of them.

5. TATIANA BIGGERS, apparently a divorcee, who was from somewhere around Houston, Texas.

6. Mrs. TEOFIL and ANNA MELLER, 5930½ LaVista Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone TA 8-2219. Both of these persons were apparently Russian born. POB - U.S.S.R.

7. LYDIA DYMITRUK - apparently a single person who resided somewhere in Dallas, Texas.

8. A Russian man and a Chinese woman, whose names are unrecalled were at the party and nothing more is known or recalled about them. These persons came together.

9. Mr. and Mrs. DANIEL P. SULLIVAN, Lafayette, Louisiana - a divisional geologist for Continental Oil Company, telephone number 232-6998.

Mrs. RAY estimated that there were from 15 to 25 couples at the party during the evening and the morning hours of December 29, 1962 prior to the time that some of the persons at the party went to the JACKSON residence for a drink. She stated that among the group at the FORD residence were LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his Russian wife, MARINA, who could not speak English. She said that the OSWALDS had been brought to the party by an unknown couple from Fort Worth, Texas, or at least a couple who resided somewhere close to the area where the OSWALDS were residing. She pointed out that most of the persons who were Russian born enjoyed talking to Mrs. OSWALD and that the people who did not understand Russian very well, did not pay too much attention to any of the conversation that took place. She said her husband was one of these persons. However, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was questioned at considerable length by different persons at the party including herself, and many questions were asked of him about his stay in Russia, his work, and whether he would like to return to Russia sometime in the future. Mrs. RAY explained that OSWALD was very proud of the fact that he spoke Russian so well and that she was amazed that he had such good command of the language. OSWALD stated that he might someday return to Russia, and again Mrs. RAY said that she was amazed that OSWALD had such an understanding of the Russian Government and of the workings of the Russian Government. He did not exactly say anything that she could recall that sounded like he was advocating the Russian way of life and she was positive he never did say anything about the Kennedy Administration, of American politics, nor did OSWALD mention Cuba or CASTRO. Furthermore the name of JACK RUBY was never mentioned.

Mrs. RAY said that many of the persons tried to talk a little English to Mrs. OSWALD, and OSWALD did not seem to care that his wife attempted to talk English. On many occasions when Mrs. OSWALD was asked a question, OSWALD would interpret and answer the question for her, and this made some of the other Russian speaking guests quite angry because they felt that since Mrs. OSWALD was the latest arrival from Russia, she was more or less the "main attraction" at the party. OSWALD drank quite a bit and after some of the guests talked to him briefly, they would apparently get tired of him and would turn their attention to his wife. However, Mrs. RAY said that she did understand Mrs. OSWALD to say that she and her husband had had no trouble getting married in Russia, and furthermore, they had no trouble getting permission to leave the country to come to the United States. This was a point that caused several of native Russians to wonder, since they knew that this does not happen in Russia. Mrs. OSWALD also pointed out to Mrs. RAY that in Russia the Russian people were more or less afraid to talk to her husband, because they did not trust him and that since they did not welcome her husband, this was one of his reasons for wanting to come back to the United States.

However, as Mrs. RAY pointed out, OSWALD said several times that he liked Russia and that he "might go back". She said that both the OSWALDS talked about Minsk, Russia, and that from what OSWALD said, he liked this location and the way things were run in Minsk.

Mrs. RAY recalled that when OSWALD was leaving the party he said that he did not actually want to leave, but that it was necessary since he did not have a car and that he was riding with another couple. (This was apparently the couple who lived somewhere near OSWALDS.) She also recalled that OSWALD was not employed at the time of the party.

She also recalled that OSWALD was introduced to her under a Russian name but she has not been able to recall just what that name was but in the event she recalls it she will advise the FBI later.

After the departure of the OSWALDS, Mrs. RAY related that GEORGE BOUHE said he had tried to help the OSWALDS and had tried to help him take care of his family, but that OSWALD had done nothing to help himself. BOUHE said that when OSWALD would go somewhere to seek employment and was asked where he was last employed, he would reply, "Minsk, Russia", and then never give an explanation, and therefore he would not hear from his application. She said that BOUHE offered an explanation about OSWALD that seemed to be the consensus of opinion of several of the persons who knew him, and that was that OSWALD was a "mental case". However, on Sunday, December 30, 1962, while several of the persons from the party, and some others, all of whom Mrs. RAY cannot identify, were at the MELLER residence, OSWALD was discussed at considerable length by the Russians at the party. Mrs. RAY said that there was considerable speculation offered about the possibility that OSWALD was possibly a Russian Agent as that would explain why it had been no trouble for the OSWALDS to get married and to leave Russia for the United States.

But this theory was thrown out because OSWALD was "broke" and had "no connections in the United States, and Russia did not allow their Agents to be in this predicament in the United States. This was not like the Russian Government according to Mrs. RAY.

Mrs. RAY also said that the thought had arisen in her mind that since the Russian people had not aparently accepted OSWALD that he had been given an assignment in the United States by the Russian Government so that when he returned he would be accepted and that would probably explain his reason for wanting to return to Russia. However, Mrs. RAY said that after giving more consideration to OSWALD, she finally decided that he was a mental case, but she cannot get out of her mind that you cannot trust the Russian Government and that they are capable of doing anything.

Mrs. RAY said that she felt sorry for Mrs. OSWALD at the party and since this was the only time she had ever seen her she knew that some of the others felt the same way because several had said that OSWALD really mistreated MARINA and they were trying to help her. Mrs. RAY said that GEORGE BOUHE seemed to have some very definite opinions on the OSWALD family and that she felt that he would be very glad to discuss them with the FBI.

Mrs. RAY finally closed her remarks by saying again that she could not understand how OSWALD and his wife had so little trouble, if any, in leaving Russia, and she knew that several of the other guests felt the same way about it. She also said that she was sorry that she could not recall any more, but explained that this was the only time she had seen these people and that much of the details had been forgotten until she saw OSWALD's picture on television at the time of his arrest in Dallas, Texas and many of the remarks made about him had come back to her. She said the FBI could talk to her at any time it was necessary.

LYDIA DYMITRUK, 3542 ½ Kent Street, Fort Worth, Texas, who is employed at Nieman-Marcus Department Store, in Fort Worth, furnished the following information concerning her acquaintanceship with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD;

In 1962, she was living in Dallas, Texas, and was acquainted with ANNA MELLER, who was a friend of the OSWALDS. In about November, 1962, Mrs. MELLER asked LYDIA if she could take Mrs. OSWALD and her baby to Parkland Hospital, as the baby needed medical attention. She had never met the OSWALDS up until that time. She drove to some address in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas and picked up Mrs. MARINA OSWALD and her baby. They went to Parkland Hospital in the afternoon, but were advised that the Doctor who treated the babies would not be on duty until 7 P.M. that night. She took Mrs. OSWALD back home and picked her up again about 6:30 P.M.

At that time, LEE OSWALD was home from work and he went to the hospital with them. The baby was examined by a physician, was given some medicine, and received some type of a shot, or X-ray treatment. They were then sent to the Cashier's Office and the cashier asked OSWALD if he was working. He said he was not working and she asked him if he was drawing unemployment benefits. He said he was not, and she then asked him how he made a living and he said his friends took care of him. During this conversation, MARINA OSWALD was behind LYDIA DYMITRUK and she told her in Russian, "He is a liar". Mrs. DYMITRUK was embarassed and they left the hospital in a very few minutes and she took LEE OSWALD, his wife and baby to their home in Oak Cliff. She never saw, or talked to, LEE OSWALD again.

In about July, 1963, she was working at a store in Irving, Texas. One day, Mrs. MARINA OSWALD came into

Mr. GEORGE A. BOUHE, Apartment "O", 4740 Homer, was reinterviewed at his residence on December 27, 1963.

Mr. BOUHE advised that he recalls attending a party during December, 1962 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DeCLAN P. FORD, 14057 Brookcrest, Dallas, Texas, which was also attended by LEE HARVEY OSWALD and OSWALD's wife, MARINA.

Mr. BOUHE advised that he did not personally feel that OSWALD was a Russian Agent, nor did he feel that any of the other Russian-speaking guests at this party felt that OSWALD was a Russian Agent, but they felt that OSWALD was "crazy". Mr. BOUHE said that the other Russian-speaking guests were suspicious of OSWALD because the Russians let OSWALD's wife come out of Russia with him so easily. Mr. BOUHE said that these people are suspicious because they have been in the U.S. for about ten to twelve years and have lived under a "police state" condition both in Nazi Germany and previously to that in the Soviet Union. Some of these people had indicated that it had taken long periods of time to have wives and relatives released to join them in the U.S.

Mr. BOUHE advised that he did not, and to the best of his knowledge, none of the other Russian-speaking members who attended this party have any specific reason for feeling that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a Russian Agent.

Mr. BOUHE advised that he recalls that the following individuals who are Russian immigrants attended this party, but he believes all have been previously interviewed by the FBI regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD:

HAITI
USA

On December 19, 1963, Mr. NORMAN E. WARNER, First Secretary of Embassy, American Embassy, Port-au-Prince, Haiti, re-interviewed Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT. The following is a quoted report of this interview:

Information Concerning OSWALD Case Supplied to Norman E. Warner, First Secretary of Embassy, by Mr. and Mrs. George DEMOHRENSCHILDT on December 19,1963

1. Dates of Stay in Haiti

Mr. DeMohrenschildt stated that he had been in Haiti a couple of years ago (1961) but that his present stay began in March 1963. He was in Port-au-Prince for signature of a contract on March 13, having arrived a few days earlier and returning to the U. S. a few days later. He had spent approximately one week in Haiti at this time. He returned to Dallas then where Mrs. DeMohrenschildt had remained. He and she left Dallas on April 19, driving to New York and Philadelphia (Mr. DeM. was involved in a law suit in the latter city). They drove back to Dallas at the end of May for "two days" to pack their things and make final arrangements for coming to Haiti. They exhibited an airline ticket date-stamped May 29, 1963 by the Dallas office of Pan American Airlines. They drove from Dallas to Miami at the end of May and shipped their car to Haiti from that point. They did not use their U. S. passport on these 1963 trips to Haiti, but state they entered with a tourist card. They showed Mr. Warner their joint U. S. passport which carries no stamps dated later than 1961. They exhibited a Haitian residence permit showing their date of entry into Haiti as June 2, 1963. They state they have not returned to the United States since that date.

The DeMohrenschildts state that they did not see the Oswalds on their end of May visit to Dallas.

2. Oswald's Resume

Mr. DeMohrenschildt states he returned the resume to Oswald. He "glanced through it, not very carefully, and gave it back to him." He does not remember precisely how long he kept the resume but thinks it was a matter of days. In any case, he states that he returned it to Oswald the next time he saw him.

3. Oswald's Address When Gun Seen

Mrs. DeMohrenschildt's memory was not entirely clear on this point. At first she thought the Oswalds were living on Elsbeth Street in Oakleaf (a suburb of Dallas) when she saw the gun. Mr. DeMohrenschildt was not positive that it was at this location. Mrs. DeMohrenschildt thinks the time may have been early winter, or possibly late fall. After further reflection, Mr. and Mrs. DeMohrenschildt agreed that the occasion must have been around Easter in April 1963. They stated that by this time the Oswalds were living "around the corner" from the Elsbeth Street, about a block away. This new apartment was one flight up in an old, or old-fashioned house situated "in front of a modernistic apartment house." (Mrs. DeMohrenschildt later consulted her personal telephone list which gave the address as 214 Neeley. The telephone number was Riverside 1-5501 but she explained that this was the number where Oswald worked.) They recalled that this apartment had a little terrace where the baby could play and also that there was a rose "tree" coming up the side of the house. They stated that they had taken a large Easter bunny to Mrs. Oswald for her baby. "This could have been the time I saw the gun," states Mrs. DeMohrenschildt. She recalls that Mrs. Oswald had opened a closet door, disclosing a gun standing inside. Mrs. Oswald remarked, "Look how crazy he is," referring to her husband's having the gun.

4. Comment to Oswald on Walker Incident

Mr. DeMohrenschildt states that he did not see the gun but having heard the women mention it, he asked Oswald in a joking manner whether he had taken a shot at Walker. Oswald kept a "poker face," he recalls, and "sort of waved it away" without saying anything. Mr. DeMohrenschildt explained to Mr. Warner that he has the "habit of kidding." He added that "it sounds serious now but we all believed the Walker incident was a publicity stunt." He said "everybody in Dallas" thought Walker had staged this himself for publicity.

5. Dental Treatment of Mrs. Oswald

WRH:mja

Mrs. DeMohrenschildt confirms that she did take Mrs. Oswald in her car from Fort Worth to the dental clinic at Baylor University. This was "about a week, or maybe two" after the DeMohrenschildts met Mrs. Oswald. Later Mrs. DeMohrenschildt took Mrs. Oswald to a baby clinic.

6. Other Information and Other Persons Who Might Be Able to Supply Information

Mr. DeMohrenschildt explained that he and his wife are very active in helping needy people around Dallas and have been involved in many charitable works. He commented that "all the people in Dallas who knew the Oswalds knew them purely from the point of view of helping them;" there was sympathy for Mrs. Oswald in particular because she was Russian and in a strange land and could not speak English.

Other Sources: Samuel ~~Ballen~~ TEXAS, an investment banker in Dallas. Oswald went to him for a job but was turned down because he had no specialty. Ballen has investment interests in many enterprises all over the country employing thousands of people.

Theo MELLER and his wife (who is "Russian"). Mrs. Meller is an engineering draughtsman. He works in Sangers Department Store in Dallas "as head of stock or something like that." They have no children. They took care of Marina Oswald and her baby for a while when Mrs. Oswald first was separated from her husband. (The DeMohrenschildts had moved Mrs. Oswald on that occasion, from the Elsbeth Street address to the Mellers.)

Mrs. IRENE VAYSLEP was interviewed at her residence, 6011 Ellsworth Drive in the presence of her husband, VITALY VAYSLEP. DALLAS, TEXAS MRS.

Mrs. VAYSLEP advised that she recalls meeting LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD at the home of Mrs. HELENA HALL in Fort Worth, Texas in the fall of 1962, where she had gone with Mr. GEORGE BOUHE of Dallas to bring clothes to MARINA and her baby.

Mrs. VAYSLEP advised that she recalled meeting MARINA OSWALD again prior to December, 1962 when she, Mr. BOUHE, and Mrs. ANNA MELLER of Dallas attended a concert at the McFarland Auditorium at Southern Methodist University. On this occasion, MARINA OSWALD was not accompanied by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mrs. VAYSLEP said that the last time that she met LEE HARVEY and MARINA OSWALD was at a Christmas Party in December, 1962 at the home of Mrs. DeCLAN FORD in Dallas, Texas. Mrs. VAYSLEP advised that on this occasion although she saw both LEE HARVEY and MARINA OSWALD, she only spoke briefly to MARINA in general conversation.

Mrs. VAYSLEP advised that it was her impression that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was very quiet and never said anything of an unusual or suspicious nature which would lead her to believe that he was an agent of the Russian government. It was her understanding that Mrs. MARINA OSWALD was happy in the United States although she had heard that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had beat her on several occasions. She described MARINA OSWALD's Russian speech as average colloquial Russian with no outstanding attributes concerning it, and pointed out that MARINA OSWALD had taken a delight in the everyday aspects of American life such as laundromats and super markets.

Mr. DAVID CHRISTIE MURRAY, JR., 1419 Pinewood Road North, Jacksonville Beach, Florida, advised that he is presently employed as a pharmaceutical salesman with McKesson and Robbins, Drug Division, 25 North Main Street, Jacksonville, Florida, that he formerly worked for this company in the Los Angeles, California, area and that he was a member of the United States Marine Corps from approximately October, 1956, to October, 1959, and during that time had serial number 1632080. Mr. MURRAY was also in the Marine Corps Reserve from approximately 1959 to 1961.

While in the United States Marine Corps, he was first stationed at Parris Island, South Carolina, and while there recalls a marine named NELSON DELGADO. He does not recall whether LEE HARVEY OSWALD was at Parris Island or not. He first recalls seeing OSWALD in approximately 1957 while MURRAY was assigned at Santa Ana, California. MURRAY was an aviation electrical technician and he believes OSWALD had the same rating while there. He did not live in the same Quonset hut with OSWALD and states there were approximately 12 Quonset huts used by the squadron MURRAY was assigned to. The first 4 or 5 months that MURRAY was in Santa Ana he was single and lived on the base. After that time MURRAY was married, lived off the base, and did not associate with any of his Marine Corps friends during the evening hours or on weekends. He was assigned to Santa Ana for approximately 2 years.

He recalls that NELSON DELGADO was in the same outfit with him, MURRAY, throughout MURRAY's stay in the Marine Corps. He stated NELSON DELGADO was immature, uneducated, a follower who never had an original thought and he had an unusual interest in extremely young girls, generally referred to as "San Quentin Quail". He does not recall that there was any close association between DELGADO and OSWALD and that he does not recall OSWALD being close or friendly with anyone. He described OSWALD as a "loner" who did not associate with any "clique" and who was "anti-everything". The newspaper articles that MURRAY has read concerning OSWALD appeared to him to be quite accurate in describing OSWALD as bitter and he often wondered during the time he knew OSWALD just what kind of man OSWALD was. He said that he was not a show-off, did not appear to try and be the center of attention, yet he was unusually proud of his ability to speak Russian. Although OSWALD did considerable reading while assigned to Santa Ana he was not considered to be one of the "intellectuals" in this squadron. By general consensus RICHARD ~~CALL~~ CALL, Calif CHARLIE BROWN, and one other individual whose name he cannot recall, were considered to be intellectuals who were well read and had a good educational background. CALL was a devoutly religious individual and it could be that CALL may have had some discussions with OSWALD or that they could have discussed some books each might have read but CALL would not have been of the same opinions as OSWALD.

He does not recall that OSWALD spoke any other languages and he never heard of DELGADO being able to teach Spanish or any other language although he assumed DELGADO was probably of Spanish or Puerto Rican origin.

He does not recall that OSWALD was called by any nickname or any Russian equivalent of the name OSWALD and he was generally referred to as LEE by most of the Marines he knew.

He does not know who resided in the same Quonset hut with OSWALD and does not recall the names of any of the Negroes assigned to this unit or to this squadron. He believes there were approximately 3 Negroes in the squadron of approximately 100 men.

He has never heard of OSWALD or DELGADO making any statements concerning any trips through Tijuana, Mexico, or of any trips from Mexico through Cuba and into any other country, however, he knows it was common practice for Marines to visit Tijuana, Mexico, while on liberty as it has been for a number of years.

MURRAY does not recall that DELGADO ever taught him, MURRAY, any Spanish, stating it is probable that someone might have mentioned what one word or phrase might be in Spanish but that DELGADO certainly did not engage in a program to teach Spanish to MURRAY.

MURRAY has heard OSWALD speak of the Russian way of life but never in a political vein and states the few statements he ever heard OSWALD make about Russia were very general and concerned normal activities that might reflect something was done a little bit differently there than in the United States.

He recalls that OSWALD was once reported for some infraction of rules and as a result was confined to the base, but he cannot recall when or what this infraction was or how much punishment OSWALD received.

MURRAY recommended that CHARLIE ~~X~~ BROWN CALIF be interviewed if this has not already been done, as he states BROWN was a "busybody" who knew everything that was going on around the squadron. His recollection was that BROWN is from Boston, Massachusetts, or that area, and is a chubby individual. He does not have BROWN's address or know his full name.

E. Interview with LEE HARVEY OSWALD by Postal Inspector, Dallas, Texas, 11/24/63

RPG:gmf

On December 19, 1963, Mr. HARRY HOLMES, Postal Inspector, U. S. Post Office, Terminal Annex, Dallas, Texas, made available to Special Agent CHARLES T. BROWN, JR., a copy of a memorandum reflecting results of interview by Inspector HOLMES with LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963, which memorandum is quoted as follows:

"Dallas, Texas December 17, 1963

"MEMORANDUM OF INTERVIEW

"Informal memorandum furnished by Postal Inspector H. D. Holmes, Dallas, Texas, of an interview he took part in with Lee H. Oswald on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, between the approximate hours of 9:25 a.m. to 11:10 a.m. Those present, in addition to Inspector Holmes, were Captain Will Fritz, Dallas Police, TEXAS Forrest V. Sorrels, Local Agent in Charge, Secret Service, and Thomas J. Kelly, Inspector, Secret Service. In addition, there were three Detectives who were apparently assigned to guarding Oswald as none of them took part in the interrogation.

"Oswald at no time appeared confused or in doubt as to whether or not he should answer a question. On the contrary, he was quite alert and showed no hesitancy in answering those questions which he wanted to answer, and was quite skillful in parrying those questions which he did not want to answer. I got the impression that he had disciplined his mind and reflexes to a state where I personally doubted if he would ever have confessed. He denied, emphatically, having taken part in or having had any knowledge of the shooting of the policeman Tippitt or of the President, stating that so far as he is concerned the reason he was in custody was because he 'popped a policeman in the nose in a theater on Jefferson Avenue.'

"P. O. BOXES---He was questioned separately about the three boxes he had rented, and in each instance his answers were quick, direct and accurate as reflected on the box rental applications. He stated without prompting that he had rented Box 2915 at the Main Post Office for several months prior to his going to New Orleans, that this box was rented in his own name, Lee H. Oswald, and that he had taken out two keys to the box, and that when he had closed the box, he directed that his mail be forwarded to him at his street address in New Orleans.

"He stated that no one received mail in this box other than himself, nor did he receive any mail under any other name than his own true name; that no one had access to the box other than himself nor did he permit anyone else to use this box. He stated it was possible that on rare occasions he may have handed one of the keys to his wife to go get his mail but certainly nobody else. He denied emphatically that he ever ordered a rifle under his name or any other name, nor permitted anyone else to order a rifle to be received in this box. Further, he denied that he had ever ordered any rifle by mail order or bought any money order for the purpose of paying for such a rifle. In fact, he claimed he owned no rifle and had not practiced or shot a rifle other than possibly a .22, small bore rifle, since his days with the Marine Corps. He stated that 'How could I afford to order a rifle on my salary of $1.25 an hour when I can't hardly feed myself on what I make.'

"When asked if he had a post office box in New Orleans he stated that he did, for the reason that he subscribed to several publications, at least two of which were published in Russia, one being the hometown paper published in Minsk where he met and married his wife, and that he moved around so much that it was more practical to simply rent post office boxes and have his mail forwarded from one box to the next rather than going through the process of furnishing changes of address to the publishers. When asked if he permitted anyone other than himself to get mail in box 30061 at New Orleans, he stated that he did not. It will be recalled that on this box rent application he showed that both Marina Oswald and A. J. Hidell were listed under the caption 'Persons entitled to receive mail through box'. After denying that anyone else was permitted to get mail in the box, he was reminded that this application showed the name Marina Oswald as being entitled to receive mail in the box and he replied 'well so what, she was my wife and I see nothing wrong with that, and it could very well be that I did place her name on the application'. He was then reminded that the application also showed the name A. J. Hidell was also entitled to receive mail in the box, at which he simply shrugged his shoulders and stated 'I don't recall anything about that'.

"He stated that when he came back to Dallas and after he had gone to work for the Texas School Book Depository, he had rented a box at the nearby Terminal Annex postal station, this being Box 6225, and that this box was also rented in his name, Lee H. Oswald. He stated he had only checked out one key for this box, which information was found to be accurate, and this key was found on his person at the time of his arrest. He professed not to recall the fact that he showed on the box rental application under name of corporation ~~'~~Fair Play For Cuba Committee' and ~~'~~American Civil Liberties Union'. When asked as to why he showed these organizations on the application, he simply shrugged and said that he didn't recall showing them. U.S.A

When asked if he paid the box rental fee or did the organizations pay it, he stated that he paid it. In answer to another question, he also stated that no one had any knowledge that he had this box other than himself.

"ORGANIZATIONS- MEMBERSHIP IN --- With respect to American Civil Liberties Union he was a little evasive stating something to the effect that he had made some effort to join but it was never made clear whether he had or had not been accepted. He stated that he first became interested in the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, after he went to New Orleans, that it started out as being a group of individuals who, like him, who thought and had like political opinions. They did decide to organize, and did organize after a fashion, but denied that they had any president or any elected officers. He stated that he, himself, could probably be considered the secretary since he wrote some letters on their behalf and attempted to collect dues, which, if I recall, were $1.00 per month. He also stated that there was a 'Fair Play for Cuba Committee' in New York which was better organized. He denied that he was sent to Dallas for the purpose of organizing such a cell in Dallas.

"When asked if he was a communist, he stated emphatically not, that he was a Marxist. Someone asked the difference and he stated that a communist is a Lenin-Marxist, that he himself was a pure Marxist, and when someone asked the difference, he stated that it was a long story and if they didn't know, it would take too long to tell them. He stated further that he had read about everything written by or about Karl Marx.

"When asked as to his religion, he stated that Karl Marx was his religion, and in response to further questioning he stated that some people may find the Bible interesting reading, but it was not for him, stating further that even as a philosophy there was not much to the Bible.

"MARINE CORP_ SERVICE---Captain Fritz made some mention of his dishonorable discharge from the Marine Corp_ at which point he bristled noticeably, stating that he had been discharged with an 'honorable' discharge and that this was later changed due to his having attempted to denounce his American Citizenship while he was living in Russia. He stated further that since his change of citizenship did not come to pass, he had written a letter to Mr. Connally, then Secretary of the Navy, and after considerable delay, received a very respectful reply wherein Connally stated he had resigned to run for Governor of Texas, and that his letter was being referred to the new Secretary, a Mr. Cork, Kurth, or something like that. He showed no particular animosity twoard Mr. Connally while discussing this feature.

"MAP---Captain Fritz advised him that among his effects in his room, there was found a map of the City of Dallas that had some marks on it and asked him to explain this map. Oswald said he presumed he had reference to an old City map which he had on which he had made some X's denoting location of firms that had advertised job vacancies. He stated that he had no transportation and either walked or rode a bus and that as he was constantly looking for work, in fact had registered for employment at the Texas Employment Bureau, and that as he would receive leads either from newspaper ads or from the Bureau or from neighbors, he would chart these places on the map to save time in his traveling. He said to the best of his recollection, most of them were out Industrial, presumably meaning Industrial Blvd. When asked as to why the X at the location of the Texas School Book Depository at Elm and Houston, he stated that 'Well, I interviewed there for a job, in fact, got the job, therefore the X'.

"When asked as to how he learned about this vacancy, he stated that 'Oh, it was general information in the neighborhood, I don't recall just who told me about it, but I learned it from people in Mrs. Paynes' neighborhood' and that all the people around there were looking out for possible employment for him.

"ACTIVITY JUST PRIOR TO AND IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT---To an inquiry as to why he went to visit his wife on Thursday night, November 21, whereas he normally visited her over the weekend, he stated that on this particular weekend he had learned that his wife and Mrs. Payne were giving a party for the children and that they were having in a 'houseful' of neighborhood children and that he just didn't want to be around at such a time. Therefore, he made his weekly visit on Thursday night.

"When asked if he didn't bring a sack with him the next morning to work, he stated that he did, and when asked as to the contents of the sack, he stated that it contained his lunch. Then, when asked as to the size or shape of the sack, he said 'Oh, I don't recall, it may have a small sack or a large sack, you don't always find one that just fits your sandwiches.' When asked as to where he placed the sack when he got in the car, he said in his lap, or possibly the front seat beside him, as he always did because he didn't want to get it crushed. He denied that he placed any package in the back seat. When advised that the driver stated that he had brought out a long parcel and placed it in the back seat, he stated 'Oh, he must be mistaken or else thinking about some other time when he picked me up.'

"When asked as to his whereabouts at the time of the shooting, he stated that when lunch time came, and he didn't say which floor he was on, he said one of the Negro employees invited him to eat lunch with him and he stated 'You go on down and send the elevator back up and I will join you in a few minutes." Before he could finish whatever he was doing, he stated, the commotion surrounding the assassination took place and when he went down_stairs, a policeman questioned him as to his identification and his boss stated that 'he is one of our employees' whereupon the policeman had him step aside momentarily. Following this, he simply walked out the front door of the building. I don't recall that anyone asked why he left or where or how he went. I just presumed that this had been covered in an earlier questioning.

"A. J. HIDELL IDENTIFICATION CARD---Captain Fritz asked him if he knew anyone by the name of A. J. Hidell and he denied that he did. When asked if he had ever used this name as an alias, he also made a denial. In fact, he stated that he had never used the name, didn't know anyone by this name, and never had heard of the name before. Captain Fritz then asked him about the I.D. card he had in his pocket bearing such a name and he flared up and stated 'I've told you all I'm going to about that card. You took notes, just read them for yourself, if you want to refresh your memory.' He told Captain Fritz that 'You have the card. Now you know as much about it as I do.'

"About 11:00 a.m. or a few minutes thereafter, someone handed through the door several hangers on which there were some trousers, shirts, and a couple of sweaters. When asked if he wanted to change any of his clothes before being transferred to the County jail, he said, 'Just give me one of these sweaters.'

"He didn't like the one they handed him and insisted on putting on a black slip-over sweater that had some jagged holes in it near the front of the right shoulder. One cuff was released while he slipped this over the head, following which he was again cuffed. During this change of clothing, Chief of Police Curry came into the room and discussed something in an inaudible undertone with Captain Fritz, apparently for the purpose of not letting Oswald hear what was being said. I have no idea what this conversation was, but just presume they were discussing the transfer of the prisoner. I did not go downstairs to witness the further transfer of the prisoner."

F. MARINA NIKOLAEVNA OSWALD nee Prusakova, aka Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald -- Interviews with

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

A faded blue cloth jacket with padding bearing label "Sir Jac" with zipper front was exhibited to MARINA. She immediately identified this jacket as being the property of her husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she recognized the jacket because she has handled it and washed it for OSWALD.

MARINA was further questioned concerning JOE R. FRANKLIN, who is presently confined at the Texas Department of Corrections at Huntsville, Texas. She reiterated she does not know this person and that she does not believe OSWALD ever knew him. She said in October, 1962, she was residing either at Mercedes Street in Fort Worth or in the homes of friends in Dallas. She did not reside in the Oak Cliff section during the period of October, 1962. She recalls living in a white frame house with a front porch, but this was located on Mercedes Street in Fort Worth. It was a duplex. The people who lived on the other side were a young couple. The woman was pregnant. MARINA does not recall she and OSWALD having any neighbor identified as an older woman who might have caused trouble between MARINA and OSWALD. She does not recall OSWALD ever bringing a man to her house either on Mercedes Street or where she was living with friends in Dallas. She said she does not recall any occasion when she walked from her house to a car with OSWALD and thereafter OSWALD got in the car and drove off with a man.

MARINA advised that to her knowledge she has never heard of the Texas Import-Export Company of Fort Worth, Texas. She said she has had no employment in the United States, nor has she been connected with any mercantile or commercial enterprise. She does not recall OSWALD being connected with any concern by this name.

MARINA said she knows of no Russian officials or intelligence officers that OSWALD contacted in Russia with the exception of those individuals he may have contacted for the purpose of obtaining the necessary documentation relating to his stay in Russia or his subsequent departure with her.

No LOCALITY

She advised of further information concerning Col. NICOLAI AKSIONOV. She had a girl friend whose boy friend was a distant relative of AKSIONOV. This girl friend and her boy friend did on occasions visit the OSWALDs at their apartment. She recalls this boy mentioning the AKSIONOVs. She recalls he mentioned on one occasion that AKSIONOV's wife had had an affair with another man. She said that this boy had several conversations with OSWALD out of her hearing, and it is entirely possible he may have furnished other facts concerning the background and family of AKSIONOV without her knowledge.

MARINA said she was not interested in conversing on political matters with OSWALD. Whenever he began a conversation along these lines, she would simply tell him that she was not interested. She recalls telling him in New Orleans at the time he was passing out the "Hands Off Cuba" circulars that no one would join his movement as most people had families and had to take care of them. She recalls telling OSWALD that the United States is a rich country and that almost everyone owns a home and OSWALD could not promise land or other things and thereby gain followers.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

MARINA identified certain of her friends and relatives in Russia as follows:

1. INESSA YAKHLIEL is a graduate engineer. She presently resides on Leningradskaya Street in Minsk, U.S.S.R. Her present employment is not known.

2. OLGA PETROVNA DMOVSKAYA is a girl friend of MARINA's who was employed as a pre-school age teacher in Minsk. She is not presently employed as she has a small child.

3. LIUBOV AKSIONOV is the aunt of MARINA. She is MARINA's mother's sister and resides in Minsk. She is believed to be divorced but is still using her husband's name. She has been living with VASILI (LNU) for the past eight years although her legal marital status is not known to MARINA. She is a bookkeeper by profession. Her place of work is unknown. As far as MARINA is concerned, neither this aunt nor her former husband is known kin to Col. NICOLAI AKSIONOV.

4. LIALLA PETRUSEVICH was a neighbor of MARINA's in Minsk. She was a graduate of the lumber building institute at Minsk and at the present time holds some administrative position in the lumber building industry.

5. LUDMILLA LARIONOVA SEMIONOVA resides in Leningrad at the address Zaozernaya Street #6, Apt. #4. She is in charge of a government import store in Leningrad, U.S.S.R.

6. ELLY SOBOLEVA is a pharmacist. She was MARINA's schoolmate in the Leningrad pharmacy school. Because of the low pay of a pharmacist, she is now studying microbiology in Leningrad University.

1. Alleged Selective Service System contact by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, at Austin, Texas

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

As a result of LEE HARVEY OSWALD allegedly contacting the State Headquarters of Selective Service System, Austin, Texas approximately six or eight weeks prior to the death of former President JOHN F. KENNEDY, to get his discharge from the Marine Corps changed from "other than honorable conditions" to "honorable", Mrs. LEE DANNELLY, Assistant Chief, Administrative Division, Selective Service System, furnished this information by letter to the FBI Residency in Austin, Texas. She indicated in her letter that after searching her locater file for the name given her, HARVEY OSWALD, which she could not find, he was referred to the Selective Service Board in Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. DIXIE E. WILSON, Chief Clerk, Selective Service System, advised that her records do not show that LEE HARVEY OSWALD contacted the Fort Worth Office after being referred by Mrs. DANNELLY. Mrs. WILSON pointed out that if OSWALD had contacted the board, his file would have such a notation therein.

2. Liaison at Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, Texas, immediately prior to death of LEE HARVEY OSWALD

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Immediately following the report that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot at the Dallas Police Station on the morning of November 24, 1963, Special Agents CHARLES T. BROWN, JR.; CURTIS L. PERRYMAN, ARTHUR E. CARTER, LEO L. ROBERTSON and WALLACE R. HEITMAN proceeded to Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, Texas, where immediate liaison was established in the operating corridor where OSWALD had been taken.

Such liaison was established with Doctor MAURY SOLTES and through him with Doctor TOM SHIRES, Professor of Medicine at the Southwestern Medical School and Chief of Surgery at Parkland Memorial Hospital, who was in the operating room and directing the emergency measures being taken on OSWALD.

Preparations were made to be ready to take a dying declaration from OSWALD and Special Agents BROWN and HEITMAN donned operating clothing and took positions outside the operating room in the event Doctor SHIRES gave the word from inside that OSWALD wished to talk.

Following the advice sent by Doctor SHIRES that OSWALD had died, this information was immediately communicated by open line to the Dallas FBI Office and the above-described liaison at Parkland Memorial Hospital was discontinued.

Mr. GREG OLDS, 1316 Timberlake Circle, Richardson, Texas, employee, Richardson Echo, advised he is the president of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) Affilate in Dallas, Texas. He stated that he had never seen or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until President KENNEDY was assassinated. OLDS stated that after it had been reported in the newspapers that OSWALD was a member of the ACLU, he tried to verify this fact and finally determined from the New York Office that an application for membership had been submitted by OSWALD to New York. This application had been received in New York he believes on November 4, 1963. OLDS stated that he has no idea where the application form had come from unless OSWALD had picked up this form at a meeting of the ACLU on October 25, 1963. He has heard from some source, name not recalled, that OSWALD did attend a meeting of the ACLU on the night of October 25, 1963, which meeting was held on the campus of Southern Methodist University (SMU). It is believed by Mr. OLDS that OSWALD was brought to this meeting by MICHAEL PAINE. He has intended to talk to PAINE about OSWALD but has not had an opportunity. He advised that he, OLDS, was present at the meeting on October 25, 1963, and does not recall seeing OSWALD and certainly does not recall him entering into any discussions. He has heard, but once again he cannot recall the source, that OSWALD did have something to say at this meeting. He, however, does not know what OSWALD was supposed to have said.

OLDS stated he has not made any investigation regarding OSWALD but he has been following the background of OSWALD through the press with the intention of learning everything about him that he can. He stated he could not furnish any information at all regarding OSWALD since he did not meet him and stated he does not know JACK RUBY and knows of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

He does not know of any other ACLU meetings which OSWALD might have attended and stated the only person other than PAINE he knows that might have talked to OSWALD at the meeting was a Reverend BYRD HELLIGAS, 4012 St. Andrews Drive, Dallas. He does not believe, however, that HELLIGAS can furnish any information regarding OSWALD and believes that HELLIGAS just either spoke to him or was introduced to him.

JAMES LAWRENCE, identifying himself as employed as a Leasing Agent of the Cross Country Development Corporation, a subsidiary of Bloomfield Building Industries, 3355 Poplar Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee, advised as follows:

LAWRENCE spent about ten weeks at the New Orleans sub-office of Cross Country Development Corporation, located Room 101 of the International Trade Mart, 124 Camp Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, said period running from July to the middle of October of 1963. He was there to handle leasing arrangements for a new International Trade Mart being constructed by Bloomfield Building Industries.

On a day probably in middle August, exact date not recalled, JAMES LAWRENCE left the Trade Mart building accompanied by Mrs. DOLORES NEELEY, an employee of Bloomfield Building Industries, and he recalls they were followed out of the building by another acquaintance of his, namely NICK PALMISANO, then employed as a Room Clerk at the Royal Orleans Hotel, New Orleans. Upon reaching the sidewalk from the entrance to the building, LAWRENCE recalls several bareheaded young white males who were passing out some sort of printed leaflets. One of these leaflets was given to Mrs. NEELEY, and she started to show it to LAWRENCE, at which time both Mrs. NEELEY and LAWRENCE noted that someone was taking movies of this series of events.

Mrs. NEELEY recognized the photographer as being employed by one of the television stations in New Orleans. LAWRENCE does not recall this man's name, nor the name of the station, but did remember that Mrs. NEELEY asked her television acquaintance as to his purpose in taking the movies and recalls the reply which was to the effect that the photographer did not know, that he had merely been told by his station to hurry to this location to take photographs of action on the sidewalk.

LAWRENCE merely recalled that Mrs. NEELEY told him that the leaflet had something to do about Cuba.

JAMES LAWRENCE was exhibited a series of six photographs taken by Television Station WDSU on August 16, 1963, depicting various persons shown on the sidewalk outside the International Trade Mart, 124 Camp Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD passed out handbills.

LAWRENCE advised that with regard to OSWALD, who is shown definitely in photographs marked by SA LAWRENCE as IV, V, and VI, at the time he did not know OSWALD's identity or purpose, that he had not knowingly ever previously seen OSWALD, and has not knowingly seen him since that time. With regard to the other individuals depicted in photographs IV through VI, LAWRENCE stated that he does not recall knowing any of these individuals other than the person shown in these three photographs as a bareheaded male and wearing a checkered or plaid shirt and who is facing the camera in each pose, believed to be Mr. BRIDGES, Maintenance Superintendent of the International Trade Mart. LA

With regard to photographs marked by SA LAWRENCE as I through III, JAMES LAWRENCE identified himself as the person marked No. 4 in each of these three photographs, and further identified Mrs. DOLORES NEELEY as the person marked as No. 1 in each of these three photographs, stating that he was unable to identify the persons marked as Nos. 2 and 3 in these photographs. He did point out that standing directly behind Mrs. NEELEY and himself in photographs 1 through III is a white male having his head bowed and who is depicted as carrying a roll of some type material under his left arm, as being identical with NICK PALMISANO, Room Clerk, Royal Orleans Hotel, New Orleans, Louisiana, who had accompanied Mrs. NEELEY and LAWRENCE out of the Trade Mart a few moments before the photograph was taken. He stated that he is certain in his own mind that PALMISANO had nothing to do with the distribution of the literature and would further feel certain that, if his identification of the Maintenance Superintendent of the Trade Mart, believed by him to be Mr. BRIDGES, is correct, that Mr. BRIDGES would have had nothing to do with the distribution of this literature, and in his opinion would have been merely looking on as an interested or curious spectator.

LAWRENCE stated that he was rather shocked and surprised to see the hereinbefore mentioned six photographs appear on television as a part of a movie taken by an unrecalled New Orleans television station in New Orleans, Louisiana, at the time that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had purportedly passed out pro-Castro Cuban literature. He elaborated that this movie was shown on one of the Memphis television stations on either November 23 or 24, 1963, following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He pointed out that his wife and he saw this on television and immediately recognized not only himself but Mrs. NEELEY and the person pointed out by the announcer as being identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, recalling OSWALD as being identicel with the person shown in photographs IV through VI.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Confidential Informant, Dallas T-7, advised Special Agent CHARLES T. BROWN, JR., that LEE H. OSWALD rented Post Office Box 6225 located at the Terminal Annex Post Office Station, Dallas, Texas, on November 1, 1963. In his application for rental of this box OSWALD indicated the name of his firm as, "Fair Play for Cuba Committee," and another firm was indicated as, "American Civil Liberties Union." He indicated the type of business as "Non-profit." According to informant, Postal records indicated OSWALD rented this box for the period November 1 through December 31, 1963, and paid $3.00 rental in cash for the box on November 1, 1963.

Informant advised that on December 5, 1963, he examined Post Office Box 6225 at which time he ascertained the only item contained in the box was the December 6, 1963, issue of "Time" Magazine. The magazine was addressed to LEE H. OSWALD, Box 6225, Dallas, Texas. The mailing strap on the magazine indicated OSWALD's subscription expires in December, 1963. Informant stated that since the afternoon of November 22, 1963, a close watch has been maintained on this box. On the afternoon of November 22, 1963, a 24-hour physical surveillance was placed on the box by Postal Authorities which lasted until midnight, November 24, 1963. According to informant no one appeared at the Post Office to ask for any mail in this box. Informant stated that a continued close watch has been maintained and will continue to be maintained for any persons attempting to obtain mail from this box.

Informant stated that it is his understanding that OSWALD had a key to Post Office Box 6225 in his pocket at the time of his arrest on November 22, 1963. Informant stated that he was at the Homicide Detail Room, Dallas Police Department, on November 22, 1963, and observed the key in the possession of an unidentified Homicide Detail Detective. The detective told informant that the key had been found on OSWALD at the time of OSWALD's arrest.

Informant stated that he questioned numerous Postal employees after November 22, 1963, regarding any mail, packages, magazines, or other material received through Box 6225 by OSWALD and none were able to recall any material of any kind being placed in the box with the exception of one employee whose name informant was unable to recall. This employee told informant he thought on one occasion he had placed some type of Russian newspaper in the box but the employee was unable to specifically recall placing the item in the box and he was not able to recall a date on which it had been done, if it had actually been done. Informant stated that upon examining the box on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, it was determined there was dust in the bottom of the box indicating no mail had been received through the box.

Informant concluded by saying that on November 24, 1963, OSWALD admitted renting P. O. Box 6225 and P. O. Box 2915 in Dallas, Texas. He also admitted to informant that he rented P. O. Box 30061 in New Orleans, Louisiana. OSWALD did not make any admissions to informent concerning his use of this box nor did he admit receiving a gun at any time through any of the aforementioned

Post Office boxes. He denied receiving any mail addressed to A. MIDELL through any of the Post Office boxes and denied that anyone else had ever received any mail through these boxes. He admitted to informant that on one or two occasions he may have given his Post Office Box key to Box 2915 to his wife for her to obtain the mail from the box and bring it to him.

On December 5, 1963, Confidential Informant, Dallas T-8, advised Special Agent CHARLES T. BROWN, JR., that on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, he was listening to a radio broadcast of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY at which time he heard the announcer give OSWALD's name as a suspect and he also heard the announcer say OSWALD was associated with the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Informant advised that when he heard of OSWALD's association with the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee," this "rang a bell" with him and he immediately checked his application cards for box rentals at the Terminal Annex Post Office Station. By looking for a card bearing the name, "Fair Play for Cuba Committee," informant observed that this appeared on a card filled out by LEE H. OSWALD. Informant stated that after observing OSWALD's photograph on television and in the newspapers he was positive that OSWALD was the man who came to the Terminal Annex Post Office in Dallas, Texas, on November 1, 1963, and filled out an application card for Post Office Box 6225. Informant continued that all the handwriting appearing on the application card for Box 6225 was in the handwriting of OSWALD with the exception of the box number which appears in the right-hand corner of the card.

Informant recalled asking OSWALD whether OSWALD wanted the box in OSWALD's name or in the name of the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Informant advised that OSWALD gave him instructions that the box was to be maintained in OSWALD's own name. Informant observed OSWALD, when he left the box window at the Terminal Annex Station, walk to the center of the lobby to fill out the application card after which he returned to informant's location. At that point OSWALD furnished informant with the application card for Box 6225 and thereafter handed informant $3.00 in cash for rental of the box for the period from November 1 through December 31, 1963. According to informant, OSWALD was alone at this time. Informant recalled OSWALD being a young, white man of slender build. Informant assumed that since OSWALD had P. O. Box 6225 in his own name, OSWALD would be the only one using this box.

Informant concluded by stating he did not notice any additional money in OSWALD's wallet when OSWALD gave him $3.00 for the box rental. OSWALD did not show any form of identification when he rented P. O. Box 6225.

Informant exhibited to Special Agent BROWN a Post Office Box key, Number 1126, which informant identified as a key fitting P. O. Box 6225 at the Terminal Annex Post Office Station, Dallas, Texas.

"Sat. Oct. 31. (Con) Warnes me not to take any steps before the soviets except me, says I am a 'fool', and says the dissolution papers are along time in preparing (In other words refuses to allow me at that time to dissolve U. S. Citiz. I state 'my mind is make up' From this day forward I consider myself no citizen of the U. S. A. I spend 40 minutes at the Embassy before Snyder says 'Now unless you wish to expound on your Maxist belifes you can go.' I wish to dissolve U. S. Citiz., not today he says in effect. I leave Embassy, elated at this showdown, returning to my hotel I feel now my enorgies are not spent in vain.' I'm sure Russians will except me after this sign of my faith in them. 2:00 a knock a reporter by the name of Goldstene wants an interview I'm flabbergassed 'How did you find out? The Embassy called U. S.' He said. I send him away I sit and relize this is one way to bring pressure on me. By notifing my relations in U. S. through the newspapers. Although they would say 'ifs for the public record.' A half hour later another reporter Miss Mosby comes. I answer a few quick questions after refusing an intervine. I am surprised at the interest. I get phone calls from 'Time' at night a phone call from the States I refuse all calles without finding out who's it from. I feel non-deplussed because of the attention 10:00 I retire.

"Nov. 1 - more reporters, 3 phone calls from brother, mother, now I feel slightly axzillarated, not so lonly.

"Nov. 2 - 15 days of utter loneliness I refuse all reports phone calls I remaine in my room, I am racked with dsyentary.

"Nov. 15 - I decide to give an interview, I have Miss Mosbys card so I call her. She drives right over. I give my story, allow pictures, later story is distorted, sent without my perrmission, that is: before I ever saw and o.k'ed her story, again I feel slightly better because of the attention

"Nov. 16. A Russian official comes to my room askes how I am. notifies me I can remain in USSR till some solution in found with what to do with me, it is comforting news for me. (There is a note in the left margin which reads, "See: Nov 15th interview').

ANITA ZEGER

B. APPROX 1940

"singer. Anita Zeger 20 very gay, not so attractive but we hit it off. Her boy-friend Alfred is a Hungarian chap, silent and brooding, not at all like Anita. Oppossition I have heard. I respect Zeger, he has seen the world. He says many things, and relats many things I do not know about the U.S.S.R. I begin to feel uneasy inside, its true!

"June - July Summer months of green beauty, pine forest very deep. I enjoy many Sundays in the enviorments of Minsk with the Zegers who have a car 'Mosivick' Alfred always goes along with Anita, Leonara seems to have no permanent bov-friend, but many admiriers. She has a beauiful Spanish figure, long black hair, like Anita. I never pay much atten. to her shes too old for me she seems to dislike my lack of attention for some reason. She is high strung. I have become habituatated to a small cafe which is where I dine in the evening the food is generaly poor and always eactly the same, menue in any cafe, at any point in the city. The food is cheap and I don't really care about quiality after three years in the U.S.M.C.

"Aug - Sept. As my Russian improves I become increasingly concious of just what sort of a sociaty I live in. Mass gymnastics, complusory afterwork meeting, usually political - information meeting. Complusory attendance at lectures and the sending of the entire shop collective (except me) to pick potatoes on a Sunday, at a state colletive farm. A patroict duty' to bring in the harvest. The opions of the workers (unvoiced) are that its a great pain in the neck. They don't seem to be esspicialy enthusiatic about any of the 'collective' duties a natural feeling. I am increasingly aware of the presence, in all thing, of Lebizen, shop party secretary, fat, fortyish, and Jovial on the outside. He is a no-nonsense party regular.

"28 ... Dairy Page 8

"Oct. the coming of Fall, my dread of a new Russian winter are mellowed in splendid golds and reds of Fall in Belo Russia plums peachs appricots and cherrys abound for these last Fall weeks I am a healthy brown color and stuffed with fresh fruit. (At other "times of the year unobtainable)

"Oct. 18 My 21st birthday sees Rosa, Pavil, Ella at a small party at my place Ella a very attractive Russian Jew I have been going walking with latly, works at the radio factory also. Rosa and Ella are jelous of each other it brings a warm feeling to me. Both are at my place for the first time. Alla and Pavil both give ash-trays (I don't smoke) We have a laugh.

"Nov. Finds the approch of winter now. a growing lonliness overtakes me in spite of my conquest of Enna Tachina a girl from. Riga, studing at the music conservorie in Minsk. After an affair which last a few weeks we part.

"No is in Nov. I make the aquiataces of four girls rooming at the For. lan. domitory in room 212. Nell is very intersting, so is Tomka, Tomis and Alla. I usually go to the insitute domatory with a freend of mine who speaks English very well. Eraich Titov is in the forth year at the medical insitute. very bright fellow at the domatory we 6 sit and talk for hours in English.

"Dec. I am havhg a light affair with Nelli Korobka.

New Years I spend at home of Ella Germain. I think I'm in love with her. She has refused my more dishonourable advanis, we drink and eat in the presence of her family in a very hospitable atmosfere. Later I go home drunk and happy. Passing the river homewards, I decide to propose to Ella.

"Jan 2. After a pleasent hand-in-hand walk to the local cinima we come home, standing on the door step I propose's She hesitates than refuses, my love is real but she has none for me. Her reason besides lack of love: I am american and someday might be arrested simply because of that example Polish Intervention in the 20's. led to arrest of all people in the Soviet Union of polish origen 'You understand the world situation there is too much against you and you don't even know it' I am stunned she snickers at my awkarnes in turning to go (I am too stunned too think!) I realize

"she was never serious with me but only exploited my being an american, in order to get the envy of the other girls who consider me different from the Russian boys. I am misarable!

"27 Dairy Page 8

Jan 3. I am misarable about Ella. I love her but what can I do? it is the state of fear which was always in the Soviet Union.

Jan 4. One year after I recived the residence document I am called in to the Passport Office and asked if I want citizenship (Russian) I say no simply extend my residental passport to agree and my docciment is extended untill Jan 4. 1962

Jan-4-31 I am stating to reconsider my disire about staying The work is drab the money I get has nowhere to be spent. No nightclubs or bowling allys no places of recreation acept the Trade Union dances I have have had enough.

Feb. 1st Mail my first request to American Embassy, Moscow for reconsidering my position, I stated 'I would like to go back to U.S.'

U.S.A. U.S.S.R

Feb. 28 - I recive letter from Embassy. Richard E ~~X~~ Soyeydeck stated 'I could come in for an interview any time I wanted'.

March 6-18 I now live in a state of expectation about going back to the U.S. I confided with Zeger he supports my judgment but warnes me not to tell any Russians about my desire to reture. I understade now why.

March 17 - I and Erich went to Trade Union dance. Boring but at the last hour I am introduced to a girl with a French hair-do and red-dress with white slippers I dance with her. Than ask to show her home I do, along with 5 other admirares Her name is Marina. We like each other right away she gives me her phone number and departs home with an not-so-new freiend in a taxi, I walk home.

"March-18-31 We walk I talk alittle about myself she talks alot about herself. her name is Marina N. Prosakoha

Apr 1-1-30 We are going steady and I decide I must have her, she puts me off so on April 15 I propose, she accepts.

April 31, After a 7 day delay at the marraige beaure because of my unusual passport they allow us to registra as man & wife two of Marina's girl friends act as brides-maids, we are married at her aunts home we have a dinner reception for about 20 friends and neboribos who wish us happiness (in spite of my origin and accept) which was in general rather disquiting to my Russian since for, are very rare in the Soviet Union even tourist. after an evening of eating and drinking in which Uncle Wooser started a fright and the fuse blow on an overloaded currite we take our leave and walk the 15 minutes to our home. We lived near each other, at midnight we were home. U.S.S.R.

May Day 1961. Found us thinking about our future. In spite of fact I married Marina to hurt Ella I found myself in love with Marina.

May - The trasistion of changing full love from Ella to Marina was very painfull esp. as I saw Ella almost every day at the factory but as the days & weeks went by I adjusted more and more my wife mentaly. I still ardent told my wife of my desire to return to U.S. She is maddly in love with me from the very start, boat rides on Lake Minsk walks through the parks evening at home or at Aunt Valia's place Mark May June - a continuencec of May, except that; we draw closer and closer, and I think very little now of Ella, in the last days of this month I revele my longing to return to America. My wife is slightly startled. But than encourages me to do what I wish to do.

July - I decived to take my two week vactition and travel to Moscow (without police permission) to the American Embassy "to see about geting my U.S. passport back and make arrangements for my wife to enter the U.S. with me.

July 8 - I fly by plane to Minsk on a 11-20, 2hRs20. Later after taking a tearful and anxious parting from my wife I arrive in Moscow departing by bus from the airfield I arrive in the center of the city making my way through heavy traffic I don't come in sight of the embassy until 2:00 in the afternoon. Its Saturday what if they are closed? Entering I find the offices empty but mange to contact Snyder on the phone (since all embassy personal live in the same building) he comes down to greet me shake my hand after interview he advises me to come in first thing Mon.

(see - July 8-13)

July 8 - Interview July 9 recive passport call Maria to Moscow also.

July 14 - I and Mariaa returen to Minsk.

July 15 - Marina at work is shocked to find out they everyone knows she entered the U.S. embassy. They were called at her place of work from some official in Moscow. the bosses hold a meeting and give her a strong browbeating. The first of many indocrinations.

25 Diary (illegible)rd Page

July 16 Aug 20. We have found out which blanks and certifikats are nesscary to apply for a exit visa They number about 20 papers; birth certificates affidavite photos ect. On Aug 20th we give the papers out they say it will be 3½ months before we know wheather they'll let us go or not. in the meantime Marina has had to stade 4 differant meeting at the place of work held by her boss's at the direction of "someone" by phone. The Young Comm. leauge headquathes also called about her and she had to go see them for 1½ Hrs.

"The purpose (expressed of is to disaude her from going to the U.S.A., net effect: make her more stubborn about wanting to go. Maria is pregnet. We only hope that the visas come through soon.

Aug 21-Sept 1 - I make repeated trips to the passport & visa office also to Ministry of For. Affairs in Minsk, also Min. of Interal Affairs, all of which have a say in the granting of a visa, I extrakted promises of quick attention to us.

Sept-Oct 18. No word from Min. ("They'll call us".) Marina leaves Minsk by train on vaction to the city of Khkov in the Urals to vist an aunt for 4 weeks. During this time I am lonely but I and Erich go to the dances and public places for enitanment. I havent done this in quite a few months now. I spend my birthday alone at the opera wacthing my favoriot "Queen of Spades". I am 22 years old.

Nov. 2 Marina arrives back, radient, with serveral jars of preserses for me from her her aunt in Khkov.

Nov - Dec. Now we are becoming anide about the delay Marina is beginning to waiver about going to the U.S. probably from the strain and her being pregnate, still we quarrel and so things are not to bright esp. with the approch of the hard Russian winter.

Dec 25th Xmas Day Tues. Marina is called to the passport & visa office. She is told we have been granted Soviet exit visa's. She fills out the completing blank and than comes home with the news. its great (I think)

New Years we spend at the Zeger's at a dinner party at midnight. Attended by 6 other persons.

Jan. 4. I am called to the passport office since my residenceal passport expires today. Since I now have a U. S. passport in my possition I am given a totly new resid. pass. called "Pass. for Forin." and since they have given us permission to leave, and know we shall good to July 5, 1962.

Jan 15- Days of cold Russian winter but we feel fine.
Feb. 15 - Marina is supposed to have baby on March 1st.

Feb. 15 - Dawn. Marina wakes me. its her time, at 9:00 we arrive at the hospital I leave her in care of nurses and leave to go to work. 10:00 Marina has a baby girl. When I visit the hospital at 500 after work, I am given news. We both wanted a boy. Marina feels well, baby girl, O.K.

Feb. 23 Maria leaves hospital I see June for first time.

Feb. 28 I go to registra (as prespibed by law) the baby. I want her name to be June Marina Oswald. But those Beaurocrats say her middle name must be the same as my first. A Russian custom support by a law. I refuse to have her name written as "June Lee". They promise to call the city ministry (city hall) and find out in this case since I do have an U.S. passport.

Feb. 29. I am told that nobody knows what to do exactly, but everyone agrees "Go ahead and do it. "Po-Russki". Name: June Lee.

March. The last commiques are exchanged between myself and embassy. letters are always arriving from my mother and brother in the U.S. I have stillI not told Erich who is my oldest existing aquaitance, that we are going to the State, he's O.K. But I'm afraid he is too good a young Communist leage member so I'll wait till last min.

March 28 - Marina quits her job in the formal fashion.

March 25 - I recive a letter from Immigration & Natur. service at San Antonio, Texas, that Marina has had her visa petition to the U.S. (approved!!) The last document. Now we only have to wait for the U.S. Embassey to recive their copy of the approval so they can officially give the go ahead.

25 Dec 1961. Nell Rogrobakc 21 large, 5 ft. 11 inch 150 lbs, built propertionly, large fruitful breast hips wide and hevvey but very pleasly proportioned, from a villige near the polish boarder of strictly Russian peasent stock. gentle kind womenly and understanding, passionate in heat, stubborn in hate she combined all the best womenly features with the kind simple, Russian hearlh. I met her through one of her room-mates, tomka, anell and Tomka together with three other girls lived in a room at the for. hon. Insit. Dom. in Minsk near the victory urile. I began to notice nell serously only after I had parted ways with Enna. Nell at first dose not seem to warrant attention since she is rather plain looking and frieghtingly large. but I felt at once that she was kind and her passions were proportionent too her size. I fact too be found out only after a great deal of research. after a light affair lasting into Jan and even Feb, we containugly to remain on friendly but conventional terms throughout 1961 up till May when after beging married we no longer met.

June 19(illegible) Ella Germain - a silky, black haired Jewish beauty with fine dark eyes skin as white as snow a beautiful smile and good but unpredictable nature, her only fault was that at 24 she was still a virgin, and due entirely to her own desire. I met her when she came too work at our factory. I noticed her, and perhaps fell in love with her, the first minute I saw her. we remained "on amibale terms from the time we met to the time I left the country. I proposed marrige to her on serval occ. and loved her with all my heart, but she would not have me. Our last formall date was in Feb. 1961 after which I stopped seeing her.

35 Diary Embassy meeting.
Oct. 31, 1959.

12:30 Arrive in "Bolga" type taxi, two Russian policemen stand at the embassy, one sulutes as I approch I entrane of the embassy and says "passport". I smile and show my passport. He motions me to pass inside as I wish. Their can be little douth I'm sure in his mind that I'm a American, light overcoat, no hat or scraf and non-Russian button down shirt & tie. Entering I find the office of "consular" sige opening the door I go in. A secretary busy typing looks up. "Yes"? She says "I'd like to see the consular". I say. "Will you sign the tourist registar please". She says drylly going back to her typing. "Yes, but before I'll do that, I'd like to see the consular," laying my passport on her desk, as she looks up puzzled, I'm here to dissovle my American citizenship." She rises and taking my passport goes into the open inter office, where she lays the passport on a mans desk, saying "There is a Mr. Oswald outside, who says he's here to dissolve his U.S. citizenship. "OK" the man says, "Thanks" he says to the girl without looking up from his typing. She, as she comes out, invites me into the inter office to sit down. I do so, selecting an armchair to the front left side of Snyders deck (it was Snyder whom I talked too head consular) I wait, crossing my legs and laying my gloves in my lap. He finishes typing, removes the letter from his typewriter and adjusting his glasses looks at me. "What can I do for you he asks" leafing through my passport, "I'm here to dissolve my U.S. Citizenship and would like to sing the legle papers to that effect." have you applyed for Russian citrizenship? Yes. He taking out a piece of paper and says "Before we get to that I'd like some personal infor." He ask name, personal information to which I ansewer than: "Your reasons for coming." I say I have experienced life in the U.S. America military life American imperilism I am a Marxist, and I waited two "years for this I don't want to live in the U.S. or be burtained by American citizenship. He says O.K. that's all unless you want to profound your "Marxist belifes" you can go. I said "I've requested that I be allowed to sign legal papers devasting myself of U.S. citizen. Do you refuse me that right?" He says "uhg. no, but the papers will take some time to get ready in the meantime where are you staying" Room 212 at the Metropole" I state, angry at being refused a right I start to leave "You'll tell us what the Russ. do next" I turn very mad "of course" I say and leave.

23 Diary Interview Nov. 15 with Miss Mosby Nov. 15, 1959

Miss Mosby enters, greets me and sits down I start by saying. I wish it understood that I wish to see the story before it is sent, "All right" she says "It's all the same to me what you do in regards to your life, I'm just taking down your words" O.K. I say, first the reasons for my coming. She asks about military service I answer questions about my military service and than she asks why did you apply for Soviet citizenship? What are your reasons for coming here? I have waited for two years in order to dissolve my American citizenship I have seen too much hate and injustice in the U.S. I had served in the occupation forces in Japan and occupation of a country is imperialitic, what the Russians would call "imperalism" I have chosen a Socialist country since their are only two main systems in the world, "Why the USSR" she askes "why not Checoszbvia, where the housing promble is not so bad". "I have chosen the USSR since it is the leader of the Socialist comp. and the symbolic champion of the cause of Communism". What other reasons lead you to change your loyalty. "In the U.S., as we know their are many shortcomings, racial segregation and the surpression of the under-dog, U.S. Communist Party". How long have you been studing Marxism. "I first started studing 'Marioxi' when I was 15. "I always had to dig for my books in the back, dusty, shelfes of libarys and old outdated books were the back bone of my reading books on phlosiphy, political encomy ect. "In my libary in the most obvious places their are the prominint anti-Communist books we know so well but

"as I Say I allways had to dig for my book "what were some impresstions you go serving in the occupation forces." I saw the American military hauling cannon up a montain side the tools of war and appreciation I learned to hate the U.S. imperalistic military.: Thank you she say."

In the city of Minsk there are 10 factories, plants and industrial enterprises. These enterprises employ over 200,00 people or 50% of 850,000 people, the population of this city the fifth ranking in the USSR, after Moscow, Leningrad, Keib, and Kiga, the capital of the Russian State Beleprussia it is an important industrial and centrally located city.

"In the story of the workers of this great city lies the key to understanding the characters of the Russian people the understanding of the aims and hopes of the biggest country in the world in land mass and the second greatest industrial power. I shall not in the course of the book refer to the agriculture and service classes.

In the course of reconstruction at the end of the 2nd WW under the reign of Stalin, all major resources were turned to the rebuilding of the Soviet State, all sacrifices were made, including the slighting of the light consumer industry, to rebuild the heavy industry, the steel mills and machine tool plants, the parts and locomotive works. This book is an attempt at presenting a picutre of the people who work in this modern Russian working class.

Reference which I shall make and figures are taken from the book, "USSR Statistics for 1960 put out by the central ministry of books and printing, Moscow", and figures taken from the text of the 22nd congress of the KPSU, which will form the still unpublished basis for the "USSR Statistics for 1962" book to be published in Moscow in early 1962.

This book is not, however, no economic analysis of the Soviet Union. It is a look into the lives of work-a-day average Russians.

About the author.

Lee Harvey Oswald was born in Oct. 1939, in New Orleans, La., the son of an Insurance Salesman, whose early death left

"a ____mean streak of independence brought on by neglect. Entering the U. S. Marine Corps at 17, this streak of independence was strengthened by exotic journeys to Japan, the Philippines, and the scores of odd islands in the Pacific. Immediately after serving out his 3 years in the USMC, he abandones his _____American life to seek a new life in the USSR. Full of optimism and hope he stood in red square in the fall of 1959 vowing to see his chosen course through, after, however, two years and a lot of growing up, I _____ decided to return to the USA. This book is not a story about himself. He did only like narrator._____ He does think, however, that not too many people, at least Americans, have had the opportunity to look into an often incredible and sometimes_____world, but a world whose outward appearance is very like our own,_____

The lives of Russian Workers is goverened, first and foremost, by the "collective", the smallest unit of authority in any given factory, plant, or enterprise. The sectional and shop cells form a highly organized and well supported political organization. These shop committees are in turn goverened by the shop and section party chiefs who are directed by the factory or plant party secretary. This post carries officially the same amount of authority as the production director or president of the plant, but in reality it is the controlling organ of all activities at any industrial enterprise, whether political, industrial, or otherwise personnel relations. The party secretary is responsible for political indoctrination of the workers, the discipline of members of the communist party working at the plant and the general conduct and appearance of all members.

"The Minsk Radio and Television plant is known throughout the Union as the major producer of electronic parts and sets. In this vast enterprise, created in the early '50s, the party secretary is a 6'4" man in his early 40's_____has a long history of service to the party. He controlls the activities of the 1000 communist party members here and otherwise supervises the activities of the other 5000 people employed at this major enterprise in Minsk, the capital of the 3rd ranking Republic Beleprussia.

This factory manufactures 87,000 large and powerful radio and 60,000 television sets in various sizes and ranges, excluding pocket radios, which are not mass produced anywhere in the USSR. It is this plant which manufactured several console model, combination radio-phonograph-television sets which were shown as mass produced items of commerce before several hundreds of thousands of Americans at the Soviet Exhibition in New York in 1958. After the exhibition, these sets were duly shipped backto Minsk and are now stored in a special storage room on the first floor of the administrative building_____at this factory, ready for the next international exhibit.

I worked for 23 months at this plant, a fine example of average, and even slightly better than average, working conditions. The plant covers an area of 25 acres in a district one block north of the main thoroughfare and only two miles from the center of the city with all facilities and systems for the mass production of radios and televisions, it employs 5000 full time and 300 part time workers, 58% percent women and girls.

This factory employs 2000 solderers in three of the five main shops. Mostly these shops are fitted with conveyor belts in long rows on either side of which sit the long line of bustling women.

500 people during the day shift are employed on the huge stamp and pressing machines. Here sheet metal is turned into metal frames and cabinets for televisions and radios.

Another 500 people are employed in an adjoining building for the cutting and finishing of rough wood into fine polished cabinets. A laborious process, mostly done by hand, the cutting, trimming, all the processes right up to hand-polishing, are carried out here at the same plant. The plant also has its own stamp making plant, employing 150 people at, or assisting at, 80 heavy machine lathes and grinders. The noise in this shop is almost deafening, as metal grinds against metal and steel saws cut through iron ingots at the rate of an ince a minute. The floor is covered with oil used to drain the heat of metal being worked so one has to watch one footing, here the workers' hands are as black as the floor and some to be eternally. The foreman here looks like the Russian version of "John Henry", tall and as strong as an ox, he isn't frilly but he gets the work out.

The plant has its electric shop where those who have finished long courses in electronics work over generators, television tubes, testing experiments of all sorts, the green work tables are filled high here. Electric gagets are not to reliable here. Mostly due to the poor quality of wires which keep burning out under the empack of the usual 220 V. home voltage. In the US its 110 V.

The plastics department is next, here 77 women and three physically disabled persons keep the red hot liquid plastic flowing into a store of odd presses turning out their quotas of knobs, handles-non-conducting tube bases, and so forth. These workers suffer the worst condidtion of work in the plant, on otherwise model factory for the Soviet Union. Due to bad fumes and the hotness of the matials, these workers are awarded 30 days vacation a year, the maximum for workers.

Automation is now employed at a fairly large number of factorys, especially, the war industry, however for civilian use their number is still small.

At this plant at least one worker is employed in the often crude task of turning out finised, acceptable items. Often one worker must finish the task of taking the edge of metal of plastics and shining them on a foot driver lathe, there is only so much potentiality in presses and stumps, no matter what their size.

The lack of unemployment in the Soviet Union may be explained by one of 2 things; lack of automation and a democratic corps of 1-6 workers in any given factory. These people are occupied with the tons of paperwork which flow in and out of any factory. Also the number of direct formen is not small to the ratio of workers in some case 1-10 in other places 1-5, depending on the importance of the work.

"These people are also backed by a small army of exzaminers, commities and supply checkers and the quanity control crowd. These people number (without foremen) almost 100 people, total working force 5000 - 1.50 without foremen.

To delve deep into the lives of the workers, we shall vist most of the shops one after another and get to know the people. The largest shop employs 500 people. 85% women and girls, females make up 60% of the work force at this plant.

Here girls solder and screw the shasey to the fram attaching transistor tubes and so forth. They each have quotas depending upon what kind of work they are engaged in. One girl may solder 5 transisters in four minutes while the next girl solder 15 wire leads in 13 minutes. The pay scales here vary but slightly with average pay at 80 rubles _____ without deductions. Duductions include 7 rubles general tax 2.50 rubles for bachlors and unmarried girls and any deductions for poor or careless work the inspectors may care to make. Futher down the line, there stonhs teams of two, mostly boys of 11- or 18 turning the televisions on the conver belts right side up from which there has been solding to a position where they place picture tubes onto the supports. These boys receives for a 39 hour week 65-70 rubles not counting deductions. Futher on, others are fitting tubes and parts around the picture tube itself, all along the line there are testing apparast with operations hurrily afix (illegible) testing currents, and withdrawing the snapps that filling out a tester's card pass the equiment back onto the convery, speed here is esenstal. The comm. party ____ secatary here, as in the coming end of the third year of the current 7-year plan. Now the televisions are carried around the convey to go back down the line where other sit to complete the process, the smoke from the careful soldering does'ent keep the girls from chattering away, and that coupled the the boys at the end of the line testing the loudspeakers makes for a nosiey but lively place, with the laughter of girls mixing with music and occianal Jazz program which the testers favor for purly personal reasons until the fore looks his way.

"most shops, has promised to increase production by 20% in hourr of

As we go out we see crates of the finished product with the well known, "made in Belerussia", stamp.

One of the most interesting things in observing russian life and conventions, is the personal relationship to each other, here there exist a disiplind comradship springing from the knowledge that in Soviet Society the fundementle group is the "Kollective" or intershop group. These groups with the shop or section party chiefs and formen are the worlds in which the Russian workers lives. All actives and conduct of members is dependent upon the will of the "Kollective".

In the shop where I worker, the experimental shop, of the Minsk Radio and television factory, there were 58 workers, including the, party shop secritary, who is a communist worker assigned into _____ every shop by the factory Party Secritary, the master formen, assigned by the Shop production head who is assigned by the director of the factory and 1 junior formen.

"The key person in this shop, as everyone appreciates is _____Libezen, 45 years old, the party secatary, his background is that after serving his alloted time in the YCL before the war he became a member in good standing of the CPSU. During the war he was for a short time a tankest but his talents seemed to have been to good for that job so he was made a military policemen, after the war, starting at this newly built factory he was appointed by the factory communist party chief as shop secitary responsible for shop disiplen, party meetings, distribution of propaganda and any other odd "jobs" that might come up including see to it that there are always enough red and white signs and sologan hanging on the walls. Liebezen hold the title (besides communist) of Shock Worker of Communist Labor, this movment was started under Stalin a decade ago, in order to get the most out of the extrem patritrize driven into Soviet children at an early age. Indeed Leibezen is an skilled mechinic and metal worker and for his work he recives 130-140 rubles-month minus deductions. This shop party secitary together with the section party chief usually selects workers for the title shock worker of comm. Labor. These people are not nesscaryly comm. party members although it helps in the same way party membership helps in any facet of life in the U.S.S.R.

Factory meeting of the "Kollectives" are so numberous as to be staggering.

Take for instance during one month the folling meetings and lectures are sheualed; 1 prof Union: which discuss to work of the prof union in gathering dues paying out presents an vacation orders ect (pp 24.):, political information (4) every tuesday on the lunch hour;, Young communist meeting (2) on the 6 and 21 of every month;,

These meeting are always held after work or on the lunch hour. They are never held on working time. Absenteeism is by no means allowed. After long years of hard disiple especially under the Stalin regim. No worker will invite the sure displeasure of the party man and inevitively the factory party because by trying too slip out of the way or giving to little attention to what is being said.

A strange sight indeed is the picture of the local party man delivering a political sermon to a group of usually robust simple working men, who through some strange process have been turned to stone. Turned to stone all except the hard faced communist with roving eyes looking for any bonus-making catch of inattentioness on the part of any worker. A sad sight to anyone not use to it, but the russians are philisopical. 'How likes the lecture?', 'Nobody', 'but its compusory', complusory attendence at factory meeting isn't the only way to form spontanious demonstrations. The 'great Itobes revolution' demonstrations, the Navy day demonstrations are all formed in the same way, as well as spontanous metings for distungished guests. The well organized party men mark off the names of the hundreds of workers appoined to arrive at a certain place at a given time. No choice, however, small, is left to the discreation of the Individual.

For a good cross section of the Russian working class I suggest we exime the lives of some of the 58 workers and 5 foremen working in the experimentle shop of the Minsk radio plant. This place is located in the mist of the great triving plant which produces some of the best known radios and TV'S in the Soviet Union.

The shop itself is located in a two story building with no particular noticible mark on its red brick face. At 800 shape, all the workers have arrived and at the sound of a bell sounded by the duty orderly who is a worker whose duty it is to see to it that the workers do not slip out for too many smokes, they file up stairs except for 10 turners and both operators whose michines are located on the first floor, work here is given out in the form of blueprints and drawings by the formen ~~ZOMOF~~ and Jr. formen (illegible), to workers whose virious relibiality and skill calls for them since each worker has with time aquired differing skill and knowledge work is given stricly acording to so called 'pay levels' the levels being numbered 15 and the hightest level 'master' for level one (1) a worker recives approximatly 68. rubles for work level two a worker recives 79.50 for three 90 rubles, for four 105 rubles for five 125 rubles and for masters about 150, these levels of pay very slightly because workers recive a basic pay of, for 1st level 45 rubles and bonus's drigging the total to 68 rubles including reductions for taxes the basic pay of a master is 90 rubles, except in instaces for poor quiality work bonous are all ways the same giving rise to a more or less difinite

"pay scale, a worker may demand to be tested for a higher pay level at any time. Only skill is a barrier to higher pay. The foremen and shop head all recive about (illegible) rubles basic pay but much higher bonus's awardes to the best shopes by the factory commity for good production standards.

B. ARTEM 1914 to 1917 USSR

Our shop head SHephen Tarorovich Vetchok is a stout open faced and well skilled metal worker who although he hasn't got a higher education, which is now a prim requistion for a (illegible) as foremens job. Now, magned to finish a 4 year night school speciality coures and through the help of the director of the factory Mr._____became shop head in an important segment of a large plant employing 5000 people. SHephen has an all most bald head except for a (illegible) of hair on the left side of his head which he is forever combing across his shiny top. Aged 45 he is married with two children aged 8 and 10. It may be explained that Russians seem to marry much old than their american counterparts, pahaps that can be explained by the fact that in order to recive an apartont people often must work for 5 or 6 years and since sucurity is so unstudy until to (illegible) commmlydisired goal is reached, that is, an apartment for oneself, most russians do not chose to start families ___ untill later in life. Shenpah is responsibalbe to the factory commity and director for the filling of quotos and production quinity. His foreman ZOMOF is 38 years old has a wife and 15 month old baby not to long ago moved out of his one room flat without kitchen or private

"toilet into a newly build apartment house and flat of two small rooms kitchen and bath, a luxury not felt by most Russians. A tall thin man with dark creses in his face his manner nervous spontanious and direct betrazes his calling his job, keep the working on the premises going as quikly and efficienly as possible, his assistant Jr. foremen Loveook is much younger, (illegible) years younger, enigetic, _____ handson, quick, he climbed to his post through a night school degree and a sort of rough charm which he instintively uses in the presence of superiors, the shop's mainstay is commposed of 17 so called "Shock Workers" whose pictures hang on a wall near the stairs so that all might (illegible) to imitate them. Usually of the 5 level or master class of workers, they are expernanced at work and politices. Most shock workers are men of the older aged groups 40-50 not always members of the communist party, they carry the production load and most of the responsibility of the inter life of the "Kollective".

The remaining 41 workers are divied about half into 18-22 year olds, new metal workers, trying to forfill their obligitory two years at a factory, before going _____ on to full time day studies at the local University, or one of the specialized inistutes. and older workers who have been working at the plant for 4-6 years and occuply the middel number worker levels 3, 4, theses workers are aged about 24-30 and form the mass of labor's at the factory. _____ 70% have familys, apartments are few most occupy rooms belonging to relatives __ or rooms let to rent by holders of two or three "room apartments often for as hight as 20 rubles a month although rent in the soviet Union is paid __ by the sq. meter and 3, 15 meter rooms with kitchen and bath cost only about 22 rubles a month. The housing shortage is so qurickels ___ that people count themselfs luck to even find a person willing to let his room, room renting also is the most common form of speculation in the USSR. Often it reaches hights all out of proportion with reality, such as the man who derived 80 rubles a month from leting his rooms in the Summer while he himself living in a Summer house on Dacha in the coutry, such speculation is forbidden and carries ___ penalties including deportation to other economic areas of the USSR for terms of up to 6 months still these are the most common (illegible).

"most workers in Minsk come from peasent stock while repopulated the city at the end of the 2nd War.; like most Russians they are warm hearted and simple but often stuborn and untrustworthy.

The life of the "kollective" or rather inter life since it often touches upon more than just the work, is the most reflective side of the complex working of the communist party of the USSR. It is the reflection of mass and organized political activity, ___ decividing the actions of evey individual and group, placing upon socity a course, so strict, so disiplined, that any private diviation is interpreted in political diviation and the enforced course of action over the years has become the most compresitve educational and moral training probly in the history of the world.

To understand the work and workings of the "kollective" one must first ask who controls who leads the "kollective" the answere to that is a long one, all plants and factories

" in the Soviet Union have party kommities lead by one control discipline of members of this communist party and who, working in conjuntion with the director of the factory _____ rights all factors pertaining to the work, alterations, and production of any given line. No suggestion of the party man is ever turned down by the director of our factory, that would be president to treason, the party man designates who shall be shop and section party secataryies a post well coveted by employed communist. After long years of hard fisted disiplen no worker allows himself to be traped and called out for inatentivness by the evey present and watchfull party secretary and members of the communist party. The capital of Byelorussia has 12 institutions of higher learning, including a university and polytechnical instiatute. These insidtutes are engaged in turning out highly trained specialist for national economy. the city also has many secondary schools colleges vocational and factory schools. these schools teach a rigous 5 year course of vocational and political subjects. Hoseltals for student s are located near their respective Institutes, non-residical students live here. often this number exceedes the rooms, and many have to rent rooms in the city. all rooms 15-15 feet house 5-6 students with just enough room to allow metal beds to be placed around the walls and a table and chairs in the middle There is not room unough for closets so clothing is kept in suit-cases under beds. here, except during the three-month summer vacation, students live and study for 5 years. inside stocked USSR 112, per 10,000. commom rooms with stoves, are also located at the rate of 1 room to 8 student living quartars, for cooking. the cleanliness of linen, and rooms, as well as the entire dormitory falls upon the student. the rumber of studens in the USSR in 1960/61 was 2,396,00, U.S. by 1,896,000 or 102 per 10,000

All students in higher educational institutions recive 'stinpends' or grants of money at the rate of 40 rubles a month. regarless of chosen vocations for excellance to outstanding grades a student may recived the maximen of 50 rubles per month. Thus all students are paid to study in the Soviet Union, unlike the United States where students must pay tuition to learn. This is the reason why the Soviet Union turns out almost three times as many Enginners 117,000 in 1959, with many agnonama, 477,200 technicians and other speicalist this is why the Soviet Union has more doctors per 10,000 of the population (18.5) than any other country in the world USA. 12.1 1950 regardless of the lack of dormitorys and polished living conditions of the students that we have in the U.S., we could definitly learn from the rigours and highly specialized educational system of the Soviet Union. A system which pointly and carefully instills political as well as vocational training into each and every sudent. just as at the factory's and plants each and every insitute has its corps of party chief's, sectional and class for teachers and professor's as well as students.

At the 22nd congress in October 1961 Kpushekev, prophized that by 1980 1 out of every 5 persons living in the Soviet Union will have a higher education, this is one unheard of figure, but it is possible under the system in the Soviet Union.

Foreign Languages also hold positions of prority in the Soviet Educational plan.

The sudied lanuages in order of Importance and populairity are, English, Germen, French, Italian and Spanish with far Eastern luaguages following. The text books from which these languages are learned are very Interesting in themselfs as they combine politics and education at, once, a very common occurance. An example is that texts in English or Germen for Instance are given on the life of Leinen founder of the Soviet State or the structure of the communist party of the Soviet Union, formally the life of Stalin was a favored subject to fill a text book book - these books are no longer in cirulation.

A good text book for English speaking students studing Russian, is the one by Nina Potapova, USSR chairmen of the U.S.S.R. socity of friendship with the United States and England. this book published in 1959, by the Moscow publishing house, Zubovski Blvd. 21, Moscow, is a good stater for anyone interested in the highly expressive Russian Language, Polical texts are kept to a minimum in this book and only make up about 30% of the text.

Most of the millions of text books printed in the Soviet Union this year were published at the Central Moscow publishing house, a truly gigantic and monoplistic enterprise printing for those diposed to centralization. here foreing book are reprinted in the Russian Language and other into any one of the 100's of languages of minority groups in the USSR. (9000 titles in 1959 and 1,109,000,000 copies) 95% of the population of the USSR. speak Russian, however national

The remaining population figuors are distributed among 18 minory, and 60 fractional groups, some of which have as few as 4,000 people speaking the tounge. Also there are 60,000 persons in the Soviet Union who are from stricly not Union origin of these the leaders are, YGoslaves 5,000; Albanians 4,800; Afgans 1,900; Mongols 1,800, Italians 1,200, francemen 1,000, Spaniz 1,000, and Argintines (estimited) (4,000). 52% of all the 67,000 titles printed in the USSR in 1959 were technical or Industrial text books, only 25% of these titles were for light reading, of these most concerd war stories reflecting the struggle and victory of the Soviet Armed forceses over the Nazis during the 2nd W.W. as well as herioc novels about opening up the virgin lands in Siberia and the wild country East of the Urals, as was desriped by Eraving Levine in his book, 'Main street USSR.' Love stories are few and far between with them apt to be 'boy loves tractor, - loves girl' episods or how Ivan increased production at his michine to win the admiration of Natasha, the shop foreman.

forieng novels are very popular in the USSR because of their comparitably racy lines, however, foriegn writers seem to be chosen, because they write about the decay and drirreness and immorality of their respective country. Every forieng book seems to be chosen to show that if capitalism isn't dead or dying it should.

American authors Include, Jack London, Ernest Hememway and others

U.S.A

ERNEST HEMINGWAY

Some of these writers are often very popular in the U.S.A. but not for the same reasons; Jack London wrote what we consider adventure stories while the Russians consider them to be reflective of present day life, Earnet Hemingway, wrote 'old man and the sea' a deeply touching story of man's struggle against nature and the sea, while here it is considered an indictment of capitalist Socity although Hemingway, unlike Jack London, was naver a Socialist.

"For a person, reading selected stories by foriengner writers, one gets a very depressing feeling and is overwhelmed by the greyness and drabness of the life depicted in them, other forieng; authors include. Leonard Frank, Germen novist; William Goodwin, 'things as they are' English; and more classical writers such as Alexesander Durea 'Count Margo' French author. 'Sherlock Holmes and Captin Blood' are allso known and read in the USSR, but such tiles are few and hard to find. Dickens however, is in profustion wherever one goes. Mark Twaines books are also found in quinity such novels of 300-400 pp. sell for 1.50 rubes or less. Spy stories rank high in publication and therefore, pupularity also with the ladies more often than not American or West Garmen spiys captured in the end by the young, hamsome, Soviet courtes espionage agent.

Newpapers and magizines are allso a gint undertaking with the printing, if not its information agencies, less centralized and concrolled. In 1959 periodicals and magizines numubered 4,029 titles and 10,00,000,000 copies.

Newspapers numbered 10,603 Union, rebuillican and city and Kolkhoz papers, with 13, one-half billion copies. foriegner newspapers are not allowed and the country accept representive communist party papers such as the 'Worker' United States, 'Daily Worker' England, 'Humanity' France, 'New Germany' East Germany, the Daily Berliner, West Germany, ect.

The main publications in the USSR are 'Pravda' 'Truth' Organ of the Communist Party of the USSR and Isvestia 'the news' organ of the council of ministers of the Soviet Union, it may be noted that the Chairmen of the councle of ministers and the first secctary of the Communist Party of the USSR is one man. Nikita S. Krushchev. All Replican and city newspaper that their que from these two leading Dailies, reprinting articles passed to them by TASS Soviet News Agency goverment controlls all newspapers are organs of one or another ministry or their subsidiariss. In Minsk the newspaper is "Soviet Belyrussia' organ of the central commity of the Communist Party of Belyrussia. a sport newspaper is the organ of the Tainssky of phyiscal culterial, a railroaders newspaper is the organ of the ministry of auto transport and ect. the same of the organ of control is printed right top of the 1st page. Russian newpapers from 'Pravda' right on down consist of four pages except on special events where the number is increased from 4 pages for 3 kopecks to 6 pages for 3 kopecks. advertising is unknown, and unnessacery, in a goverment controled enconomy where prieces are rised are lowered as to the 7-year plan. the first page in all Soviet newspapers is devoted to party news and speeches. the secound too. production notices or local Industrial achivments such as the opening of a new dam or the overfulling of quotos at a plant. the third page is filled with foreigner news items, often conigied and crieted to A.P. or rieters news agencies they usually concern strikes and clashes with police, crime and race inicdents in capitalist countries as well as other 'newes', alanted to give a bad impresstion about all countries except those who are members of the Socialist camp or their follow traverlers such as Cuba who are painted as prosperous democraries fighting against Imperilism from without, and capitalist spys and agents from within.

Films carry the propaganda ball where books and newpapers leave off. with 90,872 movie houses in the USSR. with collective farm clubs bringing the total to 118,000 movie houses, the avage number of times a Soviet citizen goes to the movie, per year, including men, women, and children is 16.5 times (pp 319.) there is a joke current in the Soviet Union as to why N. S. Kpushchev recived his thried Hero of the Soviet Union Order, hightdst order in the Soviet Union, the answer is, for his part in the film. 'Our Nikita Kprushchev,' a documentary circulated in the summer of 1961, of old films showing Kpushchev in his younger days as a commisr on the Eastern front, or touring Industries after the War.

half of the hundreds of films made in 1959-1960 were either Revolutionary historical or War stories others were Virgin land or far north adventure stories, most every Republic has its own studio which shot pictures concening their respective places. In Belyrussia its the Belefilms on 'Soviet Street' it employs scores of operators, technicians, writers, costume fitters and actors. all of these have finished the artist and operators higher school of filmmaking in Leingrad, a 3-or four year course, and have diplomas in their respective fields. During the week of Oct. 9-15 the following movies were shown in Minsk. 'two lives,' revolutionary film of the 1917's 'Clear Sky' the film presented at the film festival in Moscow in July 1961, which took 3rd place. a film about the post Stalin Era, it condemes repression of the main chacter, a, ex-pirsoner of war who is driven out of the party, because he didn't die, as all good soldiers must. This film is very symbolic of the new govemet line condeming some of the tactics of Stalin and his qlick. 'The fair as West Germen film, against militarism, and 'The poor Street' a Bulgarian film about the resistance in the 2nd WW.

Foriegn films make up quiet a large percentage of movies shown here since the younge Soviet film Industry is not well subsidized and cannot turn out half of the demand for films.

Germen, Itatean and frenoh films, as well as more numouss films from the 'peoples republics' are popular here. American films are few although well liked for their technical skill and production.

American films shown in 1959-1960 in were: 'Rapsody' with Elizbeth taylor, 'Eve' with Joan Crawford 'the Seventh Vogage of Sinbad' made in 1959, and 'Siranego of Sun Valley, made in the 40's, others were 'Viena Waltz' about the life of the composier's and 'old man and the Sea,' a technicolor product of Ernest Hemingway's book. 'War and Peace was also shown to vast audiences in two serials.

Prices for seats in movie houses, unlike the United States do not change for adults and children but rather for the location of rows, with the center rows costing 50 copeks in the evening and front row seats 30 kopecks. Showing untill 5 oclock are 5 copecks cheaper per seat until the prices change. Showings are at posted times on the tickets, and doors are "opened for only five minutes while spectators take their disigneted seats. Nobody ever has to stand because tickets are sold only according to the number of seats in the hall, per showing.

Television is organized and shown, in order not to interfear with work in Industries. Monday to Fridays programs start at 6:00 in the evening quite enough to allow any work to get home in time for the start but not enough to allow him to take time off to watch television or become a television addict as we have in the U. S. Programs finish at 11:00 in the Evening so that all the workers can get enough sleep. On Saturdays start at 3:00 to compensate for the shop work day and end at 12:00 or 12:30, Sundays programs start as early as 10:30 in the morning and end at 11:00 oclock. Programs are varied but include as all ways more than 33 percent pure Soviet politics but there are often good films, re-runs of movies and cartoon for the kids the best programs however are the ballet preformaces from the Moscow and Leingrad Bolshowi teaters also smyphonic music concerts are often used to break the monoonus run of politics and dry facts and figures. a schual for a Sunday evening is like the one show in Minsk on Oct. 22, 1961

'preformance by peoples artist of the USSR, G. Glebove, who sings songs of the motherland.' 10:50 news, and 11:00 sign off with the playing of the National athem and the athem of Belo-prussia. Television, however is not a force as it is in the U.S. to the weak (illeg.) and the cost of televisions, a good one cost 350 rubles and the light table modles for 190 rubles are rarly bought in and quickly disipere. there are 102,200 tele. in Bele. in 1960 pop 7,913,000 the really penetrating voice of modern socity comes from Radio, cheap and extensive it is the means by which the Kremlin reaches into every nock and crany, to the most out lying collective farms or villiges. While 3 million television sets were sold from 1952-1958 in the Soviet Unions (facts and fig pp 343) over 19 million radio sets were sold and this figure is brought up considerably when one considers the fact that hold collective farms which may not have a radio on the place have programs fed to reproducters in each home from points many miles away in keeping with the general plans to bring the culutural level of these collective farmers up. And in the Soviet Union there are 45,000 collective farms and 7,400 State farms with 65,500,000 people on them or 31.4% of the total population (facts for 1961 p.p. 27.) So radio may be said to be the all encompiseen. programs start in Minsk at 6:00 and may end as late as 12:00 however 24 hours a day broadcast are made to all parts of the Soviet Union from Moscow (their are 18.5 mill. Radios in belrussia) which can turn all stations to its one challeal in a matter of minutes thus when, Gagarin made his epoch making trip into space, the entire Soviet Union was blanked out with nothing but reports and intermittent music, for a solid day in this way the Government gets the most propaganda value out of its achivments.

Again when German titov made his flight for two days this process was repeated. Also all stations are immitaly tuned to the kremlin whenever Priemer Kpuchchev makes a policy speech, all stations in the Soviet Union are regulary tuned every hour on the hour to the 'news' from Moscow unlike the USA where small independent stations can operate, the Soviet Union rigividly imposes controll over all it state broadcasting stations which like Industries are all state finaced and built. The radio and television station in Minsk is on four storied grey cement columed building located of no. 6 [redacted]linina Street near the small river 'SVISHLOCH'. behind it stands the impressive 500 ft. steel radio tower the higest structure in Belerussia. This radio tower and building are enclosed with high fences and patrolling armed guards with dogs. entrance into the courtyard must be through the building itself and persons cannot enter without a special pass shown to an armed guard. preformers are taken to a separect studio near the city center, where production and preformers are fed back to the station and than to the broadcasting tower, in this way, the all important communication systems are guaded against sabotage or appecahtly 'takeover', of the sort often achieved by Latin American counter-revolutionarys and mal-contents.

Near the television tower, 4 blocks east on 'Dolgabrvadckaya' St.' stands two more towers app. 200 feet high each, they are not engaged in broadcasting, quite the oppisite in fact. these very apparent land marks with high power cables strung between them, are jamming towers used to black out high frequacy broadcast from abroad, the main target of these jaming towers is the Munich and Washington transmitters of the 'Voice of America' programs although they are employed to disrupt the B.B.C. and sometimes French Broadcast in Russia. these towers are likewise guarded by armed Guards and entrance to the wire enclosed blockhouses and tower area is forbidden except by passes. the amount of voltage used by these towers is known to be fantastic, and when one considers that needed lighting at work places is only graduling turned on, even on the cloudies days, it is Ironical and sad to think of the tremendous wastes and efforts the Soviet goverment goes too in order to keep other peoples ideas out. But the jamming frequiecies are only half those of the 'Radio Moscow' propaganda programs, which may be heard on any short wave radio in the United States, and without jamming these 'Radio Moscow' programs insure peoples in 81 countries that the Iron curtten no longer exist, never did exist, and is in general a ficticeous slander against the Soviet Union though up by reactionarys sich!!

Opera is also a favorite entertainment in the USSR with 32 opera and ballet house's throughout the 25 republics, as compared with one in the United States the mepopolitan opera house in New York, perhaps that is because the Russians have their own opera's written by Chikobski, and other Russian composers, while we have none here any person can tell you about such speindid operas as 'Reiglo,' ' the clown,' 'Queen of Spades,' 'Traviata' while in the U. S. most citizens are sadly lacking in this field of art due not to the falicity that we are unculetured as the Russians think but do to the fact that we simply do have the facilities to put such productions on. Although their are those who prefer to remain tied to their T.V.'S and cowboy shows.

Comedy and Drama theaths number 50 with 11 in Belerussia. plays are put on by amatur and professional groups in the Russian lanuage or the language's of the republics. In Minsk the Belerussia drama thearter on 'VOIADARSKAYA St. has a troop of 55 professor earning from 90 to 140 rubles a month puting on 4 plays a week in the Belerussian languate. Sets and costumes were always well made in any production I saw, but the scripts are apt to be over-loaded with politics in the drames. (Five words illegible) Museums exist for the education and learning of the population of these; 36, are Historical Revolutionary 89, historical, 171, memorial, (the house of Chkovskio or Chikovokis st in Moscow, near the American embassy). 421 of local or reginal interest, and 122 art museams, as well as 68 more of different kinds bringing the total to exacty 907. there are 37 in Minsk In the year 1959 43 million people visited these places of interest as well as 7.300.000 people who visited the famous permanent exhibition of Soviet achivments in Moscows 'SKOLHIKEY' park. Here a hugh display covering 25 acres was set up in 1955 it advertaises real and fancied progress for tourist and Russians alike. In it are Spudhiks and and jet airliner, a tractor exhibition housed in a building 300 feet long, and housing and Industrial samples the light consumer Industry is shown more as the Russians would like it to be than as it is. With pocket radios (their are none made in quitidy in the USSR) automatic washing machines with two spinners (from 1952 - 1958) their were 1.2 mill made and sold all simply one spinner) and modern vacum cleaners (1952 - 1958 500,000 sold however this dosen't keep Russians from hoping that some day these things will be in mass-production, undouttely, they shall be another means of distrabuting propagendga are thought the Ageetpoongs, or in English 'Agitation Points' these are located at desk's or in small office's, open 15 hours a day they are manned by 'volenteer' communist and young communist party members. they are for the disubution of pamplets, bulletins and other party literature. for the more or less informal meetings of groups of communist party members formed in the early 1920's they were then points of armed workers located near to each other, who could put down 'white' uprising or conviently arrest anyone in the neiborhood. now there frictions have slightly changed but its still known that any party members realy come it and report disloyal comments are on unguarded moment on the part of any citizen. there is always a telephone handy here. In Minsk there are only 12 movie houses, but 58 ageepoongs in the telephone book. they can be recognized at a distance by red flags and banners dropped over the doors and windows of the respective building.

the Younge Communist League or YCL embraces all young people from the age of 16, when they out grow the childrends pioner league. 90% of all persons between the ages of 16 to 24 belong to this organization, although they may attaine comm. party membership as early as 19 or 20 years. Signed on as soon as they recive their 'passport' at 16. they recive a YCL party ticket and must pay a small due of 70 or 80 copecks a month after this they are obligied to attendent YCL meeting, go on harvesting trips on weekends, during the fall, to collective farms to help bring in the potato and grain and to keep their studies up to high standards. a flagrant violation of conduct or refusal to tow the roap will result in explusion from the league, and is a block to personal progress in the Soviet Union, since membership is considered a referacce to hiring, in factorys or Insitutes reviewing request for a place at higher educational Insitutions, but expulstion are fairly common about 20% being expulsed before reaching the age where they may be chosen for comm. party memberhship. A young ambitous student may become rather popular and powerful by being elected to the post of YCL secritary in his class at school or at work. a Sure way to success is to remain at this post in one's local school or Insistute, keeping high standards of marks and disipline, until chose for party membership. In this way young people get a taste of what the Party can do for them If they have the right attitude.

at our shop the YCL secatary is Arkadia _____. a tall handsom longleg Russian of 23 with a broad grin. he remaines one of a texas or Oklahoma boy, his father is a _____ while mother works _____ therefore they have a full three room apartment. his _____ also a YCL member is the youngest and last member of this family group.

"Arkadia has worked at this factory for ___ years after serving his 3 years in the Navy in the Black Sea. He was only recently elected to the post of YCL secatary in our shop after the former person recived CP membership, usually an esay going fellow if you don't get him ralled, he takes his YCL duties seriously collecting dues on every other pay day (which are on the 5th and 20th of the month) of 1% of the total pay check, 1% of 80 rubles - 80 copecks, he checks off names and is responsible for turning in the cash to the factory YCL commitig. He is responsible for posting directives handed down by the YCL factory commity, and for helping to draw up the list of Droozhhiks who shall have the duty during this month, Droozhhiks are volunteer civilians, who patrols streets and parks as peace and order keepers, they are given a special card which they carry and when on duty wear red arm bands, they help to subsidize the police in its more rotuine work, such as walking a beat in a usually quite districts, Droozhhiks always walk, in groups of threes and fours, often women and girls are seen in this capacity, this custom is relatively new and is not generly used except on Saturdays and Sundays, when their are a lot of boistrous groups or teenages and a large number of drunks to be seen. Both these types of groups are up the downgrowth at least partly due to these volunteer efforts.

Besides helping to draw up the list of Droozhhiks is their respective shops. YCL secatarys are expected to act high examples of work and political prepairness to their fellow members, and to help the shop and section learders get to know their workers.

In Minsk the Young Communist headquators is a long grey cement 4 story building on 'Krassoarmi' St. or in English 'Red Army Street.' Inside, the building is honey combed with 200 rooms, an auitorium and meeting hall. 300 people are permantly employed here to do the work of the YCL, also, here is the central commity of the YCL of Belerussia. they review cases of explusition and direct YCL party organization. the actual political infulence of this commilty is almost nothing Since the C.C. YCL in all cities are directed by the CP headquarters in their respective cities.

the headquators of the Central Commiet of the KPB is loctialed on 'Kark Marx St.' a 8 storied yellow metal and brick structor it is rectangular shaped with stright shape lines and almost none of the gadys declorations found on most buildings in the city, 'the First secratory of the Central Commiet of the K.P. of Belerusia' is the imposing title, carried by a short, stocky man in his late 50's. K. T. MAZOOROFF. Rarly seen on the streets, he and his family occupie a hugh 8-room apt. on the top floor of a govertment aptment house on prospect Stalin, Entrance to this aptment building is guarded night and day by one uniformed policemen who checks passes and keeps unauthorized persons out. here is also the residence of serval ministers, such as, Munisler of Education, M B Dorasheb and Minister of Consrution E. Zhezhel. Mazooroff controlls and directs all activies in his republic with authority no United States government has ever enjoyed, until his authrity cannot be curtailed or challenged by court orders or injunction, as it often is in the United States. Mazooroff is responsible directly to Moscow and the party presidum directed by Krushchev. He appeards in the reviewing box in the center of his cronies, on May 1st and November 7th holidays, however, where he waveds a congenial hand, occasionally without the trace of a smile. He isn't elected to his post in a general election, any more than Kpushchev is elected to the post of premire, but rather appointed from the members of the Suprem Soviet of the republic who are elected on the one candate ticket, which is prepared and authrized in the first place, by the central comm. of the communist party of the respective republics. therefore the cen. comm. choses the members of the Suppream Soviet from whose numbers, replacments for vacated seats in the Cen. Com. are filled, replacments may be required in the case of 'Death, derangement, a higher appoinment to the cen comm. of the Soviet Union, or expulsion from the party,' under the party consistution goverming procedure in the central commity' corruption in the USSR takes a major form in Embazzeling and greaseing of palms as in any purely bureacrutic socially. In 1951 the death penalty for embazzelment of State fundes in large sums was reenacted as a answer to wide spread pillfering of goods crops and embazzeling of money and state bonds on any collective or state farm there is a certain percent of state goods illeglely apropreated by the collect farmers for their own private use to make up for low wages and therefore lowe living condidtions or for sell to private Indivivals, stores, or at the open market type of bazzar. these goods may consiste only of a pillfered lamp or piglet or may run in scores of sheep or cows hidden in backrates swamps or thick pine forest and sold by the appropriator picemeal or in wholesale lots to crooked store supervisers who are supposed to buy state meates and crops at goverment prices but who pocket the difference of prices from the black market which making entrances in their books that such merchendise was bought for state prices such practices are so common that with out them many stores would be allmost empty if they had to relay on the sporitic, poor quility of good brought in from the state slaughter houses at high prices. the directorship of even a small fruit or milk store opens up wide opportuneses for lukrutive enterprizing by any person with a slight business sence, it is almost imposble for the authriorties to act on such going on because of difficulties in obtaining proof in acceptable amounts since such going on are usualy in small amounts. Materials, Electric appliciates, food suffes are all ridden with speculation which often leads to poor goods or bad foods brought in and sold under the counter examples are local meat being used to sublsidize a 'beef stew'.

37. and 40 (back)

Most of the uge buracratic appriatize can be detoured by a well placed 10 spot, most persons occuping post of the housing minitry and passport and visa offices expect remunuration for the life and death services which all russians seek namly - to recive permission for an apartment and official visa to live in such an apartment crumpulsery law in the Soviet Union without a city 'visa' stamp a person canot wort in that city. once a postion or work is decided or taken it is a very diffical prossess to recive permission to recive an apartment in another city therefore to life and work in another city. In such instainces the administrator of a apartment house may expect

"60-100 rubles for his stamp of approval on a request blank for an apartment or into an apartment allready occupied by a family who are expecting to leave one city for another the usuall method of getting a room or apartment without having to wait on the so called housing line which may take 5-6 years to recive a one room 'apartment.' In any buaurekratic socity a class of desk addministrates is allways born who expect their palmes gresed and who exploit their positions for self-purposes however in the USSR such practices take on a particularly potant natur since it is not simply a matter of reciveing rare services, or convinices but a matter of getting the fundlemnts things of life, a simple room, a work stamp, permission to see relative in a city inside a restricted zone such as boarder zones, or military base and rocket base zones in order to recive permission to leave one city and live in another from indinviul choise a person must recive permision from the local passport agency in the city from which he in leaving and from the city to which he is going than he must show that he has recived a place of living in that city to which he is going as well as permission to move from the militaty authrities. if he is militaly obligated from the police and security agenty in case he has goverment or secret work. he must show that his speciality or proffecation will be used in the to which he goes all this creats piles of paper work and photos, referances, documents and notorized declarerations but the main obstacle to moving in the U.SSR. is getting a place to live since it would be years if one simply applied for a place in the housing line. Even if one can live with friends or relatives for the time being they could rent a room from somebody, they could not work because without a living visa stamped on ones 'passport' it is against the law for any director or addministrator of any enterprise, store, or office to give work to that person, since without a living visa one cannot get a 'work stamp', even renting a room to a person who cannot get a living visa to that room is against the law (speculating). So although moving from one city to another is quite lighl now (after the war it wasn'ts) it is a long process of red tape greasing palms and struggling against buraoratic procedure, that is way few people actually do change city or excicise papers rights. the structure and procedure of Soviet socity controlle the flow of people and their occupations and hence value, to to state, any Russian will tell you he can change jobs or move to another city any time he wants to, this is true however he must meet certain requirements in order to recive new work although he may indeed quite any job he likes up till 1950 a person could not quite a job without notice and state security agentry permission It was simply compusory to work at the job one had been assigned to. Now adays it is rare that foremen enforce a Soviet Law making permiceable the holding of any worker who cannot be replaced. In the event a worker does not chose to remain at his place of work or choses to refuse a certain job he can be tried by a peoples court and sent to a work camp or prision for terms ranging up to 3 years

Such work laws safe guard the state from 'sabatage' of State property, Work stamps and passes as well as permission from proper authrites in regards to tronditions of living passes and therefore the 'work passes' is the indirect control of influx and out flux of what Marx called 'Surpless of Labor' which in capitalist socity has no controll and is determined by mode and method of production and econicine conditions which are allway fluvcuating. Therefore it is not the liberation of the prolatiorat masses but rather the cumbersome of state michiery which regulates population and Labor moves in a geogrical sense and Isolates instances of backflow of laber in specialized econimic areas which leades to unemployment in capitalist countrys due to automation and overproduction, both of which are can be carefully controlled by the State which builds and operates all enterprizes in the U.S.S.R. In such cases as there are of overflow of labor the excess is potioned off by the 'living visa' system and since thaise is not place for them and the extra workers reclize there is no place for them the 'virgin land' program is instrumented and surplus labor is promply shipped off to a promised room and work, this is one of Krushsheves favor plane and has been a spectaular failure mostly owing to the quick subsiding of entusiazime thu

"the younge people (for most part) sees condidions of 5 to a room hastly erected 'towns' of correct blocks with approved streets in villige conditions, a 1000 miles from their mothers and familys in the overcrowded, lack of work - demanding citys, mostly Moscow, Leingrad, krive, and a few of the other big population centers, conditions for leaving the virgin land centers and going back home are simple get up and go, but few do because they must pay their own way back an cost of sometime 100 rubles or more and also face the same condidtion which drove them from the cities in the first place

When elections are initionated in the USSR are formulates a whole hugh mechiancal apparatis is started, not only to ensure victory but to safegouard the state from any voice of dissent, either in absenteism or opposition. All possible votors (that is from the age of 16 up) are registered well beforehand by 'ajutators', who go around to every door in their district getting names and notifity all votors of their duty to the Motherland in voting, in the case of the elections held throughout the Soviet Union on March 18, 1962 to 'elect' the Surprem Soviet, including Krushchev, the peoples Soviet (house of Reprezenitives) and the Soviet of Nationalities, the agatator come on January 24. and Febuury 20. On Election day all votors go to the polls, usually a school, and vote they are given a ballo which they immiatly drop into a box on the ballot is the single name of the candidates for each post. Thats all anybody everydose to 'vote' this system insures a 99% turnout and predetermined victory. In each polling place their is a bothe for secret balloting (crossing out the canidate by writing in your own) under Soviet Law anyone can do this. Nobody does for the obvious reason that anyone who enters the bothe my be identified. There is a Soviet joke about the floor dropping out from anyone steping into the bothe. But the fact is that if the entire popilation used the polling bothe they could beat the system, however years of mass disiple and fear have made the people afraid to attempt any such demonstration. and with no means of communication at the hands of a would be canidate their

"is no way of communicating with the people and irging up support for a black horse canidate.

Unusual military ironing has been in force in the USSR for serval years unlike the U.S. drafting always takes place at 19 years of age, all other reasons for exsemplion with standing. periods of serive are from 2 years in the north to 3 years in the South climatic condiontions very so much that many younge men elect to go to the relativly sunny south to serve for three years than to the 9 month bitter cold of camps in siberia are SakHalin in the far north-east. Clothing issues are scarce in the beginning and in getting ones cloths cleanded as is occially ordered they are thrown into a common pile to be sorted off and steamed and brough back in a common pile with the result that a solilier never getts the same jaclets and trousers twice barracks are suuly bare and damp even in Minsk where they are located in the oldess parts of town behind high wall. pass's are never given except on holidays and sometimes on sundays or after manuvers leave of 30 days as our armed forces gouratte in their contracts are unknown. however the greatest differient is pay after Marshel Mikalyan became commader in chief of the Soviet Armed forces in the U.S.S.R early 1950's pay was summorily cut for common soldiers (arivals) from 3300 rubles old money to (3 rubles new money) a lost of 29.7 rubles (new). 3 rubles are enought to buy 12 packets of cirgiretts (20 cir to a package. whereas 30 rubles are enought for a soldier to save up for his discharge. the pay of a lath worker in Minsk is 90 rubles new money. the drop of money was less felt in the officer ranks since they loss only a 10% cut up to the rank of major and no loss of pay for majors and above an Lituensent in the Russian head army gets 100 rubles a full colonel gets around 200. rubles but allso gets 'duty expense' pay like our travel pay.

Disiple in the Russian Army is supposed to be the most rugges in the worlk since top sergent can huand out up to "15 day sentences to any private any time he wants to without a courth mashall for minor offenseces. duties at a base camp or barracks may be more like a prison than an American base as we know it with soda fontains, clubs wheres alcoholic drinks are seved, shock bars and P.X.'S, as solderier is never allowed to wear civilian cloths (this is against military law) we might think such life to be exceeding drab even for a solderier but russians have such drab lifes on the outside that there is no conflict of color between civilian and military life. When I told about the basic features of American military life in the U. S. Marine Corps, the ex-solderies I knew ussually laughted and said we have no disiplen but I'm quite sure the oohs and ahs were signs of admiration when I spoke of our 'undisipled' army esspicialy the complete absenst of polical letures, under our system of seperation of army and state, and also the fact that at the end of each workday we could don civies and pile in a car and go to town to movie or a dance our own disiplenarians without a well with money in our pocket and our own militares obligation clearly understood and in our own hands."

"The New Era.

"in Minsk there was a 35 ft. monument to Stalin which stood even after the first denunciation of Stalin by Krushcev, unlike the monument of Stalin in Leingrad which was turn down immiatly. This immpressive Bronze and marble structure has stood for as long as it has due to the effords of diehard Stalinist such as Coln. Petrokof head of the O.V.D.C.R. office in Minsk and others, however, after the 22nd Congress meeting when Kpushches again denuncied Stalin, on Nov. 5, two days before the Nov. 7 revolutionary celebrations, a force of 100 men desended upon the then Stalin Square (now Lein Square) and with bulldozer and piledriver commenced to tear up (not salvage) the structure. They must have been very entusiastic because next day they had removed the 10 ton bronze figue of a man revered by the older generation and laughted at by the sarcastic younger generation.

The most remarkable thing about the destruction of this giant monument was that work was ceased on the 6th of November, but started again on the 7th the very day the big parade of workers came by. The monument was right across from the reviewing stand as it was built to be.

In full view of all the dignataries and workers going by the destuction of Stalin and the symbolic ending of Stalinism (kprushcheb hopes) was concluded.

But Belerussia as in Stalin's native Georgia is still a stronghold of Stalinism.

and a revival of Stalinism is a very, very, possible thing in those two republics"

C FIVE UNTITLED COMPOSITIONS ON POLITICAL SUBJECTS

The following pages comprise a typewritten copy of certain unlabeled handwritten compositions in the English language dealing generally with political subjects.

The first of these compositions begins with the words, "I have offen wondered why it is that the communist, capitalist and even the facist ...."

The second composition begins, "There have allready been a few organizations who have declared that they shall become effective only after ...."

The third composition begins, "Where I first went to Russia in the winter of 1959 ...."

The fourth composition was written on the pages of a small notebook and begins, "When the emerging industrial revolution ...."

The fifth of these compositions is in the form of a chart and sets forth certain advantages and disadvantages of the communist system.

"I have offen wondered why it is that the communist, capitalist and even the facist and anarchist elements in American, allways profess patrotistism toward the land and the people, if not the goverment, although their movements must surly lead to the bitter destruction of all and everything.

I am quite sure these people must hate not only the goverment but the culture, heritage and very people itself, and yet they stand up and piously pronouce themselfs patriots, displaying their war medles, that they gained in confliots between themselfs.

I wonder what would happen it somebody was to stand up and say he was utterly opposed not only to the goverments, but to the people, too the entire land and complete foundations of his socically

I have heard and read of the resurgent americanism in the U.S., not the ultra-right type, but rather the polite, seemingly pointless americanism expressed by such as the "american fore group" and the freedom foundation.

And yet even in these visled, harmless, patriotic gestures, their is the obvious 'axe being ground' by the invested intrests of the sponseres of these expensive undertaking.

To where can I turn? to factional mutants of both systems, to odd-ball Hegelian idealists out of touch with reality too religious groups. to revisenist or the absurd anarchists. no!

Too a person knowing both systens and their factional accesories, their can be no mediation between those systems as they exist to-day and that person.

"He must be opposed to their basic foundations and represenatives

and yet it is imature to the sort of attitude which says 'a curse on both your houses!'

their are two great represenative of power in the world, simply expressed, the left and right, and their factions and concess.

Any practical attempt at one alternative must have as its nuclus the triditionall idealogical best of both systems, and yet be utterly opposed to both systems.

for not system can be entirely new, that is where most revolutions industrial or political, go astray. And yet the new system must be opposed unequipily too the old that also is where revolutions go astray.

At the turn of the century in American In the emerging industrial revolution private enterprise trumpled because it offered a new, efficient and promising future while still observing the idealistalcally democratic ideals of its overthrown predessor, t.c. rural small enterprize.

and at about the same time in tourist Russian the arostresy was over throw by the peasents and workers and the road laid open for the gaining of power by the bolshives because they too, offered a brigh new future without violal-ating historical traditions of russian working class life.

in history there are many such examples of the nuclus of the new order rooted in the idealistical traditionsl of the old.

"The Industricil revolution favored the present atomic age and yet it has developed as a intricate part of its sysem its own shortcomings automation for instance. Automation may be compared to the run away robot who displays so many falitites that it is obvious it is run away, rather it is the much more sutle aspects of Industrialization and mechanization which bring the greatest hardships upon the people a general decay of classes into shapless sociaties without real cultural foundation regimentation, not so much of people since industrialization actualy provides far more free movement of classes around each other, but rather of ideals, although those regemented ideals have more freedom of expresstion throughout all the class'es.

the biggest and key development of our era is of course the fight for markets between the imperialist powers themselfs, which lead to the wars, crisis and oppressive friction which you have all come to regard as part of your lives.

and it is this prominant factor of the capitalist system which will undoubtly evenually lead to the common destruction of all the imperalistic powers already many lesser imperalist countryes have become dependent upon other factors than dominantion of colonies through force, they have been devasted of other's former colonies by the great imperalist countries or in some cases even given up their colonies themeselfs as unprofitable and many cases the oopressed peoples rose up and physically through the colonist out and this process is continuing even today as we all can see. but what is important to remember

Is that the old systen of capitalism even within itself is revising and what is most evident, forming imperialist economic coilation, such as the common market.

"In the communist experamint seveal factions and inaviodable developments have emerge which Marx and Engles could not possibly have foreseen their emerges with increasing clarity two monamentle mistakes which Marx and Engles made, not all mention the very keystone of Marx's economic theory the doctrine of surplus value which has always been unshakey and controversal.

The first mistake is fairly well known even at this stage in the communist development the 'withering away of the state' as it was called Marx envisualized that the abolition of class'es would lead to the gruaual reductin of state apparous. however this is not the case and is better observed than contemplated, the state rather becomes more extensitve in that while the powers of central ministrys or delagated they are not reduceded in the dividwing of a organ of state power into smaller units at lower levels so although the same minsters have actually disappered in Moscow they have become more entrenced than ever at lower levels thus in dividing power you multiply units and in eveyday life you become more and more depent on these organs of state power. Wherever you turn you meet them and they touch the lives of the people more and more. A new beauracracy, rather than a withering away of the state. In Russia in the last two years their has been a shift of power from the capital of Moscow to the so-called 'Republics' but state apparist, simply grow into a greater maze througout these republics, thus in Minsk the capital of Belorussia the ministry of Interia become responsible in 1760 for determining the eligibility of apllicants for hard to get exit visas too leave the USSR. formaly the official progrative of Moscow.

"alone but now that this state ministry in Moscow has 'withered away' it becomes all the more difficult to get an exit visa since now one has to go to the area, city and republican state capital commites of beauracrats and on top of all that a last finial OK. has to come from increadibly the Moscow Ministry of foreign affairs!! the witering away of the state as Marx envisualized was a unforeseeable mistake pointed out by many critizes of Marx.

The second mistake Engles and Marx made is much more obsure but fundelmentally just as important.

In the last 1800's Engle's wrote Vanti Duhring which rightly critized Eugen Duhring's, a german idealist who was supposably not consistent enough in his materialism for the dialectical materilist Marx. In his critique anylis of Duhring Engles said with much heavy sarcism that Duhring only changed a word in his putting forward of his social revolutionary ideas that 'changed word' was the word community from the word state whereas Duhring wanted Social Democracy at a local or community level, Marx and Engles advocated a centrilized state which would later 'wiether away.'

But in this Engles was mistaken again.

as history has shown time again the state remains and grows whereas true democracy can be practiced only at the local level. While the centralized state, admistrative, political or supervisual remains theis can be no real democracy

"(a loose confederation of community & at a national level (without any centralized state what so ever.

In equal disison, with safegaurds against coilation of communities there can be democracy, not in the centralzeied legally state delagating authority but in numerass equal communities practicing and developing democracy at the local level"

"There have allready been a few organizations who have declared that they shall become effective only after conflict between the two world systems leaves the country. Without defense or foundation of government, organizations such as the minute men for instance, however they are preparing to simply defend the present system and reinstate its influnce after the mutual milatarily defeat of both systems which is more or less taken for granted.

These armed groups will represent the remaining hard core of feninatical american capitalist suportors.

There will undoutby be simpler representation of this kind by communistic groups in communist countrys.

There will also be many divied religious segments of putting forward their own allturnitives and through larger memberships than the minute men ect.

There will allso be anarchist pacifist and quit probably facist splinter groups however all these, unlike the minute men and communitic partisin groups, will be unarmed.

The mass of survivors however will not beblong too any of these groups. They will not be fanatical enough to join extremest, and will be too disallusioned too support either "the communits or capitalist parties in their respective counties. after the atomic catorahf they shall seek a alturnative to those systems which have brough them misery.

But their thinking and education will be steeped in the traiditions of those systems they would never except a 'new order' complete beyond their understanding any more than they would except the extrimst idea, logically, they would deem it neccary to oppose the old systems but at the same time support their cherised trations.

I intend to put forward just such an allturnative.

In making such a declaration I must say that in order to make this allturnative effective, supportors must prepare now in the event the situation presents itself for the pratical application of this allturnative.

in this way the milaterist minute men in their narrow support of capitalism have been most far-sighted, however they present only a suicide force whereas

What is needed is a constructive and practical group of persons desiring peace but steadfastly opposed to the revival of forces who have led millions of people to death and destruction in a dozen wars and have now at this moment led the world into unsurpassed danger.

"We have lived into a dark generation of tenstion and fear.

But how many of you have tryed to find out the truth behind the cold war clices!!

I have lived under both systems, I have sought the answers and although it would be very easy to dupe myself into beliveing one system is better than the other, I know they are not.

I dispise the represenatives of both systems weather they be socialist or christan democrates. Weath they be labor or conservative they are all products of the two systems.

"1B

"Where I first went to Russia in the winter of 1959 my funds were very limited, so after a certain time, after the Russians had assured themselfs that I was really the naivé american who belived in communism they arranged for me to recive a certain amount of money every month Oh it came technically through the Red-cross as fincial help to a poor polical iminegeafe but it was arranged by the M.V.D.. I told myself it was simply because I was broke and everybody knew it. I accepted the money because I was hungry and there was several inches of snow on the ground in Moscow at that time but what it really was was payment for my denuciation of the U. S. in Moscow in November 1956 and a clear promise that far as long as I lived in the USSR life would be very good. I didn't relize all this, of course for almost two years.

2B

As soon as I became completely disgrunted with the Sovit Union and started negotitions with the American Embassy in Moscow for my return to the U. S. my "Red Cross" allotment was cut off.

This was not diffical to understand since all correspondence in and out of the Embassy is censored as is common knowlege in the Embassy itself.

I have never mentioned the fact of these monthly payments to anyone. I do so in order to state that I shall never sell myself intentionly or unintentionly to anyone again.

"As for the fee of $_____ I was supposed to recive for this _____ I refuse it. I made pretense to except it only because otherwise I would have been considered a crackpot and not allowed to appear to express my views. After all who would refuse money?!?

Y FERREI

"When the emerging industrial revolution herased the birth of capitalism, the struggle between the new society and fuedlism calmination in the desturtion of (Illegible) because capitalism promises abundance under a new system.

And in Czarist Russia, the serfs at about the same time, rose against the old order and communism replaced the aristocricy because it too, prosised abundence and justice

But in a conflict between these two systems the peoples of both socialties will seek a new system.

A system which would not violate the instilled good ideas about the relative systems one which would be untedy opposed too both because of the ruin the conflict of those ideas would have brought.

There is also copied an unlabeled handwritten English composition which begins, "The Communist Party of the United States has betrayed itself."

"Speech before.....

1. Americans are apt to scoff at the idea, that a military coup in the U.S., as so often happens in Latin American countries could ever replace our government, but that is an idea that has grounds for consideration. Which military organization has the potentialities of executing such action? Is it the army? with its many constripes, its unwieldy size its scores of bases scattered across the world? The case of Gen. Walker shows that the army, at least, is not fertail enough ground for a far right regime to go a very long way for the simple reasons of size and disposition. The Navy and air force is also to be more or less disregarded. Which service then can qualify to launch a coup in the U.S.A.? Small size, a permanent hard core of officers and few bases is necessary. Only one outfit fits that description and the U.S.M.C. is a right wing infiltrated organization of dire potential consequences to the freedoms of the U.S. I agree with former President Truman when he said that 'The Marine Corps should be abolished.'

2, My second reason is that undemocratic country wide institution known as segregation. It is, I think the action of the active segregationist minority and the great body of indifferent people in the South who do the United States more harm in the eyes of the world's people, than the whole world communist movement. As I look at this audience there is a sea of white faces before me. Where are the Negros amongst you (are they hiding under the table) surley if we are for democracy, let our fellow negro citizens into this hall. Make no mistake, segregationist tendencies can be unlearned. I was born in New Orleans, and I know.

In Russia I saw on several occasions that in interrational meeting the greatest glory on the sport field was brought to us by negros. Though they take the gold metals from their Russian competitors those negros know that when they return to their own homeland they will have to face blind hatred and discrimination.

The Soviet Union is made up of scores of nationalists, Asians and Eupr-Asians, Armenian and Jews whites and dark skinned peoples yet they can teach us a lesson in brotherhood among peoples with different customs and origins.

3, A symbol of the American way, our liberal conclsions into existance in our mist of a minority group whose influence and membership is very limited and whose dangerous tendencies are sufficiency controlled by special government agencies. The Communist Party U.S.A. bears little resemblance to their Russian counterpatts, but by allowing them to operate and even supporting their right to speak, we maintain a tremanuses sign of our strenght and liberalism. Harasment of their party newspapers, their "leaders and advocates, is treachery to our basic principles of freedom of speech and press. Their views no matter how misguided, no matter how much the Russians take advantage of them, must be allowed to be aired. After all Communist U.S.A. have existed for 40 years and they are still a pitiful group of radicals.

4. Now-a-days most of us read enough about certain right wing groups to know how to recognize them and guard against their corrosive effects. I would like to say a word about them, although their is possibly few other American born persons in the U. S. who have as many personal reasons to know and therefore hate and mistrust communism. I would never become a psudo-professional anti-communist such as Herbert Philbrick or MaCarthy. I would never jump on any of the many right wing bandwagons because our two countries have too much too offer too each other to be tearing at each others troats in an endless cold war. Both our countries have major short comings and advantages but only in ours is the voice of dissent allowed opportunity of expression. In returning to the U.S., I hope I have awaken a few who were sleeping and others who are indifferent.

I have done a lot of critizing of our system. I hope you will take it in the spirit it was given. In going to Russia I followed the old principle 'Thou shall seek the truth and the truth shall make you free.' In returning to the U.S. I have done nothing more or less than selecting the lesser of two evils."

"1. Q. Why did you go to the USSR?

I went as a citizen of the U. S. (as a tourist) residing in a forieng country which I have a perfect right to do. I went there to see the land, the people and how their system works.

"2. A. What about those letters? I made no letters deriding the U.S.!! In corespondence with the U. S. Embassy I made no anti-American statements, any critizem I might have had was of policies not our government.

"2 B. Did you make statments against the U.S. there? No

"2 C What about that type recording? I made a recording for the Moscow Tourist Radio Travel log, in which I spoke about sight-seeing and what I had seen in Moscow Tourist circles. I expressed delight in all the interesting places. I mentioned in this respect the University, mesuem of art, Red square, the Kremlin I rember I closed this 2 minute recording by saying I hoped our peoples would live in Peace and ___

"3 Did you break laws by residing or taking work in the U.S.S.R." Under U.S. law a person may lose the protection of the U S by voting or serving in the armed forces of a foriengn state or taking an oath of alligence to that state. I did none of these

"4. Isn't all work in the USSR considered state work? No. Technically only plants working directly for the State, usually defense. All other plants are owned by the workers who work in them.

"5. What about statements you made to U.P.I. agent Miss Mosby in 1959? I was approched just after I had formally notified the U. S. Embassy in Moscow of my future residence in USSR by the newspaper agenties in Moscow including UPI API and Time inc. Who were notified by the Embassy I did not call them. I answered questions and gave statements to Miss Mosby of UPI. I requested her to let me OK. her story before she released it, which is the polite and usuall thing. she sent over her version of what I said just after she sent it, I immially called her to complant about this, at which time she apolizied but said her editor and not her had added serval things. she said London was very excited about the story (that is how I deduced that she had allready sent it) so there wasn't much else I could do about it. And I didn't relize that the story was even more blown out of shape once it got to the U.S.A. I'm afriad the printed story was fabicated sensentionlzom.

"6. Why did you remain in the USSR for so long if you only wanted a look? I resided in the USSR until February 1961 when I wrote the Embassy stating that I would like to go back. (My passport was at the Embassy for safekeeping) they invited me to Moscow for this purpose however it took me almost ½ year to get a permit to leave the city of Minsk for Moscow. In this connection I had to use a letter from the head consular, to the Russian authrities in Minsk (the Russians are very beaurocratic and slow about letting foriengns travel about the country hence the visa) When I did get to Moscow the Embassy immiately gave me back my passport and advised me as to how to get a exit visa from the Russians for myself and my Russian wife. this long and _____ process took ___ months from July 1962 untill ___ ___ 1962. "The Communist Party of the United States has betrayed itself!

it has turned itself into the tradional lever of a foreign power to overthrow the Goverment of the United States, not in the name of freedom or high ideals, but in servile conformity to the wishes of the Soviet Union and in anticipation of Soviet Russia's complete domination of the American continent.

The Forster's and the Flynn's of the subsidizied Communist Party of the United States have shown themselfs to be willing, gullible messengers of the Kremlins internation-list propaganda.

There can be no international solidarity with the arch-betrayers of that most sublime ideal.

There can be no sympathy for those who have turned the idea of Communism into a vill curse to western man.

The Soviets have committed crimes unsurpassed even by their early day capitalist counterparts, the imprisonment of their own peoples, with the mass extermination so typical of Stalin, and the individual surpresstion and regimentation under Krushchev.

The deportations, the purposefull curtailment of diet in the consumer slighted population of Russia, the murder of history, the prositution of art and culture.

The Communist movement in the U. S., personalized by the Communist Party U.S.A., has turned itself into a 'valuble gold coin' of the Kremlin. it has failed to denouce any actions of the Soviet Goverment when similar actions on the part of the U. S. Goverment bring pious protest. Examples:

Denounced:	Not Denounced:
United States	Russia
Atom Bomb Test	Atom Bomb Test
Cuba	Hungary
N.A.T.O. Manuvers	Warsaw Pact Manovers

"U-2 Sobel
Congo Eastern Germany
Negro Lynching Genocide

Only by declaring itself to be, not only not dependent upon, but opposed to, Soviet domination and influence, can dorment and disillusioned person's hope to unite to free the radical movement from it's inertia.

Through the refusal of the Communist Party U.S.A. to give a clear cut condemnation of Soviet piratical acts, progressives have been weaken into a stale class of fifth columist of the Russians.

In order to free the hesitating and justifiably uncertain, future activist for the work ahead we must remove that obstacle which has so efficiently retarded him, namely the devotion of Communist Pary U.S.A., to the Soviet Union, Soviet Government, and Soviet Communist International movement.

It is readily foreseeable that a coming economic, political or military crisis, internal or external, will bring about the final destrution of the capitalist system, assuming this, we can see how preparation in a special party could safeguard an independant course of action after the debacle, an American course steadfastly opposed to intervention by outside, relatively stable foreign powers, no matter from where they come, but in particular, and if necessary, violently opposed to Soviet intervention.

No party of this type can attract into its ranks more than a nomininal number of fundemental radicals.

it is not the nature of such an organization to attract such a memership, as lets say, the Republicans or even the Socialist Party, but it is possible to enlist the aid of disenchanted members of the Socialist Party and even some from more 'respected', (from a capitalist viewpoint), parties.

"But whereas our political enemies talk loudly now, they have no concept of what total crisis means.

'The faction which has the greater basis in spirit, and the most far-sighted and ready membership of the radical futurist, will be the decisive factor.

We have no interest in violently opposeing the U. S. Goverment, why should we manifest opposition when there are far greater forces at work, to bring about the fall of the United States Goverment, than we could ever possibly muster.

We do not have any interest in directly assuming the head of Goverment in the event of such an all-finising crisis. As dissentent Americans we are merely interested in opposing foreign intervention which is a easily drawn conclustion if one belives in the theory of crisis.

The emplacement of a separate, democratic, pure Communist sociaty is our goal, but one with union-communes, democratic socializing of production and without regard to the twisting apart of Marxist Communism by other powers.

The right of private personal property, religious tolorance and freedom of travel (which have all been violated under Russian 'Communist' rule) must be strictly observered.

Resoufullniss and patient working towards the aforesaid goal's are prefered rather than loud and useless manifestation's of protest.

Silent observance of our priciples is of primary importance.

But these prefered tactics now, may prove to be too limited in the near future, they should not be confused with slowness, indesision or fear, only the intellectualy fearless could even be remotly attracted too our doctrine, and yet this doctrine requirers the utmost restraint, a state of being in itself majustic in power.

"This is stoicism, and yet stoicism has not been effected for many years, and never for such a purpose.

There are orginizations already formed in the United States, who have declared they shall become effective only after the military debacle of the United States, organizations such as the Minutemen, or the opposite of a stoical organization. But these preformers are simply preparing to redefend in their own back yards, a system which they take for granted will be defeated militarily elsewhere, a strange thing to hear from 'patriots'.

These armed groups represent hard core American capitalist supporter's. There will also be small armed communist and probably fascist groups. There will also be anarchist and religious groups at work.

However, the bulk of the population will not adhere to any of these group's, because they will not be inclined to join any of the old factions with which we are all so familiar.

But the people will never except a new order presented by politicians or opportunist. Logically, they will deem it necessary to oppose those system of Goverment against whom they have been educated, but they will be againts anything resembling their former capitalist masters also.

Steadfastly opposed to the reviveal of the old forces they will seek a new fore.

This will be the sentiment of the mass'es. But any organization cleaverly manipulating word's may sway the mass'es

This is where a safeguard is necessary. And not only a safeguard, but a safety valve, to shut off opportunist forces from within, and foreign powers from without.

There can be no subsitute for organization and procurement work towards the aforestated ideals and goals. Work is the key to the future door, but failure to apply that

"key because of possible armed opposition in our hypothetical, but very probably crisis, is as useless as trying to use force now to knock down the door.

Armed defenses of our ideals must be an accepted doctrine after the crisis, just as refraining from any demonstrations of force must be our doctrine in the mean time.

No man, having known, having lived, under the Russian Communist and American capitalist system, could possibly make a choice between them, there is no choice, one offers oppresstion the other poverty. Both offer imperilistic injustice, tinted with two brands of slavery.

But no rational man can take the attitude of 'a curse on both your house's'. There are two world systems, one twisted beyond recognition by its misuse, the other decadent and dying in its final evolution.

A truly democratic system would combine the better qualities of the two upon an American foundation, opposed to both world systems as they are now.

This than is our ideal.

Membership in this orginization implies adherence to the principle of simple distribution of information about this movement to others and acceptance of the idea of stoical readiness in regards to pratical measures once instituted in the crisis."

WRH:mvs

104-2

Under date of December 30, 1963, FBI Headquarters made available to the Dallas Office of the FBI, Zerox copies of certain letters from LEE HARVEY OSWALD to his mother and his brother, ROBERT. These copies were obtained by the Bureau from the U. S. Secret Service. Mr. ROBERT OSWALD has declined to release the originals of this correspondence, and has made the specific request that the copies of the correspondence be used in an official capacity only. The majority of this correspondence was written in Russia.

The letters to OSWALD's mother were directed to her address at 1808 Eagle Street, Apartment 3, or Box 982, Vernon, Texas, and the letters to ROBERT OSWALD were directed to his address at 7313 Davanport Street, Fort Worth, Texas. This correspondence where appropriate is quoted or summarized below:

1. A letter from OSWALD addressed to his mother at Vernon, Texas which bears the postmark at Vernon, October 30, 1961. The letter is dated October 22, 1959, but in view of the postmark and a reference to the year 1961 in the letter, it is apparent that the letter is dated wrong and probably should be dated 1961. This letter is quoted as follows:

"Dear Mother,

Sorry too take so long to write but I thought something might have come up but we're still waiting.

I recived your birthday card on the 14th thanks for the thought.

I'll be glad to get any books you send in the future you might include some fashion magazines for Marina also if you remember it.

"Marina's maiden name was Proosakova, her aunt and uncles address in Minsk is

Minsk
U. L. Kalinina 42,
Apt 20
Proocakova

they don't speak any english, however, her uncle is a army colonel, soon to retire.

You needen't worry about my losing American citizenship I can only do that if I want too, and I don't want too.

For my birthday Marina sent me a gold and silver cup with the inscription 'to my Dear Husband on his birthday 18/X/61' very nice don't you think, Marina is on her vacation now, she is spending it with her aunt in the city of 'Kharkov' about 600 miles South-East of here. She's just relaxing and taking it easy from work and the house work.

We both agreeded that she should go to a new environment on her vaction; but she comes back in a few more days on the 29th of October. Her Aunt/Palina's address is the city of - 'Kharkov'
~~V'ezd Treehklera~~
House 5, Apt. 7
~~Mikhailovich, P.~~ U.S.S.R

Marina, unfortunately, doesn't speak any English at all. I would like her to learn, and I've bought some books for her on the subject but for now she doesn't want to learn, she speaks a little French allready, (she learned in grammer school), and she doesn't want to study another lanugage for now, she really does not have the time you know, what with her working from 10 - 5 and then the house-work but it doesn't matter for now.

"Well, thats about all for now.

I'll try to write more often.

Love
Lee

P.S. Did you recive my letter with some pictures of Minsk in it??"

2. A letter from OSWALD to his mother at Vernon, Texas bearing the postmark at Vernon, March 29, 1963, which is quoted below:

"March 21.

"Dear Mother

In the last few days I have recived 5 letters from you dated Feb. 25 clippings and March 1st. Also in one letter some more clippings thanks alot for them.

I'm glad you know about the baby also.

They seemed to write alot about me in the paper's, Robert talked too much, but I'm glad to see you supported me in your own way.

I had written a letter to the Secretary of the Navy in Jan. 1962 I got a reply yesterday from some General telling me about the reversal of my honourable discharge into an undesireable one.

We should be in the States in May at the latest the Embassy has agreeded to loan me $500.00 for the trip, and also they excepted my own affidavit of support so your's won't be necessary after all, however don't try to get that business man friend of your's to cancel his affidavit, it may come in handey some day.

"As you say my trip here would make a good story about me. I've allready thought about that for quite awhile now, in fact, I've allready made 50 pages of longhand notes on the subject.

All is well with Marina and the baby, her lenght at birth was 50 centametres (I don't know how many inchs that is, but everything is normal, right down to June's little fingernails.

I don't think we'll be at this address much longer so it is not advisable for you to write here.

The reason for the delay in some letters and the speed in others is because of the Russian censor who reads all letters.

I was not aware you sent other letters to me in the Hotel when I lived in Moscow as I left there for Minsk after I wrote that letter.

I cannot say where we shall go at first probably directly to Vernon.

Love XXX
Lee"

3. A letter from OSWALD to his mother at Vernon, Texas, which bears the postmark April 28, 1962 at Vernon, is quoted below:

"April 22.

"Dear Mother,

Well as you see we still have not gotten off yet. the holdup is from the Embassy which is apparently trying to get us money from other sourse's than itself for our tickets to the U.S.

"Probably they'll approach you for money again. don't pay any attention to them.

June is getting big now allready 2½ months old.

she's real cute I know you'll like her.

Who is Mr. ~~X~~ Phillips? 4514 Since you work at a new place now, do you still have contact with him?

When will the elections for governor be in Texas?

Do you get any word from Pic?

Write soon.

Lee"

4. A letter to ROBERT OSWALD, postmark illegible. In this letter, OSWALD told ROBERT he had just returned from maneuvers to Camp Pendleton. He asked news of ROBERT's family. In this letter he stated:

"Well, pretty soon I'll be getting out of the corp and I know what I want to be and how I'm going to be it, which I guess is the most important thing in life."

5. An OSWALD letter to ROBERT which is quoted as follows:

"Nov. 8, 1959

"Dear Robert

Well, what shall we talk about? The weather perhaps? Certainly you do not wish me to speak of my decision to remain in the Soviet Union and apply for citizenship here, since I'm afraid you would not be able to comprehend my my reasons. You really don't know anything about me. Do you know for instance that I have waited to do this for well over a year, do you know that I (Cyrillic writing) speak a fair amount of Russian which I have been studing for many months.

I have been told that I will not have to leave the Soviet Union if I do not care to. This than is my decision. I will not leave this country, the Soviet Union, under any conditions, I will never return to the United States which is a country I hate.

Someday, perhaps soon, and than again perhaps in a few years, I will become a citizen of the Soviet Union, but it is a very legal process, in any event, I will not have to leave the Soviet Union and I will never leave.

I recived your telegram and was glad to hear from you, only one word bothered me, the word 'mistake'. I assume you mean that I have made a 'mistake' it is not for you to tell me this. You cannot understand my reasons for this very serious action.

I will not speak to anyone from the United States over the telephone since it might be taped by the Americans.

Y FERRE

"If you wish to corespond with me you can write to the below address, but I really don't see what we could talk about if you want to send me money, that I can use, but I do not expect to be able to pay it back.

6. A letter to ROBERT from OSWALD which is quoted as follows:

"Nov. 26, 1959

"Dear Robert

I shall begin by answering your question on why I and my fellow workers and communist's would like to see the present capitalist government of the U. S. overthrown.

Do you remember the time you told me about the efforts of your milk company to form a union? try to see why workers must form unions against their employers in the U. S. It is because the government supports an economic system which exploits all its workers, a system based upon credit which gives rise to the never ending cycle of depression, inflation, unlimited speculation (which is the phase America is in now) and war. In this system art, culture, and the spirit of man are subjected to commercial enterpraising, religion and education are used as a tool to surpress what would otherwise be a population questioning their government's unfair economic system and planns for war.

"Science is neglected unless it can be directly used in making war or producing more profit for the owners of business's - these are some of the reasons. look around you, and look at yourself. See the Segregation, See the unemployed and what automation is, remember how you were laided off at Convair?

I remember well the days we stood off-shore at Indonesia waiting to surpress yet another population, when they were having a revolution there in Mar. 1958. I can still see Japan and the Phillipines and their puppet governments. More important I can see the American in uniforms. Men who were there because they were drafted or because they were adventursom or unemployed in civilian life. I will ask you a question Robert, What do you surpport the American government for? What is the Ideal you put forward? Do not say 'freedom' because freedom is a word used by all peoples through all of time. Ask me and I will tell you I fight for communism. this word brings to your mind slaves or injustice, this is because of American propaganda, look this word up in the dictionary or better still, read the book which I first read when I was 15, 'Capital', which contains economic theorys and most important the 'communist Manifesto'.

I will not say your grandchildren will live under communism, look for yourself at history, look at a world Map! America is a dieing country, I do not wish to be a part of it, nor do I ever again wish to be used as a tool in its military aggresions.

This should answer your question, and also give you a glimpse of my way of thinking.

So you speak of advantages. Do you think that is why I am here? For personal, material advantages? Happiness is not based on oneself, it does not consist of a small home, of taking and getting, Happiness is taking part in the struggle, where there is no borderline between one's own personal world, and the world in general I never belived I would find more material advantages at this stage of development in the Soviet Union than I might of had in the U. S.

When I talked to a reporter I gave most of my reason's, however the story I found out later was badly slanted and left out my real reasons, the reporter was interested only in a colorful story. I have been a pro-communist for years and yet I have never met a communist, instead I kept silent and observed, and what I observed plus my Marx'ist learning brought me here to the Soviet Union. I have always considered this country to be my own.

I left you out of the matter because I did not want to get you into any sort of trouble because of me. also this desision is one which I only could make, and you would not have been able to understand me.

You probably know little about this country so I will tell you about it. I did find, as I suspected I would, that most of what is written about the Soviet Union in America is for the better part fabrication. The people here have a seven hour work day now and only work till three o'clock on Saturdays with Sunday's off. They have socializism which means they do not pay for their apartments or for medical care the money for these come's from the profit they help to create in their labor, which in the U. S. goes to capitailist. here in Moscow there is a housing shortage because of the war but its not bad now there is no unemployment here and in fact a slight shortage of manpower even with a 250,000,000 population this is because this country is building at a pace which will put it first in all fields of endeavor in 15 years. Most important is the fact they do not work for employers at all, a milkmen or a factory supervisor are both socialy equal, this does not mean they have the same salery of course, this just means that their work goes for the common good of all.

These people are a good, warm, alive people These people would never think of war, they wish to see all peoples live in peace but at the same time they wish to see the economicly enslaved people of the west free, they belive in their Ideal and they support their government and country to the full limit.

You say you have not renounced me, good I am glad, but I will tell you on what terms I want this arrangement.

I want you to understand what I say now, I do not say lightly, or unknowingly, since I have been in the military as you know, and I know what war is like.

1. In the event of war I would kill any American who put a uniform on in defense of the American government - any American.

2. That in my own mind I have no attachment's of any kind in the U. S.

3. That I want to, and I shall, live a normal happy and peaceful life here in the Soviet Union for the rest of my life.

4. That my mother and you are (in spite of what the newspaper said) not objects of affection, but only examples of workers in the U. S.

You should not try to remember me in any way I used to be, since I am only now showing you how

"I am. I am not all bitterness or hate, I came here only to find freedom, In truth, I feel I am at last with my own people, but do not let me give you the impression I am on another world, these people are so much like Americans and people the world over. They simply have an economic system and the Ideal of communism which the U. S. does not have. I could never have been personly happy in the U. S.

I wish you would do me a favor since that other bad newspaper story went over I have been thinking I would like to give people, who are interested the real reason. If you would, give the contents of this letter (except that which is for your benefit) to some reporter, it will clarify my situation, use your own judgement, however.

I have no money problems at all. My situation was not nearly as stable then, as it is now, I have no troubles at all now along that line.

It is snowing here in Moscow now, which makes everything look very nice, from my hotel window, I can see the Kremlin and Red Square and I have just finished a dinner of (Cyrillic writing) meat and potatos. So you see the Russians are not so different from you and I.

9) A letter to ROBERT, dated October 22, 1961, advising he is still attempting to obtain exit visa from Russia for himself and his wife. He stated his wife, MARINA, is in the city of Kharkov, about 600 miles southeast of Minsk (on vacation) and living with her aunt. He said, ".....we both agree that change of senerey was good for her, she comes back on the 1st of November.

He said, "I notice you seem to be worried about wheather we are reciving each others letters and weather we can write each other in the future, by all means keep writing. I think we get all of each others letters. They take 12-14 days from you to me." He then speaks of ROBERT'S daughter, KATHY, and a present he had bought for her. He mentioned it had been four months since he had made his request for his exit visa. He mentioned it would cost about $800 to fly from Moscow to New York for two people, and said he did not have that much money, but is expecting help from the Embassy. He mentioned bringing ROBERT back a pair of Russian boots. He extends personal greetings.

11) A letter to ROBERT, dated November 30, 1961. He advised he sent a package with some Christmas presents. He said that he had not received any word about their visas. 13) A letter to ROBERT, dated December 14, 1961. He said, "First of all, I can confirm what you thought about some of your letters. I did not receive any letter with "certain" questions. its quite possible they destroyed it.

"Did you get my letter about how they took down the statue of Stalin?"

He mentioned receiving a package of books and magazines from his mother. He said it was interesting to read of the stories in Time about the life and politics in the U.S.S.R., as most of the stories are wrong. He mentioned that MARINA had worked on some table napkins for VADA (ROBERT'S wife) for two weeks. He extends personal greetings.

Dear Robert.

Well, I haven't heard from you for quite awhile either you're not writing or your letters aren't getting through to me.

I told you in my last letter that we have finilly been granted exit visas for leaving the Soviet Union will probably be in the states in the spring.

You once said that you asked around about weather or not the U. S. goverment had any charges against me, you said at that time "no", maybe you should ask around again, its possible now that the goverment knows I'm coming they'll have something waiting.

Mother wrote me a letter the other day in which she informed me that the Marine Corps had given me a dishonorable discharge in Nov. 1959 Did You know this?

Of course, this is not too bad, since It relives me of reserve duty, but still I should take this into account.

I wrote a letter to John B. Connally Secretary of the Navy who lives in Ft. Worth asking about my dishonorable discharge maybe you could ask him to look into the case since I don't know wheater the Russians will let that letter through.

You said you were sending us something but we still having gotten anything don't worry packages are very slow coming and going.

The Embassy said they will see about a loan for us when we leave so it seems our money problem will not be too acute.

Marina Still has a month too go so by the time you get this letter you'll be pretty close too being an uncle. March 1 is the big day.

Marina sends her love to all, as I do hope to see you all soon I really don't know where we'll settle I'd sort of like New Orleans.

How's the hunting out at the farms?

How the weather and all?

If you find out any information about me, please let me know, I'd like to be ready on the draw so too speak We'll keep writing until we get ready to leave so don't quit writing

17) A letter, dated February 15, 1962, to ROBERT, which is quoted as follows:

Dear Robert.

Well, I have a daughter, June Marina Oswald, 6 lbs. 2oz., born Feb. 15, 1962, at 10. AM. How about that?!

We are lucky to have a little girl, don't you think?

But then you have a head start on me, although I'll try to catch up. Ha. Ha

This makes you an Uncle, congratulations!

The chances of our coming to the states are very good. as I allready told you, we received the Soviet exit visas. I can leave the country at any time. But there are still formalities concerning Marina's entrance visa into the U.S. These are granted by the US. goverment, and they have assured me they are getting all the papers together (they are quite alot) and certified accepted.

How are things at your end? I heard over the voice of america that they released Powers the U2 spy plane fellow. Thats big news where you are I suppose. He seemed to be a nice, bright, american-type fellow, when I saw him in Moscow.

You woulde'nt have any clipping's fromthe Nov. 1959 newspaper of Ft. Worth, would you.

I am beginning to get interested in just what they did say about me and my trip here.

The information might come in handy when I get back. I would hate to come back completly unprepared.

The American Embassy in Moscow has offered us a loan to pay for the price of the airline tickets, so we have nothing to worry about temporary along that line.

Have you heard from Pic at all, whats he doing now? still in the air force do you know?

Well, I guess that all for now.

P.S. I recived a letter from you dated Jan 3, I did not get it until Feb. 5. the censors are so stupid over here it sometimes takes them a month to censor a letter before letting it through.

Love to Vada, cathy and little Robert Jr. he and June will play together I'm quite sure.

I know what was said about me when I left the U.S. as mother sent me some clippings from the newspaper, however, I relize that it was just the shock of the news which made you say all those things. however I'll just remine you again not to make any statements or comments if you are approached by the newspapers, between now and the time we actually arrive in the U.S."

28) A letter to ROBERT from OSWALD, dated July 14 (1961), which is quoted as follows:

Dear Robert,

On the 8th of July I and my wife went into the american Embassy, I cannot write you what went on there, because the Russians, read all letters going in and out. But anyway I have the American Passport and we are doing everything we can to get out.

You don't know what a test this is. I could write a book about how many feeling have come and gone since that day.

The Russians can be crule and very crude at times. They gave a cross-eximanation to my wife on the first day we came back from Moscow, they knew everything because they spy, and read the mails. but we shall continue totry and get out. We shall not retreat. As for your package we never recived it, I suppose they swiped that to, the bastards.

I hope someday I'll see you and Vada but if and when I come, I'll come with my wife. You can't imagine How wonderfuly she stood up.

The writer also said, "On the other hand, the professor to whom I am referring thought that you hadn't made sufficient application. Applying the criticism of speculation and exploitation in our country, it seems that these things are regulated. In the instances where certain individuals do overstep their bounds, it seems that such occurrences are "practically inevitable in a free society. If we are going to have freedom rather than strict regimentation, then the government will naturally find it very difficult to curb all abuses. The difficulty with communism is that it suppresses freedom, as you indicated, in order to obtain efficiency.

XIV. APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby, influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 30, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "Ted" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"THE MILITANT"

A source advised on April 29, 1955 that "The Militant" is staffed, controlled, and published as a weekly newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"THE WORKER"

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

NEW YORK SCHOOL FOR MARXIST STUDIES (NYSMS)

In September, 1960, a source advised it was announced at a meeting of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), New York District (NYD), staff, held September 16, 1960, that the People's School for MARXist Studies was founded in September, 1960, as the result of a decision of the CPUSA, NYD. Adult classes were scheduled to start October 17, 1960.

"The Worker" of October 16, 1960, announced the opening of the New York School for MARXist Studies (NYSMS) with general classes beginning October 17, 1960, and Student Committee on Progressive Education (SCOPE) (Youth) classes beginning October 14, 1960. The address of the school is Room 1922, 853 Broadway, at Fourteenth Street, New York, New York.

The records of Pearce Mayer and Greer, 41 East 42nd Street, New York City, reflect that on August 29, 1960, HERBERT APTHEKER leased Room 1922-23, 853 Broadway, New York City, for the period starting October 1, 1960. The premises were to be occupied by a "People's School". On July 3, 1962, HERBERT APTHEKER signed a new lease for Room 1922-23, 853 Broadway, New York City, to start October 1, 1962, which reflects that the premises were to be used as an office for the NYSMS.

During April and May, 1963, a second source furnished information that the NYSMS was then in operation at 853 Broadway, New York, New York.

The Spring term, 1963 bulletin of the NYSMS reflects Doctor HERBERT APTHEKER as the director of the school.

A third source advised on December 14, 1959, that at the Seventeenth National Convention of the CPUSA, held December 10/13, 1959, HERBERT APTHEKER was elected a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

The May 1963 issue of "Political Affairs", self-described as the theoretical organ of the CPUSA, reflects that HERBERT APTHEKER has been replaced as editor of that publication after holding this position for several years.

A characterization of SCOPE is included in the appendix.

STUDENT COMMITTEE ON PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION (SCOPE)

A Confidential Source on June 16, 1958, advised that the Student Committee on Progressive Education (SCOPE) was formed in early 1958, by a group of individuals who were believed to be, by the source, sympathizers of the former Labor Youth League (LYL).

A second Confidential Source advised on November 20, 1958, that at the third day's session of the National Executive Committee (NEC), Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), held that day in New York City, ROBERT THOMPSON, Executive Secretary, CPUSA, stated that in New York there is a group of about twenty-one youths who have been a very active force in youth and formed a group called SCOPE, a Student Committee on Progressive Education, which has run for the last year with young people with a MARXist character. THOMPSON stated that approximately eight or ten of this group are Communist Party members.

A third Confidential Source advised on March 24, 1959, that during a meeting of the NEC, CPUSA, held on March 21, 1959, HYMAN LUMER, CPUSA, Educational Director, stated that in New York most of the discussions on youth are between National Office (Communist Party) and two groups of young people who function in New York which are either party groups or pro-party groups. The first group is called SCOPE (Student Committee on Progressive Education) and this group stands closest to the Communist Party leadership.

A fourth Confidential Source made available on March 23, 1961, a mimeographed letter signed by "The SCOPE Committee". This letter sets forth that last fall SCOPE became a part of the newly formed New York School for MARXists Studies (NYSMS) as its autonomous youth division.

The spring term 1963 bulletin of the NYSMS states that SCOPE is trying to provide conditions in which youth can broaden their knowledge and improve their understanding of this changing, perplexing, and exciting age. The goal of SCOPE is "To provide a unique opportunity for the study and discussion of MARXism".

On May 17, 1963, the fourth source advised that SCOPE continues to share the office space in Room 1922, 853 Broadway, New York City, with the NYSMS".

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

By routing slip the office of the Attorney General (AG) on 1-3-64 forwarded to the Bureau for translation an undated letter in Spanish addressed to the AG from Ylario Rojas, who resides in Guadalajara, Mexico.

A translation discloses that Rojas claims to be a Mexican and is writing to the AG because of the assassination of President Kennedy. He claims to have been a friend of subject, one Albert and "3 more people." He states "I knew about the plan, but I never thought that it would turn out to be a true plan." He said he lost the friendship of these people because he would not introduce communist propaganda into Mexico and indicated that even though various officials of the U.S. might be involved he is willing to identify them.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

It is recommended that the attached letter be directed to the AG which returns the letter and envelope from Rojas, forwards a copy of the translation and advises the AG that we are taking steps to have Rojas interviewed in detail.

Also attached for approval is a cable to the Legat, Mexico, instructing that arrangements be made to have Rojas interviewed promptly. Our files contain no information which can be identified with Rojas.

Inasmuch as Rojas resides in Mexico it is recommended that Liaison deliver a copy of the translation of his letter to CIA headquarters and advise that we are instructing Legat to have Rojas interviewed immediately.

On 1/4/64, RALPH LEON YATES was interviewed with the use of the polygraph, at the FBI Office in Dallas, Texas, by SA C. RAY HALL, with SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS present during the interview. YATES signed a waiver, consenting to the interview, on 12/10/63. Bureau teletype to Dallas, 1/2/64, authorized this interview.

During the interview, YATES was asked whether he had deliberatley furnished any false information to the FBI; whether he had picked up a hitch-hiker along the R. L. Thornton Expressway in November, 1963; whether this hitch-hiker had a package with him; whether this person told him he had curtain rods in the package; whether this person asked YATES if he knew JACK RUBENSTEIN or JACK RUBY; whether this person showed YATES a photograph of himself holding a rifle; whether this hitch-hiker talked about killing the President; whether he let this person out at the intersection of Elm and Houston Streets; and whether he believed this person was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

No significant emotional responses were recorded by the polygraph when YATES was asked these relevant questions or control-type questions. Therefore, no conclusion could be reached as to whether YATES was answering questions truthfully.

YATES denied any history of mental disturbances, or mental treatment. He stated that while he was in the U. S. Air Force, he went to military doctors inasmuch as he was having pains in his back. He said he was interviewed by a psychiatrist, about two months before being discharged, who told him he thought the pains would disappear after he was discharged from the service.

Mr. JAMES T. COMFORT, 1819 Elbert Drive, Roanoke, Virginia, who is employed as an Attorney for General Electric Company at Salem, Virginia, advised as follows:

His secretary, who refused to allow her identity to be disclosed, while home during the Christmas holidays, learned from a friend whom she refused to identify, that a young woman who attended the University of Michigan and who participated in the band activities at the University advised that in 1961, the University band made a trip to Russia. While in Russia, the Soviet Government assigned interpreters to the group, and one of the individuals assigned was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

TO DIRECTOR AND SACS DALLAS AND LAS VEGAS

FROM SAC PHOENIX 092310

LEE HARVEY OSWALD; AKA, IS-R. OO: DALLAS.

ROBERT J. KAYE LOCATED AND INTERVIEWED THIS DATE AT TUCSON, ARIZONA, WHERE HE RESIDES 2116 EAST 17TH STREET AND IS PRESENTLY EMPLOYED AS MECHANIC BY FALCON AUTOMATIC, INC., 727 SOUTH CAMPBELL AVE., TUCSON.

NO SIGNED STATEMENT FURNISHED BY KAYE SINCE HE ADVISED HE HAS VERY LIMITED READING AND WRITING ABILITY. KAYE REPEATS STORY OF HIS MEETING AT DENVER, COLORADO, EARLY OCTOBER 1963 WITH MAN WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS LEE (LAST NAME UNKNOWN). STATED HE SAW PICTURE OF OSWALD ON TELEVISION IN EL PASO DAY FOLLOWING PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION. KAYE BELIEVES OSWALD IS IDENTICAL WITH LEE, BUT ADMITS HE CANNOT BE ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN SINCE HE SAW LEE BRIEFLY ONLY TWICE ON DATE OF MEETING, DENVER. LEE GAVE KAYE $300 IN $50 AND $20 BILLS AS TRAVELING EXPENSES TO GO TO MEXICO CITY AND OBTAIN A PACKAGE FROM AN UNKNOWN MAN. NOTE: Kaye has told wild story of being approached by man he believes Oswald in Denver in early October with proposition that he travel to Mexico City to meet unidentified male from whom he was to receive papers which he was to deliver in Amarillo, Texas. Secret Service report did not make any mention of the calendar or map supposedly given to Kaye by Oswald and it is likely this is new figment of his imagination. Necessary to resolve this before reinterviewing Kaye.

BILLY RAY HENSON

E 11-28 1744 ?
11-21-1744 Dallas, Tex.

Lieutenant Jack Morris, Detective Commander, West Valley Division, Los Angeles Police Department, furnished the following information to Special Agents of the FBI on December 27, 1963:

Billy Ray Henson, also known as Joey Jowifcz, had been arrested on December 26, 1963, for attempted murder. Henson was employed and resided at the Conley Farm, 10127 Reseda Boulevard, Northridge, California. TEXAS

Lieutenant Morris, at the time that they arrested Henson, took away from Henson a Mossberg .22 model 44 US-D rifle with a Mossberg scope mounting and a Weaver J-4 telescopic scope. According to the police, the rifle had been stolen from the Conley Farm.

DALLAS

Billy Ray Henson on December 27, 1963, advised Special Agents of the FBI that his parents were Walter Taylor Henson and Opal L. Henson, 109 South Clay Street, Ennis, Texas. He has been arrested many times in Texas. He claims that he was in the U. S. Army from June 1962 until September 26, 1963, at which time he received an undesirable discharge. He claims he had serial number RA18647885. At one time he lived with friends, Lee and Ruth Farley, 201 - 7th Street, Irving, Texas.

BILLY RAY HENSON

Henson is described as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Nationality	American
Birth data	November 28, 1944, Dallas, Texas
Height	6' 2"
Weight	179 pounds
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Brown

On December 31, 1963, the records of the Dallas Police Department were checked and reflect that Billy Ray Henson has arrest number 61-93480. He was arrested on September 29, 1961, charged with juvenile delinquency (truancy - loitering) and was remanded to the juvenile home. It reflects that he was born November 21, 1944.. At that time he lived at 902 Jessica Street, Dallas.

On December 31, 1963, Mrs. Lee L. Farley, 223 West 7th Street, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information to Special Agents of the FBI:

The Farleys have known Billy Ray Henson for approximately two years. Henson is a very emotional, unstable person who when told to do something which he would not agree with would generally tell that person "I'll kill you." On one occasion when he was told to go back to the Army, Henson became so mad that he tore his Army uniform apart right in front of the entire family. On another occasion she learned from neighbors that Henson, while reading a comic book, got mad for some reason or another, cursed loudly, then crawled into a large dog house and stayed there. Mrs. Farley said that at one time he was told by the Farleys to go back to Ennis, Texas, where his parents live. Upon being told this, Henson screamed "I'll kill you."

Mrs. Farley advised that Henson would often "make up stories" and actually seemed to believe them himself. Henson claimed that while in the U. S. Army he turned a .50 caliber machine gun on fellow troops at target practice and killed them all. TEXAS

Mrs. Farley advised that the Henson family is composed of five or six children and that at least one other child is emotionally unstable. Mrs. Farley believes that this is "Tiny" Henson, age 22, who weighs approximately 350 pounds. Buddy Henson, age approximately 30, is in the U. S. Army, overseas in Germany. Kenneth Henson is in the 11th grade. Becky Henson is approximately age 15. Mrs. Farley advised that on several other occasions, Henson while living with them, threatened to kill them and also threatened to kill the Farley children.

REBUCAB JANUARY 8 LAST.

FOLLOWING INFORMATION OBTAINED TODAY BY SA EDWIN O. JOHNSON FROM YLARIO ROJAS VILLANUEVA, 1367 MANUEL ACUNA, GUADALAJARA, MEXICO.

IN ABOUT JUNE OR JULY 1962 ROJAS WAS SITTING IN PARK IN MEXICO CITY WHEN APPROACHED BY CUBAN WHO BEGAN TO TALK TO HIM ABOUT SMUGGLING IN CUBAN PROPAGANDA. CUBAN PROMISED TO SEE HIM LATER IN GUADALAJARA AND ABOUT MIDDLE OF AUGUST SAME YEAR HE ARRIVED IN GUADALAJARA IN AUTOMOBILE WHICH ROJAS CANNOT DESCRIBE. ROJAS THEN DROVE WITH CUBAN TO CIUDAD JUAREZ, ACROSS FROM EL PASO. AFTER ARRIVAL ROJAS WENT TO MOVIE, NAME OF THEATER NOT RECALLED, AND APPARENTLY CUBAN WENT OVER TO EL PASO.

CUBAN PICKED UP ROJAS IN FRONT OF THEATER AFTER MOVIE WAS OVER AND INTRODUCED HIM TO INDIVIDUAL WHOSE NAME ROJAS COULD NOT RECALL BUT WHOM HE NOW IDENTIFIES AS OSWALD FROM PHOTOGRAPHS OF LATTER. THE THREE WENT TO BAR AND DISCUSSED INTRODUCTION OF CASTRO PROPAGANDA INTO MEXICO VIA COZUMEL, LOCATED ON ISLAND OFF COAST OF YUCATAN. THEY DID QUITE A BIT OF DRINKING AND CUBAN APPARENTLY TURNED HIS CAR OVER TO OSWALD.

CUBAN AND ROJAS STAYED IN A JUAREZ HOTEL, NAME OF WHICH ROJAS CANNOT REMEMBER. FOLLOWING MORNING ROJAS AND CUBAN LEFT JUAREZ VIA AERONAVES AND FLEW TO MONTERREY AND AFTER SHORT STOP PROCEEDED DIRECTLY TO GUADALAJARA. IT IS TO BE NOTED AERONAVES AIRLINE HAS

AFTER ARRIVAL IN GUADALAJARA ROJAS RECEIVED 400 PESOS FROM CUBAN WHO TOLD HIM HE WOULD RECEIVE INSTRUCTIONS LATER. ABOUT DECEMBER 1962 CUBAN CAME TO GUADALAJARA AND GAVE ROJAS 900 PESOS MORE AND TOLD HIM TO PROCEED TO COZUMEL BY BUS WITHIN FIVE DAYS. ROJAS DID THIS, REACHING COZUMEL JUST AFTER CHRISTMAS WHERE HE WAS MET BY TWO CUBAN MEN AND A CUBAN WOMAN. FIRST NAME OF LATTER WAS CRISTINA. ROJAS COULD NOT RECALL NAMES OF TWO CUBAN MEN BUT CLAIMED HE HAS THEM IN NOTEBOOK WHICH HE LEFT WITH ONE DANIEL SOLIS, MUNICIPAL POLICEMAN IN COZUMEL. ROJAS CLAIMED SOLIS WILL DELIVER BOOK TO NO ONE BUT HIM.

ROJAS SAID ABOUT DECEMBER 28, 1962, OSWALD ARRIVED IN COZUMEL FROM JAMAICA VIA CMA AIRLINE. OSWALD, ROJAS AND THREE CUBANS AGAIN DISCUSSED INTRODUCTION OF CUBAN PROPAGANDA INTO MEXICO THROUGH COZUMEL.

OSWALD STAYED TWO OR THREE DAYS IN COZUMEL AND RETURNED TO JAMAICA BY AIR. CUBANS AND ROJAS CONTINUED LIVING IN COZUMEL UNTIL ABOUT FEBRUARY 15 WHEN OSWALD AGAIN ARRIVED THERE FROM JAMAICA. OSWALD STAYED THREE DAYS THERE AND DAY AFTER HIS ARRIVAL AMERICAN BY NAME OF ALBERT ARRIVED FROM JAMAICA. ROJAS SAID HE HAS LAST NAME OF ALBERT IN HIS NOTEBOOK IN COZUMEL. CONVERSATIONS BETWEEN AMERICAN, OSWALD AND CUBANS WERE IN ENGLISH. ROJAS SAID HE WAS TOLD BY CRISTINA THEY HAD DISCUSSED ELIMINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY. SHE CLAIMED OSWALD WAS FOR IT BUT ALBERT AND CUBANS DID NOT AGREE WITH HIM. ALBERT RETURNED TO UNITED STATES VIA JAMAICA DAY AFTER HIS ARRIVAL. CRISTINA CLAIMED OSWALD TOLD CUBANS HE AND

ALBERT HAD LAID PLANS TO ELIMINATE PRESIDENT.

ROJAS CLAIMED HE GOT ALBERT'S LAST NAME FROM U.S. GOVERNMENT CREDENTIAL WHICH HE SAW IN BATH HOUSE AT HOTEL IN COZUMEL. ROJAS STAYED ON IN COZUMEL UNTIL EARLY MARCH 1963 AND THEN RETURNED BY BUS TO GUADALAJARA. HE CLAIMS HE NEVER DID ANYTHING TO HELP BRING IN CUBAN PROPAGANDA INTO MEXICO. STATED HE IS WILLING TO GO ANYWHERE IF EXPENSES PAID TO MAKE ANY IDENTIFICATION AND TO PICK UP HIS NOTEBOOK WITH FULL NAMES. HE CANNOT EXPLAIN WHY HE CANNOT REMEMBER NAMES OF CUBANS AFTER HAVING BEEN WITH THEM NEARLY THREE MONTHS.

SA JOHNSON ADVISED ROJAS APPEARS TO BE SINCERE BUT ALSO APPEARS TO BE DESPERATELY IN NEED OF MONEY AND LIVES IN SLUM AREA OF GUADALAJARA. IT WOULD APPEAR LIKELY THAT HE MAY HAVE MADE UP THIS STORY IN ORDER TO OBTAIN MONEY. Based upon his discussions with Lee Rankin, counsel of the Commission, Inspector Malley has requested that Liaison check with a Government agencies, except State Department and Secret Service, which might logically have pertinent information concerning Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Leon Ruby. Specific reference was made to a check with Defense Department, Office of Naval Intelligence, Office of Special Investigations Air Force, and Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence Army, to determine if any action was taken by those agencies with regard to Oswald's trip to Russia in 1959-62. It was noted that we have previously reviewed the U.S. Marine file on Oswald and have summarized it for the Commission; therefore, it will be unnecessary to obtain any information from that file. However, any other information in possession of ONI would be desirable.

Inspector Malley also requested that we obtain through Liaison copies of income tax returns filed by Oswald, Ruby, Ruby's brother Earl R. Ruby, his sister Eva L. Grant, and Oswald's associates Ruth and Michael Ralph Paine from 1955 to date.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended Liaison make the appropriate contacts with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and other Government agencies in accordance with Inspector Malley's request. For the assistance of Liaison and for delivery to IRS attached are memoranda pertaining to these individuals.

The 12/30/63 issue of the "U. S. News and World Report" contains an article starting on page 28 relating to the assassination and primarily the FBI's inquiry into same. This article includes a statement to the effect that when the Presidential limousine was sent to Detroit to be "armor-plated" a hole was found in the car's floor pan which speculation has indicated is a bullet hole. No further information regarding this hole is included in the article.

Immediately after the return of the Presidential limousine to Washington, D. C., from Dallas, Texas, representatives of our Laboratory examined this car specifically to detect and collect any bullet fragments for examination. It was not feasible at that time to rip out the upholstery or otherwise dismantle the car. However, from such examination as could be made without mutilating the car, we were successful in locating some additional lead bullet fragments which had not been found by the Secret Service during their earlier examination of the car. No bullet holes were observed in that portion of the floor pan which was accessible during our examination. Of course, in preparation for armor-plating a car, the interior is completely stripped of all upholstery and other components down to the bare metal, and portions of the car would, therefore, be exposed which would not be accessible under any other conditions. (It is our understanding that the armor-plating is being carried out in Cincinnati rather than in Detroit as reported in the present news article, and the lack of accurate information on the location may extend into other facets of the article.) Our investigation to date fails to indicate that we have been advised of the presence of any such hole by Secret Service who have responsibility for the vehicle.

ORIGINAL FILED IN

There appears to be little significance to the alleged location of this hole in the Presidential limousine at this time; however, since this item appears in a magazine with a nationwide distribution it is possible questions may be raised by the President's Commission concerning this. Therefore, it is felt we should be in a position to promptly answer any such inquiry.

Mr. HEIN advised that he had two girls by the name of ALICIA RAMOS in Martin High School and both of them were in school on October 2 and 3, 1963. Mr. HEIN stated he questioned both girls and neither had been to Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, which was the city the Mexican Immigration records indicated that RAMOS had visited. TEXAS

The Laredo Telephone and City Directories contain a list of approximately 50 families by the name of RAMOS residing in Laredo, Texas.

No ALICIA RAMOS could be located in the Holding Institute or St. Augustine High Schools, the only other high schools in Laredo, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted by [redacted]:

AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

Current San Antonio telephone and city directories were examined and found to contain no names identifiable with C. [redacted], (FNU) NIETO, R. GOMEZ, or E. GUTIERREZ. TEXAS

On December 17, 1963, records of the Retail Merchants Association were examined by IC JOHN C. SMITH and found to contain no records identifiable with the above individuals.

On December 11, 1963, JOE KENDRICKS, Detachment Commander, Office of Special Investigations, Lackland Air Force Base, advised SA DON R. ROSE that he had referred to appropriate records at Lackland Air Force Base and ascertained that no R. GOMEZ arrived at that base on October 3, 1963, or anywhere near this date. He said there is an R. GOMEZ presently stationed at Lackland Air Force Base whom he identified as RAUL N. GOMEZ but explained that this GOMEZ was a basic trainee who arrived at Lackland Air Force Base on November 6, 1963. According to him there is no other R. GOMEZ stationed at that base.

Mr. KENDRICKS further advised that he could find no record concerning a (FNU) NIETO.

On December 12, 1963, Mr. R. JAMES CUNNINGHAM, Joint Airlines Military Ticket Office (JAMTO), Lackland Air Force Base, advised after referring to appropriate records that Airman Third Class REYNALDO GOMEZ was assigned to Lackland Air Force Base during the period in question but had been transferred to Gettysburg Air Force Station, Gettysburg, South Dakota, recently. He said that REYNALDO GOMEZ' residence is listed as [redacted], Texas, which is close to Laredo, Texas, and he quite probably is the R. GOMEZ that was on Trans-Texas Airways Flight 290 from Laredo, Texas, to San Antonio, Texas, on October 3, 1963. TEXAS

[illegible] CUNNINGHAM also made known that he had [illegible] two NIETOs had been assigned to Lackland Air Force Base. He identified these individuals as [illegible] NIETO who is presently in Officer's Training School, Medina Base, in class 64E. He identified the other NIETO as FRANCISCO A. NIETO who recently was transferred to the 340th Bomber Wing, Bergstrom Air Force Base, Texas.

On December 12, 1963, Officer Candidate DONALD E. NIETO, Class 64E, Officer's Training School, Medina Base, advised SA DON R. ROSE that he was not in the Air Force [illegible] October 3, 1963, and was not on Flight 290 of [illegible]-Texas Airways, flight from Laredo, Texas, to San Antonio, Texas, on October 3, 1963. According to him he was in California on this date.

On December 19, 1963, FRANCISCO A. NIETO, 340th Bomber Wing, Bergstrom Air Force Base, advised SA H. T. BURK that he entered the Air Force on September 13, 1963, as a recruit and finished his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base on November 13, 1963. He said he has never been to Laredo, Texas, and was not on Flight 290 of Trans-Texas Airways from Laredo, Texas, to San Antonio, Texas, on October 3, 1963.

On December 20, 1963, FRANK M. DRAIN, 918 Manor Drive, San Antonio, Texas, advised SA DON R. ROSE that he has taken a number of flights on Trans-Texas Airlines from Laredo, Texas, to San Antonio, and he recalls the flight from Laredo to San Antonio on October 3, 1963. He said that he does not recall seeing anyone on this flight resembling the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On December 20, 1963, Mr. A. RAFFAELE, Base Locator, Kelly Air Force Base, Texas, advised SA DON R. ROSE that the records of his office contain no mention of any military officer or enlisted man by the name of NIETO. He added that his records contain the names of those individuals who have been transferred from that base since October 3, 1963.

Mr. RAFFAELE pointed out that had an Air Force [illegible] been assigned to Kelly Air Force Base on temporary [illegible] he would have no record of this individual.

On December 20, 1963, Airman First Class RICHARD F. GAFFNEY, Base Locator, Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, advised that his records make no mention of any individual by the name of NIETO.

On December 20, 1963, Airman First Class JAMES A. MURRAY, Base Locator, Brooks Air Force Base, Texas, advised that his records make no mention of an individual by the name of NIETO.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 30, 1963

Mrs. LEE DANNELLY, Assistant Chief of the Administrative Division, State Selective Service Headquarters, Austin Texas, prepared a memorandum concerning her recollection of [illegible] contact with LEE HARVEY OSWALD which memorandum reads as follows and which was prepared specifically for [illegible] F. BURK:

"At your request, following is a resume of information the undersigned furnished to Mr. NORMAN DUGGER, publisher of the "Texas Observer" and representative of a Washington, D.C. daily newspaper, on 17 December 1963. TEXAS

"Mr. DUGGER called at this Headquarters at approximately 1:30 PM, 17 Dec 63; he showed me an identification card from the Department of Public Safety and stated he wished to obtain any information I knew relative to a visit by LEE HARVEY OSWALD to this Headquarters. Before I gave him any information, my supervisor Lt. Col. WILLIAM BOYD SINCLAIR walked up to my desk and the two greeted one another. Colonel SINCLAIR asked Mr. DUGGER to come on in to his office and Mr. DUGGER told him that as soon as he asked me a few questions he would come in.

"Mr. DUGGER asked if I could furnish in detail everything in connection with the visit of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to this Headquarters and I advised him as follows: On 24 Nov 63 (Sunday), it was announced over TV that at that time there was no definite record as to Mr. OSWALD's whereabouts from May 1963 until the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY. I was at home at the time and I called Colonel SINCLAIR and advised him I was positive this man had been to our office, approximately 6 or 8 weeks prior to that date (24 Nov 63). I could not recall any information that would make me positive about the exact date but that I was positive that it was on a Wednesday. I have been having quite a bit of trouble with my back and legs for quite sometime, and the only times I [illegible] to town during my lunch hour was on pay days to cash a check--we are paid on alternate Wednesdays. I was a few minutes late getting back to the office that day and Mr. OSWALD was waiting to see me when I got back. Mr. OSWALD stated that he had just come from the Governor's office to try to straighten out his discharge from the Marine Corps, which had been under 'other than honorable conditions.' The Governor's office told him they did not have anything to do with such things but that maybe this office would be able to assist him. Mr. OSWALD stated that at the time he was given the discharge under 'other than honorable conditions' he was told that if he lived an upright life for the next two years, he could then make application to have the type of discharge changed to 'honorable.' He told me that he was having difficulty in obtaining a job, and holding a job, with that type discharge. Also, he said it was embarrassing to his family. I asked him where he was registered and he said he registered in Florida but that he was living in Ft. Worth at the present time. I checked our locator file for HARVEY OSWALD (the name he gave me), but did not check any of the other OSWALD cards for possible identification since I presumed he was correct and was registered in Florida. I did not find a card for HARVEY OSWALD. We do have a card for LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. OSWALD did not remember whether he had given his address in Fort Worth (at time of separation from the Marine Corps) as place of entry into service or not. I advised him to check with our local boards in Fort Worth when he got back and maybe they would have a copy of his Report of Separation (DD Form 214).

"This Headquarters maintains sets of military regulations from the various armed forces which jointly concern the Selective

Mr. [illegible] I checked these regulations in an attempt to learn the exact procedure Mr. OSWALD should follow in making application for [illegible] 'type' of discharge. I did not find the regulation covering this subject. I then gave Mr. OSWALD a copy of an information sheet, [illegible] copy attached, which lists the location of various types of military records, so that he could write direct and request the proper form for making the application for change in 'type' of discharge.

During this entire interview, which lasted for approximately 20 minutes, Mr. OSWALD was very [illegible]

I told him [illegible] asked me if I saw Mr. OSWALD at [illegible] supposedly at the Trek Club, 1003 [illegible] I told [illegible] Mr. OSWALD had at any time during the interview mentioned anything as to his mode of transportation. I told him no. Mr. DUCOLA advised me that he was now ready to mail his [illegible] Washington D.C. newspaper he [illegible]

Mrs. DANNELLY further related orally that she is [illegible] at this time that the date on which LEE HARVEY [illegible] her was September 25, 1963.

Mrs. DANNELLY advised that she cannot establish [illegible] by any personal record at the State Selective [illegible] Service because due to the fact that no record was [illegible] at the time she interviewed OSWALD or at the time OSWALD called upon her. She advised that the date is established in the following manner. She advised that she brings her lunch to work each day and has lunch in the office with exception of the days on which she is paid which is every other Wednesday. She advised that on these so called pay days that she frequently goes to the bank for the purpose of withdrawing money from her account. She does not deposit her salary check in the bank due to the fact that these checks are mailed direct to the bank and she is not required to make these deposits, the checks being mailed direct from the office. She does business at the Capital National Bank, Austin, Texas, and on the date in question she advised that she recalls coming back to work slightly after 1:00 p.m., perhaps at about 1:05 p.m., and on that date had been to the main branch of the Capital National Bank, Austin, Texas, and cashed a check in the amount of $100 and in addition she had had lunch elsewhere other than the office where she normally had lunch. She advised that there is a possibility that the date on which OSWALD was in Austin, Texas, could have been September 11, 1963, because from her cancelled checks which she personally carried to the Capital National Bank she had the bank employee look at all of her cancelled checks for the last six months and he picked out only three of these checks that according to the bank stamp had been cashed inside the main Capital National Bank. The first of these checks, the more recent of them rather, was September 25, 1963; the second was September 11, 1963; and the third was July 31, 1963. Of these three checks Mrs. DANNELLY feels that the September 25, 1963, date is the more accurate date of the visit of OSWALD.

Mrs. DANNELLY further pointed out that her other banking operations and withdrawals from the bank are done at the drive-in window of the Capital National Bank which is directly across the street from the State Selective Service Headquarters on the south side of her building and she frequently did business at that drive-in window during bank hours and other checks cashed by her bore a stamp indicating they were cashed at the drive-in window rather than at the main bank proper

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was exhibited to Mrs. DANNELLY and she stated that in her opinion the photograph looks like the man who came to State Selective Service Headquarters on the day in question inquiring concerning the discharge mentioned above.

Mrs. DANNELLY advised that she recalls being at the Trek Cafe on South Congress Avenue, Austin Texas. on November 22, 1963, at which time she was engaged in conversation with a man who is employed as a printer for the Austin daily paper and at that time this individual whose name is not known to her at this time advised her that he believed that he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Trek Cafe sometime in the past. This man had seen OSWALD's photograph on television at that time and due to this conversation, Mrs. DANNELLY recalled her experience of having been contacted by the individual using the name of HARVEY OSWALD and recalled that the photograph seen on television resembled the individual who had contacted her using the name of HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. DANNELLY advised that the printer whom she engaged in conversation at the Trek Cafe was a white male, age 45, of slender build, approximate 5' 6" to 5' 8", 135 to 140 pounds, and during the course of conversation had mentioned that he had been recently divorced and had a home in the country where he kept a considerable number of dogs. Mrs. DANNELLY advised that she had seen this printer in the Trek Cafe on numerous other occasions and knew him by sight but not by name

Mrs. DANNELLY likewise recalled as best she could remember at this time Mr. RONNIE DUGGER is a friend of the son of the printer referred to above. She also recalls that a waitress at the Trek Cafe made some comment indicating that she was of the opinion that OSWALD had been in that cafe at one time or another. She seems to recall that this waitress was named BOBBIE, last name unknown, and that she was a sister-in-law of one BILL COVINGTON, manager of the Trek Cafe.

Mr. LARRY TEMPLE, Administrative Assistant to the Governor of Texas, Capitol Building, Austin, Texas, advised a thorough search of all the guest registers maintained in the Governor's Office in Austin, Texas, back for the last preceding six months failed to reveal a registration for LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or HARVEY OSWALD, or any other individual that can be possibly identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised that as a general rule all individuals or guests coming to or calling on the Governor or any of the Administrative Assistants to the Governor are required to sign these guest registers. He advised that there is no record of OSWALD having signed such a register.

TEMPLE further pointed out that any individual contacting the Governor's Office with respect to a matter concerning the military, for example a military discharge, would under normal conditions have been referred to him, TEMPLE, for handling and interview. He advised that he at no time recalls ever having contacted LEE HARVEY OSWALD concerning any matter either concerning a U. S. Marine Corps Discharge or any other type matter. He advised that a thorough search of all of the records and indices maintained in the Governor's Office failed to reveal any information whatsoever concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no record of any correspondence ever having been carried on between Governor's Office of Texas and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. LEE DANNELLY, Assistant Chief of the Administrative Division, State Selective Service Headquarters, Austin, Texas, advised the State Selective Service Headquarters at Austin, Texas, maintains a three inch by five inch locator card on all registrants with all boards located throughout the State of Texas and that these locator cards reveal that one LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Selective Service Number 41-114-39-532, born October 18, 1939, is a registrant with Local Board Number 14, which is located at Fort Worth, Texas. This card contains no other information whatsoever concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD and any information concerning him in the possession of the Selective Service System would be located in the files of Local Board Number 114, Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. DANNELLY further pointed out that the locator cards in the State Selective Service Headquarters indicates that there are fifteen individuals with the last name OSWALD in the locator files and that she recalls having searched for a name HARVEY OSWALD in these files when the individual known to her as HARVEY OSWALD contacted her on or about September 25, 1963, and finding no name listed therein for HARVEY OSWALD she did not search for a LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. DANNELLY further pointed out that she recalls that another employee of the State Selective Service Headquarters, namely Mr. JESSE E. SKRIVANEK, had brought HARVEY OSWALD back to her desk on the day in question which she thought to be September 25, 1963. She advised that she had checked and rechecked with JESSE E. SKRIVANEK who was on Christmas leave as of December 26, 1963, but that SKRIVANEK could not recall OSWALD by name and had made no notation concerning him at the time he came to State Selective Service Headquarters. She advised that as far as she knows Colonel SINCLAIR never at any time observed the individual using the name of HARVEY OSWALD and that JESSE E. SKRIVANEK is the only other employee that she can recall personally at this time who may have observed OSWALD.

Mrs. DANNELLY further pointed out that since she was last interviewed on December 19, 1963, she has since learned that the name of the printer whom she referred to previous interview was a Mr. L. D. DAY who is a printer for the Austin American Statesman, a daily newspaper [illegible] Texas. She likewise advised that she learned that the name of the waitress in question whom she previously thought to be named BOBBIE is actually Mrs. STELLA NORMAN, a waitress employed at the Trek Cafe, Austin, Texas. She states that she cannot at this time think of any other information of a pertinent nature concerning the visit of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She cannot recall him having made any statement whatsoever as to his mode of travel into or how he expected to depart from Austin, Texas, or his destination. She states that she has read a news item in the Texas Observer written by RONNIE DUGGER referred to in prior interview wherein DUGGER reported information reading as follows, "OSWALD had been in New Orleans last summer on September 23, 1963. Mrs. OSWALD and Mrs. RUTH PAINE of Irving drove to Irving and OSWALD left shortly thereafter.

"He turned up in Mexico City applying for travel papers to Russia via Cuba on September 27, 1963. He could have stopped in Austin, Texas, on his way to Mexico through Laredo, Texas."

Mrs. DANNELLY pointed out that the information referred to above apparently is information gathered by DUGGER himself and that she at no time ever furnished any such information to DUGGER. She stated that the information set out in the memorandum previously prepared for Special Agent H. T. BURK is the only information she had at the time of interview by DUGGER.

Date December 30, 1963

Lieutenant Colonel WILLIAM B. SINCLAIR, Chief of the Administrative Division, State Selective Service Headquarters, Austin, Texas, advised that he had never heard of [redacted] OSWALD until his name was mentioned on [illegible] and television programs on November 22, 1963, in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY. He advised further that on November 24, 1963, his Assistant Chief of the Administrative Division, Mrs. LEE DANNELLY, called him at home and advised him that after observing the photographs of OSWALD on television and hearing his name announced that she recalled that this individual had contacted her at State Selective Service Headquarters sometime in the past six or eight weeks and that he had inquired at that time for information concerning a Marine corps discharge which he desired to have changed from "other than honorable" to an honorable discharge. Colonel SINCLAIR pointed out that at the time of this contact on November 24, 1963, Mrs. DANNELLY was unable to recall any specific date of this contact and that it did not appear to be pertinent at that time, but he advised Mrs. DANNELLY that she should use her own discretion about whether or not the matter should be reported to the proper authorities.

Colonel SINCLAIR was allowed to observe a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he advised that he could not recall ever having seen that individual inside the State Selective Service Headquarters in Austin, Texas.

Colonel SINCLAIR further pointed out that there are a large number of callers at State Selective Service Headquarters and no register is maintained of the individuals who call at that office concerning routine matters which would have been the category of the inquiry referred to by Mrs. DANNELLY on behalf of OSWALD.

SINCLAIR advised that he has no further information of any sort that would have any bearing upon where OSWALD actually did visit the State Selective Service Headquarters or whether he did not. He pointed out that there is always a possibility that the individual who contacted the State Selective Service Headquarters may have been an individual by the name of OSWALD and been one other than LEE HARVEY OSWALD, subject of this investigation.

Mr. RONNIE DUGGER, Editor, The Texas Observer, Austin, Texas, newspaper, 504 W. 24th Street, advised he learned from Mrs. LEE DANNELLY, State Selective Service Headquarters, Austin, Texas, that she was contacted by a person believed to be identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD on about September 25, 1963, at Austin, Texas. DUGGER feels Mrs. DANNELLY's information is reliable and that she is a very capable individual of good judgment.

In addition, DUGGER pointed out that he had interviewed Mrs. STELLA NORMAN, waitress at Trek Cafe, South Congress Avenue, Austin, Texas, who advised she had waited on a customer "about two months ago" who looked just like the pictures she had seen of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She had reported the man believed to be OSWALD drank two or three cups of coffee and stayed at the cafe thirty or forty minutes and was alone. She further advised DUGGER that she had Wednesday off each week and the day she believes she saw OSWALD could not have been on September 25, 1963, since this date was on Wednesday.

DUGGER also had talked to L. B. DAY, a pressman for the American Statesman, Austin, Texas, newspaper. DAY claimed to have seen the man referred to by Mrs. NORMAN, and he also was convinced the man was identical with OSWALD.

DUGGER pointed out that while he feels the information furnished by Mrs. DANNELLY is reliable the information furnished by STELLA NORMAN and L. B. DAY is possibly a case of mistaken identity. His reason for this latter opinion was due to the statement of STELLA NORMAN that she did not work on Wednesday and Mrs. DANNELLY is positive the interview she had with the person believed to be OSWALD was on Wednesday.

On pages 416 and 417 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING 12-23-63, there is set forth the initial interview of JOE R. FRANKLIN, Texas Department of Corrections, No. 172094, on 12-2-63. FRANKLIN alleged at that time that during the last two weeks in October, 1962, he met an individual at a blood bank located on Commerce Street in Dallas, Texas who identified himself to FRANKLIN as LEE OSWALD. He stated this individual accompanied him three blocks from the blood bank to a tavern where "OSWALD" allegedly introduced him to the owner of the tavern, "JACK RUBY". FRANKLIN stated that after a few hours of drinking, "OSWALD" took him to visit "OSWALD's" wife who was separated from "OSWALD" and residing at a rooming house in West Dallas. FRANKLIN claimed he saw "OSWALD" two more times while "OSWALD" was standing at the corner of Inwood Avenue in Dallas and gave him a ride to Farmer's Branch, Texas. He stated "OSWALD" gave him a book from the Jehovah's Witnesses and claimed to be a member of this group.

FRANKLIN, Box 349, Vernon, Texas, gave blood at that blood bank on 8-18-60, 10-19-62 and 12-14-62. His records reflected FRANKLIN was born 4-24-26, 6' tall, 163 lbs., U. S. Army serial number 54150836, and Social Security No. 448-16-4272. The records contained no information concerning OSWALD under his true name or known aliases and no one at the blood bank was able to recall OSWALD having appeared there from viewing his photograph.

On page 69 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING 12-10-63 at Dallas, there is reflected the results of an interview with MARINA OSWALD on 12-6-63. MARINA was exhibited a photograph of FRANKLIN taken 9-26-60 by the Sheriff's Office, Dallas, Texas, their number 104892. She stated this photograph was not of any person known to her. She did not recall the name FRANKLIN and she specifically stated she did not recall FRANKLIN accompanying her husband to visit her on 10-19-62.

On pages 2 through 5 of the report of SA EDWIN DALRYMPLE 12-18-63, Houston, there is reflected a reinterview of JOE R. FRANKLIN, in which FRANKLIN elaborates on the information he furnished initially. In this interview, FRANKLIN stated he and "OSWALD" left the blood bank about 1:00 P.M. and walked westward on Commerce Street for about three to seven blocks, and entered a bar located on the south side of the street. He stated "OSWALD" identified an individual who spoke to him as "That's JACK RUBY - He owns this joint!" FRANKLIN stated that after observing photographs of JACK RUBY in numerous newspapers and magazines, he is positive that this was the same man that "OSWALD" referred to in the bar.

FRANKLIN stated that at about 3:30 P.M., he and "OSWALD" walked back to the blood bank where FRANKLIN had his car parked, and that they then drove to another bar named "JACK's Bar" located on Harry Hines Boulevard close to the loop or circle from which the road to Grapevine, Texas emanates. FRANKLIN then described that about dusk, he and "OSWALD" departed this bar and drove to see "OSWALD's" wife. FRANKLIN described in detail the route taken to the place where he met "OSWALD's" wife. He described the house where he met MARINA OSWALD as being a white frame. FRANKLIN then stated he and "OSWALD" returned to the first bar where the person OSWALD claimed was JACK RUBY was working behind the bar. FRANKLIN in this interview stated that after viewing newspaper photographs of MARINA OSWALD, he was positive this was the same girl he saw whom "OSWALD" claimed to be his wife.

On page 188 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 1-7-64, there is set forth a reinterview with MARINA OSWALD on 12-19-63 wherein she reiterated she did not know and did not believe OSWALD knew JOE R. FRANKLIN. She stated she was residing either at Mercedes Street in Fort Worth, Texas or in the homes of friends in Dallas, and did not reside in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas during the period October, 1962. She stated she recalled living in a white frame house with a front porch, but that this was located on Mercedes Street in Fort Worth and was a duplex. She stated she did not recall OSWALD ever bringing a man to her house either on Mercedes Street or where she was living with friends, in Dallas. She also stated she did not recall that she and OSWALD ever had a neighbor identified as an older woman who might have caused trouble between her and OSWALD as was indicated by FRANKLIN, and that she did not recall any occasion when she walked from her house to a car with OSWALD, after which OSWALD got into the car and drove off with a man. (This was alleged by FRANKLIN).

On 12-19-63, efforts were made to locate a "JACK's Bar" near the traffic circle as described by FRANKLIN with negative results, and a check of the Dallas City Directories for 1961, 1962 and 1963, failed to reflect any listing for a "JACK's Bar" in Dallas, Texas.

It will be noted that the area described by FRANKLIN as being the location of the OSWALD home when he visited in October, 1962, would be in the Oak Cliff area, Dallas, and MARINA OSWALD was not residing in that area at that time. No "JACK's Bar" could be located as described by FRANKLIN. The location of JACK RUBY's Carousel Club was widely publicised after he was alleged to have shot OSWALD, and it is located on the south side of Commerce Street, approximately six blocks from the Blood Center where FRANKLIN gave blood on 10-19-62. All other allegations to date alleging acquaintanceship of OSWALD and RUBY have proven negative.

Based on the information set forth above and detailed in the reports as described, it would appear that no further action is warranted and none is being taken UACB.

Defense report belies need for N-arms

By WILLIAM DEVINE

Last week's report of the special Commons committee on defense raised more questions than it tried to answer, and contained some ominous indications of what might lie in store for Canada.

Foremost among the question marks is whether Canada and its forces abroad really need nuclear weapons, either for its own defense or to fulfill its "role" in NATO.

Although the committee argued for accepting these arms, the net effect of its deliberations and argumentation is in fact to belie their need.

Second, why was there almost complete unanimity among committee members to accept nuclear arms in Canada and abroad? The committee is made up of members from the Liberal, Conservative, New Democratic and Social Credit parties (this last representation based on Social Credit's standing before the split-off by Real Caouette and the Social Credit Rally).

The unanimity is surprising in view of the fact the nuclear arms issue was the main one in the last election, with the Liberals in favor, the Conservatives in their majority apparently opposed, Social Credit split, and the NDP solidly opposed.

PARTICULAR CONCERN

For progressives, a point of particular concern is what has happened to the NDP position within the defense committee. In this connection it is to be noted that the one committee member who dissented on the nuclear arms issue was NDP'er Andrew Brewin, who said the Bomarc and Voodoo were "useless," according to a Canadian Press report.

The other NDP member on the committee, however, is Harold Winch, who, as indicated by reports, has gone along with nuclear arms.

As recently as two weeks ago, during the debate on defense department estimates, Winch had opposed nuclear arms in Canada and abroad. Why has he apparently changed?

And what is the NDP's official policy on the nuclear issue now?

The definitive word on the government's defense policies is expected to be stated when Defense Minister Hellyer brings down his Public action urgent to save Columbia

The committee that has been working to save British Columbia's power-rich river —the Columbia—for Canada, has issued an emergency appeal to Canadians to act now to stop its sellout to the United States.

The Columbia River for Canada Committee issued its appeal after it was announced in Ottawa that a secret deal has been made by Canada, B.C. and the U.S. on terms to speed up handing the river over t the U.S.

On Dec. 17 it was also announced in B.C. that Social Credit Premier W.A.C. Bennett's cabinet had approved the secret pact.

Subsequent Ottawa press reports indicated the U.S. had agreed to pay about $420 million for its long-term purchase of downstream benefits created by U.S. will pay 3.75 mills per kilowatt hour (estimated at four mills in Canadian funds) to purchase Canada's share of extra power generated in the U.S. as a result of having the storage dams built in Canada.

Although Bennett had already been committed to sell out the riv r's future (including the possibility of diverting some of its water for irrigation of the prairies), he had held out for a higher price of five mills per kilowatt hour for the extra power.

Now he is apparently prepared to go along with the lower U.S. figure on that as well.

"The fate of the continent's greatest power-irrigation river system hangs in the balance," says the appeal of the Columbia da must m..intain control of the Columbia River to meet our future needs. But under the terms of the draft treaty we would sacrifice control for all time to a foreign power.

"Now is the time for Canadians from all walks of life, regardless of their own particular party views, to unite to save this great resource for our country.

"Wire or write the prime minister and your Member of Parliament today: scrap the draft treaty! Retain Canadian control! Develop the Columbia for Canada!"

Meeting Dec. 17, the Vancouver Labor Council unanimously adopted a five-point program of action to stop the Columbia sellout.

How FBI tried to recruit Oswald as an agent

By GEORGE MORRIS
(From the U.S. Worker)

NEW YORK

NEWSPAPERS throughout the country have suddenly stopped digging further into the facts surrounding the Kennedy assassination, but the fascist John Birch society, in a full page ad in the Sunday New York Times, gave the signal for a right-wing drive against the left based on the fake claim that Lee Harvey Oswald was a "Communist."

Meanwhile, another campaign is receiving sympathetic treatment in the press. The drive is on to picture Jack Ruby, the Chicago gangster, and lately strip-tease operator, as just a barefoot boy badly brought up, but whose "patriotic" heart was moved by the assassination and by the plight of Mrs. Kennedy and her children.

From sources still undisclosed, finances are assured for a battery of lawyers, already numbering six, to defend him.

A bail fund of $100,000 for the killer of Oswald is at hand, say the lawyers, who released a batch of mail purportedly received from many places praising his silencing of Oswald.

The "enigma" of Oswald might be cleared up if the FBI, State Department, Central Intelligence Agency, Dallas police or the government's agencies handling the pro-invasion Cubans in this country, would at least reply to published evidence that Oswald was an undercover agent.

Why has the government, or the CIA, remained silent on a story of the news services and the special correspondents in Dallas of many newspapers published from coast to coast on Nov. 29 and 30, giving clear indication that Oswald went to the Soviet Union as a secret anti-Soviet agent?

This story was based on the disclosure of public stenographer Pauline V. Bates who said Oswald had her type out notes he had made in the Soviet Union, of a rabid anti-Soviet nature, three days after his arrival from the USSR in 1962.

The New York Herald Tribune and the United Press International stories carried this paragraph:

"Oswald hinted to Miss Bates that he was a U.S. agent by saying: 'When the State Department granted my visa (he obviously meant passport), they stipulated they could not stand behind me in any way'."

This is the standard warning to secret agents.

Why hasn't the FBI answered the disclosure in the Philadelphia Inquirer of Dec. 8 that the FBI "tried to recruit Oswald as an undercover informant in Castro groups two months before Mr. Kennedy's assassination," which was also confirmed by Oswald's mother.

The story said that Joseph Hosty, in charge of FBI "subversive" activities in the Dallas field office, visited Oswald at the Irving home in September, 1963, to "recruit" him, but, significantly, "talked to the young man at length in his (Hosty's) car."

Why didn't Hosty talk to him in the house? Was it the usual arrangement to get a taped interview? Is the tape available to the Warren Commission? Was Oswald recruited? Or was he already serving another agency?

Information is beginning to come out on the mystery man, Bernard Weissman, who signed the $1,464 full-page anti-Kennedy advertisement in the rightist Dallas News on the day of the assassination.

The 26-year-old man turned up in his father's home near Mount Vernon, N.Y., after hiding from the press for almost three weeks.

He told the New York Times that only the FBI was given the story so far and admitted he was associated with ultra-rightists.

Washington Post reporter Ronnie Duggar, following up that story in Dallas, reported that Weissman and William Burley, his companion, were linked to a Larry Schmidt, an insurance man, whose phone Weissman gave when placing the advertisement, and whom he and Burley gave as a reference for jobs.

Weissman said he and Burley met Schmidt in Munich where they were in military police service.

Schmidt, it turns out, was a leader of the rightist Young Americans for Freedom, organized the group of students who picketed Adlai Stevenson in Dallas, spat upon him and hit him with a picket sign.

Weissman, apparently only for cover-up purposes, obtained a job as a rug salesman with Schmidt's recommendation. He didn't actually do any selling.

But every day from Nov. 10 to Nov. 21 the switchboard operator of the firm that employed him received a call to Weissman from Larry Schmidt.

On the morning of Nov. 22, however, the call came for Weissman from "Larry Jones" with a message to meet him in the same place where the "brothers" met for lunch.

That afternoon Weissman didn't return to work, and on Monday he called up and said he was quitting and cleared out of town.

It would also have to expunge the cases against 37 people arrested for failing to register as individuals under the McCarran Act.

'NOT COMPLETE'

"This is not a complete victory," said Gus Hall, spokesman for the party in New York. But he declared:

"This decision reaffirms the validity of the constitution and the Bill of Rights for all Americans . . .

"It is my opinion this decision will help to dispel a legal and political climate that tends to outlaw political dissent in our country."

He also told a press conference on the last day of his weeklong visit to the United Arab Republic that the assassination of Radio reports said the Ghanaian embassy in Moscow had dissociated itself from the demonstration and had stated the students' charges were unfounded.

The British Daily Worker reported that the Union of Ghanaian students in Moscow had nothing to do with the demonstration. It also said many students felt there had been an element of provocation in the demonstration.

U.S. Communist Party conviction thrown out

The Washington Federal Appeals Court last week quashed the conviction of the U.S. Communist Party for failure to register under the McCarran Subversive Activities Control Act.

It returned the case to the lower courts either for a new trial if the government requested it, or a directed verdict of acquittal.

On Dec. 17 last year a district court convicted the Communist Party of failing to register under the McCarran Act and fined it $120,000.

If the government does not request a new trial, last week's decision could be the beginning of the end of a 13-year fight by the U.S. Communist Party against the witch-hunting provisions of the notorious McCarran Act.

For if the government drops the case then, logically, it would also have to drop the cases against the two party leaders, Gus Hall and Benjamin Davis, indicted under the act but whose trial has not yet begun.

It would also have to suspend the cases against 37 people arrested for failing to register as individuals under the McCarran Act.

'NOT COMPLETE'

"This is not a complete victory," said Gus Hall, spokesman for the party in New York. But he declared:

"This decision reaffirms the validity of the constitution and the Bill of Rights for all Americourt of appeals said that to support a conviction the government would have to prove that a volunteer was available to register for the party under the 1950 McCarran Act.

Since mere association with the party would incriminate a person under the Act, the court declared that it could not be assumed without proof "that anyone is willing to submit data the possession of which implies an intimate knowledge of the party's workings."

The decision added that the government had the burden of showing that a volunteer was available and that "its failure to discharge this burden requires reversal of the conviction."

But in four other related decisions the court affirmed rulings by the Subversive Activities Control Board that certain organizations must register.

The cases involved the United May Day Committee, the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, the Jefferson School of Social Science, and the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born.

U.S. President Lyndon B. Johnson now has before him a plea from 27 leading Italian politicians and intellectuals, urging the freedom of Morton Sobell, which his predecessor did not have the opportunity to see because of the tragic assassination.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Top talks ok'd by Johnson

President Johnson told a press conference last week he was ready and willing to meet any of the world's leaders "at any time there is any indication that a meeting would be fruitful and productive."

He told reporters summoned into his office without advance notice that his number one goal and ambition was to bring the world to a realization that everybody has to live together.

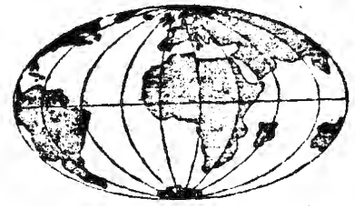
"Failure in that mission could mean disaster for most of the world," he said.

President Johnson spoke about the possibility of conferences with world leaders when asked what his attitude was specifically toward an early meeting with Soviet Premier Khrushchov.

He said that his number one priority, his number one goal and his number one ambition was to provide the leadership, and to exhibit for the United States the tolerance, patience and strength to convince the rest of the world that America coveted no territory, sought no satellites, and was trying to live in peace and prosperity with everyone.

Chou En-lai denies China bomb ready

Chinese Premier Chou En-lai



President Kennedy was a "despicable, shameful act."

Communists were against any kind of assassination "even if the one assassinated is hostile to China," he said.

The Chinese premier called for direct negotiations without pre-conditions between India and China to solve their border dispute.

African students' charges untrue

The death of a Ghanaian student on the outskirts of Moscow last week was due to exposure to frost in a state of alcoholic intoxication, with no signs of violent death, according to a post-mortem signed by six experts. The post-mortem was attended by two Ghanaian students.

The death had occasioned a demonstration in Red Square by some 400 African students, who are reported to have charged that the student, Edmund Asare-Addo, was a victim of racial discrimination.

The Soviet news agency Tass branded this a "lie spread by Western propaganda" with the purpose of "drawing the public attention from the raging racial terror in a number of capitalist countries."

Ghanaian ambassador John B. Elliot said African students had been summoned to the embassy prior to the Red Square demonstration by phone calls purporting to come from the embassy, asserting various unfounded rumors. "Obviously someone is trying to create trouble," Elliot said.

Radio reports said the Ghanaian embassy in Moscow had dissociated itself from the demonstration and had stated the students' charges were unfounded.

Homeless and cold, William Mayberry, a 61-year-old unemployed carpenter, called at the Oakville, Ontario, police station and asked to be locked up. He was told he couldn't be put in a cell unless he was charged, so he went to the nearest hotel and soon qualified for admission on a charge of being drunk in a public place. Sentenced to a $1 fine or 30 days in jail, Mayberry chose the 30 days.

Halton county, in which Oakville is located, has a population of more than 120,000, yet it has no place for the poor and the destitute.

AT THE POST OFFICE

Patronage for favorites, hard lot for employees

While Tory and Liberal MPs dueled over "patronage" charges, at least two New Democrat MPs had a few words to say about the harsh lot of postal workers in Canada.

The patronage charges were made by Tories during a parliamentary discussion on the work of the federal postal department, handled by Postmaster General Azellus Denis.

New Democrat Reid Scott (Danforth) agreed that "reprehensible practices are again rearing their heads." But there are far more serious charges to be laid, he stressed. For example:

- Postal workers were denied collective bargaining and arbitration rights;
- Most had been given no pay increases in almost three years;
- Letter carriers worked long hours for a weekly take-home cheque of little more than $67.50 for a married man with two children;
- Operators of subpostoffices are paid too little;
- Postal employees' only appeal from injustice is what Scott called a "kangaroo court".

Frank Howard (NDP, Skeena) added to the picture by describing the spy system in use in postoffices where peepholes, one-way mirrors, and closed-circuit television are used by supervisory staff to watch the activities of employees, even in washrooms.

At this, even the Globe and Mail, well-known for its anti-labor views, was moved to quip: "It does not seem to have entered the official mind that a more effective way of promoting honesty would be to pay postal workers a decent living wage."

The 1961 census showed that within this area there were 163,000 people able to speak French, including 67,000 for whom French was their mother tongue. The CBC has stated that this latter group is the largest minority of either official language (English and French) who are not served by either radio or television in their own language.

In the Metro area, however, only 25,988 out of a total population of 1,824,481 gave French as their mother tongue. The figure for those who could speak French only was 3,084 in Toronto and 655 in Hamilton. For those speaking both languages the figures were 78,303 and 13,296.

CJBC has been broadcasting French language programs for two hours every evening for the past several months. On Jan. 1 it will extend French programming to 3½ hours on week nights and to five hours on Saturday and Sunday nights. Starting Oct. 1 it will go over to almost full time in French.

A CBC official explains that CJBC has a slightly lower audience than does CBL, Toronto's other CBC station. The CBC, he says, cannot justify retaining two stations broadcasting in the same language in the Toronto area. If

When will it stop?

The cost-of-living index hit a new record high of 134 in October — four-tenths of a point higher than the September level.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics said six of the seven indicators making up the index showed similar increases. The food index rose a full four-tenths of a point as a result of price increases for a wide range of food items.

Sugar reached a high of 20.5 cents a pound in October.

What the French Canadian people want is the full right to the use of their own language on their own soil. That is all they ask in respect to language in Canada. They don't demand that we English-speaking Canadians learn the French language.

French Canadians, who since the time of the conquest have had English "shoved down their throats," would be the first to sympathize with English-speaking Torontonians in losing their favorite radio station if full French language broadcasting is not warranted.

The CBC, taking its lead from the federal government's commission on bilingualism and biculturalism, does not help to create among English-speaking Canadians an understanding of French Canadian aspirations for full equality as a nation by its arbitrary decision in respect to CJBC. On the contrary, it helps to create an unhealthy climate in English-speaking Canada towards the French Canadians, diverts public attention away from the main issue of equal status between the two nations, and makes a just solution of the constitutional crisis more difficult.

Neither can the equation of the French Canadian minority in English-speaking Canada with national group minorities be upheld. The demand of some national group spokesmen for equal treatment of all minority tongues over CJBC as official policy by the CBC serves only to retard the flowering of the Canadian identity — French Canadian and English-speaking alike.

Most important, it reduces the question of French-Canadian nationhood to that of just an "ethnic" problem.

The many national groups, while making their own distinct contribution to the making of the Canadian identity, will eventually merge with the French and English-speaking nations. The dians will best be served with our public institutions, starting with the federal government and its agencies, begin tackling the problems of national unity from the viewpoint of the right of the French Canadan nation to self-determination. The sooner this is done, the sooner we will establish firm and unbreakable bonds of unity between our two peoples.

Only on the basis of such unity will all of us, regardless of nationhood and country of origin, become the defenders of the rights of all.

North Korea outpaces South

A comparison of economic development and trends in both parts of divided Korea was made recently by Keyes Beech in the big business Japanese newspaper Yomiurri.

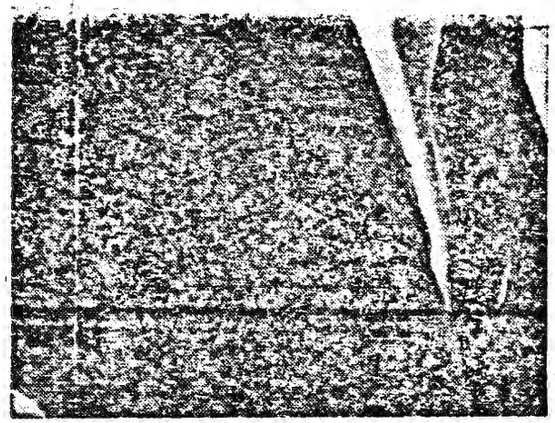
The fact that the Korean People's Democratic Republic is self-sufficient in food is "a remarkable achievement," he says, "because 75 percent of its area is hilly or mountainous." And he goes on to say that it is simply incredible that 98 percent of village homes have electric light.

Here is how Beech explains "North Korea's remarkable growth." Apart from the "hard-driving Red regime," as he calls the people's government, he enumerates several other factors.

One of them is the "huge infusion of economic aid from the Soviet Union, Red China and the East-European" countries. Beech compares this assistance with the aid given by the United States to South Korea.

The latter has been pretty big too — $3,500 million since 1953. Why hasn't it done any good to South Korea?

This is Beech's explanation: "Doubtless, Communist aid to North Korea was put to better use than U.S. aid to South Korea."



Homeless and cold, William Mayberry, a 61-year-old unemployed carpenter, called at the Oakville, Ontario, police station and asked to be locked up. He was told he couldn't be put in a cell unless he was charged, so he went to the nearest hotel and soon qualified for admission on a charge of being drunk in a public place. Sentenced to a $1 fine or 30 days in jail, Mayberry chose the 30 days.

Halton county, in which Oakville is located, has a population of more than 120,000, yet it has no place for the poor and the destitute.

Patronage for favorites, hard lot for employees

While Tory and Liberal MPs dueled over "patronage" charges, at least two New Democrat MPs had a few words to say about the harsh lot of postal workers in Canada.

The patronage charges were made by Tories during a parliamentary discussion on the work of the federal postal department, handled by Postmaster General Azellus Denis.

New Democrat Reid Scott (Danforth) agreed that "reprehensible practices are again rear-

- Postal workers were denied collective bargaining and arbitration rights;
- Most had been given no pay increases in almost three years;
- Letter carriers worked long hours for a weekly take-home cheque of little more than $67.50 for a married man with two children;
- Operators of subpostoffices are paid too little;
- Postal employees' only appeal from injustice is what Scott called a "kangaroo court".

a pronounced anti-French bias over what he calls "l'affaire CJBC."

Reid Scott, NDP MP for Danforth, is quoted on a CBC national news telecast as charging that the decision to make CJBC a French language station was fanning the already widespread anti-French prejudice in the Metro area.

CJBC reportedly covers a southwest Ontario population of four million, which is about one-fifth of the population of Canada and about one third of the population of English-speaking Canada.

The 1961 census showed that within this area there were 163,000 people able to speak French, including 67,000 for whom French was their mother tongue. The CBC has stated that this latter group is the largest minority of either official language (English and French) who are not served by either radio or television in their own language.

In the Metro area, however, only 25,988 out of a total population of 1,824,481 gave French as their mother tongue. The figure for those who could speak French only was 3,084 in Toronto and 655 in Hamilton. For those speaking both languages the figures were 78,303 and 13,296.

CJBC has been broadcasting French language programs for two hours every evening for the past several months. On Jan. 1 it will extend French programming to 3½ hours on week nights and to five hours on Saturday and Sunday nights. Starting Oct. 1 it will go over to almost full time in French.

A CBC official explains that CJBC has a slightly lower audience than does CBL, Toronto's other CBC station. The CBC, he says, cannot justify retaining two stations broadcasting in the same language in the Toronto area. If the government to face up to the fact that the French Canadians are a nation.

Instead, the government came up with a Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism, a gimmick which reduces the issue of equality between the two nations to one of language and culture. To confuse the issue further it appointed to the commission two persons to represent the many national groups in Canada. It is no wonder that we are now faced with demands which would turn CJBC into a veritable Tower of Babel.

What the French Canadian people want is the full right to the use of their own language on their own soil. That is all they ask in respect to language in Canada. They don't demand that we English-speaking Canadians learn the French language.

French Canadians, who since the time of the conquest have had English "shoved down their throats," would be the first to sympathize with English-speaking Torontonians in losing their favorite radio station if full French language broadcasting is not warranted.

The CBC, taking its lead from the federal government's commission on bilingualism and biculturalism, does not help to create among English-speaking Canadians an understanding of French Canadian aspirations for full equality as a nation by its arbitrary decision in respect to CJBC. On the contrary, it helps to create an unhealthy climate in English-speaking Canada towards the French Canadians, diverts public attention away from the main issue of equal status between the two nations, and makes a just solution of the constitutional crisis more difficult.

Neither can the equation of the French Canadian minority in English-speaking Canada with national group minorities be upheld. The demand of some national

As far as the needs of the national group minorities for their own language broadcasts are concerned, time should be available for purchase on all radio and television outlets by those firms, organizations and individuals who wish to broadcast a program in a language other than English or French.

The true interests of all Canadians will best be served when our public institutions, starting with the federal government and its agencies, begin tackling the problems of national unity from the viewpoint of the right of the French Canadan nation to self-determination. The sooner this is done, the sooner we will establish firm and unbreakable bonds of unity between our two peoples.

Should CJBC go French?

By ALF DEWHURST

WHETHER radio station CJBC should go over fully to broadcasting in the French language is being hotly debated in the Metro Toronto area. Most Toronto people are opposed. Members of Toronto City Council have expressed strong criticism of the decision.

All Metro MP's have taken a stand opposed to the CBC's aim to make Toronto's second CBC radio station completely French by Oct. 1, 1964.

The expressed opposition carries strong overtones of anti-French Canadian prejudice. Expressions like "We're not going to let them shove French down our throats," and "If they're (CBC) afraid of the FLQ, we're not," are heard.

Dennis Braithwaite, the Globe and Mail radio and TV columnist, reports that citizens writing letters to his column are developing a pronounced anti-French bias over what he calls "l'affaire CJBC."

Reid Scott, NDP MP for Danforth, is quoted on a CBC national news telecast as charging that the decision to make CJBC a French language station was fanning the already widespread anti-French prejudice in the Metro area.

CJBC reportedly covers a southwest Ontario population of four million, which is about one-fifth of the population of Canada that is done the CBC would be faced with demands from listeners in Vancouver and Montreal for second CBC stations.

Taking up the CBC claim that it cannot justify two English language stations in the Toronto area, certain groups are now suggesting that CJBC be converted into a multilingual station, that it should broadcast in all the major minority languages. They want Italian, German, Ukrainian and Polish language broadcasts, as well as French.

The public controversy over the CBC's decision to convert CJBC into a French language station exposes not only the extent of the latent Anglo-Saxon chauvinism which exists in the Metro Toronto area. It exposes also the bankruptcy of the federal government's policy in respect to the crisis of Confederation which is rooted in the stubborn refusal of the government to face up to the fact that the French Canadians are a nation.

Instead, the government came up with a Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism, a gimmick which reduces the issue of equality between the two nations to one of language and culture. process must be voluntary and free of discrimination. This is the only way by which our two nations, particularly English-speaking Canada, can be formed.

But because we are two nations living within the confines of a single state the members of either nation must enjoy full minority rights on the territory of each in this country we hold in common. This is partially recognized now by the fact of the two official languages, French and English. However, this recognition must extend into the fields of law, education, culture, economics and so on.

From this just point of view the French Canadian minority in Metro Toronto, in keeping with its size, should have the right to enjoy French language broadcasting as part of the CBC's regular programming.

But the extent of the programming must conform to the needs of the audience and not be determined by any arbitrary ruling of the CBC officialdom. In order to determine satisfactorily the needs of the French Canadian minority in the Metro area a public enquiry to assess these needs should be held before a final decision is made by the CBC.

As we enter 1964, let us remember that—

- A dirty, vicious war is still going on in South Vietnam.
- Berlin, Cuba, Korea, Formosa and the Middle East are still areas where world peace is constantly in danger.

Until these threats to peace are eliminated, mankind cannot afford to relax.

That is why the call of the recent World Peace Council meeting for a mighty campaign for peace "on a scale wider than ever before" becomes the most important task facing all peace-loving people in the coming year.

In Canada this means stepping up the public demand on the Pearson government to abrogate the nuclear arms agreement with the United States.

The year 1964 should see Canada drop its nuclear role entirely and instead use its offices in the United Nations and in direct diplomatic contacts to further the relaxation of tensions and press for universal disarmament.

There could be no finer New Year's resolution we could make than to pledge to work toward that goal in 1964.

Canada was beginning to feel the effects of the new spirit in Quebec. There was a very real feeling that the McGill campus was an uncomfortable anomaly, having little relevance to the fast-moving events in French Canada.

This feeling was reinforced by the French-speaking Université de Montréal whose campus leaders were stealing the limelight with their lively and spirited support of Québec's Bill 60 and their equally lively opposition to price-hikes at the students' cafeteria.

Into this slightly debilitating atmosphere at McGill, the YCL injected a new sense of purpose and provided a forum for those who favor genuine political alternatives for Canada.

In a hotly-contested lunch-hour debate attended by over 400 students, two of the group's speakers opposed a motion by the campus Conservatives that "Communism has been detrmiental to mankind." Despite the prejudices built up by the long years of hostile cold war propaganda and the absence during those years of a Marxist viewpoint on campus, a show of hands had to be called twice before the motion was passed by the narrowest of margins with about 100 students abstaining.

Since then the group has grown considerably and has invited many well-known speakers from outside the university, including a visiting Soviet student, Sergei Molochkov, who talked about education in the Soviet Union, and Sam Walsh, Quebec leader of the Communist Party, who spoke on the effects of American domination on the Canadian economy.

One of the highlights of the group's work so far has been its hosting, together with the McGill Debating Union, of Dr. Herbert

That Canadian students are politically apathetic is one of the more endearing myths of our national life. Happily, it is a myth speedily dispelled by a quick glance at the vigorous political activity in educational centres across Canada.

Mankind's wish for the New Year

Top task for '64

AS the world enters 1964, uppermost in the minds of most people everywhere will be one question: What will the new year bring—peace or war?

One year ago at this time, as the world prepared to welcome 1963, millions of hearts had just begun to beat normally again after teetering over the brink of thermonuclear suicide two months earlier, during the Caribbean crisis.

Six months later — no doubt to some extent at least as a result of the lessons learned in that crisis — the majority of the world's nations took one small and hesitant, but oh, so welcome, step toward understanding when they signed the partial test ban treaty.

Since the tragic assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy the world has been wondering whether this detente would be continued and has been heartened by some of the latest news items from Washington and Moscow:

• President Lyndon B. Johnson's declaration to the United Nations that the U.S. wants to see an end to the cold war and his statement that he is "ready and willing to meet any of the world leaders at any time there is any indication a meeting would be fruitful and productive."

There is little doubt that the Central Intelligence Agency was behind the military revolt in South Vietnam. Of course it had the cooperation of the 15,000 American military specialists and all the U.S. dollars that have been poured in there for the past seven years.

Madame Nhu was correct when she accused the U.S. of murdering her husband and brother-in-law. The fact that they richly deserved it still leaves a question unanswered: By what right does the United States kill in Vietnam or elsewhere?

The American forces in Southeast Asia are the Huns of today. These are the same people who turned dogs and fire-hoses on school children and commit sex crimes on teen-age girls in their filthy jails in the South.

The United States is governed by very sick people—sick with greed and race hatred. Their sickness has been spread, by means of brainwashing, to most of the country.

The mission of Henry Cabot Lodge to Vietnam reminds me of the trip the late and unmourned John Foster Dulles made to South Korea a couple of days before the forces of South Korea attacked the North. Dulles was a very sick man, sick with hatred and fear that communism would take his stocks and bonds.

Lodge is no less sick. He has boasted many times that he has never shaken hands with a Soviet citizen!

NEARLY a quarter million Canadians are native Indians, and another 12,000 or more are native Eskimo. How are they faring in this land of multiple opportunities?

A few statistics tell the melancholy story.

Roughly half the Indian population scattered across Canada depend on seasonal work — fishing, hunting, trapping, unskilled jobs — for an average family income of $1,000 a year.

This includes a struggle to assure a higher living standard, embracing various forms of social security.

Is 'socialist caucus' the answer?

By Ben Swankey

AT LEAST TWO important new developments marked the third annual B.C. convention of the NDP held in Burnaby last month.

One was the emergence of a strong and vocal left-wing socialist grouping calling itself the "NDP Socialist Caucus."

The other was a bitter and heated debate over electoral policies pursued by the right-wing leadership which saw that policy severely criticized, and resulted in the convention adopting "democratic socialism" as its ultimate objective.

The broad grouping of the left and centre wanted the NDP to stand for socialism, to adopt more militant policies and develop closer ties with labor.

It had the support of at least a third of the voting delegates.

Judging from the discussion the majority of delegates felt that the main weakness in the electoral policies of the NDP was its failure to embrace socialism.

It quickly became apparent that when Vancouver Sun columnist Jack Scott publicly criticized NDP leader Robert Strachan for shying away from socialism, he was speaking for wide sections of NDP members and a considerable section of the leadership.

Strachan, early in his report, had labeled as "the reactionaries of the NDP" those who wanted the party to "return to the concept of socialism." (For this statement he had been booed.)

There is a decided difference of opinion within the NDP as to what constitutes socialism.

The "Socialist Caucus" defined its conception of socialism as follows:

"Essentially we offer the proposition that welfare programs, while good in themselves, are no solution to the major problems which confront us today; neither can they be adequately supported by any form of planned economy based on managed capitalism.

"Our duty as socialists is to urge social ownership of the natural resources and means of production as the only practical economic basis upon which to build a new society."

Robert Strachan said in his report to the convention that the way to translate into reality the old phrase of "an end to the exploitation of man by man" is to bring "equality as well as responsibility to labor" by the adoption of NDP proposals for a better Hours of Work Act, Minimum Wage Act and Workmen's Compensation Act.

As to the limited and very general economic development proposals which he advanced in the election campaign, he said that they "are a realistic interpretation of the old phrase 'production for use and not for profit'."

It is obvious that many NDP leaders consider public ownership under capitalism or even reforms such as medicare the same thing as socialism.

Of course they aren't. Socialism means public ownership of the basic means of production plus working class control of the state. The NDP today advocates neither of these.

The emergence of the NDP Socialist Caucus as a crystallization of left-wing and socialist thinking, will be welcomed by progressive forces within and without the party. But will not its contribution be seriously limited if it confines itself to ultimate objectives like socialism?

Is not the need of the moment the development of a genuine anti-monopoly program and the building of all-inclusive unity around it? Is this not the way to victory for the NDP and the people of B.C.?

By working for such a program and policy, while continuing its public educational work for socialism, the NDP Socialist Caucus could make a mighty contribution.

With such policies to rally the left and the center within the party, the progressive forces who this year constituted a third of the delegates, may next year constitute the majority. That would be a signal victory for labor and the people.

Canadians need

The kind of program which progressive Canadians need to advance at this time can be summarized as:

(a) Peaceful coexistence and an end to the cold war now;

(b) Greater public control of industry, including workers' share in management, to guarantee that benefits of automation and increased productivity result in better living for the majority;

(c) Public control of banking and credit, means of communications and other public utilities;

(d) Nationalization of key basic industries and manufacturing enterprises in which foreign capital now holds dominant positions, thereby assuring planned economic development in the national interest;

(e) A new constitution recognizing Canada as a two-nation state;

(f) A democratic tax system based upon ability to pay;

(g) Uniform standards for education, medicare and social services, with a more realistic distribution of cost as between various levels of government.

need 'new response'

1. The great potential of science and its impact on "medicine, industry, business and communications . . . in Canada."

2. "Trends toward urbanization, higher education in a burgeoning school-age population, complexity of organization in business and farm life" which "offer hope, as well as possible misery for all Canadians."

3. French Canada demanding a radically altered constitution.

4. The new forces at work in the world around us, demanding "a new response — and radical, new departures — for the people who live in this country."

But then the editor goes on to make the following points:

"To cast our appeal to the hearts and minds of Canada with emphasis on these problems — 'Canada in Change' — might, we after so freely recognizing and admitting the rapid process of social change even here in Canada, it is possible for him to ask: "What of Canada?"

Replying to himself he proceeds to say: "No fresh wind blows here, only the cold Arctic air of sedentary conservatism."

Far beyond concept of 'welfare state'

Social and economic issues now facing our country go far beyond the NDP concept of a "capitalist welfare state."

If the current discussion within the NDP, as well as elsewhere, is to deal with "problems arising from revolutionary trends in our society" then a serious study must be made of those trends, which exist independently of the NDP, or any political party, as such.

of the same thing.

There are two factors which now force the capitalist state to grant certain social and economic reforms on a more or less limited basis.

First, the rapidly growing appeal and popularity of socialism, particularly since it became a world economic and social system. The socialist share in world production has risen from 17 percent in 1955 to 37 percent in 1962.

Moreover, the average annual rate of increase in the output between 1958 and 1962 was 11.4 percent for the socialist countries and only 4.9 percent for the capitalist countries.

The second factor is the organized political and economic pressure asserted by the working class and its allies within each capitalist country to wrest concessions from the capitalist class and their monopoly-dominated state: Where the working class has become united in political action to the point of commanding a majority of support in any given country, it is pos-

One way or another, people always pay

Wherever, and to whatever extent, the capitalist class has to grant certain social and economic concessions to offset the appeal of socialism, the effort is always made to make the people pay, in one way or another, for their own social security measures.

It is a bad error to counterpose the demand for social security to that of economic development. The two go together.

The real problem facing us in capitalist society is how to develop the economy so that the majority of people will reap the benefit and not just the few who own and control capital investments.

This includes a struggle to assure a higher living standard, embracing various forms of social security.

need of the times."

No one will argue with Mr. Fenwick's objective of "building the country and seeing it prosper." But for whom is this to be done — for the benefit of the monopoly interests who dominate Canada today, or of the people?

To counterpose national economic expansion to social security for Canadians is not "space age politics" but the kind of old malarky which has served to keep Canada lagging behind in independent development and made it a pawn in the hands of monopoly capital, foreign and domestic.

The kind of program Canadians need

The kind of program which progressive Canadians need to advance at this time can be summarized as:

(a) Peaceful coexistence and an end to the cold war now;

(b) Greater public control of industry, including workers' share in management, to guarantee that benefits of automation and increased productivity result in better living for the majority;

(c) Public control of banking and credit, means of communications and other public utilities;

(d) Nationalization of key basic industries and manufacturing enterprises in which foreign capital now holds dominant positions, thereby assuring planned economic development in the national interest;

(e) A new constitution recognizing Canada as a two-nation state;

(f) A democratic tax system based upon ability to pay;

Is 'socialist caucus' the answer?

By Ben Swankey

AT LEAST TWO important new developments marked the third annual B.C. convention of the NDP held in Burnaby last month.

One was the emergence of a strong and vocal left-wing socialist grouping calling itself the "NDP Socialist Caucus."

The other was a bitter and heated debate over electoral policies pursued by the right-wing leadership which saw that policy severely criticized, and resulted in the convention adopting electoral policies of the NDP was its failure to embrace socialism.

It quickly became apparent that when Vancouver Sun columnist Jack Scott publicly criticized NDP leader Robert Strachan for shying away from socialism, he was speaking for wide sections of NDP members and a considerable section of the leadership.

Strachan, early in his report, had labeled as "the reactionaries of the NDP" those who wanted the party to "return to the concept of socialism." (For this statement he had been booed.)

There is a decided difference of opinion within the NDP as to what constitutes socialism.

urge social ownership of the natural resources and means of production as the only practical economic basis upon which to build a new society."

Robert Strachan said in his report to the convention that the way to translate into reality the old phrase of "an end to the exploitation of man by man" is to bring "equality as well as responsibility to labor" by the adoption of NDP proposals for a better Hours of Work Act, Minimum Wage Act and Workmen's Compensation Act.

As to the limited and very general economic development proposals which he advanced in the

The NDP today advocates neither of these.

The emergence of the NDP Socialist Caucus as a crystallization of left-wing and socialist thinking, will be welcomed by progressive forces within and without the party. But will not its contribution be seriously limited if it confines itself to ultimate objectives like socialism?

Is not the need of the moment the development of a genuine anti-monopoly program and the building of all-inclusive unity around it? Is this not the way to victory for the NDP and the people of B.C.?

'A shift in emphasis' WHICH WAY?

What is happening in the NDP? Where will it go in 1964? Is it fulfilling the promises of its founding convention? Will it ever become a genuine alternative

"WINDS OF CHANGE," says the editor of the New Democrat, are "breathing new life into man's struggle to survive." In a brief front page editorial of the December, 1963, issue the editor makes the following New Year appeal:

"As 1964 approaches, Canadians suggest, offer the possibility of recasting the thrust of the party along the lines contemplated by the founding convention.

"The problems of the aged, of high medical bills, of joblessness, must not be forgotten. But they are not the only problems. If we make a major shift in emphasis from social and economic issues to the problems arising from the revolutionary trends in our society, the New Democratic Party

Listen, Isabel. As yet you cannot know that you have arrived in a time of trouble; but it is also a time which is bringing confidence to the human race you have just joined. These are very troubled days because it may happen that a handful of people, blinded by the fear of losing their gold, will unleash a war in which we all, and you, my love, may perish.

But these are also heartening days because if we avoid that war — and all men and women capable of looking tenderly at a sleeping child want to avoid it — then a world will be prepared for you, which will be more suited for life than the one your parents, grandparents and all your ancestors ever knew.

But when you are enjoying everything that this world will be fairly sharing among its children, do not forget that it was built at the cost of great sacrifice, suffering and privation, for nothing, whether in the past, present or future, can be had without effort.

When you can read the best books, when you are able to enjoy the sea and the sun on a summer day and race down snow-covered slopes in winter, when you live in a bright house and eat whatever you want — remember, Isabel, the most important thing: you can enjoy life with clear conscience only when you are sure that others, too, have all this and that your joy and happiness have not been bought

USA and USSR will be warm friends

In 20 years, I predict that the bomb will have been banished, and that the USA and the USSR will be the warmest of friends.

Americans are characteristically kind, despite any temporary impression to the contrary from the present atmosphere of war hysteria in the USA.

I believe that time will cool the relatively few, but extremely vocal, American hotheads who now stir up ill will between East and West. Relaxation of international tensions will then enable constructive use of the vast sums presently being spent on armaments.

I shall get out an old copy of the newspaper Pravda, an issue of the late 60's, and read my children a report of the greatest event of the second half of the 20th century. The report will run approximately as follows:

"Fleets of battleships, flying the colors of many countries, are heading towards a point several kilometres from X Island. The ships and their crews are in full battle array.

"At 11:45 two destroyers, one flying the flag of the USSR and the other of the USA, slowly approach each other.

"A gang-plank is laid between them as their orchestras play the anthems of the two great powers.

"Two sailors march smartly towards the gang-plank, one from either side. There is a black strip of water beneath them.

"Both raise their tommy guns over their heads. . . .

"A loud splash below tells the world that the dream of all mankind has been realized.

"The two sailors embrace while everybody cheers.

"The sea foams around the ships as weapon after weapon plumps into the water.

"The flags of all nations salute the fulfilment of disarmament.

The World

Can man foretell the future?

So many people are willing to try, that a book of a thousand authors resulted when the Novosti Press Agency circulated a questionnaire asking how the recipients thought the world would shape up in 20 years time. The replies came from people of all continents and all ages.

We offer selections from the answers on these pages in the hope you will read it for the New Year and make your own predictions for 'the world in 20 years'.

The shadow of war will be banished

In 20 years' time the world should have advanced to a situation in which the shadow of war has been banished for ever from human society. It should be a world in which all the resources of science and technology, all the faculties of men, are devoted exclusively to human welfare, to making life richer and more beautiful.

It should be a world of intellectual adventure, making vast strides in man's understanding and conquest of the universe.

It will be a world from which colonial exploitation has been banished for ever, in which all men will stand up proud and free and all will march together happily in friendship for human betterment in all its aspects.

What is immeasurably more important, however, is the fact that, having put an end to the cold war and nuclear threats, human intellect and progressive forms of culture will call forth unusual human fantasy.

It will find expression not only in beautiful verse and wonderful sculptures, but also in material things.

If we (my wife Matilda and I) are still alive, we shall be able to have lunch in Moscow and dinner with my friends at home, on the other side of the world.

Prediction of a janitor

Waste will be almost completely eliminated, and the highest possible efficiency will be required of all our productive facilities, assuring a standard of living for every American several times higher than the present level.

With everyone in possession of an abundance, crimes involving property — roughly 95 percent of all crime in America — will be eliminated, thus reducing our annual crime bill running into billions of dollars, in direct proportion.

With the people no longer compelled by necessity to revert to jungle law in order to survive, Christianity, for the first time in human history, will be given a fair trial.

The admonitions of "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you." and "Thou shalt love they neighbor as thyself" will no longer be considered as merely pious suggestions, but as positive orders to be obeyed to the letter "or else."

Surgery in the 1980's

Different people picture life differently in 20 years' time.

I, a surgeon, wonder what new possibilities will open up for surgery by then. And even more specifically, for restorative surgery, the branch of medicine which seeks to return to man lost organs or restore functions of worn-out parts of the organism.

These thoughts do not contradict the adage that Nature, in creating man, failed to create any spare parts for him. Nature has not done that, but man has or, at least, he is working successfully in this direction.

And so if I say that I am confident that 20 years hence surgeons will be able to replace the human heart, kidneys, lungs, ears or eyes, many might consider it a Utopian dream. But I think that this will become possible even earlier.

In the sphere I am speaking of, reality is often ahead of imagination.

My answer to all these questions is a definite no.

I think that if several hundred years ago people had been told of the possibilities of modern photography, fears would have arisen lest photography should oust painters. Already in our lifetime the death of the theatre was predicted when sound films appeared.

The fears caused by the development of cybernetics are equally groundless. It will bring not rivalry between man and the machine, not enmity between the machine and its creator, but cooperation, the possibility for man to do more useful work, to do it faster and better.

The development of cybernetics will not result in the ousting of man from the sphere of useful activity; it will help him solve problems which he will soon be simply unable to solve without the aid of a mechanical brain.

a hit for independent group

You enter the door of a factory building at 47 Fraser and descend to a cellar where tiers of benches rise on three sides around the stage. You see actors, hear sounds and words, and presently you forget that you are surrounded by the industrial brick traps of Toronto's bleak King-Dufferin area at night.

Then you realize that you are near Compiegne in France in the world of Joan of Arc.

But this Joan is different from the Joans you have seen on other stages and in films. She no longer hears voices. She is a rough peasant girl with an earthy humor, a patriot losing faith in politicians, a soldier becoming dissillusioned with the pretenses of war.

It is a bitter denunciation of "the way of the world," a savage cataloguing of the crimes of war, an angry rejection of the slander that men who follow stars are fools, or that only one thing matters — to "live for yourself."

Unique director

The remarkable thing about Before Compiegne, apart from its theme, is the conscientious preparation it has received. Mr. Luscombe is a unique director who probes deeply and builds a production over a long period of analysis, rehearsal and creation, collaborating closely with the author in adapting the script to the stage, and choosing a capable cast to interpret the script. Before Compiegne, furthermore, has experimental elements both in its writing and its staging.

All of which may offer some hint of the difficulties facing an independent group like Workshop Productions — struggling to adhere to its concept of artistic integrity, compelled to work under exasperating budget frustrations and almost overlooked by those who can provide material help.

Vivid portrayal

Joan Maroney plays the central role. She is small, ardent and earth-bound, a girl full of youth and yet old beyond her years, a girl fierce and tender, fearless and forlorn.

Miss Maroney is not the legend of Joan. She is Joan herself, a very real creature. In her characterization she encompasses the tragic career of a "life wasted in the service of kings."

Gerardine Douglas, as Catherine, is strong as the beautiful temptress, the aristocrat without loyalties, swinging with the political pendulum, believing only in property and position.

I found Wil Albert's Francois Villon somewhat matter-of-fact, not the offbeat poet-friar-vagabond I expected, but perhaps that wasn't the author's intention.

The captains; Wilson West, James Beggs, Larry Perkins and Len Doncheff, were the play's Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse; unmounted, harsh commentators on the manners of murder.

In September, he did five television shows in Australia plus a one-hour solo special for Australian TV Network plus two TV appearances in Japan.

"Young people, too young to have lived through the events of the depression, and others who do not know the 150 years of history in the Welland area that preceded the depression, should read this book," he said.

Mrs. Winnifred Sayles, a member of the committee, was unable to attend the tea because of illness. Her sons Ralph and Don thanked the committee for its work.

Canada, international debates in this issue of Marxist Quarterly

THREE articles on different aspects of the debate in the international Communist movement appear in the Winter 1964 issue of The Marxist Quarterly.

Leslie Morris, national leader of the Communist Party of Canada, writes on "Leftism," the Philosophy of Petty-Bourgeois Despair; an Italian view comes from Critica Marxista — For Deeper Study of New World Realities; and a third commentary by Soviet writer A. A survey is given on the current stage of the Canada-wide discussion of the Confederation crisis entitled: The "Canada Debate."

A critical assessment of a new book by Prof. C. B. Macpherson of the University of Toronto, The Political Theory of Possessive Individualism, is offered by Dipak Nandy of the University of Leicester, England. The review article deals with Marxism and the capitalist tradition of political theory.

Also reviewed in the issue is the book Renegade in Power: The Diefenbaker Years.

But this Joan is different from the Joans you have seen on other stages and in films. She no longer hears voices. She is a rough peasant girl with an earthy humor, a patriot losing faith in politicians, a soldier becoming dissillusioned with the pretenses of war.

It is a bitter denunciation of "the way of the world," a savage cataloguing of the crimes of war, an angry rejection of the slander that men who follow stars are fools, or that only one thing matters — to "live for yourself."

Unique director

The remarkable thing about Before Compiegne, apart from its theme, is the conscientious preparation it has received. Mr. Luscombe has directed it with a sensitivity to the script and to the actors' abilities that is unique in my experience of independent group like Workshop Productions — struggling to adhere to its concept of artistic integrity, compelled to work under exasperating budget frustrations, and almost overlooked by those who can provide material help.

Vivid portrayal

Joan Maroney plays the central role. She is small, ardent and earth-bound, a girl full of youth and yet old beyond her years, a girl fierce and tender, fearless and forlorn.

Miss Maroney is not the legend of Joan. She is Joan herself, a very real creature. In her characterization she encompasses the tragic career of a "life wasted in the service of kings."

Gerardine Douglas, as Catherine, is strong as the beautiful temptress, the aristocrat without loyalties, swinging with the political pendulum; believing only in property and position.

Sayles' Welland book comes off the press

IN 1959 the implacable hand of death halted the plans of Rev. Fern A. Sayles to publish a book he had written about Welland, Ont., and the struggles of its working people for social justice.

But his community's love and respect for a man who helped make it a better place has resulted in the publication of his book, "Welland Workers Make History."

The book was printed late in 1963 by a citizens' memorial committee formed after the United Church minister's death in 1959. It was introduced for sale at an afternoon tea attended by about 100 persons at the Maple Leaf Mission in Welland.

(National distribution is being arranged by the Progress Books publishing company in Toronto.)

Memorial committee chairman Nick Petrachenko recalled the great effort Rev. Sayles had made to get information for the book. "Young people, too young to have lived through the events of the depression, and others who do not know the 150 years of history in the Welland area that preceded the depression, should read this book," he said.

John Trufal, Ward Six alderman in Welland, said he was proud to have done something to get this book, which is "written from a worker's point of view," published. He added: "We are lucky to have a book which tells us about the history of our own area."

Rev. Robert Wright described the book as "a story which tells of the struggle of the common people for dignity and self-respect, and for a decent standard of living."

He quoted a passage from it: "Unity of justice and peace at home and abroad."

"This is our direction for the future," he concluded. "We can preserve the memory of a great man, Rev. Fern A. Sayles, by reading his book."

Comments were also made by memorial committee members: Rev. Harvey G. Forster and by Mike Bosnich, business agent for the United Electrical Workers Union.

Mrs. Winnifred Sayles, a member of the committee, was unable to attend the tea because of illness. Her sons Ralph and Don thanked the committee for its work.

Brilliant performance by Obratsov puppets in Canada

SERGEI OBRATSOV and his Russian Puppet Theatre have been hailed around the world as the most unusual, creative and artistic work of their kind seen anywhere. The manipulators of these spectacular puppets are truly artists.

Two programs are being given in Canada now — An Unusual Concert and Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp. Even if you have seen good puppet theatre anywhere, you cannot imagine what is in store for you at these performances.

To begin wtih you have Obratsov's brilliant conception of An Unusual Concert. His satire is sharp and witty and always to the point. There are 16 numbers, all of them impeccably produced. As each unfolds you become aware that every person working the puppets is an actor, singer, comedian, dancer.

And what puppets! They not only move arms, legs, heads — but eye-lids flicker, mouths sing and talk and produce every nuance in between. When you have watched only a few of the acts, you forget all about manipulation and watch what you believe are humans and animals on stage, with all their conceits and individual foibles.

Shevchenko anniversary preparations in progress

By JOHN WEIR

MOSCOW

THE WHOLE Soviet Union will join the Ukrainian people in celebrating the 150th birthday of Taras Shevchenko in 1964.

The all-union jubilee committee, chaired by veteran poet Nikolai Tikhonov, met Dec. 12 with representatives of the Ukrainian commitee, ministry of culture, academy of arts, representatives of publishing houses, radio, television and motion picture centres and writers and poets from the republics to agree on final plans for the jubilee year.

Shevchenko's works and books about Shevchenko are being issued in various languages. With the New Year, radio and television will begin to carry Shevchenko programs. Several new films about Shevchenko and based on his work are being completed.

New monuments to the poet are being erected in Kiev and Moscow. The Leningrad committee reported that Leningrad citizens are urging a monument be built to him in that city where Shevchenko spent many years and where he died.

On March 9, the day of Shevchenko's birth, a public gathering and a special session of the Soviet Academy of Sciences will be held in Kiev, as well as anniversary meetings in Moscow and throughout the USSR.

In May, an international Shevchenko congress is to be held in Kiev and Kanev under United Nations Educational, Social and Cultural Organizations (UNESCO) auspices. Cultural leaders, Slavists, specialists on Shevchenko, and translators of his work from many countries are expected to attend.

Anniversary committee members expressed gratification that the Ukrainian poet is also being honored in other countries, including Canada and the United States.

Boost a confused autonomy

The November issue of the B.C. Teamster does a service to labor by publishing a special supplement showing the extensive nature of the takeover of Canadian industry by U.S. companies.

Unfortunately, however, it draws false conclusions for the trade union movement which can only harm the fight for union autonomy. In this article (slightly abridged) a prominent B.C. labor leader analyzes the stand taken by the teamsters' paper.

By JACK PHILLIPS

THE debate on national autonomy for Canadian labor is warming up. The B.C. Teamster of November, 1963, published by Teamsters' Joint Council 36, is a major thrust against advocates of autonomy.

According to this journal: "Much has been said in many quarters about the need for Canadian trade unions to handle Canadian trade union affairs. What always intrigues us is noting the type of character who peddles this line."

The "characters" are described as follows: "Business leaders . . . minor politicians . . . major politicians supported by big business . . . newspaper columnists . . . radio and television commentators . . . politically ambitious labor leaders more often than not in the Canadian Labor Congress."

REVERSE ARGUMENT

This argument means that those who support Canadian autonomy are reactionary and those who oppose it are progressive.

In short, George Meany of the AFL-CIO who opposes Canadian autonomy is a progressive, and Harry Bridges of the International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union, whose union has given national autonomy to its Canadian membership, is a reactionary.

(Strangely enough, Meany is a bitter enemy of the International Teamster leadership and Bridges is an ally!)

The point of the thrust is indicated by the opening paragraph of a front page article by editor E. M. Lawson.

"The case for international unionism gains strength every time a Canadian company is sold to foreign interests, and every time foreign capital investment in Canadian industry and resources development is increased."

NOT CONSISTENT

If the writer had pleaded for more international solidarity, he would have made a case more consistent with the evidence. Lawson proves a case for autonomy but concludes in favor of the complete absorption of our trade union movement by that of the USA.

The preamble to the supplement brands those who advocate autonomy as insincere, as desiring to destroy "the militant labor movement now existing."

The B.C. Teamster accepts the economic domination of our country by the U.S. monopolies, the same monopolies that tried to move heaven and earth to destroy their union in the USA.

It argues that things will get worse before they get better — that the best thing therefore for Canadian workers is to belong to American unions. Implicit in this reasoning is that we are all going to be Americans anyway so why not belong to American unions?

The editor fails to give recognition to the rising opposition to U.S. economic control, to demands for the repatriation of our industries and resources, and for the reversal of policies which have retarded the development of our resources and our processing and manufacturing industries.

LABOR MUST DECIDE

Labor must come to the front of the stage in this great national drama, because only the labor movement can decide the issues clearly and decisively.

To be able to play this role, labor must be free to elect its own officers in Canada, free to bargain and strike, free to affiliate to the political party of its choice, free to decide Canadian jurisdictional problems in Canada and free of restrictive and undemocratic rules based on U.S. law.

Canadian autonomy would not mean the isolation of Canadian workers from their U.S. brothers. On the contrary, it would open up new and greater possibilities for international class action against common enemies and for common objectives.

The AFL-CIO leadership hailed the liberation of Algeria from French imperialism. If they are sincere, they will do everything possible in their fight for the nation, because the main thrust of that struggle is directed against the most bitter enemies of labor in the USA, monopoly capital.

ON THE LABOR FRONT

Who's behind the Liberal-NDP flirtation?

By WILLIAM KASHTAN

ALTHOUGH the New Democratic Party's national leader, T. C. Douglas, has vehemently denied that he or anyone acting on his authority has held meetings with officials of the Liberal Party, there is no doubt that meetings between leading Liberals and some prominent NDP members have taken place.

In this connection, this column and the Canadian Tribune have drawn attention to similar discussions between some officers of the Steel union and John Wintermeyer of Ontario's Liberal Party prior to the provincial elections.

Murray Cotterill of the Steelworkers made no bones about it then and was reported as saying that "undoubtedly there have been discussions going on between individuals" but he knew nothing of an "official nature" about meetings between unionists or NDP officials with the Liberals.

NOW THIS question has come up again. One must presume that Cotterill did not act on his own but with the benevolent support of other national officers of the Steel union, presumably nudged by their international headquarters. In fact, it is the Steel union leadership which seems to have been the main stimulator of such negotiations and the initiator of a reaxamination of Canadian Labor Congress policy with respect to support of the NDP.

This was made clear at the last policy conference of that union where William Mahoney, its Canadian director, in effect backed away from that policy and proposed instead that steel workers be active in all political parties in which they were members.

Since then Val Scott, a member of the provincial NDP committee, let loose a blast at trade union support of the NDP as constituting a hindrance to its political fortunes, remarks which he since claimed were a distortion of what he actually said.

Whether or not Scott's remarks were interpreted correctly, it is no secret that such views are held in the NDP based on the idea that the NDP should appear in the public eye as free from "trade union domination" and, more particularly, free from U.S. trade union control.

IN ALL the current behind-the-scenes manoeuvres, the trade unions affiliated to the NDP seem to have been bypassed and ignored.

After all, the CLC was a major factor in helping to bring the NDP into existence. Was it asked or involved in these not-so-secret negotiations with the Liberal Party? And if it was, where did it get the mandate to concur in such a voyage of exploration?

It would be useful were the union locals affiliated to the NDP to ask these questions and demand an answer.

THE MAIN question which many NDP members and union locals must be asking is: "what's behind these discussions?"

According to statements made by Donald McDonald, Ontario NDP leader, and Cotterill, the negotiations are aimed at finding a basis for joint action between the NDP and Liberal Party on questions they hold in common and is not directed to merging the two parties.

That may be so. But if press accounts are correct, the reasons given by NDP spokesmen for not effecting a union or merger are so thin as to create the impression there is not much standing in the way of such a union.

The NDP claims the Liberals took the initiative in calling for discussions. That may be so. But what is the purpose of such discussions? What did the leadership of the NDP seek to find out?

Some NDP spokesmen may claim that this is part of the effort to bring about a political realignment — forcing the right-wing Liberals into the Tory camp and the left-wing Liberals into the NDP camp.

That may be so, although it is a strange way to bring about such realignments which can only take place as the political conditions ripen for them.

The leadership of the NDP knows this very well and is trying to catch the unwary with such a smokescreen.

MORE LIKELY it is part of the Liberal Party's manoeuvering directed at repeating history by sucking the NDP into the Liberal Party as the Liberals did so successfully with the Progressive Party after the 1921 federal election.

Then, too, the Liberals were a minority government with the Progressives holding 63 seats and constituting the balance of power. The Liberal government of the day gave them some concessions in return for keeping the government in office and gradually put them in a position where in the 1926 federal election the group of 63 dropped to 11. The strategy of the Liberals paid off, the concessions were well worth their while and the mistaken position of the Progressives eliminated them as a political factor in the country.

Now the Liberal Party is trying to repeat this same strategy. And in this it is receiving the support of elements in the trade union movement who seek to seperate themselves from the NDP and return to the old Gompers policy.

It is no secret that in the recent period, because of the inability of the NDP to break through in a big way, some trade union officials who opposed labor political action by the CLC have raised their voices again and are demanding a re-examination of CLC policy with respect to support of the NDP.

Nor is it a secret that some right-wing NDP leaders, seeing no immediate perspective of great electoral advances for the NDP, are prepared to throw their weight behind some kind of coalition with the Liberal Party.

WHAT therefore started out as a flirtation could lead to an engagement and a marriage of convenience at the expense of independent labor political action. It is one thing to develop cooperation around issues which advance the interests of the working people; it is another to work out an arrangement which would spell death to independent labor political action.

This is not a private affair of the Cotterills and others like him. It is a matter of deep concern to all who see the need to advance political action around a program which would check U.S. domination of our country and curb the power of monopoly.

As such it ought to be discussed in union ranks now and in the coming Canadian Labor Congress convention.

Starfighters stationed overseas (four in France and four in West Germany) abandon a nuclear strike role when present equipment for nuclear arms is obsolete, probably in 1966. At that time consideration should be given to these squadrons fulfilling an air transport role within NATO.

Meantime all the squadrons should be given the capability of fulfilling a conventional as well as nuclear role.

Because of France's refusal to allow the four squadrons on its territory to be equipped with U.S. nuclear weapons, the committee recommended relocation of these be considered.

It is reported the government is proposing to its NATO allies that the squadrons be given a conventional capability, that two of those based in France be re-based in West Germany, and the two remaining in France under-the closing down of some SAGE and radar centres in the U.S. and Canada to meet, as FP put it, "the lessening bomber threat and the increasing missile threat."

Thus, on purely "military" grounds, there is no reason to hang onto the Bomarcs.

And, of course, it is abundantly clear by now, from the persistent policy of peaceful coexistence followed by the Soviet Union, and by its latest substantial cut in its arms expenditures, that that country plans no attack on Canada or anyone else.

NATO

This fact was forced on even the Paris NATO meeting, whose communique stated that a detente (although variously interpreted) was developing with the Soviet Union and that all ways of arriving at agreements with the Soviet Union should be explored.

External Affairs Minister Martin paid tribute to this detente, and told the House of Commons last week: "The Soviet Union is desirous of improving relations with the West and Canada is anxious to make sure there is proper reciprocity."

The fact is that both propositions are, apart from their sen-will be built in Canada.

BEST MOVE

Clearly it is in Canada's—and the world's—best interests at this time to strike out boldly for peace without any equivocation. This could most be signalled by rejection of nuclear arms, the best and most concrete move Canada could make right away to push forward disarmament on a world scale.

White Paper, scheduled for January or February of next year.

It may be that the opposition parties will await this White Paper before outlining their definitive stand. In this connection, a possible clue that this would be the case with the NDP was given by Winch during debate last week on defense department estimates.

He noted the promised White Paper and, without comment, the defense committee's report, and continued:

PEOPLE'S COOPERATIVE

". . . so far as I am concerned I have no more to say at this stage; but I want it clearly understood that this is on the basis of the White Paper, the interim report, and the continuation of the study by the defense committee."

But such a wait-and-see attitude amounted virtually to a cat-and-mouse game with the electorate. While such manoeuvres are the stock-in-trade of the old-line parties, surely the electorate was entitled to a more forthright position from the NDP, which itself has in the past condemned the old-line patries for playing with the voters.

Thirdly, of course, was the question of what Hellyer's White Paper would contain. This would presumably be based on the defense committee's report and on last week's NATO ministerial committee meeting in Paris. There were some hints that it may also take into account any developments at the Geneva disarmament conference, set to resume on Jan. 21.

Specifically the defense committee proposed the Bomarcs and the Voodos in Canada be armed with nuclear warheads, giving them "a capability as a defensive weapon against bombers."

'NO USE'

The report noted, however: "They are of no use against a general range of ballistic missiles."

It further recommended Canada's eight squadrons of CF-104 Starfighters stationed overseas (four in France and four in West Germany) abandon a nuclear strike role when present equipment for nuclear arms is obsolete, probably in 1966. At that time consideration should be given to these squadrons fulfil- [illegible] role within [illegible] of course, it is abundant- take photo reconnaissance in addition to strike roles.

The committee recommended the Honest John ground-to-ground rockets with the Canadian brigade in West Germany, soon to be equipped with nuclear warheads, be removed from the field command of the brigade and put under a more suitable command, in order to avoid the dangers of field commanders triggering an unauthorized nuclear war.

Hellyer, however, who generally expressed agreement with the committee's report, disagreed with the Honest John proposal, stating they had a useful role to play in the hands of the brigade.

NO CASE

Overall, the committee made no case for nuclear warheads in Canada or in the hands of Canadian forces overseas.

Its argument that the Bomarcs and Voodoos were necessary as defense against bombers has been shown to be altogether superfluous by military experts who point out that any "attack" would be by ICBM's.

Even U.S. Defense Secretary McNamara has stated: ". . . our principal concern in the years ahead must be the dangers of an ICBM and submarine-launched missile attack, and the main thrust of our efforts should be redirected to meet these rising threats."

A recent Financial Post report from Washington cited Pentatgon-ordered changes in North American air defense plans, such as the closing down of some SAGE and radar centres in the U.S. and Canada to meet, as FP put it, "the lessening bomber threat and the increasing missile threat."

Thus, on purely "military" grounds, there is no reason to hang onto the Bomarcs.

Clearly it is in Canada's—and the world's—best interests at this time to strike out boldly for peace without any equivocation. This could most be signalled by [illegible] sibleness in the interests of world peace, eminently practical. Nuclear warheads have not yet arrived in Canada, nor have they yet been supplied to the CF-104's or Honest Johns.

SUPERFLUOUS

The defense committee itself recognized that nuclear-equipped CF-104's would serve no purpose other than a superfluous deterrent in view of the U.S. nuclear forces in Europe, and since their employment as part of a limited nuclear attack would probably contribute to the development of all-out war, they were of limited operational value even in this capacity.

The committee's tenaciousness in advocating acceptance of nuclear arms regardless, would seem to be based on an attempt to foist a fait accompli on the Canadian people, with a two-year "wiggling-out" rider to pacify opposition.

But it could be much more difficult to opt out of the nuclear club than to stay out in the first place.

In this connection the changes in NORAD apparently envisioned by the Pentagon could be positive developments or they could, conceivably, demand more nuclear armament of Canada as a counterpart to any reduced conventional armaments, as are also being put into effect by McNamara.

Earlier this month, in fact, Hellyer confirmed that a 10th nuclear base—at Val d'Or, Que. — will be built in Canada.

BEST MOVE

VERA PAUK

Close to 400 persons gathered in Toronto's Ukrainian Labor Temple last Saturday to pay tribute to the memory of the late Vera Pauk, who died on Dec. 15 at the age of 39 after a brief illness from leukemia.

Vera Pauk was widely known in the progressive movement in Toronto and district for her many years of work with children, particularly in gymnastics and folk dancing.

Boundless energy and enthusiasm had characterized her participation in the progressive Ukrainian organization, in the peace movement, in various community groups, as well as in the Communist Party.

She is survived by her husband Bill and three daughters, Camelia 12, Elisia 9, and Lileya 2½ years.

...lo Betancourt set out to frighten Cuba. His attempt has obviously failed.

Since the recent Venezuelan election Betancourt has issued one call after another for action against Cuba by members of the Organization of American States. Recently, he coupled such a call with a threat of unilateral action by Venezuela.

The result: a stiff warning from Cuba's Fidel Castro against any invasion attempt, and a wave of solidarity with Cuba throughout Latin America.

Apparently dissatisfied with the recent OAS decision to appoint a committee to investigate his charge that Castro was exporting arms and revolution to other nations in Latin America, Betancourt is calling for an air and naval blockade of the Caribbean island.

He said he did not think the rest of Latin America would hesitate to act when it saw proof that Cuba was seeking to overthrow his government. He referred to a three-ton arms cache buried in a Venezuelan beach. Venezuela might take action on its own, he hinted.

In reply to these threats, Cuba's Premier Castro has denounced Betancourt's "definite and irrefutable proof" that the three-ton arms cache was smuggled in from Cuba for anti-government, Venezuelan guerrillas. The arms "were sent by the Central Intelligence Agency" of the U.S., the Cuban premier declared.

Castro added the warning that Cuba was prepared against war with Venezuela or any other "lackey nation" in the Western Hemisphere. Cuba, he said, could smash any invasion within 24 hours.

In Latin America, public organizations were galvanized into action by the danger of a new anti-Cuban adventure.

The Nationalist Parliamentary Front of Brazil, uniting more than 100 deputies and senators of various political parties in the national congress, called on the people to be vigilant and to raise a voice of protest against new attacks.

An Argentine committee of solidarity with the Cuban revolution said reactionary circles in the U.S. and certain other countries, "sworn enemies of peaceful coexistence," are trying to create an atmosphere favorable for an attack on Cuba.

Its statement condemned Betancourt's "provocative falsification" and called on the people to unite and wage a resolute struggle to prevent the aggression that is being prepared against the "Freedom Island."

In Uruguay, Communist Party Secretary Rodney Arismendi called the accusation made by Venezuela "the most foolish provocation known on the continent."

U.S. senator wants better relations

National leaders who call for military force to rout the Fidel Castro government in Cuba "only prove that we are the ruthless, imperialistic capitalists which much of Latin America is led to believe we are."

Instead of this policy, said Oregon's former Democratic Congressman Charles O. Porter, the U.S. should take steps to improve relations with Cuba.

Speaking to a public audience at the University of Oregon, the former Congressman urged a positive U.S. approach to Cuba with the following measures:

- Stop CIA activities and preparations of armed attacks on the Cuban government.
- Permit trade of non-strategic items.
- Exchange diplomatic representatives in order to open bilateral Washington-Havana talks.
- Resume airline, ship and ferry service between the two countries. Lift all passport and trade restrictions.
- Support, together with Cuba, multilateral inspection for aggressive troops and weapons.
- Agree to transform the Guantanamo Bay U.S. naval station into a school for Cuban farmers and technicians that would revert to the Cuban government in 10 years.
- Send food and medical supplies to the Cuban areas devastated by the recent hurricane.
- Have Americans file claims for private property taken over by the Cuban government.
- Clear the way for the early release of Cuban prisoners by giving consideration to Premier Castro's charges that Cuba was cheated out of $10 million on the Bay of Pigs prisoner exchange agreement.

Porter, who is also chairman of the National Committee to Review U.S.-China Policy, told his campus audience, "Castro is willing to reestabish communications with us," and that "intelligent diplomacy would include such reestablishment."

Efforts to blockade Cuba rebuffed

Quakers, Catholics react to disaster

'If you had only brought one grain of corn it would have been worthwhile. It is the gesture that made the gift great.'

SUCH was the response of Cubans to four members of the American Friends Service Committee (Quakers) who recently took $100,000 worth of relief supplies to hurricane-torn Cuba.

Their shipment included badly-needed antibiotics, disposable syringes, blood transfusion equipment, cornmeal, canned meat, vegetable oil and beans. It was only one of such aid shipments from citizens in the United States.

In New York, the Emergency Committee for Disaster Relief to Cuba recently forwarded 75 cases of medical supplies to that country — the fifth such shipment from the committee initiated some months ago by Mrs. Linus Pauling, Carleton Beals and Waldo Frank.

The New York committee is continuing its fund raising with a call for "a shipment of relief supplies each week to the disaster-stricken in Cuba."

This feeling was quite sharply expressed by Father Charles Owen Rice, writing in the Pittsburgh Catholic.

Father Rice expressed regret "that we did not try, that there was no public anxiety over the victims, that there was no straining to find a way" to "help the Cuban victims of Hurricane Flora."

He wondered why no vessel was equipped and sent to Havana, with arrangement for neutral personnel, even the Russians, to distribute its supplies.

Bread prices, too

Bakeries in Toronto, Windsor, Kitchener, Waterloo and other Ontario communities have raised the price of bread at least one cent; but more price increases will probably follow in short order.

The increases are expected to become general throughout Ontario. They will probably affect cakes and pastries as well as bread.

In Toronto, Kitchener and Waterloo the price was 26 cents a loaf. One major bakery in Windsor planned to up the ante to 27 cents a loaf, and in Hamilton bread is already selling at that price.

If you'd like to know what the picture looks like in dollars and cents, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics recently reported a consumer price index of 134 for October, a jump of 2.1 points in the past 12 months.

...and they're afraid to hit the taxpayer again

By STAN LYNN

CANADIANS were recently given a closer look at what is rapidly becoming an overwhelming crisis in education. The facts were supplied in two briefs — one to the federal government, the other to Premier Robarts of Ontario — and the crisis was dramatized by charity loans to teachers in Quebec.

The crisis is financial. It can affect every property-owning taxpayer in 1964 in higher tax bills. It will indirectly affect those who rent apartments. In two or three years it can seriously affect the quality of the education your children receive in school.

And at the moment, there is not much indication the senior governments are going to do much about it.

To a request by reeves and mayors that Ontario assume 75 to 90 percent of the costs of education, Premier John Robarts replied: "wishful thinking!"

But so seriously does the education cost loom in the considerations of Ontario's municipal fathers that they are prepared to "yield on many other . . . requests if this government — either alone or in partnership with the federal government — would assume all or most of the financial responsibility for education."

In their annual brief to Queen's Park, the Association of Ontario Mayors and Reeves noted that municipal school levies had climbed from $44 million in 1947 to $313,213,157 in 1962.

Debenture debt rose from $46,412,000 to $586,761,000. These are obligations of municipal taxpayers, exclusive of provincial grants.

The cost of education should be shifted from the property owner to the entire public, the association brief said.

It sounded the tocsin that "the time is not coming, it has arrived when the very standards of education may well suffer unless the senior levels of government are immediately prepared to absorb the major cost of education."

Another view on a federal level came from the Canadian Universities Foundation.

The foundation suggested in a brief to Finance Minister Walter Gordon that Canadian universities will not be able to continue accommodating all qualified applicants for admission unless the federal government greatly increases financial aid.

Capital requirements to keep pace with growing enrolment over the next three years would be $800 million. At the present rate of contributions from governments and other benefactors, estimated at $500 million, there would be a $300 million shortage of funds.

Finance Minister Gordon could not comment immediately on these facts: But Dr. J. A. Corry, principal of Queen's University, Kingston, could and did when he said the general public does not appreciate the seriousness of financial problems facing Canadian universities.

Dr. Corry brought out another angle of the education crisis when he predicted that in the next 10 years, Canadian universities will require about 12,200 new teachers. Current facilities can only graduate about 400 a year.

The incident that dramatized the financial crisis occurred in Quebec. There was a touch of wry humor in it and also the pain of a sad human interest story.

A few weeks before Christmas teachers in a number of tiny Quebec communities were forced to walk off their jobs when the school boards couldn't pay them because they were flat broke. The teachers were flat broke, too, and some of them had waited months for their salaries.

In Sault-au-Mouton, Quebec, only a loan from a private citizen enabled the school board to pay its teachers.

In Les Escoumins, 20 teachers took a day off after not being paid. In St. Thomas Didmy, 10 single women teachers got their wages for September, October and November, but were still waiting for pay for last May and June, as well as December.

The school boards feel the taxes are already too high. Because they have hesitated to raise the taxes, they also have no money.

The Quebec incident emphasizes that the municipal, provincial and federal governments cannot much longer evade coming to grips with the crisis of rising costs in education.

The basic question that has to be answered is: where is the money going to come from?

Ontario's reeves and mayors suggest higher provincial taxes on luxury items such as cigarets and liquor. While this might increase slightly the size of provincial grants to the municipalities, it certainly would not solve the financial crisis in education.

The federal government could take the biggest step of all toward easing the whole problem, however, by slashing its military spending.

In addition to that, what is needed is a reorganization of the federal-provincial-municipal setup to ease the tax burden on the homeowner.

In today's world, the huge, profit-making industries and corporations require highly educated workers, technicians and office staff to maintain their operation. It is becoming more widely recognized that a much larger share of the costs of education should come from these profits instead of from already heavily pressed small homeowners.

This adjustment could be made if the federal and provincial governments took over the entire cost of education, as proposed by Ontario's municipal fathers.

WINNIPEG

Winnipeg's battling Fair Prices Committee has bearded the lion in his den, and so far the frightened lion isn't roaring back at them.

After noting an ad in the Winnipeg Tribune which informed B.C. Sugar Refining Co. employees that they'll get a special bonus this year because of unusually high profits, the Fair Prices Committee wants to know — what about the rest of us?

In a letter to the company, the committee suggests that "since your profits have been greater than normal this year, you also give a special bonus to the consumers in the way of a reduction in the price of sugar.

"The extremely high price of sugar is creating great hardships for the Manitoba housewife, and a reduction in the price would go a long way in alleviating the high cost of living Not only has the price of sugar doubled in the last year, but the housewife is paying more for other foods which contain sugar."

Speculation—not a shortage!

The Winnipeg Fair Prices Committee has brought the following statement, along with the B.C. Sugar Refinery Co. announcement of higher profits this year, to the attention of Justice Minister Lionel Chevrier, and has urged action by the Combines Investigation Department.

The statement was recently issued by Arthur E. Beeby, executive vice-president of Salada Foods Ltd.

"The recent series of increases in sugar prices cannot be explained on the basis of supply and demand. There is no world sugar shortage. At the start of this year there was a large surplus. At the end of the year there will still be a surplus, although a reduced one.

"Reliable estimates of this year indicate that a 12-million ton carryover at the beginning of the 1962-63 season will be cut to nine to 9.5 million tons by the year end. This certainly does not suggest a sugar glut, but neither does it represent a shortage.

"Cane or beets for sugar are grown in more than 70 countries. It is obvious that orderly marketing of the resulting multi-million tons annual crop in the form of raw sugar calls for the buying and selling facilities of recognized commodity exchanges including future markets.

"The volume of future marketing has been skyrocketing on the London market. The 1963 volume was recently reported at 11.4 million dollars. For the same period of last year it was less than a quarter of this total, suggesting that explanation of price pyrotechnics in sugar is to be found in this market performance.

100-hour workweek for a living wage

Service station employees in Oakville, Ont., got such low pay they had to work as much as 100 hours a week to make a decent living wage.

The whole sordid picture was revealed in courtroom, where the Norman C. Speers Co. Ltd., which operates two service stations, was fined $25 and $21 in costs.

The fine paid by the company prosecuted by the Ontario Department of Labor on the eve of the Christmas holidays, was less than the Christmas bonus many employees receive.

While the Hours of Work and Vacation with Pay Act says that service station employees may work only a total of 100 hours overtime (i.e., over a 48-hour week) during one year, court testimony showed that one employee, Robert Maher, worked 1,600 hours overtime in four months.

Two other employees, Andre Van DeSande, 19, of Oakville, and Earl Guerin, worked 519 hours and 1,325 hours overtime respectively.

Van DeSande testified he earned $1 an hour and he and other employees asked to work overtime so they could earn a living.

Defense counsel for station-owner Norman Speers suggested that the Hours of Work Act might be unconstitutional.

"I don't know whether the Ontario government can regulate the right to work," he said. "This act could limit industrial production and that would come under trade and commerce, which is in federal jurisdiction."

The leader of the delegation, Prof. Nguyen Van Hieu, visited the Soviet Afro-Asian Solidarity Committee in Moscow and said this anniversary was of special importance for the people of South Vietnam.

"Three years is a comparatively short period of time," he said, "but great changes have taken place in South Vietnam during this period, and the struggle against the U.S. interventionists had assumed a new scope."

He pointed out that at present the National Front represents about 20 revolutionary organizations and is rallying all sections of the population against the foreign invaders.

Reference is made to travel of Oswald on 9/25/63. ReBuairtel to Houston, New Orleans and Dallas (no copy to San Antonio) 1/3/64. Enclosed for information of Houston and New Orleans is one copy each of report of SA John M. Kemmy dated 1/6/64 at San Antonio.

For information of San Antonio, it appears that subject left New Orleans with ultimate destination Mexico City some time on 9/25/63. Oswald boarded Continental Trailways Bus Number 5133 at Houston, Texas, approximately 2 a. m., 9/26/63, on which bus he traveled to Laredo, Texas, en route to Mexico City. Mrs. Horace Twiford, who with husband is active in Houston Socialist Labor Party, received telephone call from Oswald between 7 and 9 p. m. on date believed to be 9/25/63. Oswald sought to talk with Mr. Twiford who at time was at sea. Oswald told Mrs. Twiford that he was flying to Mexico. Enclosed San Antonio report places Oswald, according to Mrs. Lee Cannelly, in Austin, Texas, at approximately 1 p. m. on date believed to be 9/25/63.

From foregoing it appears likely that Oswald on leaving New Orleans traveled first to Austin, thence to Houston where he telephoned Mrs. Twiford and on morning of 9/26/63 boarded the Continental Trailways Bus. New Orleans explore this possibility. Ascertain methods of transportation other than by air which could have been utilized by Oswald on 9/25/63 which would have enabled him to have been in Austin at 1 p. m. and at Houston by 7 p. m. that date.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

This is in response to your inquiry as to how Dallas Police broadcasted a description of Lee Harvey Oswald which enabled Officer J. D. Tippit to stop Oswald soon after President Kennedy's assassination.

A review of transcripts of the Dallas Police Department radio logs for November 22, 1963, indicates President Kennedy was assassinated at approximately 12:30 P. M. Commencing at 12:43 P. M. and periodically thereafter until the apprehension of Oswald the police dispatcher put out a suspect broadcast on an unidentified individual whose description approximated that of Oswald.

The Dallas Police Department has advised the above broadcast was initiated on the basis of a description furnished by an unidentified citizen who had observed an individual approximating Oswald's description running from the Texas School Book Depository Building immediately after the assassination. Although this citizen was requested by Dallas authorities to proceed to the Sheriff's Office for further questioning he apparently never appeared as the Dallas Sheriff's Office can locate no record on this citizen.

For your additional information immediately after the assassination, Mr. Roy S. Truly, Warehouse Superintendent of the Texas School Book Depository Building, was [illegible] by the Dallas Police to check on Lee Harvey Oswald at that time he determined Oswald was missing. Based on our investigation it would appear within fifteen to twenty minutes after the President was shot, Dallas Police were also in possession of this information.

TWIFORD stated this paper had the notation of OSWALD's name and the words Fair Play for Cuba Committee. Mrs. TWIFORD made these notations in order to remember to mention this call to TWIFORD upon his return.

TWIFORD also recalled that while on his coastwise trip as a seaman during this period, he made a quick trip from New Orleans to Houston by air to visit his home and he believes it was on this trip that his wife told him of receiving the call from OSWALD. TWIFORD stated to the best of his recollection he made this trip to Houston on 9-26-63.

Re telephone call from Inspector JAMES R. MALLEY, Bureau, to SAC J. GORDON SHANKLIN, Dallas.

Assistant Chief of Police, CHARLES E. BATCHELOR, Dallas, PD, this date advised SA VINCENT E. DRAIN that Inspector J. H. SAWYER, PD, of the Dallas/PD, was one of the first officers to arrive at the scene of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building, 411 Elm Street. An unidentified individual told Inspector SAWYER that he had seen an individual run from the TSBD building shortly after the shooting of President KENNEDY and that this individual was an unknown white male, approximately 30, slender build, 5'10", 165 pounds, carrying what looked to be a 30:30, or some type of Winchester rifle. Inspector SAWYER then contacted Dallas Police Sergeant G. D. HENSLEE, Radio Dispatcher, and this description was broadcast to all Dallas squad cars. SAWYER did not get the individual's name who furnished this information, and from affidavits taken subsequently of individuals who were near the scene at the time of the shooting, no identification has been made of the source of this information.

Captain WILL FRITZ, Homicide Bureau, Dallas PD, advised SA VINCENT E. DRAIN, this date, that he arrived at the TSBD building, 411 Elm Street, some 20 or 25 minutes after the shooting of President KENNEDY. He stated that he interviewed the Manager of the TSBD building, Mr. R. S. TRULY; who furnished him with information concerning employees in that building, and the fact that the only missing employee was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. FRITZ related that shortly after he obtained this information, he returned to the Homicide Bureau, of the Dallas PD, to obtain some "heavy equipment" with the intention of going to Irving, Texas, the residence of OSWALD, which had been given to him by TRULY. FRITZ stated that he had not issued any broadcast for OSWALD; since he did not want to get such description on the air for fear it might come to OSWALD's attention. FRITZ related that he had not advised anyone at the PD relative to OSWALD's description.

At approximately 2:15 P.M., 11/22/63, officers of the Dallas PD brought an individual to the Homicide Bureau whom they had arrested at 1:40 P.M., in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas, for the shooting of Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT, at 1:18 P.M., 11/22/63.

FRITZ stated at the time OSWALD was brought to the Homicide Bureau, and OSWALD identified himself as LEE OSWALD, he at that moment knew this individual must be identical with the same individual who was missing from the TSBD building. FRITZ stated that in his opinion, this was the first time it was known that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was probably the individual who had shot President KENNEDY and wounded Governor JOHN CONNALLY. FRITZ related that he placed no stock whatsoever in the broadcast at 12:43 P.M. concerning a description of a white male, 5'10", 165 pounds, individual who alledgedly was carrying a rifle and was seen running from the TSBD building shortly after the shooting of President KENNEDY. FRITZ stated that many wild descriptions and rumors were being circulated and that from his conversation with OSWALD, he did not believe OSWALD was the type of individual who would run, but probably casually walked away from the building.

A review of the transcript of the Dallas Police radio log for Nov. 22, 1963 reflects the pertinent entry of 12:43 PM reads, "A wanted person in this is a slender white male, about 30, 5'10", 165, carrying what looked to be a 30-30 or some type of Winchester", this being the communication from Inspector SAWYER.

A review of interviews conducted by the Dallas Texas Office reflects HOWARD LESLIE BRENNAN (Report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING at Dallas, 11/30/63, on page 12) reflects that BRENNAN observed an individual in the window of the Texas School Book Depository with what appeared to be "a heavy" rifle in his hand. Further, BRENNAN related that he saw the individual point the gun in the direction of the President's car and fire. He described the individual with the gun as a white male, early 30's, about 5'10" tall, and around 165 pounds. It is pointed out that the description furnished by BRENNAN is the same as that contained in the broadcast made by Inspector SAWYER and it appears that in all probability, SAWYER's source of information may have been Mr. BRENNAN. It is further noted that on page 18 of report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, 12/23/63 it is reflected that HOWARD LESLIE BRENNAN stated he talked to a Dallas Police Officer immediately after the shooting.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY -R

Previous memoranda have reported receipt of letters from Cuba alleging that assassination of President Kennedy by Oswald was undertaken at the direction of a Cuban agent, one Pedro Charles, who reportedly gave Oswald $7,000 for this mission.

Bureau has now received four such letters as follows:

(1) Letter postmarked at Havana 11/28/63 (six days after assassination) signed by Pedro Charles and addressed to Oswald, c/o "Mail Office," Dallas. This letter was intercepted by Secret Service and referred to Bureau. This letter was dated 11/10/63;

(2) Letter addressed to Attorney General and postmarked at Havana 11/28/63 signed by Mario del Rosario Molina. This letter was referred to us by Department;

(3) Letter postmarked at Havana 12/3/63 addressed to Voice of America and signed by Miguel Galban Lopez. This communication was referred to us by U.S. Information Agency;

(4) Letter postmarked at Havana 12/3/63 signed by Galban Lopez and addressed to Editor, "Diario de Nueva York" (Spanish-language newspaper). This letter was forwarded to Bureau by official of newspaper;

As noted above, first letter received was purportedly written by Pedro Charles, was dated some two weeks prior to President's assassination, and was designed to give the impression Charles was furnishing instructions to Oswald relative to assassination. The other three letters purport to be from individuals who have knowledge that Charles conspired with Oswald to kill President. However, examinations by the FBI Laboratory have shown that all of these communications were actually prepared on same typewriter, and it is, therefore, clear that this represents some type of hoax, possibly on part of some anti-Castro group seeking to discredit Cuban Government.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

We have advised Attorney General, State Department, Central Intelligence Agency and Secret Service regarding these letters and Dallas will include pertinent information developed in report form.

There is a definite possibility that this type of letter may in the future come to public notice and copy of this memorandum is, therefore, being designated for Crime Records Division for its information. If any further letters of this type are received, we will have them processed by the FBI Laboratory and if it is indicated they are part of the same ruse, no further action is indicated.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter from the Atomic Energy Commission referred to me by Assistant Attorney General Miller.

As you will note, the letter suggests that the application of nuclear analytical techniques might supply some useful information relative to the investigation conducted by your Bureau. I would appreciate your advice regarding the feasibility and desirability of taking advantage of this offer by Mr. Aebersold, Director, Division of Isotopes Development.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Dear Lee:

I have received your letter of January 7, 1964, in which you inquire as to the feasibility of applying nuclear analytical techniques to items relating to the assassination of President Kennedy.

The FBI Laboratory is well acquainted with the analytical technique of neutron activation analysis. Through arrangements worked out with Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, work is already in progress applying this technique to certain phases of the current investigation.

We were advised that Dr. Seaborg also has reported the existence of this joint effort to Honorable Earl Warren, Chairman of your Commission, by letter dated January 7, 1964.

Your office will be further advised of the results of these analyses when they have been completed.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Conrad

DATE: 1/9/64

FROM : R. H. Jevons

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA.
IS - R - CUBA

A letter dated 1/7/64, has been received from Honorable J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, requesting advice concerning the feasibility and desirability of applying nuclear activation techniques to specimens of evidence in the Lee Harvey Oswald case. This request was prompted by Dr. Paul C. Aebersold's letter to Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller which was forwarded by Mr. Miller to the President's Commission.

Work is already in progress applying the techniques of neutron activation analysis to certain phases of the current investigation. Based on my memorandum of 11/27/63, approval was given to make arrangements with the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) to utilize its related facilities for the purpose of employing such nuclear analytical procedures on certain items in the instant investigation. On 12/6/63, Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, Chairman of the AEC, offered complete and confidential cooperation in this matter. Dr. Spofford G. English, Assistant General Manager for Research and Development of AEC, was assigned to coordinate all aspects of this work. Dr. English advised that the AEC personnel who would know of this matter would be kept to an absolute minimum. In particular, he advised that Dr. Paul C. Aebersold, Director, Division of Isotopes Development, and author of the letter forwarded to Mr. Rankin by the Assistant Attorney General, would not be advised of the neutron activation analyses being conducted in this case even though he is presently the head of the division at AEC which fostered the contract work relating to the research on this matter.

Tests are being conducted at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory, Oak Ridge, Tennessee on ammunition specimens and on the casts from Lee Harvey Oswald's hands and cheek by neutron activation analysis to determine if the casts bear any trace deposits characteristic of powder residues.

On 1/7/64, in response to an inquiry from Chief Justice Earl Warren, Chairman of the President's Commission, Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg advised Chief Justice Warren that the AEC was cooperating on a confidential basis with the FBI "investigating the possibility of whether a very sensitive method of trace element analysis (the so-called 'activation analysis technique') may be of any value in further corroborating evidence already in hand by the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

Synopsis: MATTHEW SCHILLER, Phoenix, Arizona, advised possibly during latter part of September, 1963, he traveled by bus from Phoenix, Arizona, to Laredo, Texas, Mexico City and Cuernavaca, Mexico. Remained about two weeks and returned to Phoenix. SCHILLER claimed he was only American on bus trip into Mexico and return and he had never seen nor conversed with OSWALD.

-RUC-

DETAILS:

At the Utah Hotel, 438 West Washington, Phoenix, Mrs. FAY GROOT, Manager, advised on December 22, 1963, that MATTHEW SCHILLER had registered in at the hotel on November 6, 1963, and remained about five days. He then returned to the hotel on December 12, 1963, and paid rent for one week. She stated SCHILLER is in poor health, has asthma and shortly after arriving at the hotel in December, 1963, he became ill and was taken to the Maricopa County Hospital in Phoenix, Arizona.

MATTHEW SCHILLER advised on December 22, 1963, that because of an asthma attack he was brought to the Maricopa County Hospital on December 14, 1963, and had remained there since that time. He said he was born in January, 1894, in Austria, came to the United States in 1923 and became a naturalized citizen in 1929 at Chicago, Illinois. He was employed as a butcher in Chicago until 1959 when he retired and since that time he has traveled around the country some and had been staying at the Utah Hotel, 438 West Washington, Phoenix, although he had stayed at other hotels in Phoenix in the past but he could not recall the names of these hotels. He stated he was staying in Phoenix in October, 1963, although he could not recall the name of the hotel he stayed at in Phoenix and having heard that the climate at Cuernavaca, Mexico, was good for asthma, decided to take a trip there. He left Phoenix, Arizona, by Greyhound Bus to Brownsville, Texas, and obtained a 6 months visitor's permit on the Mexican side across from Brownsville, Texas, and then took a Mexican bus to Mexico City and then Cuernavaca, Mexico. He was unable to recall the name of the hotel he stayed at in Cuernavaca, but said that he did eat at the Vienna Restaurant in Cuernavaca. After about two weeks, he returned by Mexican bus to Juarez, Mexico, then El Paso, Texas and to Phoenix, Arizona. He remained in Phoenix about one week and then went to San Diego, California and was at the Warren Hotel on November 22, 1963.

Mr. SCHILLER stated that on his trip from the United States into Mexico and return had cost him from $11 to $12 each way and that he was the only American on the bus trip into Mexico and return. He said he had never seen nor conversed with LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any time. He identified photographs of OSWALD only from having seen OSWALD's pictures in the newspapers.

MATTHEW SCHILLER, Maricopa County Hospital, Phoenix, Arizona, advised on December 23, 1963, that after thinking it over, it was possibly during the latter part of September, 1963, that he made the bus trip from Phoenix to Cuernavaca, Mexico, and return. He said he was mistaken and crossed at Laredo, Texas, instead of at Brownsville, Texas. He stayed overnight at unknown hotels in Laredo, Texas, and in Mexico City on his way to Cuernavaca. Mr. SCHILLER stated he was also mistaken about returning to the United States by the way of Juarez, Mexico, and that he actually returned through Nogales, Mexico, into Arizona. He reiterated that he was the only American on the bus trip into Mexico and return and that he had never seen nor conversed with OSWALD.

-P-

DETAILS:

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 1-10-64

CLYDE J. WATTS, Attorney, 219 Couch Drive, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, furnished the following information:

He is a long-time personal friend of EDWIN A. WALKER, Dallas, Texas, former General of the United States Army. He is presently acting as legal counsel for WALKER.

In the Spring of 1963, shortly after someone shot at WALKER in his home in Dallas, Texas, WATTS hired two private investigators in Oklahoma City to go to Dallas and attempt to ascertain the identity of the person who had shot at WALKER. These investigators were BILL KEESTER, former member of the Oklahoma City Police Department, and CLIFF ROBERTS, former Oklahoma State Narcotics Bureau Agent.

During the investigation conducted by KEESTER and ROBERTS, information was received that one BILL DUFF, a Scotsman, who was at one time employed by WALKER or WALKER's staff, had allegedly remarked he was the person who had shot at WALKER. KEESTER and ROBERTS made contact with BILL DUFF without disclosing their true identity or capacity as private detectives, and offered DUFF $5,000.00 to shoot WALKER. DUFF was interested in the proposition and discussed with KEESTER and ROBERTS a plan to shoot WALKER. A tape recording was made of the discussion and this recording, along with the results of the investigation by KEESTER and ROBERTS, was turned over to the Dallas Police Department. At no time did DUFF ever admit to KEESTER and ROBERTS that he was the person who had previously attempted to shoot WALKER. At the time KEESTER and ROBERTS were in contact with BILL DUFF he resided at 5420 Lewis Street, Dallas, Texas.

WATTS stated he has read in the public press that LEE HARVEY OSWALD's wife has reportedly stated OSWALD was the person who had shot at WALKER and, therefore, he considers there is possibly some connection between BILL DUFF and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

DETAILS:

On January 9, 1964, Mr. STEPHEN KLEM, Office Manager, W. G. Wade Shows, Mason, Michigan, which carnival holds Post Office Box number 254, Mason, advised that his records failed to show that any individual by the name of Mrs. L. R. CAMPI or WILLIAM D. CAMPI have ever been employed by the W. G. Wade Shows.

Mr. KLEM stated that the Wade Shows furnish only the carnival rides and that all other carnival amusements with the W. G. Wade Shows are independent concessionaires, who join the show for the summer season and are allowed to use Post Office Box number 254, Mason, Michigan, for mailing purposes.

Mr. KLEM recalled that one "BOB" CAMPI, a white male, age 30, 6' tall, light curly hair, slender build, worked for SAMMY SNEAD, an independent concessionaire from the State of California, who was inventor and sole operator of a game known as "Derby Race," a game of chance which traveled with the Wade Shows, during the summer seasons 1962 and 1963.

Mr. KLEM stated that he did not know the present whereabouts of SNEAD, inasmuch as he was a "drifter" from one show to another, depending on the season and the weather; however,

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of any kind. It is the property of the FBI, and is a loan to your agency;

he believes that SNEAD is originally from California. He stated that he is quite certain that the present whereabouts of SNEAD might possibly be known to the Billboard Publishing Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, which company maintains itineraries of various carnivals. He further stated that SNEAD was the only individual who operated a "Derby Race" game in the United States since he holds patent on this device.

On January 9, 1964, the following individuals advised that they could locate no record of Mrs. L. R. CAMPI or WILLIAM D. CAMPI:

On January 9, 1964, Mrs. CLARA WEAVER, Secretary, Vital Records Bureau, Michigan Department of Health, Lansing, Michigan, which office maintains birth records for the entire State of Michigan, advised that she could locate no record of a WILLIAM D. CAMPI, reportedly born July 4, 1934, in Monroe, Michigan.

On January 9, 1964, Mrs. MARTHA RASMUSSEN, Assistant Supervisor, Records Bureau, Driver's Services Division, Michigan Secretary of State's Office, Lansing, Michigan, advised that there was no vehicle operator's license in the name WILLIAM D. CAMPI, born July 4, 1934.

She advised, however, that there is a record of one WILLIAM DAVID CAMPI, Operator's License Number C510-887-135-420, which license was issued on July 13, 1963, and that this license lists his home address as Post Office Box Number 254, RFD 1, Mason, Michigan. The Operator's License further describes him as having been born June 4, 1930; 6' tall; weighing 169 pounds; brown eyes and black hair. The record shows that he did not previously hold a driver's license in the State of Michigan.

On January 9, 1964, Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR D. ZIEGLER, Post Office Box Number 254, RFD 1, Mason, Michigan, advised that they have resided at this address for 17 years and that they have never known anyone by the name of WILLIAM DAVID CAMPI and they were not familiar with anyone by the name of Mrs. L. A recheck of the above credit and arrest records under the name WILLIAM DAVID CAMPI, date of birth June 4, 1930, was similarily negative.

Activities of Oswald Before the Death of President

Special to The New York Times

DALLAS, Nov. 29—Investigators are patiently trying to piece together the activities of Lee H. Oswald, accused slayer of President Kennedy, in the days immediately preceding the President's visit to Dallas and his assassination here last Friday.

This much of the chronology was known today.

Sept. 26—Oswald appeared at a store in Laredo, Tex., store employes have reported, and bought clothing for $32. Where he got the money is undetermined. Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation were in Laredo Monday through Wednesday tracing his activities there because of a receipt from the store dated Sept. 26 that was found among his belongings in Dallas after the assassination. After buying the clothing, Oswald crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico at Laredo. He had left New Orleans before dawn Sept. 24 without paying the last portion of his rent. Mrs. Michael R. Paine of Irving, Tex., 10 miles from Dallas, said she had driven to New Orleans to get Oswald's wife, Marina, and baby daughter, June Lee. They started for Irving Sept. 23, she said. She said he told them only that he would go to Houston to look for work. He had lost his job in New Orleans.

Sept. 27—At the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City Oswald applied for a Cuban transit visa to the Soviet Union after traveling to the capital by highway. It was denied because he lacked a Russian visa. At the Russian consulate he sought a visa but was told the application must be submitted to Moscow and action on it might take three months. He left and his actions in the next few days have not been fully traced.

Oct. 8—Oswald re-entered the United States at Laredo. Mike Rioa, an announcer at radio station KOPY in Alice, Tex., 90 miles from Laredo, says that a man who he believes to have been Oswald came into the station at about 6 P.M. that night and asked for a job. Mr. Rioa told him to come back the next day and see the station manager, L. L. Stewart.

Oct. 4—Mr. Stewart said in an interview tonight that the same man came in about 1:30 P.M., Oct. 4 and stayed nearly half an hour. Mr. Stewart said the man said he had had no radio experience and was told there was no work. There has been no positive confirmation that the man who appeared at KOPY actually was Oswald. Oswald is known to have checked into the Dallas downtown branch of the Y.M.C.A. that night, an official of the Y.M.C.A. said in an interview today. Mrs. Paine said he called his wife at her home. It was the first time, she said, that Mrs. Oswald had heard from him since she left New Orleans. Mrs. Paine said he spent that night at her home.

Oct. 5—Checked out of the Y.M.C.A. Moved to a $7-a-week room in a Dallas rooming house. Began job hunting.

Oct. 15—Following a tip from Mrs. Paine, who had heard of the job opening from a neighbor, applied and got temporary work as an order filler at the Texas School Book Depository at $50 a week. The depository occupied the building from which the shots that killed President Kennedy were fired five and a half weeks later. He moved into a $8-a-week room at 1026 North Beckley, not far from the depository, under the alias of O. H. Lee, a play on his name. He phoned the Paine house with a "hooray" to report getting the job. Mrs. Paine said he had just received the last check he was eligible for in unemployment compensation.

Oct. 16—Went to work.

Oct. 18—After the first week's work was over, drove to the Paine home in Irving, 10 miles away, with Wesley Frazier, a 19-year-old neighbor of Mrs. Paine who had first mention of the job Oswald got. Spent the weekend there. The Oswald's second daughter, Audrey Marina Rachel, was born Oct. 20 at Parkland Hospital.

Oct. 21—Rode back to work with Mr. Frazier, also an order filler at the depository.

Nov. 1-4—Another weekend at the Irving home, going and coming as before.

Nov. 8-12—Same.

Nov. 19—Dallas newspaper published article showing motorcade route would pass depository.

Nov. 21—After work Oswald went to Irving with Mr. Frazier, having skipped the previous weekend. This was his first week-night visit to his family since they moved in with Mrs. Paine and her two young children, and the first time he had gone there without first calling and asking if he could.

Nov. 22—Left with Mr. Frazier for work before the women got up. Mrs. Paine found a light on in the garage the evening before. Mr. Frazier noticed that Oswald put a long package wrapped in brown paper sacks into the back seat, saying it was curtain rods. Evidence showed he had removed it from the Paine garage, where he had kept it with his other belongings, wrapped in a blanket. Only the blanket was there when the police came to check. Mr. Frazier said Oswald carried the long package into the depository building and that was the last he saw of him before the assassination.

Ruby Chronology

Authorities have also been reconstructing the activities of Jack Ruby, accused killer of Oswald, particularly in the period since the assassination.

Nov. 22—While the Presidential motorcade crossed downtown Dallas, Ruby was at The Dallas Morning News office preparing an advertisement for his night club. He learned there of the assassination. Two hours after the President died, one of Ruby's strip-tease dancers found him crying at the club, called the Carousel. He said the club would be closed until further notice. Visited his sister, Mrs. Eva Grant, at her apartment several times. She described him as very upset over the assassination.

Nov. 23—Seen at his own apartment walking his dog and picking up laundry. Seen around Municipal Building, which houses the jail where Oswald was incarcerated.

Nov. 24—Seen around City Hall basement helping to move equipment for television cameramen preparing to record the publicized daylight transfer of Oswald from the city jail to an armored car that would take him to the County Jail several blocks away. As Oswald was being brought in handcuffs down a basement corridor to the car, lunged at him and shot him. Arrested and jailed.

Nov. 25—Transferred to Dallas County Jail.

Nov. 26—Indicted for homicide.

Bufiles disclose Robert Edward Webster remained in Russia following his service at the American National Exhibit in Russia in 1959. Webster relinquished his United States citizenship and obtained Soviet citizenship. He returned to the United States May 20, 1962, as a Soviet alien and is currently residing in Cleveland, Ohio. Bufiles also indicate that Lee Harvey Oswald entered Russia in October, 1959, following his release from duty with the U. S. Marine Corps. Oswald returned to the United States with his wife and child in June, 1962.

You should immediately contact Robert Edward Webster and determine if he had any contact with Oswald during their mutual residence in Russia. You should also determine whether Webster possesses any information that might have come to his attention concerning Oswald during Webster's residence in Russia or since his return to the United States.

Results of your inquiries should be included in your next report prepared for dissemination in this matter. An extra copy of this communication is furnished for your file concerning Webster.

Reference is made to the report of SA Eldon D. Rudd, dated 12/3/63, at Mexico City in captioned matter, two copies of which were forwarded to your office. SA Rudd's report contains an allegation that Ruby's sister may have been in San Antonio, Texas, on 11/21/63. The same report also contains allegations that Ruby's sister may have stayed as a guest at the same house where subject resided in Dallas on 11/22/63.

You should immediately conduct appropriate investigation to establish the whereabouts of Eva Grant, sister of Jack Ruby, on November 21, 1963. In this connection, it is suggested that you contact Mrs. Rex B. Goodman, landlady at Eva Grant's residence, and also contact Mrs. Pauline Hall, close friend of Eva Grant, who handled the operation of the Vegas Club during Eva Grant's absence due to hospitalization. Handle immediately.

NOTE:
A Mexican attorney and his wife alleged Eva Grant was in San Antonio on 11/21/63 and following day was at the rooming house where Oswald resided at the time of his death. The Mexican attorney feels such data shows a tie-in between Oswald and Ruby and that both could have involved in a conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy. Such allegation appears far fetched but desirable we determine exact whereabouts of Eva Grant on 11/21/63 which will wash out the allegation if it is determined Grant was in Dallas recuperating from major surgery.

EMILY HEWITT, care of WOODROW HEWITT, Pratts Woods Section, furnished the following information:

Waynesboro, Va.

Miss HEWITT is a student at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Her roommate is CATHERINE MALLORY, telephone HO 52221, Ann Arbor.

Sometime since the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, the following information was orally disclosed to Miss HEWITT by CATHERINE MALLORY.

CATHERINE MALLORY is a member of the University of Michigan Band and went to Soviet Russia with the University of Michigan Band in 1961. During March, 1961, the University of Michigan Band was giving some concerts at the Minsk Polytechnic Institute, Minsk, Russia. One night while the band was not performing, members of the band were divided into small groups, each of which was assigned an interpreter, for the purpose of going on a tour of the facilities of the Minsk Polytechnic Institute and having various phases of its operations explained by the interpreters. During the tour, Miss MALLORY became separated from her group and during this period was approached by a young American who advised her that he was a former member of the U. S. Marine Corps, had had some differences with his Government and had denounced his Government. The young man offered his services as an interpreter but it was Miss HEWITT's understanding that this was a personal offer of services and she had no knowledge that the young man was connected in any way with the Soviet Government, although she is not too clear in her recollection of this particular phase of the matter. Subsequently, Miss MALLORY, who had been very much impressed by the unknown young man who said he had denounced his Government, due to the oddity of the situation, made a record of this discussion in her diary. After the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, Miss MALLORY did not connect her encounter with the above young man in Minsk, Russia, with LEE OSWALD, but sometime after the assassination Miss MALLORY's mother, who had read the diary and had also read in a news account information indicating that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had worked in Minsk, Russia, in 1961, reminded her daughter of the information in her diary about meeting the former U. S. Marine. At this time Miss MALLORY gave some thought to the matter and after reviewing her diary came to the conclusion that the former

DAVID VAUGHN HOFFMAN, Apartment 16, Colonial Court Apartments, furnished the following information on interview:

He is employed presently as a professor of English at the Prince George High School, Prince George County, Virginia. He graduated from Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana, in the spring of 1963. From approximately May, 1963, until August, 1963, he resided with two roommates, JOHN HEGGARTY and TONY ECCLES, at 4107 Freret Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. HEGGARTY and ECCLES were students at the University and were members of a group of which he, HOFFMAN, was also a member called ""The Group". HOFFMAN described this group as consisting of members who were "weird" or "way out".

During the time they occupied the apartment at 4107 Freret Street, about three parties were held there, and at no time did he observe anyone resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD, whose photograph he had seen in the newspapers at a later date after coming to Virginia. These parties, HOFFMAN said were attended by both Tulane students and "outsiders" some bearded, but he did not believe that even with beards he would not recall having observed OSWALD, had he ever seen him at one of the parties.

John HEGGARTY was now somewhere in Jamestown, New York, and that he had heard that HEGGARTY may be connected with a theatre at Jamestown called "Antono" (phonetic). ECCLES was last known by HOFFMAN to be a sophomore at Tulane University for the 1963 - 64 school years.

HOFFMAN observed that during the time he, ECCLES and HEGGARTY had the apartment together at Freret Street in New Orleans, HEGGARTY slept a number of nights with one TEE CUTCHEN, a coed then attending Newcomb College, an annex of Tulane University in New Orleans. HOFFMAN last knew CUTCHEN to be somewhere in Florida possibly attending school there.

HOFFMAN concluded by stating that he had never known or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor had he ever heard this name prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Ex-Marine, 20, To Renounce U.S. For Russia

Compiled from
The San Diego Union's Wire Services

MOSCOW, Oct. 31 — Lee Harvey Oswald, 20, a recently discharged U.S. Marine from Fort Worth, Tex., disclosed today he had taken steps to renounce his American citizenship and become a Soviet citizen. He said the reasons for his move were "purely political."

"I will never return to the United States for any reason," Oswald said in a room at Moscow's Hotel Metropole.

NO REGULAR JOB

The young Texan declined to give any details on his background or the exact reasons for his decision. However, a U.S. Embassy official said Oswald had told him he arrived in Moscow on October 13 immediately after his discharge from the Marine Corps and had no regular job in the United States.

(Oswald's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, lives in Fort Worth. His sister-in-law, Mrs. R. L. Oswald of Fort Worth, said "He wanted to travel a lot and talked about going to Cuba. This is a typical thing he's doing.")

THIRD AMERICAN

Oswald is the third American in recent months to apply for Soviet citizenship upon arriving in Moscow.

Nicholas Petrilli of Yonkers, N. Y., filed an application form, then changed his mind and decided to keep his U.S. citizenship. Thomas Webster of Cleveland completed formalities for taking Soviet citizenship 10 days ago.

Oswald said he hoped to hear from the Soviet authorities "within a few days" on his request for Soviet citizenship.

Dallas airtel to Houston listed purchasers of 6.5 ammunition shipped by Sloan's Sporting Goods Company, New York City, and this is the basis of the interview with Dr. HOWARD L. CHAPMAN, Shreveport, Louisiana.

The interview of ROSEMARY BOUDREAUX, Gonzales, Louisiana, was based on information furnished by Continental Trailways Bus Driver, CONRAD ROBERTS, that on Bus 5121, on September 25, 1963, he recalled a regular passenger boarding the bus at Gonzales for Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

The interview with Mr. JOSEPH B. NAMER, a partner in a discount house formerly located at 107 Camp Street, New Orleans, was based on the finding of the address, 107 Camp Street, in the effects of OSWALD.

GEORGE E. BOESCH, New Orleans, member of Civil Air Patrol in 1955 advised OSWALD unknown to him. Records of Western Union Telegraph Co. checked from May through September, 1963, and no record located of any money order sent by OSWALD. Dr. HOWARD L. CHAPMAN, Shreveport, La., advised he ordered 1,000 rounds of 6.5 MM Western ammunition from Sloan's Sporting Goods in New York, in May, 1963, for a friend, RAYMOND DOUGLAS. DOUGLAS said ammunition remained in his possession, and he sold none of it and did not know OSWALD or RUBY.

Mr. SULLIVAN reviewed his check stubs and determined that the party at the FORD residence had been on the night of December 28, 1962. He advised it was quite late when he and his wife arrived at the party, that only a few of the guests were still present. He said that in addition to the FORDS, the following were present:

Mr. SULLIVAN advised he did not believe he had ever met LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his wife and on viewing the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, stated the photograph was not familiar as being anyone that he had ever met. Mrs. DANIEL F. SULLIVAN, nee Ruth Wells, 118 Twin Oaks Drive, Lafayette, advised she recalls having attended a party at the DECLAN FORD residence in Richardson, Texas, between Christmas, 1962 and New Year's, 1963. She stated the SULLIVAN family had driven from Lafayette, Louisiana to Dallas, Texas on the day of the party and had arrived at the party late, getting there around 11:30 p.m. She stated the party had been an open house-type party and that Mrs. FORD told her there were about 30 invited guests. She related that when she and her husband arrived, the only persons present other than the FORDS were Mr. and Mrs. THOMAS RAY, Blossom, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. FRANK RAY, 4525 Alta Vista, Dallas, Texas; CAROLE (last name unknown), who has worked for FRANK RAY; Mr. and Mrs. (first name unknown) JACKSON, Dallas, Texas, Mr. JACKSON being in the real estate business; and ED and ZENA JOHNSON, Georgetown, Texas, Mr. JOHNSON being in the dry cleaning business and President of the Chamber of Commerce). Mrs. SULLIVAN advised that Mrs. FORD, whose first name is KATJA, is of Russian extraction and came to the United States as a war bride after World War II. She was subsequently divorced from the serviceman that she had married and in about the latter 1950's appeared on the television show "This Is Your Life." As a result of this television appearance, many Russian war brides and other Russian women had contacted Mrs. FORD and she had helped them with some of the problems that presented themselves to the women.

As a result, Mrs. FORD is known to many women of Russian extraction living in the United States. She related that in addition to Mrs. FORD, both Mrs. RAYS, Mrs. JACKSON and Mrs. JOHNSON were all of Russian background. She stated the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not appear to her to be anyone she had ever met and added she did not recall having ever met OSWALD or his wife. She stated that as OSWALD's wife was of Russian background, it was quite possible that OSWALD and his wife had attended the party at the FORD residence and it was also possible they had been there during the period that the SULLIVANS were at the party, but she did not recall them.

Dr. CHAPMAN collects guns for a hobby and holds a gun dealer's license, which enables him to purchase ammunition at wholesale price. He often purchases ammunition for his friends and acquaintances. In May, 1963, he purchased a case consisting of 1,000 rounds of 6.5 millimeter Western ammunition from Sloan's Sporting Goods Company in New York City. This ammunition was purchased for a friend, RAYMOND DOUGLAS, of Shreveport, Louisiana, who intended to use the ammunition for deer hunting.

Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY were exhibited to Dr. CHAPMAN, and he stated he has never sold any ammunition to these men and has never seen OSWALD or RUBY.

On January 2, 1964, Mr. JOSEPH B. NAMER, 3305 Louisiana, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised he was a partner in the discount house formerly located at 107 Camp Street, New Orleans, until October, 1963.

He said he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in person, and to his knowledge, OSWALD had never been in his store. He further stated that he never had any form of contact with OSWALD and was at a loss to explain why OSWALD would have the address of his store in his possession unless OSWALD contemplated future contact at the store.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

At the request of Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., Dallas County District Attorney Henry Wade was interviewed on January 14, 1964. He was asked to state specifically and categorically wherein the preparation of his case is in any way handicapped by lack of access to material in the possession of the Federal Government.

Mr. Wade when interviewed indicated he cannot state how he is handicapped as he does not know what information has been collected by the Federal Government but he believes the investigation has developed information concerning Ruby's background and associates. He said that without revealing the oral and written statements taken by the Federal Government, he has no way of knowing what they contain.

Insofar as Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr is concerned, Wade said Mr. Carr has no authority to speak for him and Mr. Wade has never stated he was handicapped by not having statements that are in the possession of the FBI. He said that he has made it known that he needs all available information concerning the background and associates of Jack Ruby and the circumstances surrounding the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. The Dallas Police Department conducted very little investigation concerning Ruby as it spent most of its time submitting a report defending itself with regard to the shooting of Oswald.

Mr. Wade wants the results of FBI investigation for use in cross examining Ruby and any character witnesses who testify.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Mr. Wade submitted the following letter to the FBI office in Dallas on January 14, 1964.

"As you are aware, we have a bond hearing on Jack Ruby set on January 20 and the trial for the murder of Lee Oswald set for February 3 in Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County, Texas. In that trial all of the information we can gather with reference to the background of Jack Ruby from the time he was born up to the present, the names of all his business or social associates together with what they might have said concerning him or his mental capacity will be very important. I feel that you have some of this information or all of it in your present files. I would appreciate your obtaining the following:

"1. Copies of all interviews had by your Agents concerning Jack Ruby or any of his associates.

"2. The names of any persons in any way connected with Ruby together with their statements made concerning him.

"3. Any physical evidence that you might have in the Ruby case.

"4. Any summary you might have of the whole activities of Ruby during and at the time of this murder.

"5. Any statements that you might have tending to show any connection between Oswald and Ruby.

"6. Any statements that you might have dealing with whether or not Ruby belonged or had belonged to any subversive groups.

"7. Copies of the interviews had by your Agents at the City Hall and also the Dallas County Jail and what Ruby told them.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

"None of this information will be released to the press, radio or television, nor to anyone else outside of this office, and will be used exclusively in the trial of this case for the purposes of cross-examining the defendant should he testify and also cross-examining the character witnesses, and should any of these witnesses wherein you have a statement from them testify, if they vary from the statements made to your Agent, they will be used for the purpose of cross-examining this witness. I hope that this can be arranged as soon as possible since we will have to read and digest these prior to the trial on February 3."

This information has been furnished to Assistant Attorney General Miller.

Please advise us as to the action the Commission plans to take regarding Mr. Wade's request.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have been reviewing several Bureau reports in connection with our investigation of Ruth and Michael Paine and their possible connection with either the assassination of the late President, John F. Kennedy, or the subsequent killing of Lee Harvey Oswald, or both. In this connection, I have particularly reviewed the report of Special Agent Gemberling, dated November 30, 1963, the report of Special Agent Clements, dated November 30, 1963, the report of Special Agent DeBrueys, dated December 2, 1963, the report of Special Agent DeBrueys, dated December 8, 1963, and the report of Special Agent Gemberling, dated December 10, 1963.

To the extent not covered in the above-listed material, I would appreciate your initiating a full scale background, intelligence type report of the Paines if you have not already done so. If you are in accord with this request, I would suggest that the proposed investigation include the background data on the Paines' education, employment, relatives, associates, travel, and financial activity.

Re Chicago tel to Bureau and Dallas airtel 12-31-63.

Referenced tel advised that Chief OTTO ALBUSCHAT, Villa Park Police Department, Villa Park, Illinois, had obtained information from one BOB NEWTON, a former resident of 510 Monterey St., Villa Park, Illinois, and formerly employed by the Chicago Branch of Sears-Roebuck. It also stated that NEWTON is presently employed by the Dallas Branch of Sears and was residing on Camelot Street in Dallas, Texas, and he reported that one of his neighbors in Dallas had a brother who was an employee of a Lincoln-Mercury dealership in Dallas who had allegedly sold a 1963 Lincoln to OSWALD who was supposed to have picked the car up on the day of the assassination.

Investigation has determined that this alleged sale was handled by the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury dealer at Dallas, and previous investigation had already determined the car was a Comet and no sale was made to the customer who was believed to be LEE OSWALD.

Interviews with employees of Downtown Lincoln-Mercury in Dallas on these two occasions has established certain discrepancies, as noted below.

1. (See page 362, Dallas report of 11-30-63). On 11-23-63, FRANK PIZZO, employee of Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, advised SA's MANNING C. CLEMENTS and WARREN C. de BRUEYS

he heard the name LEE OSWALD on the radio on the afternoon of 11-22-63 and asked ALBERT G. BOGARD, a salesman, if he had a prospect of the same name. BOGARD replied in the affirmative.

2. FRANK PIZZO was interviewed on 1-6-64 by SA's ARTHUR E. CARTER and WILL HAYDEN GRIFFIN and on that occasion he said he recalled that AL BOGARD, a salesman at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, brought a prospective customer to him a week or more before 11-22-63 who "resembled LEE OSWALD". The prospect had no money and was advised he would need $300.00 to make a contract. This prospect took a demonstration ride in a red Comet Caliente. PIZZO said BOGARD came to him after the assassination and said he (BOGARD) had a card with LEE OSWALD's name on it that he threw away, and BOGARD said he had been unable to locate the card for the FBI after searching the trash.

PIZZO said his recollection about the above was "vague" due to the length of time that has elapsed and the numerous stories and radio and TV releases about LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

3. (See page 364, Dallas report of 11-30-63). On 11-23-63, ALBERT G. BOGARD advised SA's CLEMENTS and de BRUEYS that at about 3:00 or 4:00 P.M., 11-9-63, a prospective customer whom he identified as LEE OSWALD, made inquiry concerning the purchase of a two-door Mercury. OSWALD had no money but said he "had it coming". OSWALD drove a demonstrator car. BOGARD wrote "LEE OSWALD" on his (BOGARD's) business card. BOGARD said he destroyed this card on 11-22-63 after hearing a radio report concerning OSWALD being a suspect in the assassination of President KENNEDY. BOGARD searched the trash on 11-23-63 and failed to locate the card.

4. (See page 386, Dallas report of 11-30-63). This record indicates that Mrs. RUTH PAINE was interviewed 11-26-63 by SA's BARDWELL D. ODUM and JAMES P. HOSTY, Jr., and she furnished her knowledge of the day by day activity of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. It is noted that on 11-9-63, she reported that she drove LEE OSWALD to the Drivers License Bureau in Oak Cliff to help OSWALD get a "learner's permit". The Drivers License Bureau was closed on that date because 11-9-63 was an election day.

5. (Report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING 12-23-63 at Dallas, page 214). This item is a signed statement of ALBERT GUY BOGARD which was executed by him before SA's C. RAY HALL and MAURICE WHITE, in which BOGARD states he showed a red Comet hardtop to LEE OSWALD. He also advised he wrote LEE OSWALD's name on a card. He said he recalled the same on 11-22-63 and threw the card in the wastebasket after OSWALD was picked up as a suspect. BOGARD said he mentioned this to other sales personnel and also to FBI Agents who interviewed him on 11-23-63.

On 1-3-64, RUTH PAINE was reinterviewed and accounted for the activities of OSWALD on 11-9-63, stating she was of the opinion that he was at her residence during the afternoon watching a football game on TV. She stated she left her home for about 45 minutes between 4:00 and 5:00 P.M. She expressed opinion it would have been impossible for OSWALD to be at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, Dallas, on 11-9-63 as he was not out of her sight for a sufficient portion of the day to make such a trip.

At that same time, BOGARD indicated he would be agreeable to taking a polygraph test.

In view of the fact that there seems to be some discrepancies in the foregoing statement and interviews, it is recommended that authority be granted to interview ALBERT GUY BOGARD with thepolygraph in an effort to resolve this matter.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

This recommends Dallas be authorized to afford polygraph examination to one Albert G. Bogard, a Dallas automobile salesman, who states that Oswald on 11/9/63 made inquiry concerning the purchase of a Mercury car.

BACKGROUND:

Bogard, a salesman at Downtown Lincoln - Mercury Agency in Dallas, has alleged that on 11/9/63 a man he identifies as Oswald, inquired concerning the purchase of a two-door Mercury. He claims that he showed Oswald a red Comet hardtop and that Oswald told him he did not have any money at the time but "he had it coming." Oswald reportedly drove the demonstrator car; however, he did not return to the automobile agency. Bogard claims to have written the name "Lee Oswald" on one of his business cards which he destroyed on 11/22/63 after hearing that Oswald was arrested for the assassination. Bogard has indicated that he is agreeable to taking a polygraph examination.

OBSERVATIONS:

Bogard's story is known to several people in Dallas. Bogard's comment that Oswald inferred that he had money coming to him would, if true, be of some pertinence to our investigation. Our inquiry has established that Oswald did not have sufficient funds in November, 1963, to make even the $300 downpayment necessary to purchase the car. Moreover, his wife has stated that Oswald was opposed to purchasing a car due to the expense of maintaining one and there is no evidence to establish that Oswald could drive. In addition, Mrs. Ruth Paine places Oswald in her home on 11/9/63 (election day) and states that in her opinion it would not have been possible for Oswald to have traveled to the automobile agency on 11/9/63 as he was not out of her sight for a sufficient portion of that day to have made the trip. Accordingly, it appears that Bogard's story is untrue.

A letter dated 1/9/64 has been received from Joe H. Tonahill, one of Ruby's attorneys. It is addressed to the Director and J. Lee Rankin with copies designated for the President, the Chief Justice and the Attorney General.

Tonahill requests that the President's Commission make available for inspection and copying all information in possession of the Commission relating to Oswald and Ruby including the Bureau's investigative reports. Tonahill makes no direct request of the Bureau.

In support of his request Tonahill alleges that, for the most part, the FBI is the only investigative agency doing work for the prosecution and that the Bureau submits material daily to the local District Attorney. We, of course, have not conducted investigation for the prosecution and the District Attorney's request for the results of our investigations has been referred to the President's Commission and the Department for a determination as to what information should be furnished. The FBI Laboratory and the Identification Division have examined physical evidence submitted by the Dallas Police Department and the police department has been furnished the results of such examinations.

Tonahill attempts to justify his request with the following allegations:

1. The State of Texas yielded to President's Commission by halting the convening of a special court of inquiry thus depriving Ruby of much evidence which would have been available to him under Texas process.

2. The prosecution is seeking a death sentence for murder with malice but Ruby is guilty of no offense greater than murder without malice which is not a capital offense.

3. It is necessary for the defense to prove that Oswald assassinated President Kennedy and the defense is entitled to prove Oswald was a dangerous man of bad character and reputation as well as a professed communist.

4. Among other things, Ruby's defense will be that he is not legally responsible for the alleged offense because of mental disease and defect.

5. The facts in possession of the Commission will indubitably prove Ruby's defensive elements and it would violate Ruby's civil rights to withhold the Commission's information from Ruby.

Tonahill makes reference to a newspaper story, which he indicates he does not believe, alleging that Oswald was a Bureau informant. This allegation has previously come to our attention and it is completely false. Oswald was interviewed on three occasions (6/26/62, 8/16/62 and 8/10/63) but no attempt was made to develop him as an informant during any of these interviews.

ACTION:

1. Attached is a letter to Tonahill advising him this is a matter within the discretion of the President's Commission.

2. Attached are letters to Rankin and the Attorney General enclosing a copy of the letter to Tonahill and advising them that Oswald was not a Bureau informant and that we have not conducted investigation for the prosecution or furnished information to local authorities except the results of examinations of physical evidence submitted by the Dallas Police Department.

3. No letter to the Chief Justice or the White House is considered necessary since we are writing Rankin who is Chief Counsel for the President's Commission of which the Chief Justice is Chairman.

The information set forth below is being furnished to the Bureau and Dallas purely for information purposes as other agencies may make inquiries regarding JONAS ZEMAITIS, especially since he has a propensity to call or visit government offices in Washington, D.C.

JONAS ZEMAITIS, aka., Valdo Ragas, Waldo Ragas, Valdo Ragash, Jonas Z, 11389 Deborah Drive, Parma, Ohio, appeared at the Cleveland office on January 8, 1964, and advised that on January 4, 1964, he had made contact with the Anti-Communist Lithuanian Underground and was informed by his contact that the Soviet Union had decided to have Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD killed because she is being guarded so closely they cannot make contact with her and are afraid she will "break down eventually". ZEMAITIS stated he has no additional information in this regard.

ZEMAITIS then stated he had further learned that JACQUELINE KENNEDY is a Communist and has been since she first became a journalist. He said his information is that the President was shot with her permission. He went on to say that on the evening OSWALD was killed in Dallas, Texas, Mrs. KENNEDY had "made contact" with someone in the Soviet Espionage System. ZEMAITIS could not furnish any additional information regarding this contact and could not explain how it could happen without other Government officials knowing of the contact. President to be assassinated just prior to the time she lost her baby and the shock of having to do this was the cause of her losing the baby. He pointed out his underground contact did not furnish him this information and it is only his theory as to what happened.

ZEMAITIS refused to furnish any information regarding the circumstances under which he made his underground contact and merely stated, "I am giving you the information, you can believe it or not". He refused to state whether the contact was made in Cleveland or elsewhere. When questioned as to why he had obtained this information on January 4, 1964, and had waited until January 8, 1964, to furnish it to this office, he stated he had contemplated taking the information to Washington personally, but circumstances dictated otherwise, and he could not make the trip.

ZEMAITIS instructed the interviewing Agent not to discuss this information with any of his superiors in the Cleveland FBI office and wanted it passed only to "Mr. BROWN" who is Mr. HOOVER's assistant in Washington, D. C. He said he had been interviewed by Mr. BROWN previously in Washington.

The Bureau will recall that ZEMAITIS was interviewed on November 24, 1963, after he had called the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington indicating he had information concerning the assassination of the President. It will also be recalled ZEMAITIS has been in contact with numerous Government officials in Washington, including a former Secretary of Defense and on December 6, 1963, he informed the Cleveland office he had been in telephonic contact with GLENN BENNETT at the White House and had been instructed by BENNETT to furnish his information to the Cleveland FBI office. He explained on this occasion his information pertained to matters relating to the defense of the United States Government. ZEMAITIS is in frequent contact with the Cleveland office primarily concerning matters relating to the defense interests of the United States, but it is not at all unusual for him to make telephone calls to high Government officials and on several instances has traveled to Washington, D. C.,to make personal contact with these officials.

The general demeanor and appearance of ZEMAITIS, upon first meeting him, might lead one to believe he is on the level and completely rational. However, when discussing matters relating to subversion or the defense of the United States Government, he makes statements which lack foundation and which are figments of his wild imagination. During his conversation, he makes gestures typical of a prize fighter, and his facial features are indicative of his bouts in the boxing ring.

UACB, ZEMAITIS will be tactfully discouraged from contacting the Cleveland Division, but in the event he does furnish what appears to be wild and unbelievable stories (such as Astronaut JOHN GLENN being HITLER in disguise), the information will not be furnished to the Bureau or otherwise disseminated.

Stock, Cleveland Division should ordinarily have limited background data on Zemaitis [illegible]

Re Houston airtel, 1/8/64, and Bureau airtel, 1/3/64, which instructed that the possibility that OSWALD may have traveled by air on a single-trip ticket from New Orleans to Houston on 9/25/63 be explored.

WILLIAM T. Mr. COUGEVAN advised that reservation cards are maintained by his office for a period of 90 days, after which they are destroyed. He stated that all airline tickets would bear the name of the passenger, and that these tickets are filed in the Revenue Accounting Office, National Airlines Incorporated, Post Office Box 2055, Miami, Florida 33159.

JAMES L. MC MURRAIN, Reservations Manager, Delta Airlines, 919 Gravier Street, advised on 1/14/64 that the following flights departed from New Orleans at the times indicated for Houston, Texas, on 9/25/63, with the designated number of passengers boarding the flight from New Orleans for Houston:

Mr. MC MURRAIN stated that reservation cards are destroyed after 60 days. The airline tickets, which bear the names of the passengers, are maintained at the Accounting Department, Delta Airlines, Atlanta Airport, Atlanta, Georgia.

BILL JOHNSON, Airport Manager, Eastern Airlines, Moisant International Airport, New Orleans, advised on 1/14/64 that the following Eastern Airline flights left New Orleans at the times indicated with the designated number of passengers boarding the flight at New Orleans for Houston. The total list of passengers includes a number of "walk on's" for which no reservation was required; however, the name of the passenger does appear on the ticket used.

Mr. JOHNSON advised that the tickets for passengers riding the above flights are on file at the Accounting Department, Eastern Airlines, Miami, Florida. He stated that these tickets are forwarded to the Accounting Office on the day following the flight.

For information of Atlanta and Miami, the Bureau has instructed that the possibility be explored that OSWALD traveled from New Orleans to Houston on 9/25/63 by air. OSWALD was last seen in New Orleans on the evening of 9/24/63. However, he cashed a welfare check at New Orleans, which he received by mail and which could not have been obtained by him prior to 5:00 AM on 9/25/63. Mrs. ESTELLE TWIFORD, 7018 Schley, Houston, Texas, stated that she received a telephone call from OSWALD during the evening hours, probably between 7:00 PM and 9:00 PM, on an unrecalled date. Investigation has produced two witnesses who observed OSWALD board a Continental Trailways Bus at Houston, Texas, at approximately 2:00 AM, 9/26/63, enroute to Laredo, Texas.

Reurairtel 1-9-64 and enclosed letterhead memorandum same date captioned "Assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 11-22-63, Dallas, Texas, Miscellaneous - Information Concerning" relating to alleged observations of Richard Randolph Carr.

The purpose of submitting anletterhead memorandum in this matter is not clear. It would appear this inquiry should be handled as a regular investigative development under the above caption and not under the caption of referenced airtel.

Prior to considering this matter resolved, the allegations made by Carr should be specifically repudiated. It is noted one of the original allegations is that Carr stated Oswald did not assassinate the President and that he and four or five other steel workers witnessed the assassination and presumably they could substantiate Carr's statements.

Carr should be recontacted and an appropriate signed statement taken regarding his observations. He should be confronted with the inconsistencies noted, particularly those based on personal observation by Dallas Agents. You should also be alert to any violation of Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 1001.

When the investigation is completed, it should be appropriately reported bearing in mind the Presidential Commission is being furnished copies of investigative reports. A letterhead memorandum need not be submitted.

NOTE:

Dallas received and reported in LHM form information Carr had initially stated Oswald did not assassinate President Kennedy inasmuch as he, Carr, was seeking work at a building under construction and Carr and four or five others observed the assassin. This individual was also alleged to be seen getting in a car driven by a Negro. During interview on 1-4-64, Carr denied making any statements to the effect he had seen the assassin fire a gun from the building or that he observed anyone getting into a car. However, he did state that while in a new building under construction, he observed an individual looking out of a top floor window of the Texas School Book Depository Building and shortly thereafter he believed he saw the same individual in the street near the building. Dallas Agents made observations from the building where Carr allegedly saw this activity and state impossible to observe area where assassin believed to have shot Kennedy.

Dallas being instructed to resolve all discrepancies and inconsistencies and promptly report same. It is possible a violation for furnishing false information to a Federal officer could be developed. At the present time there does not appear to be any need or justification for disseminating this information.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, NOVEMBER 22, 1963, DALLAS, TEXAS

On December 27, 1963, Mary Sue Brown, 6106 Singing Hills Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, stated that about three weeks ago, an individual named Richard Carr who resides on North Bishop Street, Dallas, Texas, had told her that Lee Harvey Oswald had not assassinated President Kennedy. Carr is a friend of Mrs. Brown's sister, Elsie Johnson, who resides at the same address as Mrs. Brown. A friend named Holly Jordon also heard this individual make this statement concerning the fact that Oswald did not assassinate the President.

According to Mrs. Brown, Carr was making an application for a job at a building which was under construction near the court house at the time President Kennedy was assassinated. Carr told her and the others that he was about five hundred yards from the place where the President was assassinated and that he had seen the individual who fired the gun from the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building, and that it was not Oswald. He said this individual wore a hat, horn-rimmed glasses, and was of athletic build. Carr told them that there was a Negro man with a gray-colored car waiting for this individual after the assassination, and that the man who did the shooting got into this gray car. Carr told Mrs. Brown and others that there were four or five other steel workers on the building under construction near the place where the President was assassinated, and that they likewise saw the assassination.

Mrs. Brown stated Carr was sober at the time he made the statement and although she did not know him well, he did not seem to be a braggart or to be joking when he told the aforementioned story.

Re: Assassination of President Kennedy January 9, 1964

On January 4, 1964, Richard Randolph Carr, 738 North Bishop, advised that on the morning of November 22, 1963 he had taken his wife and child to the Parkland Hospital, arriving there at approximately 11:30 A.M. He advised he left his wife and child at the Parkland Hospital and proceeded to the downtown area of Dallas, Texas, attempting to locate employment. He advised that shortly after noon on November 22, 1963, he was attempting to locate the foreman in charge of the steel construction at the new court house presently under construction, located at the corner of Houston and Commerce Streets, Dallas, Texas.

Carr advised he made inquiry with one of the employees and they informed him the foreman was on the ninth floor, at which time he, Carr, started walking up the steel stairway of the building under construction and when he reached approximately the sixth floor, he looked toward the TSBD building and observed an individual described as a white male, wearing a hat, a tan sportcoat, and wearing glasses, looking out of the top floor window. A few minutes later, he heard sounds which he believed to be backfire of an automobile and shortly thereafter heard a second sound, and, looking toward the triple underpass, he saw several individuals falling to the ground. Carr advised he did not look at the TSBD again and immediately proceeded down the staircase with intentions of going over to the triple underpass to see what had happened. Upon reaching the ground, Carr advised he proceeded to the Houston Avenue and Commerce Street intersection, at which time he observed an individual who he believed to be the person he saw earlier on the top floor of the Texas School Book Depository building.

Carr advised he did not walk over to where he had earlier seen people falling to the ground, mainly due to the large crowd. He stated he then went to his personal residence, 738 North Bishop, and did not know of the Presidential assassination until he reached home at approximately 2:00 P.M.

Carr advised that from his location on the steel structure of the new court house building, it would have been impossible for him to observe the lower floors and entrance of the TSBD, and that from his position he could only see the top floor and roof of the TSBD and the ground area surrounding the triple underpass.

Carr denied making any statements to the effect he had observed an individual fire a gun from the TSBD on November 22, 1963 and he also denied observing anyone leaving the entrance of the TSBD and getting into a gray car.

On January 4, 1964, personal observation by Bureau Agents of the TSBD from the steel structure of the new court house presently under construction at the corner of Houston and Commerce Streets, Dallas, Texas, reflected that it was impossible to observe the southeast corner window of the TSBD from where the assassin fired at President Kennedy. From the ninth floor of the steel structure, the seventh floor and roof could be observed, however, the window from which the assassin fired at the President could not be observed. The lower portion of the TSBD could not be seen, however, the area near the triple underpass between Elm and Main Streets, could be observed.

This would then indicate that an individual reportedly on the sixth floor of the steel structure could not have possibly observed the assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY-RUSSIA

The following is furnished in connection with your inquiry regarding the accuracy of an article appearing in the "St. Louis Post-Dispatch." This article related to the part played by one Johnny C. Brewer in the apprehension of Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

This Bureau has not investigated the slaying of Dallas Police Officer J. D. Tippit as this was strictly a local crime. Our investigation only touched on those aspects of the crime which related directly to our interest in Oswald and the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

For your information, the Dallas Police Department, as well as the United States Secret Service to some extent, conducted inquiry into this crime. It would appear presumptuous of us to verify the accuracy of investigation conducted by other agencies; therefore, it is suggested your request be directed to the United States Secret Service. In order to aid the United States Secret Service in complying they should be referred to the following communications prepared by them:

Report of Special Agents Roger C. Warner and Elmer W. Moore at Dallas dated December 1, 1963

Preliminary special Dallas report number two dated December 5, 1963.

I hope the above has been of some assistance and I am returning the enclosed documents furnished to Assistant Director Courtney A. Evans with your request.

NOTE:

On 1-13-63, Oehmann received a referral dated 1-9-64, from Lawrence F. O'Brien, Special Assistant to the President. This referral included a letter from Senator Albert Gore of Tennessee to the President, which enclosed an article from the "St. Louis Post-Dispatch" relating to the part played by Brewer in the apprehension of Oswald after the murder of Officer Tippit. Senator Gore suggested the President might want to send a congratulatory letter to Brewer. O'Brien requested Oehmann's opinion as to the appropriateness as to a congratulatory letter and these documents were in turn referred to Mr. Evans for the FBI to determine the accuracy of the newspaper account.

As you are aware we have not investigated the murder of Officer Tippit which is strictly within the jurisdiction of local authorities. We did look into any aspects directly connected with our interest in Oswald and the President's assassination. Although an Agent was present when Oswald was apprehended he was not aware of the events WHICH transpired immediately preceding the arrest. This phase was handled by the Dallas Police Department and to some extent by the Secret Service as indicated in the above letter.

For your information we are in possession of the aforementioned U. S. Secret Service reports in this matter and based on information reported therein it would appear the newspaper item relating to the part played by Brewer in the apprehension of Oswald is substantially correct; however, since this information was developed by local Dallas authorities and the Secret Service it is not felt we should be placed in a position of certifying investigation conducted by other agencies; therefore, it is recommended Mr. Oehmann be referred to the U. S. Secret Service for an answer to his inquiry.

Detailed Story of How Oswald Was Seized in Kennedy Killing

Suspect Was Sighted, Followed to Theater by Suburban Store Manager

By TOM YARBROUGH
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 27—The first fully detailed account of the capture of Lee Harvey Oswald after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy last Friday was obtained by the Post-Dispatch today.

The principal narrator is Johnny C. Brewer, 22 years old, manager of a shoe store seven doors from the Texas Theater, where Oswald was caught in suburban Oak Cliff that afternoon.

Brewer was having a quiet time in his Hardy shoe store at 213 West Jefferson avenue when he heard the news, on a small radio, that the President had been shot. He was dismayed, but it had no direct and particular bearing on Oak Cliff until he heard a further bulletin a short time later.

Patrolman J. D. Tippit had been shot to death just about six blocks from Hardy's shoe store when he tried to question a man suspected of shooting the President. This made Brewer more watchful.

A description of Oswald was broadcast at about that time, based on his weight, build and the color of his hair. The broadcast followed Oswald's disappearance in a muster of employes at the Texas Book Depository Building. Oswald had been stopped by a policeman in the building immediately after the shooting, but a manager said that Oswald was employed there and so he was allowed to go on.

The roll of employes was called shortly, and he had fled. That resulted in a broadcast of his description, which was noted regardless of the clothes he was wearing. In fact he had gone home and changed clothing.

At the Hardy shoe store, Brewer stood at the hosiery counter in front, listening to the radio, with urgent details about the shooting of patrolman Tippit just six blocks away.

Sees Oswald at Window

A young man with his hair tousled, breathing hard, as though he had been running, and with his shirttail out, walked up to a dressed show window of the [illegible] and gazed at some shoes. Police sirens could be heard approaching in Jefferson avenue. The young man looked over his right shoulder, out toward the street, and the police cars reversed their course, making a U turn at the intersection and heading back the other way without passing Hardy's store.

So the man was not observed by the police, but he was observed by Brewer.

The young man hurried on down the street, toward the Texas movie theater on the same side of Jefferson, past a vacant store building, another shoe store, a small restaurant, a third shoe store and finally two furniture stores.

Darts Into Movie

Brewer followed him. He saw him dart into the movie, where "War Is Hell" was being shown. Brewer hurried to the box office and asked Mrs. Julie Postal whether she had just sold a ticket to a man wearing a brown shirt.

She had not, but she had just heard on her small transistor radio a moment before that President Kennedy had died of his wounds. She did not recall having seen anyone go past.

At that suburban theater, however, it was not uncommon to see adults go past the box office without purchasing tickets because many parents go in that way to get their children and bring them out.

Brewer went on in. He asked Warren (Butch) Burroughs, behind the popcorn machine, whose job it also was to take the tickets, whether he had seen a man in a Brown shirt go in.

Burroughs had not, but at that moment he had been busy around the corner from where patrons went by and usually handed him their tickets. He was preoccupied with checking in some new stock just received from the concession stand.

Search Is Begun

Brewer asked Burroughs to go with him in search of the seat [illegible] for the suspicious character the stage.

Brewer and Burroughs first checked those exits and found them secure. They were the bar-opening type, which would have been left open by anyone leaving in haste.

Therefore the suspect should still be in there, although it was difficult to see anything because the "War Is Hell" picture had lots of night scenes, very dark, and one was showing at this time.

Down near the front and on the left-hand side, a seat was heard to pop up. The theater has the kind of seats that spring up with a click when the occupant rises rapidly.

Police Called

Brewer and Burroughs could hear someone moving around. They went to the box office and told Mrs. Postal to call the police.

Police were there in three or four minutes, in force, for they were already in the neighborhood looking for the person who had shot Tippit on Tenth street a short distance east of Patton street.

Tippit had stopped his police car and attempted to question a man because he fit the broadcast description of the man so desperately sought. This was near Beckley street where Oswald had a room.

A policeman burst in through the open exit down by the stage of the theater and grabbed Brewer and searched him, demanding to know who he was. Brewer was able to quiet the officer and

Lights Turned On

[illegible] manager Callahan then stopped the picture and turned on the house lights. The few customers did not know that President Kennedy had been shot.

When the lights came on, Brewer saw the man who turned out to be Oswald rise from a seat in the third row from the back of the theater, five seats in from the right-hand aisle, and start to leave. He paused, returned to his seat and sat down again.

"The police asked if the man sought was out there," Brewer related, "and I said he was and they said, 'Point him out.'

"I went on the stage and pointed to him and he stood up and Patrolman M. N. McDonald rushed him. He hit McDonald in the head with his fist and cut his head, and he pulled his gun.

"Somehow McDonald and three or four other policemen rushed him at the same time and they started fighting him and took the gun away from him."

Tries to Fire Revolver

This was after Oswald had tried to fire his revolver at McDonald's head, and the weapon misfired. McDonald said later, "I'm sure glad that shell didn't fire."

The reason it did not fire has not been ascertained. One version, by McDonald, is that the primer, which detonates the power in a cartidge, was faulty. Another, unconfirmed by anyone, is that one of the officers in the scuffle blocked the firing mechanism with the Y of his hand between the thumb and forefinger.

"They handcuffed him," Brewer continued. "Oswald had said something like, 'It's all over now,' when McDonald and the others closed in on him, and when they led him out he said 'I'm not resisting arrest,' and he yelled it again. He had resisted, and that's why you saw that cut on his left eye in the newspaper pictures. That was from the scuffling over the seats."

Brewer continued his account: "They took him out the front. I tried to go out but the door was guarded by policemen. They wouldn't let me out and I had to give my name and everything to get out."

McDonald, in his account of the incident, put this finale on it: "As we took Oswald out of the show he calmed down."

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY
NOVEMBER 22, 1963
DALLAS, TEXAS

Lee Oswald

Enclosed for receiving offices are copies of a letter from the Presidential Commission dated 1-15-64 and attached letter and envelope from G. P. Wyllie of 863 Earle Avenue, Northwest, Cleveland, Tennessee. These communications are self-explanatory.

For the assistance of Philadelphia, Army Headquarters files disclose that one Major John B. Wyllie, ASN 0946715, is assigned to Headquarters, Delaware-Eastern Pennsylvania Command at Wilmington, Delaware. He is reportedly stationed at the U. S. Army Reserve Center, 12th and Bern Streets, Reading, Pennsylvania. There is no home address indicated for Major Wyllie. It is not known if this individual is identical with the Major Wyllie referred to by G. P. Wyllie.

Knoxville and Philadelphia are instructed to immediately locate and interview the indicated individuals in accordance with the request of the Presidential Commission. Philadelphia must, of course, insure that Major Wyllie is the same individual referred to by G. P. Wyllie. Full details concerning the allegations must be obtained and any additional investigation necessary to resolve this matter must be immediately handled by teletype. Results of investigation should be furnished to the Bureau in a form suitable for dissemination without any delay.

Bureau records contain no information identifiable with Major John S. Wyllie; however, the following information is contained on G. P. Wyllie (Bureau file 63-7705), who is identical with the individual referred to above. The Bureau has received several prior communications from this individual starting in February, 1959, and the latest being in May of 1963. All of these communications have been highly critical of the Director and the FBI and extremely insulting in tone. You are, therefore, cautioned to be extremely circumspect in your contact with this individual.

NOTE:

In the letter to the Presidential Commission, G. P. Wyllie suggests that there is some connection between Jack Ruby and Lee Oswald occasioned by gambling operators. His letter does not contain much logic; however, he indicates his brother, Major John Wyllie, had told him that Oswald was after Governor Connally of Texas and he indicates his brother, while stationed at Fort Hood, Texas, probably learned of gambling operations and furnished this information to General Walker. Mr. Rankin desired that the Bureau conduct interviews to determine if there is any evidence to support the claims made by Wyllie, particularly the assertion that Oswald was intending to kill Governor Connally rather than the late President.

Bureau file 63-7705 on G. P. Wyllie shows that he initially wrote to the Bureau in February, 1959, and inquired if the Director was related to former President Herbert Hoover. The letter implied that if they were related the Director received favoritism because of the relationship. This communication was answered over Miss Gandy's signature and he was advised there was no relationship. In a letter dated 6-18-62, Wyllie commented that the Director had been head of the FBI 1½ years longer than the age of the Attorney General, Robert Kennedy, and stated "Too damn long in my opinion."

He stated he felt that people no longer think of the Director in regard to the FBI, but rather think of the FBI in regard to the Director and felt there should be a 16-year-limit imposed on the tenure in office by Federal executive officials. This letter was not acknowledged. He last wrote on 5-3-63 and wanted to know the Director's resident address so he could write as a private citizen. He desired to know the Director's views regarding a national police agency among other subjects. This was not acknowledged.

It is quite apparent this individual is a trouble-maker and rabble rouser and may even be suffering from a mental illness; however, in view of the request from the Presidential Commission we have no alternative but to interview him.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Re: Request for Bureau Interviews of
G. P. Wyllie and Major John S. Wyllie

Enclosed you will find a copy of a letter sent to the Commission by G. P. Wyllie. As you will note, the writer of the enclosed letter makes several assertions about Oswald's motive in shooting at the late President Kennedy's limousine and implies that there was a connection between Jack Ruby and Oswald's conduct.

I would appreciate the Bureau conducting interviews of the Wyllies to determine if there is any evidence to support the claims made in the enclosed letter, particularly the assertion that Oswald was intending to kill Governor Connally rather than the late President.

Thank you for your cooperation on this matter.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

Dear Sirs:

On Friday, 18 June 1954, Albert L. Patterson, Alabama Attorney General designate, was slain in Phenix City, Alabama.

Patterson was investigating illegal gambling operations in the southeast Alabama town which fattened on soldiers from nearby Fort Benning, Georgia

Governor Gordon Persons immediately declared martial law in Phenix City, ordering the state National Guard to control the corrupt city government.

The gamblers of Texas who were being investigated by Edwin A. Walker and Governor Connally knew that to openly and obviously murder John B. Connally would spell the doom of their booming enterprises, as had been the case in Phenix City a decade ago.

First they tried to kill Walker in order to scare Connally, and failed. Then they tried to kill Connally when he was with Kennedy and make it look like a mistake; the mistake happened in reverse.

Jack Ruby, the Dallas night club operator who shot and killed Lee Oswald, was an acquainted with a Cleveland, Tennessee gambler, the late(and unlamented)"Cue" Hooper. They had met in Chicago. My brother Major John S. Wyllie, who was stationed at Fort Hood, Texas in recent years, said while on leave last month that Oswald was after Connally. Major Wyllie helped guard President Kennedy in Central America in 1963.

Major Wyllie while stationed at Fort Hood probably learned of gambling operations behind fronts, like Ruby's night club, from rank-and-file soldiers and forwarded the information to officers like Major General Walker.

Ruby and for any additional returns that may have been filed by Jack Ruby's brother, Earl R. Ruby. (1960, 1961, and 1962 returns for Earl R. Ruby were previously furnished by IRS.) The request for these returns was originally made of Inspector Malley of the General Investigative Division by Lee Rankin, Counsel for the President's Commission.

On January 15, 1964, Mr. William Kolar, Director of the Inspection Service of IRS, furnished Earl R. Ruby's tax returns for the years 1956, 1957, 1959 and 1960. According to Mr. Kolar, the 1955 return for Earl R. Ruby has been destroyed and the 1958 return for Earl R. Ruby has not as yet been located. SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Re memorandum dated 12/5/63 to Mr. Sullivan from Mr. Branigan advising a letter had been intercepted by Secret Service. This letter was addressed to Lee Harvey Oswald, "Mail Office," Dallas, Texas, postmarked LaHabana, Cuba, November 28. The letter is dated LaHabana, November 10, 1963. The letter and envelope were received in the Laboratory 12/9/63 with Dallas letter 12/5/63. This letter, written in Spanish, contains the typewritten signature "Pedro Charles" and the handwritten signature "Pedro." It is conspiratorial in content and implies a prior conspiracy between the writer and Lee Harvey Oswald to assassinate the President.

A second letter was received in the Laboratory on 12/9/63, along with a group of letters for translation, from the Office of the Attorney General. This second letter was addressed to the Attorney General in Washington, D. C., was dated at Havana 11/27/63, and postmarked on the reverse side 11/28/63, 9:30 A.M. This letter was written in Spanish, bore the handwritten signature "Mario del Rosario Molina," accused Lee Harvey Oswald as the man who assassinated the President, denounces Pedro Charles as an agent of Fidel Castro and alleges payment of $7000 to Oswald to assassinate the President.

It was concluded that both letters and envelopes were prepared on the same typewriter. This typewriter is equipped with Remington Number 10 large pica type, first used on standard correspondence machines in October 1935. This typewriting was not identified in the Anonymous Letter File or in the National Security File.

It was concluded that both of the envelopes came from the same source. These envelopes have a yellowish tinge indicating they are from an old batch. It was noted that the postmark on the reverse sides of both envelopes is the same and that the "9:30 A.M." portion of the postmark is upside down on both envelopes. Furthermore, both envelopes have an illegible postmark on the faces of the envelopes, of which only the "1963" is legible. Furthermore, the same kind of three-cent stamp was found on both envelopes.

The second letter was typed on a sheet of bond paper which is .0042 inches thick, whereas the first letter is on a thin manifold paper which is .0020 inches thick. Both sheets of paper are similar in length and width. It was concluded that both envelopes had been previously opened and resealed.

It was found that the same type pen and ink was used to sign both letters.

No indented handwriting or microdots were found on the letters and envelopes.

No latent prints of value were found on the envelopes and letters.

The paper comprising the letters and envelopes did not contain any watermarks or other significant characteristics which would indicate the source of the paper.

Photographs of both envelopes and letters and copies of the translations from the Spanish are attached. The original evidence is temporarily retained in the Laboratory.

A Laboratory report will be promptly forwarded to the Dallas Office.

ACTION: The above information has been discussed telephonically with Domestic Intelligence Division and is set forth for inclusion in any over-all evaluation of these letters.

ADDENDUM:

The handwritten signatures are extremely limited and are not comparable; therefore, it is not possible to determine whether they were written by the same person.

TRANSLATION FROM SPANISH

The airmail envelope is addressed to Mr. Robert Kennedy, Secretary of Justice (sic), Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., U. S. A. It bears the postmark of Havana, Cuba, dated November 28, 1963, 9:30 A.M.

Havana, November 27, 1963

Mr. Robert Kennedy
Secretary of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Kennedy:

This letter is to advise you that former Marine Lee Harvey Oswald was the man who assassinated your brother by the express order of a gentleman named Pedro Charles, residing in Miami, Florida. This gentleman had an interview with him in a Miami night club about two months ago. This Mr. Pedro Charles is an agent of Fidel Castro in the United States and uses other names. Young Lee Harvey Oswald received an advance payment of $5,000 which he spent in various night clubs, after which Pedro Charles advanced him another $2,000. The understanding was for Lee Harvey Oswald to go first to Houston and then to Dallas where President John F. Kennedy was scheduled to pay a visit. In fact, information was available at the Chamber of Commerce of Dallas that the President would visit Texas. Pedro Charles reached an understanding with Lee Harvey Oswald, an expert marksman, for the President to be killed and for an international scandal to be unleashed so that all the blame would fall on the racists and the extreme-rightists of the State of Texas. This is the truth about the assassination of President Kennedy. I was acquainted with these details, but I never gave them any credence. I learned of them through the words of a lady who lives with Pedro Charles, who is the man who uses several false names and passports to enter and leave the United States of America, Mexico and Cuba. The lady in question, whose name I cannot disclose, lives here in Havana and is very much affected by the lamentable happenings. She never thought of what might happen because they were in the habit of kidding about everything, but this joke was reality. If the accused Lee Harvey Oswald had not been assassinated at the hands of a gambler, there is no doubt that the accused would have told the whole truth as time went on, because the first thing that Pedro Charles told Oswald was for him to be wide awake in doing the job and, if possible, to erase all clues and not "get caught." In addition, he was not to carry anything compromising in his pockets; anything that might prevent him from achieving the objective of his mission.

We sincerely regret the loss of President Kennedy. He was a man of peace and I, myself, feel mortified and ashamed of being a communist and of knowing a little about this matter from my conversation with this lady who knew all the details and was not brave enough to report this monstrous crime. Right now, as I am writing this report, I am preparing my effects in order to embark for Venezuela clandestinely. In fact, if the political police of Castro should arrest me I would face the firing squad. Some day the lady in question will make very interesting statements about this crime; as soon as she recuperates from her nervous state and is able to point out the mastermind behind the assassination of President Kennedy who is none other than Pedro Charles, agent of the State Security Department of Cuba and a fanatic of Fidel Castro.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Mario del Rosario Molina

"Friend Lee:

One time more I write you since the last time that we saw each other in Miami. The Spanish books that you took from the hotel and I have hardly anything. I told you of the man who was thinking of visiting here shortly and you ought to close the business as soon as possible, like I told you before in Miami, I recommend much prudence and do not be foolish with the money I gave you. So I hope you will not defraud me and that our dreams will be realized. After the affair I am going to recommend much to the chief that he certainly will have much interest in knowing you as they need men like you. I told him you could put out a candle at 50 meters and he did not want to believe me, but I made him believe it because I saw you with my own eyes and the chief was astonished. Good Lee, practice your Spanish for when you come to Habana for Habana is the land of the free, of the beautiful women and the rich Habana tobacco. Don't forget to do all I told you to the very letter and leave nothing that could lead to your trail and when you receive my letters destroy them as always. After the affair I will send you the money and we will see each other in Miami where always.

Señor Kennedy:

La presente carta es para hacerle saber que el ex-infante de Marina Lee Harvey Oswald fué la persona que asesinó a su hermano por orden expresa de un señor llamado Pedro Charles residente en Miami,Fla, el cual sostuvo con él una entrevista en un Club nocturno en Miami hace cuestión de dos meses atrás. Este señor Pedro Charles es un agente de Fide Castro en los Estados Unidos y usa otros nombres. El joven Le Harvey Oswald recibió en pago adelantado la cantidad de Cinco mil dólares lo que Lee gastó en distintos club nocturnos y des pués el tal Pedro Charles le adelantó dos mil dólares más. El trato fué de que Lee Harvey Oswald se trasladase a Houston pri mero y después a Dallas donde el Presidente John F. Kennedy ha ría una visita mas adelante, pués habian antecedentes en la Cá de Comercio de Dallas de que el Presidente visitaria Texas, y tal Pedro Charles contrató a Lee Harvey Oswald, experto tirado certero para ultimar al Presidente y desencadenar entonces un candalo internacional y que todas las culpas cayeran sobre los cistas y los ultra-derechistas de dicho estado de Tejas. Esta la verdad sobre el asesinato del Presidente Kennedy, pués yo c cía de estos detalles que nunca llegué a creer por boca de un dama que convive con el tal Pedro Charles el que usa otros nom así como pasaportes falsos para entrar o salir de Estados Unid Méjico y Cuba. LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

On December 5, 1963, our Dallas, Texas, Office learned that the Secret Service had intercepted a letter postmarked November 28, 1963, at Havana, Cuba, addressed to Oswald, c/o Mail Office, Dallas, Texas. This letter, which was dated November 10, 1963, was signed by Pedro Charles (Peter) and was written in such a manner as to indicate that Oswald had been paid by Charles to carry out an unidentified mission which involved accurate shooting.

This Bureau is also in receipt of a letter postmarked November 28, 1963, at Havana addressed to "Mr. Robert Kennedy, Secretary of Justice, Washington, D.C.," and written by one Mario del Rosario Molina of Havana, Cuba. This letter was dated November 27, 1963, and alleged that Lee Harvey Oswald assassinated President Kennedy at the direction of Pedro Charles, a Cuban agent who has traveled in the United States under various aliases. According to the writer, Oswald met with Charles in Miami, Florida, several months ago and was paid $7,000 by Charles.

An examination of both of the above-described letters has shown that they were prepared on the same typewriter. In addition, both envelopes appear to have come from the same batch, both postmarks contain similar irregularities, and the same type pen and ink was used to sign both letters.

FBI

Inquiries by our Miami Office have failed to develop any information concerning either Pedro or Peter Charles and Mario del Rosario Molina.

Based on the circumstances, including the postmark on the first letter (six days after President Kennedy's assassination) and the fact that both letters were prepared on the same typewriter, it appears this matter represents an attempted hoax.

NOTE: The furnishing of these additional reports and the memo is necessary to round out investigation which has been summarized in reports sent to the Commission at the Seat of Government.

Michael and Ruth Paine have been described as probably the closest friends of the Oswalds in the Dallas area. Separate investigations have been instituted on the Paines and we have learned that the Commission has expressed considerable interest in the relationship between the Paines and the Oswalds.

The reports captioned "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy" are being forwarded since this caption was used to report some investigation or allegations which have subsequently been reported under the Oswald caption. There is no data in the reports being transmitted separately with this letter which would require the preparation of any further Supplemental Report at the Bureau.

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY,

U. S. Attorney Barefoot Sanders and his assistant E. H. Timmons, Jr., Dallas, conferred with Special Agents 1/14/64 concerning demands of prosecution and defense for production of FBI reports and the testimony of Special Agents at Ruby's bond hearing January 20, 1964.

Mr. Sanders advised that he had talked with Defense Attorney Tonahill on 12/24/63 relative to the testimony which would be expected of the Agents at the bond hearing. Tonahill said he anticipated questions of the defense would be restricted to information supplied by Ruby to Agents at interviews on 11/24/63 at Dallas Police Department and on 12/21/63 at the Dallas County Jail. Mr. Sanders furnished this information to the Department.

Mr. Sanders also said he had advised the Department of press reports that the defense was now demanding all FBI reports and of a press interview of Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr to the effect that Carr had been assured of getting files of the FBI and the President's Commission for delivery to District Attorney Wade at Dallas.

U. S. Attorney Sanders also advised that on 1/14/64 he had talked to Mr. [illegible], who is assistant to Assistant Attorney General Miller, and advised Foley he feels if FBI records are furnished to the prosecution, both the Department and the FBI would be in an embarrassing position to refuse to furnish same to the defense. Mr. Foley advised that he would advise Sanders of the Department's position and instructions as to the testimony of the Agents at the bond hearing and regarding furnishing of FBI records to District Attorney Wade and to the defense.

RE: JACK L. RUBY, aka

In the above request has been received both from the President's Commission in this matter for all FBI reports and records concerning both Ruby and Oswald. The requests have been discussed with Assistant Attorney General (AAG) Miller of the Department and the handling of the President's Commission's requests. The matter under consideration as to specifically what records will be furnished to them. District Attorney Wade and Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr have been advised that the matter of furnishing records is under consideration by the Department and the President's Commission.

The Dallas Office advised that two agents testify at Ruby's bond hearing on 1/20/64 as to statements made by Ruby in their presence immediately subsequent to his arrest on 11/24/63 and as to their interview with Ruby on 12/21/63 was previously discussed with AAG Miller on 1/7/64 and he was advised that the Bureau would defer to his views as to whether or not the agents would be allowed to testify. Miller said that he desired the agents to testify and that he would insure that the U. S. Attorney or one of his representatives was present to protect the Government interest. Dallas was instructed on 1/9/64 that the agents who interviewed Ruby should testify at the bond hearing with the U. S. Attorney present and that the testimony should be limited to the facts surrounding the interview of Ruby. Dallas has requested instructions as to whether or not they should testify only to the fact that they interviewed Ruby or as to information furnished to them by Ruby.

Dallas stated that unless advised to the contrary, they will appear for testimony without notes or interview reports regarding their interviews with Ruby. As suggested by U. S. Attorney Vinson, Dallas did prepare interview reports regarding their interviews with Ruby and in a demand is made by the defense the Agents would be obligated under the Jencks Law to produce these interview reports. Dallas also has retained possession of the Agents' notes made at the time of the interviews.

This question was discussed by Mr. Mohr and Mr. Bishop with AAG Miller on 1/20/64, who stated that when the Agents were called to testify that it was [illegible] be entirely appropriate that they refer to their notes or notes of interviews and produce them if requested. He told Mr. Bishop that U. S. Attorney [illegible] was present when the Agents testify he would instruct the Agents not to produce their notes of interviews and produce them if called upon by U. S. Attorney Vinson agreed that this would be proper.

They also asked to be advised as to whether or not, if questioned, they should furnish an opinion as to Ruby's mental or emotional state during the time of the interview.

ACTION:

1. Dallas has been instructed in accordance with the previous request of Mr. Miller on 1/3/64 to testify specifically as to the facts of the interviews with Ruby on 11/24/63, 11/25/63 and 12/21/63, statements made by Ruby in their presence and any information furnished by Ruby to the Agents. (It is noted that Agents actually interviewed Ruby on three occasions, 11/24/63, 11/25/63 and 12/21/63, rather than two as mentioned by Defense Attorney Tomahill on 11/24/63 and 12/21/63.)

2. Dallas has been informed of the discussion with Mr. Miller, of Mr. Miller's discussion with U. S. Attorney Barefoot Sanders. Dallas has been instructed that Agents should take interview report forms and notes with them when they testify and produce them if they are requested to do so.

3. Dallas has been instructed that the Agents must confine their testimony specifically to the facts of the interviews, statements made by Ruby in their presence and information furnished by Ruby to the Agents and that, under no circumstances, are they to furnish any opinion or conclusion as to Ruby's mental or emotional state at the time of their contacts with Ruby.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated December 13, 1963, enclosing a summary of the results of the investigations of several hoaxes and false reports which had arisen in connection with the Oswald case. The following information supplements the data previously furnished to you in this regard.

The FBI has been furnished four letters written from Cuba indicating or alleging that the assassination of President Kennedy was undertaken by Oswald under the direction of a Cuban agent, one Pedro Charles, who reportedly gave Oswald $7,000 for this mission. Specifically, these letters are as follows:

(1) A letter dated November 10, 1963, but postmarked November 28, 1963, at Havana, Cuba (six days after the assassination), signed by Pedro Charles and addressed to Oswald, c/o "Mail Office," Dallas, Texas. This letter was intercepted by the Secret Service and was referred to the FBI.

(2) A letter addressed to the Attorney General postmarked November 28, 1963, at Havana and signed by Mario del Rosario Molina. This letter was referred to the FBI by the Department of Justice.

(3) A letter postmarked December 3, 1963, at Havana, addressed to the Voice of America and signed by Miguel Galban Lopez. This communication was referred to us by the United States Information Agency.

(4) A letter postmarked December 3, 1963, at Havana signed by Miguel Galban Lopez and addressed to the "Editor of the Diario de New York," a Spanish-language newspaper published in New York City. This letter was forwarded to the FBI by an official of the newspaper.

One copy each of the above-described letters is enclosed herewith.

As noted above, the first letter received was purportedly written by Pedro Charles, was dated some two weeks prior to the President's assassination, and was designed to give the impression Charles was furnishing instructions to Oswald relative to the assassination. The other three letters purport to be from individuals who have knowledge that Charles conspired with Oswald to kill the President. However, examinations by the FBI Laboratory have shown that all of these communications were actually prepared on the same typewriter and that several of the envelopes used came from the same source. It is, therefore, clear that this represents some type of hoax, possibly on the part of some anti-Castro group seeking to discredit the Cuban Government.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

For your information, on January 4, 1964, I received a telegram from Attorney Clyde J. Watts of 219 Couch Drive, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, in which Mr. Watts stated as attorney for retired General Edwin A. Walker, he was requesting the FBI to officially confirm or deny news reports that Lee Harvey Oswald confessed to his wife that he attempted to murder Walker on April 10, 1963. He also desired the FBI to furnish a transcript of all evidence and information pertinent to the alleged attempt by Oswald so that appropriate action could be taken to protect the general.

Mr. Watts and Attorney A. V. Grant of St. Jo, Texas, initially contacted our Dallas Office on December 7, 1963, and indicated they were representing General Walker. Watts stated that aside from being Walker's legal representative he was also a very close personal friend. Watts was of the opinion that there had been an official leak somewhere concerning the disclosure that Marina Oswald had stated her husband was responsible for the attempt on General Walker's life. At this time, the attorneys were advised the FBI had made no such disclosure.

Watts stated he was not asking for information but asked that any information developed relating to Walker's safety be furnished to Walker or the Dallas Police Department. Watts was, of course, advised any such information received would be handled in the same manner as a threat against any individual in that the FBI would promptly advise not only the individual but appropriate local authorities.

Watts concluded by stating he was considering an interview with Marina Oswald as it might aid him in his efforts to protect Walker. He was told whatever decision he made in this matter was entirely up to him and we would not suggest or recommend any course of action.

Of possible interest, immediately following the attempted murder of Walker in April, 1963, our Dallas Office discussed the case with the Dallas Police Department and volunteered to forward the bullet recovered from Walker's home to the FBI Laboratory for examination; however, no such request was ever made. During the course of our current investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy and prior to the interview of Mrs. Oswald on December 3, 1963, wherein she indicated her husband may have been responsible for the shooting at Walker, the possibility that Oswald may have fired at Walker was considered. Our Dallas Office, therefore, on the weekend of November 30, 1963, requested the Dallas Police Department to make available the recovered bullet for examination by the Laboratory. On December 2, 1963, the bullet was forwarded to our Laboratory where it was examined. This examination revealed that the distorted and mutilated bullet had the same general characteristics of bullets from the rifle used by Oswald in the assassination of President Kennedy. However, it was not possible to definitely establish whether or not the recovered bullet was fired from Oswald's gun.

The files of the Dallas Police Department relating to the investigation of the Walker shooting disclose that General Walker reported that at approximately 9:00 p.m., on April 10, 1963, while sitting at his desk in his Dallas residence, a shot was fired above his head into his home. The only suspect developed by the Dallas Police Department in this matter was one William MacEwan Duff who had been employed in some capacity by General Walker or his staff. He was selected primarily because he was considered to be a "con man." After a polygraph examination was given to him by the Dallas Police Department and after they conducted other investigation, Duff was absolved by the Dallas Police Department of involvement in this crime.

Immigration and Naturalization Service records disclose that Duff was born on November 4, 1931, in Scotland and entered the United States in 1957. He has been characterized as a "con man" and "no good." So far in our investigation of the assassination, only one individual, a Dallas lunchroom proprietor, has linked Oswald with Duff in approximately April or May, 1963, as having frequented this lunchroom on one occasion. It should be pointed out that six other individuals who had intimate knowledgege of Duff were unable to connect Oswald with Duff. Further, our investigation discloses that during the above period Oswald is known to have been in Dallas, Texas, until April, 1963; however, from late April, 1963, to September, 1963, he was in New Orleans, Louisiana.

On January 8, 1964, Attorney Watts was personally contacted by an Agent from our Oklahoma City Office at which time his January 4, 1964, telegram to me was acknowledged. He was told the results of the FBI investigation into Oswald's activities have been furnished to the President's Commission and we are not in a position to divulge such information to him. It was again reiterated that should any information be received relative to the safety of General Walker it would be promptly furnished to the General and to appropriate law enforcement authorities.

Watts at this time indicated he might possibly communicate with the President's Commission in an effort to obtain the information requested from the FBI.

In addition, Watts advised that shortly after the attempt on General Walker's life he hired two private investigators to look into the incident and they developed one Bill Duff of Dallas as a suspect. Duff, according to Watts, had been employed in some capacity by Walker or his staff. The private investigators were unable to develop any information linking Duff with the Walker shooting and turned over the results of their investigation to the Dallas Police Department. Watts stated he was furnishing this information as a possible link between Duff and Oswald.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

We have been endeavoring to locate William MacEwan Duff, the suspect absolved by the Dallas Police Department, for interview. Information developed to date on this individual indicates he remained in Dallas, Texas, until October, 1963, when he was last reported to be en route to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, by bus.

We will continue our efforts to locate Duff, an alien, for interview, and when this is accomplished you will be advised.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis: Reinterviews of Mr. and Mrs. HORACE TWIFORD, Houston, Texas, indicate OSWALD believed to have telephoned TWIFORD residence between 7 and 9 PM prior to 9/26/63. Ticket agents at Continental Trailways bus terminal, Houston, Texas, could not recall selling ticket to OSWALD. Records of this company indicate only one ticket sold between 9/24/63 and 9/26/63 for travel between Houston and Laredo. HENRY OTIS CHENYWORTH, Jasper, Texas, denied making any statement that he had any information regarding assassination of President KENNEDY. CHENYWORTH states there is "remote possibility" he made statement he would learn who assassinated the President, but if so, such statement was made "in jest." CHENYWORTH stated did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never engaged in shooting practice in area of Dallas or Grand Prairie, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to develop specific information concerning the time and date that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was in Houston, Texas, during his reported travel from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Laredo, Texas, on September 25, 1963 - September 26, 1963. It was previously reported that OSWALD was in New Orleans on September 25, 1963, and that he boarded a Continental Trailways bus at 2 AM on September 26, 1963, at Houston, Texas, traveling on this bus from Houston to Laredo, Texas.

On January 6, 1964, HORACE TWIFORD, 7018 Schley, Houston, Texas, advised he and his wife ESTELLE TWIFORD had searched further in their records in an effort to determine the exact date on which Mrs. TWIFORD had received a telephone call from an individual who identified himself as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. TWIFORD stated he and his wife had located a slip of paper which had been used by Mrs. TWIFORD on the evening on which she received the above telephone call, and this slip of paper carried a notation of OSWALD's name and contained the words "Fair Play for Cuba Committee." TWIFORD stated his wife had made these notations on this slip of paper in order to remember to mention this telephone call to TWIFORD when he returned home from duty on a merchant vessel which was then traveling between Houston and other Gulf Coast ports.

TWIFORD stated he could recall that while on a coast-wise trip as a seaman during September, 1963, he made a quick trip from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Houston, Texas, by air in order to visit his wife. TWIFORD stated to the best of his recollection he made this trip to Houston on September 26, 1963, and his wife mentioned to him at that time of having received the telephone call from OSWALD.

On January 7, 1964, Mrs. ESTELLE TWIFORD, 7018 Schley, confirmed the above information and stated she had also been attempting to recall more specifically the time at which she received the telephone call from OSWALD which she previously reported. Mrs. TWIFORD stated she feels sure this telephone call was received after dark but not in the late evening. She stated if this call had been received at 10:00 PM or 11:00 PM, she would have considered this fact unusual and believes she would have recalled it. Mrs. TWIFORD stated the best she could do toward fixing the hour of this call was to estimate that it was received in the period between 7:00 PM and 9:00 PM.

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to locate an employee at the Continental Trailways bus terminal, Houston, Texas, who might recall having sold a ticket to LEE HARVEY OSWALD:

PWH:yk

The following investigation was conducted by SA PAUL W. HUCKERIEDE:

On the dates indicated, the following Continental Trailways ticket agents in Houston, Texas, were interviewed but none could recall selling a ticket to LEE HARVEY OSWALD:

1/10/64	ROBERT STEVENSON 8909 Lockwood
1/9/64	RAY DYAL 7901 Easton
1/9/64	MORGAN LAIRD, JR. 9234 Tallyho
1/9/64	BILL PRATT 5806 Dryad

On January 9, 1964, ANN LINDSEY, 2243 Harwell Lane, Houston, Report Clerk, Continental Trailways, Houston, advised that for the period September 24 through September 26, 1963, one ticket, numbered 112230, was sold from Houston to Laredo, Texas, for $10.60. She advised this was the only ticket sold from Houston to Laredo during these dates, and there were no tickets sold through to Mexico City.

Miss LINDSEY stated the portion of the above ticket retained by Continental Trailways Bus Company was subsequently mailed to the Dallas office of that company for permanent filing. She stated there should be rubber stamp impressions on this ticket stub which would show the date on which the ticket was sold and the identity of the employee who sold it.

HENRY OTIS CHENYWORTH, Route 2, Box 171, was advised of the identity of JOHN T. KELLY as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he made might be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to the services of an attorney. No threats or promises were made to CHENYWORTH, who furnished the following information:

He was born April 27, 1943, in Troy, Texas, and served in the U. S. Air Force from September 9, 1960, until November 2, 1961, when he received a General Discharge under Honorable Conditions. Since his discharge from the Air Force, he has been employed in approximately twenty-five or thirty different jobs and has never held steady employment. His most recent employment was at Strangi Manufacturing Company in Dallas, Texas, until approximately two weeks ago. Prior to that period, during the month of November, 1963, he was employed by the Thompson Tool Company, 2328 Langford, Dallas, Texas.

On November 22, 1963, the day of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, he recalls being at work at the Thompson Tool Company as he remembers listening to the reports of the assassination on the radio in the company shop. He worked all day Friday, November 22, 1963, was off on Saturday and Sunday, which is customary at this firm, and then he did not go to work on Monday, November 25, 1963, as he recalls watching the Presidential burial on television, at the residence of E. R. COLLIER, 306 East 7th Street, Dallas, Texas. To the best of his recollection, he returned to Jasper, Texas, on Tuesday, November 26, 1963, to stay with his stepbrother, JOE WILLIANS, who was ill, and after staying in Jasper for two days he returned to Dallas, Texas.

He denies making any statement concerning or implying that he had any information as to who killed the President, or a statement that he did not know whether he would be around by morning as he might be in jail. He stated there is a remote possibility he might have said

"I bet I will know who did it by morning," in regard to who might have killed KENNEDY, but stated if he said this then the statement was made in jest as he does not recall saying this and could not see why he would have made this statement as he "would have no way in the world of finding out who did it."

He advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor did he have a gun or do any practice shooting in Dallas, Texas. He does not know where the practice range is near Grand Prairie and stated he never practiced on this area.

CHENYWORTH has no ill feeling toward KENNEDY and thought it "terrible that he was assassinated."

Synopsis: ROBERT J. KAYE, advised United States Secret Service, El Paso, Texas, on November 24, 1963, that a man by the name of "LEE" hired him in Denver, Colorado, during the first part of October, 1963, to travel to Mexico City, pick up papers from a man by the name of "FRANCIS" and deliver the papers to an unnamed individual in Amarillo, Texas, for which KAYE was to be paid $3,000 by "LEE". KAYE added he had just seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD's picture on television, and was certain the man known to him as "LEE" was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. DETAILS:

AT EL PASO, TEXAS:

On December 13, 1963, Special Agent in Charge OSCAR G. WEISHEIT, JR., United States Secret Service, El Paso, furnished the following information:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

EP 105-1264

On November 24, 1963, WEISHEIT was contacted by one ROBERT J. KAYE, also known as ROMAN SOKOLOWSKI, ROBERT KLONOWSKI, born December 25, 1935, in Poland, United States Immigration and Naturalization Service file number A6208760. KAYE advised Mr. WEISHEIT that he entered the United States in 1945 under the name ROMAN BOBBY SOKOLOWSKI. KAYE then furnished the following information to Mr. WEISHEIT:

Around the first of October, 1963, KAYE was employed in Denver, Colorado, and was contacted by a man who identified himself as "LEE" at that time. Mr. WEISHEIT questioned KAYE regarding the exact date of KAYE's contact by "LEE" and KAYE stated that it was his recollection that this contact took place during the first part of October, probably the first few days in October of 1963. Mr. WEISHEIT asked KAYE if the contact date could have been as late as October 10, 1963, and KAYE stated he did not think that this was possible because of the fact that a period of about four weeks elapsed between the contact date with "LEE" and November 2, 1963, the date which KAYE was supposed to contact a man for "LEE" in Mexico City.

KAYE's meeting with "LEE" in Denver was a chance meeting. Later the same day, when KAYE complained about his economic plight, "LEE" offered KAYE an opportunity to make $3,000. "LEE" instructed KAYE to meet a man by the name of "FRANCIS" in a museum in Mexico City on November 2, 1963, and obtain some papers and $1,500 from "FRANCIS" and deliver these items to an unnamed individual in Amarillo, Texas. KAYE subsequently went to Mexico City, but "FRANCIS" did not keep the above mentioned appointment, and KAYE then returned to Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico, on November 3, 1963. KAYE remained in Juarez until November 24, 1963, at which time he contacted Mr. WEISHEIT.

KAYE told Mr. WEISHEIT that he had just seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD's picture on television and was certain that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was identical with the man whom he had previously met in Denver, Colorado, by the name of "LEE".

Mr. WEISHEIT furnished the above information to the United States Secret Service in Denver, Colorado, and Washington, D.C., and received a report from the Denver Office of the United States Secret Service on December 13, 1963, which contained the following information:

ROBERT J. KAYE was formerly employed by the Vending Machine Company in Denver, Colorado, and was in El Paso, Texas, on September 27, 1963. KAYE returned to Denver on September 29, 1963, and then disappeared. No information was developed by the United States Secret Service in Denver that KAYE had ever been in touch with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. In August or September, 1963, KAYE made claims in Denver that he was about to inherit millions of dollars from JESSIE or ANN ~~HAYEN~~, Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mr. WEISHEIT stated that the Denver Office of the United States Secret Service was attempting to resolve the question of KAYE's sanity and reliability.

On January 10, 1964, Special Agent in Charge OSCAR G. WEISHEIT, JR., mentioned above, furnished the following information:

When ROBERT J. KAYE contacted Mr. WEISHEIT in El Paso, Texas, on November 24, 1963, KAYE gave to Mr. WEISHEIT KAYE's temporary visa, issued to him by the Mexican government, under the name ROBERT J. KAYE, Juarez, Mexico. This visa was dated October 28, 1963, and contained number 662282. Mr. WEISHEIT denied that KAYE had furnished him any map or calendar at the time of the above mentioned interview. KAYE did not furnish Mr. WEISHEIT anything else, other than the above mentioned visa.

According to this article, Mrs. OSWALD stated she had been in telephonic contact with LANE and he had arrived in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. Dr. REVELLI, Director, Michigan Band, volunteered to be alert to any comment from former members of the 1961 Band tour group which would indicate any possible contact with the Subject in Russia. He said he would promptly refer any such information to the Bureau.

Miss MALLORY said that at the time of her encounter with Subject in Russia in 1961 the only other member of the Michigan group nearby was one JERRY ANDERSON who was surrounded by a group of Russian students similar to herself. He did not participate in the group discussion in which she was engaged, nor did she believe him to have even been aware of her situation at that time. She recalled that she and ANDERSON were probably the last of the Michigan group to leave the theatre and were mobbed on their departure. She said she did not believe that ANDERSON could furnish any pertinent information relative to her encounter with Subject, nor did she believe in the time they were separated that ANDERSON would have had time independently to have encountered Subject. She noted ANDERSON is no longer with the University of Michigan, and was last known to her to be employed somewhere in Greece.

Synopsis:

KATHERINE MALLORY, Ann Arbor, Mich., advised that in Spring, 1961, at Minsk, USSR, an individual she believes identical with Subject served as an impromptu interpreter for her in a brief encounter with Russian students at the Minsk Polytechnic Institute. He, at that time, identified himself as a Texan, a former U. S. Marine, who despised the United States and hoped to spend his life at Minsk, USSR.

DETAILS:

At Ann Arbor, Michigan

Miss KATHERINE MALLORY, 825 Tappan Street, Ann Arbor, Mich., on January 14, 1964, furnished the following information:

She was a member of the University of Michigan Symphony Band during a Spring, 1961, tour of the Soviet Union, made under sponsorship of the United States Department of State. During that tour, presumably during March, 1961, the Band visited Minsk, USSR, for a scheduled concert. They were in that city for some four or five days during which time they were entertained through sightseeing in the city. An invitation was given the Band members to visit the Minsk Polytechnic Institute to attend a variety show, which invitation she and most members of the Band accepted.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of any kind. It is the property of the FBI, and is a loan to your agency; it and/or its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The public reception of Band members wherever they went in Russia was large and warm. The reception at the Minsk Polytechnic Institute, referred to above, was the greatest reception the Band received in the USSR. Following the variety show, the crowd of Russian students overwhelmed members of the Michigan Band and eagerly sought interviews with them. In the surging crowd, she became separated from other members of the Michigan group, was isolated and surrounded by eager Russians asking her questions she did not understand. She said after some five minutes of this confusion, a young man, unknown to her, appeared at her side, spoke in English and asked her if she would like him to interpret for her.

This young man identified himself to her as a "Texan" who had formerly served in the U. S. Marine Corps. He volunteered that he despised the United States and hoped to live the rest of his life in Minsk, USSR. He made no other personal comments, but did interpret to the crowd for her for some 15 or 20 minutes.

She does not recall that he introduced himself to her by name. In the crowd, she said, she saw little of him, but his face and she recalled as his most distinguishing characteristic an unusual mouth. From what she saw of him, she said he impressed her as well dressed. She recalled that he wore a handsome camel hair top or overcoat. She noted this as unusual inasmuch as she had seen no one else in Russia wearing such a type coat.

She could recall nothing else in his general appearance to be distinguishing. In reciting the above event in her journal, she said, she made a brief entry concerning the above referred to individual simply as, "Texas Marine-crackpot".

She said the latter reference, "crackpot", referred to her recollection that this individual in speaking English with her, spoke first in a "Texas twang" and then in a clipped "British accent".

Her reference to "crackpot" additionally referred to her opinion that any former Marine U. S. citizen who preferred life in Minsk to that in the United States had to be a crackpot.

She added that she did not question from his appearance, manner, and type of speech that he was in fact an American.

Following the above encounter, she rejoined other members of the Michigan Band who were already aboard the bus to return them to their hotel. She said no other Michigan students were with her in the above encounter, nor does she recall at that time having discussed the incident with other in her party.

On her return to the United States in telling her family of the tour she mentioned this incident. She said her mentioning the incident was not because of the unknown interpreter who came to her aid, but rather that it was the only occasion on the tour when she was touched by a personal encounter with a Russian group.

After the assassination of President KENNEDY, her mother called her attention to the news accounts which placed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Minsk, USSR in 1961. She was asked whether he might have been the interpreter she had previously referred to. She said in viewing news photographs of OSWALD she is of the opinion that he was identical with the unknown man who came to her aid in Minsk in 1961.

She was shown an identification photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD taken by the Dallas Police Department, November 23, 1963. On viewing same, she commented she would be unable to swear that he was identical with the individual referred to by her. She added that she is personally convinced the two are identical. She noted she recalled the individual in Minsk as somewhat heavier or of fuller face. Also she said he appeared to have a fuller head of dark hair. She said the one convincing characteristic is the mouth, which appears in the identification photograph as she recalls the mouth of the man she had met in Minsk as referred to above.

She added that she is no longer a student at the University of Michigan, and does not have close contact with students of the School of Music or members of the Michigan Band. She said that through her limited contacts with these individuals, however, she has heard of no students having claimed an encounter with LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Russia during the Band's 1961 tour.

Dr. WILLIAM R. REVELLI, Director, University of Michigan, Band, School of Music, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, advised on January 10, 1964, that the University Symphony Band in 1961 made a 16-week Russian-Mediterranean tour sponsored by the U. S. Department of State. Some eight weeks were spent in the USSR during the period approximating February-April, 1961, including concerts in Moscow, Minsk, Kiev, Odessa, Kharkov, Suddimi, Tbilisi, Erevan, and Baku, spending some four or five days in each city. Four Russian officials from the Ministry of Culture accompanied the tour throughout Russia, along with four Russian students from the University of Moscow, who served as Interpreters to the group.

REVELLI said he is certain none of these individuals was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He added he never observed anyone possibly identical with OSWALD associated with the group in any other capacity.

He recalled that at Minsk, USSR, and in other places in the USSR, the Russian authorities accompanying them said that with so large a group Band members would not all want to see the same things. They, therefore, arranged for locally secured interpreters to take groups of Band members separately on side tours. He noted additionally that in each Russian city, Russians became "hangers on" with orchestra members while in a given city. He noted it was only in one of these ways that the Subject might have been involved with the Michigan group without his being aware of it.

Dr. REVELLI said that since the assassination of President KENNEDY and the publicity concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he has heard no former members of the 1961 Michigan Band tour make any reference to having encountered OSWALD in Russia.

STELLA NORMAN is no longer employed as a waitress at this cafe.

NORMAN's last known residence was the second house on the east side of Bannister Street, running north off of Ben White Blvd.

She furnished this address only after interviewing agent identified himself and thereafter advised the following:

She did not wish to enter into a controversy with anyone concerning any matter.

In her opinion NORMAN is not a very responsible person.

NORMAN had spoken of having seen President KENNEDY's accused assassin as a customer of the Trek Cafe. However, in impressions made by NORMAN in private, expressions which she could not now recall, she questioned whether NORMAN had seen anyone resembling the assassin.

Plainly she felt NORMAN had manufactured the whole story about seeing the accused assassin in the Trek Cafe and that a Mr. DAY, a customer of the Trek about twice weekly had "imagined" the story with NORMAN.

She could not recall an instance during NORMAN's employment when NORMAN had been the only waitress on duty in the Trek Cafe.

FLORENCE ESTELLE NORMAN, widow, 4301 Bannister, advised as follows:

She began employment at the Trek Cafe, 3100 South Congress, the latter part of August, 1963, and was so employed until the Monday before Thanksgiving.

From the beginning of this employment until October, 1963, her hours were from 5:00 pm until 1:00 am, seven days a week. The her hours were changed and she began work either at 1:00 or 3:00 pm and worked until either 11:00 pm or midnight except Fridays and Saturdays when her hours were from 5:00 pm until 1:00 am.

The Sunday after the assassination of President KENNEDY while at the Trek Cafe she saw a picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in an Austin paper and recognized him as a customer she had served at the Trek Cafe.

This customer was at the cafe in the midafternoon [illegible] the above working hours she concluded this individual was present at the Trek Cafe either the latter part of October or the early part of November 1963.

She recalled the following concerning this incident:

She was alone in the restaurant, neither other employee nor customer being present. The cook was in the kitchen. This individual came into the restaurant and ordered coffee. He appeared very nervous. He kept fooling with the paper napkins and appeared to be writing or doodling on these napkins. He used three or four napkins and must have put these in his pocket before leaving as the napkins were not left on the table, ashtray or floor.

The customer remained 30 or 45 minutes and had either three or four cups of coffee. He paid $0.10 for each coffee as the Trek does not give refills on coffee.

Seeing he was nervous she tried to start a conversation with him but he did not respond.

On seeing the photograph of the accused assassin in the paper that Sunday she exclaimed out loud, "My God I [illegible] him."

A Mr. DAY who is employed at a local newspaper was [illegible] as a customer.

Mr. DAY asked her how she knew the accused assassin [illegible] told him, "As a customer."

SA 105-2909

On December 13, 1963, OSCAR S. WARNKE, Chief Deputy, Bexar County Jail, San Antonio, Texas, advised Investigative Clerk LARRY M. HILL that he had received information from one MARY CONAWAY to the effect that a man by the name of ALAN HIDELL might possibly have information concerning the activities of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On December 21, 1963, Mrs. CONAWAY, 2231 Basse Road, San Antonio, advised SA GEORGE KEEFER that she had contacted Mr. WARNKE for the reason that she wanted to do anything that would be helpful in the investigation surrounding the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. She said that she is not personally acquainted with ALAN HIDELL and does not know where he lives but that she associated him in her mind with the events surrounding the assassination because of the similarity between his name and the name ALEK HIDELL which according to newspaper accounts was used by OSWALD. Mrs. CONAWAY stated that at one time she worked in the Bad Check Division of the Bexar County District Attorney's Office and that several accounts involving ALAN HIDELL came to her attention. She said that she gathered the impression that ALAN HIDELL was a trouble maker and a very unreliable person and added that she felt that there was possibly some connection between him and OSWALD. She said she had no information concerning the activities of OSWALD and was unable to funish any physical description or background information concerning ALAN HIDELL.

On December 27, 1963, [redacted] Retail Merchants Association advised Investigative Clerk JOHN SMITH that his office has a record for ALLAN M. HIDELL of 123 Sutton Street, San Antonio. This record reflected that HIDELL was the proprietor of a used car lot at 1603 Broadway, San Antonio and that his credit was unsatisfactory reflecting numerous unpaid and delinquent accounts.

On December 27, 1963, IC SMITH checked records of the Identification Bureau of the San Antonio Police Department and advised that these records contain a file numbered 43618 concerning ALLEN M. HIDELL, 123 Sutton Street, San Antonio. This individual was listed as having been born May 23, 1921 in Pennsylvania and

[illegible] was arrested November 3, 1955, for a [illegible] of city ordinance Section 60-70 but this [illegible] was dismissed on November 23, 1955. He was again arrested October 13, 1962, for malicious michief and released on county bond. The records of the Bexar County Sheriff's Office indicate that this case number [illegible] was reported in the magistrate's docket but never filed [illegible]. A photograph of ALAN M. HIDELL under San Antonio [illegible] number 24810 was obtained.

On January 3, 1964, ALAN MAXWELL HIDELL voluntarily appeared at the San Antonio Office. He was advised by SA GEORGE KEEFER that he need not answer [illegible] questions, that anything he might say could be used against him in court and that he was entitled to have an attorney. HIDELL stated that he had no objection to answering any questions concerning his past or present activities and that he did not desire to have a lawyer.

ALAN MAXWELL HIDELL advised that he was born May 23, 1921, at Allentown, Pennsylvania. He identified his father as CHARLES MAXWELL HIDELL (deceased) and his mother as FLORENCE KEIDEL HIDELL, who presently resides at 123 Sutton Drive, San Antonio, Texas. He stated that when he was a very small child his family moved to Orlando, Florida, and when he was about five or six years of age they again moved to Los Angeles, California. In about 1930 he and his family moved to San Antonio, Texas, where he attended Jefferson High School graduating in 1939. At that time he lived on Rosewood Street and following graduation attended St. Mary's University in San Antonio for one year. In 1941 he was drafted into the United States Army receiving Army serial number 38061231. He received a medical discharge in November, 1945, and returned to San Antonio where his residence was 2309 W. Mulberry Street and his occupation that of buying and selling used cars at 1603 Broadway. In 1952 he married MARTHA BECK and lived at 123 Sutton Drive continuing in the same business as above. MARTHA passed away in 1957 and in 1960 he married VIRGINIA GRONA. At this time the HIDELLs lived at 2803 Arrowhead in San Antonio but in 1961 his business settled and he was divorced by VIRGINIA. On November 15, [illegible] he married FRANCES HIDELL at Seguin, Texas, and he resides with his mother at 123 Sutton Drive. FRANCES [illegible] HIDELL maintains an apartment at 138 Vanderheck [illegible] operates a bookkeeping service in the Milam Building. HIDELL stated that he receives a small pension as a result of service connected injury and that he makes a little money from time to time as a free lance wholesaler of used cars.

ALAN HIDELL advised that in 1960 or 1961 he was [illegible] a bad check charge in San Antonio but that the Grand Jury failed to return indictment.

HIDELL stated that he has not visited Mexico City for the past thirty years although he has been in Mexico twice during recent years. In September of 1961 he visited Monterry, Mexico, with his wife VIRGINIA on a pleasure trip and on July 3 and 4, 1963, he made a similar pleasure trip to Monterrey. On this occasion he entered Mexico via Zapata due to the fact that roads leading South from Laredo were in bad condition. This trip was made with FRANCES HIDELL and her two children ages 13 and 10 and they were accompanied by CLAYTON P. MYER, an insurance agent who resides at 127 Cloverleaf, San Antonio. ALAN MAXWELL HIDELL advised that he has never used any other name than the above although he has discovered that it is a common mistake for others to spell his given name ALLEN. He stated that he does not possess any information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY other than that which he obtained from reading newspapers and watching television. He said that he is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK LEON RUBY or any other individual connected with the assassination or the subsequent killing of OSWALD.

HIDELL stated that he had a brother JOHN HIDELL who died in 1961 and that he has two sisters JANE (Mrs. FRANK) [illegible]NNY, age 46, who resides on Avant Street in San Antonio and MARY (Mrs. ROLAND) [illegible]UARY, age 38, who resides in San Francisco, California. Dear Mr. Rankin:

"The Dallas Times Herald" on January 14, 1964, carried a story which quoted from a speech of the Attorney General of the State of Texas, Waggoner Carr, delivered on the night of January 13, 1964, to the Brotherhood of the Highland Baptist Church in Dallas.

Mr. Carr reportedly stated that Federal Bureau of Investigation reports on Jack Ruby would be turned over to the Dallas District Attorney, Henry Wade, by the President's Commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy. He said that you have agreed to turn over the data at the request of the Attorney General of the State of Texas who on Saturday, January 11, 1964, gave the President's Commission all of the results of the Texas investigation into the assassination and the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald. He said that the District Attorney will be free to use the Federal Bureau of Investigation data in the prosecution of the accused slayer of Oswald.

Attorney General Carr also stated that he had not read all of the reports of the Texas investigation but from what he had read, he had come to these conclusions: "Oswald was a lone ranger and worked alone.

Oswald was the man who shot at former Major General Edwin A. Walker, and this fact indicated he was not part of a conspiracy because of the variance in the political philosophies of Walker and President Kennedy. There was no evidence of a link between Ruby and Oswald."

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., has advised that the Department of Justice contemplates giving out no information concerning Lee Harvey Oswald but that after the reports concerning Jack Ruby have been reviewed by the Department for the purpose of removing any confidential information, they will be shown to Mr. Henry Dinkelspiel, Attorney Henry Wade by United States Attorney Dr. Joe Ed Estes in order that Mr. Wade may indicate the material that would be helpful to him on that line. Wade will probably be given the information requested. It is also understood that the Department contemplates furnishing Ruby's attorney only with a list of the names and addresses of persons who have furnished information having a bearing on Ruby's mental condition.

From your review of these reports, you are undoubtedly aware that in many instances they contain information which may be in the nature of gossip and rumor and which has not been substantiated. Moreover, by such information appears the views of the persons interviewed and has been reported as it was received by us. This is being called to your attention in view of the fact that if this type of information should be released or become a matter of public knowledge, it would reflect most unfavorably upon the Department of Justice and the President's Commission.

Although the reports are self-explanatory, I thought it should be alerted to the foregoing observations and I have also alerted Assistant Attorney General Miller.

A letterhead memorandum prepared by San Antonio, under date of 11/28/63, reflects the Laredo Times carried an article reflecting that OSWALD had purchased clothing at the Joe Brand Clothing Store, Laredo, Texas. It appeared that this is the basis of the New York Times article of 11/29/63.

A review of Dallas files does not reflect that a receipt for clothing from Joe Brand Clothing Store was found among the effects of OSWALD at Dallas.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

The investigative report of SA Robert P. Gemberling dated 1-7-64 at Dallas contains information obtained from Captain Paul Barger of the Irving Police Department, Irving, Texas.

On 11-26-63 Barger advised that he had received information that a male voice was overheard in a conversation which took place between telephone number CR. 5-5211, Arlington, Texas, and telephone number BL. 3-1628, Irving, Texas, 11-23-63. According to Barger the male voice was heard to comment that he felt sure Lee Harvey Oswald had killed the President but did not feel Oswald was responsible and further stated "we both know who is responsible."

Telephone number CR. 5-5211 in Arlington, Texas, is located in the portion of the Bell Helicopter Company where Michael Paine is employed. Telephone number BL. 3-1628 is the residence number for Mrs. Ruth Paine. Michael Paine was interviewed and specifically denied making such a statement.

On 1-10-64 Captain Barger advised he was unable to divulge his original source of information without first contacting the source as disclosure would put the source in jeopardy of losing his job. Captain Barger claimed not to know the name of his source.

On 1-15-64 Captain Barger advised he had been unable to identify the source of his original information. He stated he had contacted the person he believed had furnished the information to him and had determined that this person had not done so. On 1-16-64 SA Joseph Leffler in the absence of the SAC and ASAC was advised that the Bureau was attaching considerable importance to the allegation and he was instructed to take every step to resolve it. It was pointed out to the Dallas Office that Captain Barger indicating he cannot now recall the identity of his source is not very convincing. Consequently, Barger should be immediately and thoroughly reinterviewed.

It was pointed out that in the investigative report Barger's identity is concealed with a T Symbol. During the reinterview of Barger, the Agent should point out to him the significance of the allegation and the undesirability of having such an allegation attributed to an unidentified source. Dallas was instructed to get Captain Barger's consent to disclose his identity as the source of this allegation.

Dallas was also advised the Bureau did not desire to disseminate the report with this allegation unresolved. Dallas was instructed to submit the results of the interview of Barger on 1-15-64 on a separate 302 Form so that it could be included as page 66A of the report. Dallas was instructed to immediately interview Ruth Paine concerning this allegation and the results should be submitted so that they can be incorporated in the Dallas report.

Re Bureau airtel to Newark dated 1/7/64.

NELSON DELGADO reinterviewed by SAS RICHARD B. MURDOCK and JAMES A. MARLEY, JR. at Holmdel, New Jersey on 1/15/64. The statements attributed to him in FD 302's dated 12/10/63, and 12/13/63, were read to him. He said that everything in these FD 302's was correct to the best of his knowledge. He claimed that he did not exaggerate anything. However, what he considered proficient Spanish is the ability he thought OSWALD had to speak and be understood in the language. He explained that he himself can write short phrases and letters in Spanish but he would do this only to his wife or close friends. He said that he does not have the ability to teach anyone how to write Spanish properly because he does not know Spanish grammar.

DELGADO said that he did teach DAVID MURRAY while both at Biloxi, Miss. DELGADO said he did not lie or exaggerate concerning his trip with OSWALD and two Negro Marines to Mexico. Denied dating young girls. Said he was interested in older girls. Admitted being immature while stationed in California.

DELGADO considered braggert by present military associates, but not known as liar. Two soldiers said they were taught simple Spanish.

Evaluation by SA RICHARD B. MURDOCK as to DELGADO's Spanish ability is that he is not proficient in the Spanish language. SA MURDOCK feels that DELGADO has a good understanding of the spoken language, very faulty grammar, and his spelling ability is poor.

Captain PAUL BARGER advised he is a member of the Irving, Texas, Police Department and he stated he had no objection to the use of his name in connection with information he furnished SA ROBERT C. LISH, on November 26, 1963, at Irving, Texas.

He said he had made extensive inquiry in an effort to identify the name of the individual who furnished him with the information concerning a telephone conversation which took place on November 23, 1963, between telephone numbers CR 5-5211, Arlington, Texas, and BL 3-1628, Irving, Texas. He said he had been unable to identify this individual, but he was certain the information was furnished to him between Friday night, November 22, 1963, and Monday, November 25, 1963. He said he had an unusually large amount of work assignments during that period and these assignments kept him from recalling the time of day that this information was received.

Captain BARGER said a request was made of him to attempt to obtain a list of telephone tickets, or other helpful information, from his contacts with the Southwestern States Telephone Company at Irving, Texas, which would assist in the investigation of the case concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY, on November 22, 1963. He said he felt sure the information he furnished SA LISH had come from some telephone company sources, but he was still unable to identify the individual who related it to him; and he was unable to recall whether it was related in person, or by a telephone call.

He furnished his personal, original notes concerning this information for any use they may serve, and he identified same by placing his initials thereon and the date, January 17, 1964.

Mrs. RUTH HYDE PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, advised she was at home on November 23, 1963, except for a short period when she went out shopping. Her husband, MICHAEL PAINE, was at their residence, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, all day on November 23, 1963, except for the period between 3 P.M. and dark. During this period, MICHAEL PAINE, had been picked up by the Dallas Police Department and taken to the Dallas Police Department for questioning and then returned. She does not know if he could have stopped at his place of employment in Arlington, Texas, during this period.

Mrs. PAINE stated that she had one telephone conversation with her husband on November 23, 1963, which was a phone call by herself to her husband, at which time she inquired as to the time he would return to their residence. Mrs. PAINE denied having a telephone conversation with her husband at his place of employment.

Mrs. PAINE denied that her husband had ever commented to her that he felt sure LEE HARVEY OSWALD had killed the President, but did not feel OSWALD was responsible and "we both know who's responsible". Mrs. PAINE was asked concerning the following quotation, "Oswald wouldn't have any reason to do it, but when you get right down to it, the only guilty person is that bastard himself". Mrs. PAINE stated that she could not recall her husband using those exact words in conversation with her, but the meaning of the words would be " compatible" with his feelings on November 23, 1963.

Mrs. PAINE advised that her husband, MICHAEL PAINE, was one of a few employees at Bell Helicopter who had a key to their research laboratory, in Arlington, Texas, and could

Mrs. PAINE stated that her husband had never discussed with her the fact that he had been previously questioned by the FBI concerning a specific telephone conversation.

On November 23, 1963, she recalled that definitely there were no other women or ladies in her home, except MARINA OSWALD, who did not speak English.

She advised that on the 23rd of November, a group of officers made a search of her home and while the search was being made, she made a brief visit to shop for groceries.

Mrs. PAINE stated that on November 22, 1963, at about 1 P.M., her husband telephoned her from his place of business and advised her that President KENNEDY had just been shot. At the time, LEE HARVEY OSWALD'S connection was not known to her and no mention was made of OSWALD in this conversation. Mrs. PAINE said that on November 22, 1963, following an announcement on the radio that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been arrested by the Dallas, Police Department, MICHAEL PAINE left his place of employment and came to their residence in Irving, Texas, and arrived shortly after the Dallas police came to their residence.

MICHAEL RALPH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, denied ever having made a statement that he felt sure LEE HARVEY OSWALD had killed the President, although he does not feel OSWALD was responsible, and further stated that "We both know who is responsible". PAINE stated he never made a statement of this type at any place at any time or under any circumstances.

PAINE was asked if he ever made a statement to the effect that "OSWALD wouldn't have any reason to do it, but when you get right down to it, the only guilty person it that Bastard himself -". PAINE stated that he has stated on numerous occasions to many persons that OSWALD wouldn't have any reason to do it, namely, to kill the President; however, the last part of the statement definitely does not sound like his (PAINE's) statement. PAINE stated that he did sincerely believe that OSWALD had assassinated the President in view of so much strong and convincing circumstantial evidence, and he did feel that he (OSWALD) was alone responsible and did not have any collaborators in the assassination of the President. PAINE said OSWALD had never mentioned President KENNEDY in his presence or to his (PAINE's) wife at any time to his knowledge.

Mr. PAINE said subsequent to the shooting of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, he and his wife received many telephone calls, crank letters and visits from people both at their home and his office with regard to all sorts of "crank" remarks concerning their knowledge of and association with LEE OSWALD and his wife, MARINA. He also advised that if he felt these people who telephonically contacted him or contacted them in person were reliable people, he would talk to them; if not, he ignored their entreaties, letters or conversations.

Mr. PAINE stated upon reflection, with regard to the second statement at the outset of this interview, that he felt the sentiment expressed was compatible with his belief after the death of President KENNEDY.

At 3:50 PM, 1-21-64, I telephonically contacted ASAC Clark, Dallas, with regard to Dallas airtel 1-18 in this case which enclosed amended pages to be inserted in the 1-7-64 Dallas report.

I advised ASAC Clark that while the Bureau had intended including these amended pages in the 1-7 report and changing the date of the report to 1-17, we had decided not to do so. Instead, it was desired that Dallas include the information contained in the amended pages in the next report to be submitted by Dallas in this case. I told Clark that we would disregard the airtel entirely and that Dallas in including the material in the next report would, of course, have to change ~~the~~ page numbers and see that the information fitted properly in the new report. I told him that the Dallas report of 1-7 would remain as is.

Done in Dallas 1/22/64

ASAC Clark advised that Dallas would handle as requested and stated that the next report would be submitted by Dallas on either 1-22 or 1-23-64 and would include the material submitted with the 1-18 airtel.

I also mentioned to ASAC Clark that we had received the three metal boxes of correspondence obtained from Mrs. Ruth Paine. I asked in this connection if Dallas had during the interviews with Mrs. Oswald gone carefully into the relationship between the Oswalds and the Paines and he said this had been done.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date December 16, 1963

S/P 4 NELSON DELGADO, Battery D, 4th Missle Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel Site, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised that he recalled some additional facts.

DELGADO stated he was assigned to Quonset Hut Number 34 from the time he arrived at the Marine Base at Santa Ana, California, until he requested transfer to another hut in June, 1959.

DELGADO recalled he became friendly with OSWALD in December, 1958, when both were assigned to the same radar section and the same shift. At that time, DELGADO declared, he was very young, having only recently left school, and was somewhat of a "loner," as OSWALD was, with the result they became friendly. DELGADO stated he felt a little out of place because of his Puerto Rican background but found that OSWALD and he got along very well.

DELGADO advised that in January, 1959, OSWALD had been having some trouble in the Quonset Hut to which he had originally been assigned and had asked for a transfer. DELGADO was not sure but he thought it was because of his, DELGADO's, friendship that OSWALD was assigned to Hut Number 34. However the hut did have three empty bunks at the time.

According to DELGADO, there were a total of six Marines in the hut during the time that he spent in it, one of whom was a Private First Class (PFC) WALD. In January, 1960, WALD was transferred to Atsuki, Japan, with the First Marine Air Control Squadron. However, WALD did not get along with OSWALD, but he would know of the OSWALD and DELGADO friendship.

OSWALD attempted to teach DELGADO certain phrases of Russian, which language OSWALD spoke fluently, but the best DELGADO could do was learn "Da" and "Nyet." DELGADO stated he never heard OSWALD called "Oswaldovitch," but he was called by many of the Marines on the base "Comrade" and he heard RICHARD CALL refer to him as "Commissar." It was DELGADO's opinion that these names were said in a joking manner because apparently most of the Marines knew of OSWALD's interest in Socialism.

On 12/13/63 at Holmdel, New Jersey File # Newark 105-15291

by SA JAMES A. MARLEY, JR. /eag Date dictated 12/13/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

DELGADO said there were two Negro Marines in Hut Number 34 who were assigned to other duties who should know of his friendship with OSWALD, but he could not recall their names. He recalled one other Marine was also assigned to the Hut for a short period, but he did not know his name and did not believe he would have known OSWALD.

It was DELGADO's opinion that Sergeant W. FUNK would not know OSWALD well because he was only assigned to the base about four to six weeks prior to OSWALD leaving the area. FUNK was transferred to the Santa Ana Marine Base from Japan and most of the troops under him did not have much respect for him. He had a high pitched voice and did not know how to dress like a good Marine or operate a platoon well. Sergeant FUNK caught OSWALD "fooling around" in ranks on one occasion and reported him. OSWALD was made to walk around the field with full field pack and Sergeant FUNK put him through a Close Order Drill. Thereafter, OSWALD had nothing good to say about FUNK and at one time seriously thought of reporting the incident to the Inspector General, but he did not do so.

CORPORAL BOTELHO
~~Colonel~~ JAMES BOTTEHO was assigned to the Santa Ana Marine Base at approximately the same time that DELGADO was, but was not in the same hut with OSWALD. He did work on the same shift with OSWALD and DELGADO. BOTTEHO did not associate with OSWALD and had little to do with him. DELGADO did recall on one occasion BOTTEHO had a "big" argument with OSWALD over Socialism and OSWALD left in disgust.

DELGADO advised that speaking generally as far as PFC RUSSELL and BOTTEHO were concerned, they did not have much in common with OSWALD because they were interested in sports and girls and these things hardly interested OSWALD.

Sergeant CALL was assigned to the same platoon but was not assigned in the same Quonset area as the subject. However, CALL and OSWALD did get along and on one occasion OSWALD discussed his book "Das Capital" with CALL. Further, CALL and OSWALD had in common the fact they both enjoyed classical music.

PFC H. RUSSELL, JR. was assigned to the Santa Ana Base about four to eight weeks prior to OSWALD leaving the base. He lived in the same Quonset Hut area, but not in Hut Number 34 and was not on the same work shift with OSWALD. One of the things that was unusual about OSWALD, DELGADO noted, since RUSSELL was from New Orleans and so was OSWALD, there should have some conversation about this fact. However, there never was any interest shown in each other.

Another Marine, a PFC OSBORNE, was assigned to the same platoon during OSWALD's time and came from Texas. According to DELGADO, OSBORNE would discuss Texas with anyone at any time. Although OSWALD said that he came from Texas, he was not friendly with OSBORNE.

DELGADO could not recall the names of the two Negro Marines who went to Tijuana, Mexico, with himself and OSWALD. However, both were assigned to the Motor Pool while at the Santa Ana Base and he believes that one of them might have been a PFC WATTS. He did recall one of these Marines made another trip later to Tijuana, Mexico, along with PFC ~~RUSSELL~~ ROUSSEL but without OSWALD.

DELGADO advised it was common knowledge among the Marines at the base that he, DELGADO, spoke Spanish and it was also fairly well known he was on record as saying he could teach Spanish to anyone really interested in learning Spanish in a short time. Therefore, many Marines were always asking him to give them certain phrases in Spanish, but OSWALD was one who asked him to teach him the language completely.

DELGADO stated shortly after he started to help OSWALD with Spanish it became apparent he was a good student. OSWALD secured a Spanish dictionary and studied all the time. DELGADO recalled they started to write Spanish phrases on note paper while working in "the silent" area. It was his opinion several hours each day were devoted to OSWALD's Spanish leasons so that in a short time he was able to speak and understand Spanish excellently. DELGADO noted he was not able to teach OSWALD to write Spanish because he himself was not able to write the language very well.

When the conversation got around to OSWALD wanting to help the Cubans and other South Americans, DELGADO remembered using this as a method to make sure he understood the language. DELGADO pointed out that if he were ever going to go to Cuba, he should know Spanish because he would not be able to get along in that country without it.

DELGADO never heard the subject speak or see him read a German paper or magazine. However, OSWALD used phrases that sounded like "Yiddish" to him. DELGADO later learned that these were German phrases and it was from this that he thought OSWALD spoke and understood German.

DELGADO stated his close relationship with OSWALD during this period was due to the fact that not only did he, DELGADO, feel that CASTRO was the right thing for Cuba, but also TRUJILLO must be removed from the Dominican Republic. These feelings were shared by both and therefore during one of these discussions, most of it by short phrases on the scratch papers in the Radar Section, DELGADO wrote down he himself would write to the Cuban Embassy, Washington, D.C., if he felt as sincerely as OSWALD about helping. Since the United States was supporting CASTRO at this time, DELGADO thought that this was the best thing to do.

He was surprised about four or five days later when OSWALD told him he had received a letter from the Cuban Consulate in Los Angeles, and from then on OSWALD received a letter or some sort of correspondence about once a week. It was not until several weeks later that DELGADO saw some of these letters. He had asked OSWALD for the loan of a tie and OSWALD told him it was in his locker. DELGADO recalled when he went to get the tie, he noticed the letters from the Cuban Consulate together with Russian newspapers and other mimeographed material which he assumed came from the Cuban Consulate. OSWALD was then going to Los Angeles about every two weeks and after one of these visits told DELGADO he had been at the Cuban Consulate. It was from this statement that DELGADO assumed that these weekly trips were to visit the Cuban Consulate in Los Angeles.

DELGADO advised he never thought OSWALD was a threat to the security of the United States nor did he think he was violating any security regulations of the United States Marine Corps. As a matter of fact he did report OSWALD was receiving a Russian language newspaper to Lieutenant DE PADRO, but he did not know what came of this. He noted DE PADRO is now residing in Coral Gables, Florida.

DELGADO declared any Marine assigned to the Santa Ana Base from December, 1958, to about June, 1959, should be able to verify the fact he and OSWALD were friendly. In addition, Sergeant LUSK, the Sergeant Major of the company, made the remark when he was disciplining DELGADO, that he was getting to be just like OSWALD who always did everything backwards.

PFC DAVID MURRAY was assigned to the same section with DELGADO and OSWALD and knew them both. DELGADO started to teach MURRAY Spanish while both were still in school at Biloxi, Mississippi, and he continued to teach him Spanish while they were at the Santa Ana Base. He believed MURRAY should know that DELGADO taught OSWALD Spanish although he never heard MURRAY and OSWALD speak this language to each other.

Lieutenant Colonel TOSDAHL was the Commanding Officer of the Base at the time both OSWALD and DELGADO were stationed at Santa Ana. TOSDAHL was the kind of commanding officer who liked to know each Marine by his first name. DELGADO felt he should know of the association between himself and OSWALD.

DELGADO advised that on one or more occasions he and OSWALD discussed extradition treaties and DELGADO mentioned if he ever did anything wrong he would go to Argentina because he thought they would not extradite anyone. However, OSWALD said he should remember the two men who had recently defected to Russia. They had gone to Mexico, then to Cuba and on to Russia, according to OSWALD, and he would go the same way. At the time the newspapers did have the stories about this incident.

Toward the end of May, 1959, during their discussions they started to talk about the Dominican Republic. DELGADO stated he really felt something should be done to remove TRUJILLO. OSWALD must have thought he meant he wanted to do something personally and made some suggestions that both of them go to Cuba, become officers in CASTRO's army, and then go to the Dominican Republic and help bring freedom to this area. About this time because the newspapers were publishing stories about the shooting of one of CASTRO's corporals by CASTRO's men, DELGADO became disillusioned about CASTRO. It also became apparent to DELGADO that OSWALD was talking more and more as though he intended to do some of the things he talked about. Therefore, the situation started to get "uncomfortable" for him with OSWALD and he asked Sergeant FUNK for a transfer to another barracks.

This is to advise that the results of the examination in the FBI Laboratory of the bullet recovered from the home of General Edwin A. Walker were furnished to the Dallas Police Department but the information furnished by Marina Oswald implicating Lee Harvey Oswald with the attempted killing of Walker was not disseminated by the FBI to either the Dallas Police Department or General Walker.

The information furnished by Marina Oswald to Agents of the Dallas Office on 12-3-63, was to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald admitted to her that he had tried to kill General Walker by shooting him with a rifle on 4-10-63. This prior similar act was considered to be of considerable significance in connection with our over-all investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy. The information was incorporated into the FBI report which was disseminated to the President and the President's Commission. In view of the confidential nature of our investigation concerning the President's assassination and since the attempted shooting had no current bearing on Walker's safety as Oswald was already dead, the information was not disseminated to Walker or the Dallas Police Department.

Immediately following the attempted shooting of Walker in April, 1963, the Dallas Office discussed the case with the Dallas Police Department and volunteered to forward the bullet to the FBI Laboratory for examination, but no request for such examination was ever made. During the course of our investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy, and prior to the interview of Mrs. Oswald on 12-3-63, when she indicated her husband may have been responsible for the attempted shooting of Walker, the possibility was considered that Oswald may have fired at Walker since the attempted murder took place in Dallas with the use of a rifle. The Dallas Office, therefore, during the weekend of 11-30-63, requested the Dallas Police Department to make available the bullet found in the Walker home in order that it could be examined in the FBI Laboratory. This was done, and on 12-2-63, the bullet was forwarded to the FBI Laboratory where it was examined and the results were promptly furnished to the Dallas Police Department as well as the President's Commission. This examination revealed that while the bullet was distorted and mutilated it did have the general characteristics of bullets fired from the rifle used by Oswald in the assassination of President Kennedy. It was not possible to definitely determine whether or not the bullet recovered in Walker's home was fired from Oswald's rifle.

ADDENDUM, 1/9/64, AHB:csh:

We have considered whether we should now advise Walker and the Dallas Police of our information developed concerning Oswald's attempt to kill Walker. Oswald, of course, is dead and no longer poses any threat to Walker. We have told Walker's attorney that we will inform Walker of any threat to his safety coming to our attention and that the results of our investigation of Oswald have been furnished to the President's Commission.

We have reported the results of our Laboratory examination of the Walker bullet to the Dallas Police Department, and the police are aware of Mrs. Oswald's story that her husband attempted to kill Walker, as this has been widely publicized.

We think our position is best if we stick to the fact that we have furnished all information we developed to the President's Commission. In the event the Director concurs, this is the position we will continue to take.

SUBJECT: MARK LANE
SECURITY MATTER - C
Lee Oswald

The attached memorandum was prepared in response to the Director's instructions: "Give to Rankin summary on Mark Lane, N. Y. lawyer who has been retained by Mrs. Oswald to represent Oswald before Warren Commission. H"

Lane's name is included in the Reserve Index of the New York Office. From 1953 to 1961 he was a member of, held positions in, attended functions of, or otherwise associated with the National Lawyers Guild, cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) as a communist front.

Lane has spoken at affairs of Burning Issues, a youth organization now affiliated with Advance, a similar organization which follows the line of the national Communist Party (CP) leadership. Burning Issues was also active in backing Lane's political campaign for congress, in which he was unsuccessful.

His public utterances have praised Cuba and condemned the United States. He has also been active in organizations whose aims are the abolition of the HCUA and many of his speeches have urged such abolition.

He received CP support in 1962 in his effort to become elected to congress. In November, 1961, Lane and Benjamin J. Davis, CP National Secretary, were principal speakers at a meeting at Columbia University protesting the school's ban against campus speaking engagements by communists. He was arrested and convicted as a "Freedom Rider" in Jackson, Mississippi, on June 8, 1961, and on April 2, 1962, he was fined $415 in New York City as a "scofflaw" for having ignored numerous traffic tickets he had received. MARK LANE

Summary

News broadcasts on January 15, 1964, stated that Mark Lane, New York attorney, has been retained by Lee Harvey Oswald's mother to represent Oswald before the committee appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson to investigate the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The "Daily Worker" for May 27, 1953, stated that the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) held an election of officers on May 26, 1953, and that Mark Lane was elected an ex officio member of the Board of Directors of the NLG.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast communist newspaper which is no longer being published.

In June, 1953, a source whose reliability was unknown but who was in a position to furnish such information advised that Lane's name appeared on the membership list of the New York Chapter of the NLG and that he was a subscriber to the "Lawyers Guild Review," the official publication of the NLG. On May 17, 1961, Lane spoke at a membership meeting of the organization, according to another source.

A report of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) has described the NLG as the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party (CP).

A source has also advised that Lane participated in a debate at a forum sponsored by Burning Issues on September 12, 1961.

During March and April, 1962, Burning Issues circulated petitions and otherwise endeavored to have Mark Lane drafted as a candidate for Congress. According to a source on October 18, 1962, Lane was the principal speaker at a forum on mobilization for youth which was held by Burning Issue[illegible]

Mark Lane

Confidential sources have advised that Advance, an Organization of Progressive Youth, was founded in New York City, February 13 and 14, 1960, and that its declaration of principles followed the line of the national CP leadership. In January, 1963, the name of the organization was changed to Advance and Burning Issues Youth Organizations, since Burning Issues, a separate youth organization, had affiliated with Advance.

A source reported that Mark Lane was the principal speaker at the annual ceremonies of the Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) at the Statue of Liberty on July 25, 1961.

The ELF is recognized by the Communist Party, USA, as an important progressive organization of women. It grew out of the Jewish Peoples Fraternal Order of the International Workers Order (IWO), both of which have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Lane spoke at a meeting of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) on October 21, 1962, in New York City, according to several sources. He strongly supported Cuba and condemned United States policy with regard to Cuba.

The ECLC has been described by the HCUA as operating as a communist front.

Several sources reported that Lane was one of the main speakers at a meeting sponsored by the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) in Chicago, Illinois, on October 21, 1962, and he called for the abolition of the HCUA.

A source has reported that the CCDBR was organized in Chicago, Illinois, on October 26, 1960, through the efforts and with the encouragement of CP officials, one of whom became the executive secretary of the CCDBR. Its avowed purpose is to seek the abolition of the HCUA.

It was also reported that Mark Lane was a speaker at rallies held on April 21, 1961, and December 6, 1961, sponsored by the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCATUAAC).

[redacted]

[redacted]

Mark Lane

"The Militant" for December 18, 1961, carried an article concerning the rally on December 6, 1961, and stated that Lane said his first official action during the coming session of the New York State Legislature would be to introduce a resolution to persuade Congress to abolish the HCUA.

"The Militant" is a weekly newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party which has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Lane was reported by several sources to have attended numerous meetings of the NYCAHUAAC between October, 1962, and January, 1963. At a number of them he made speeches in which he strongly urged the abolition of the HCUA. The NYCAHUAAC is an affiliate of the National Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee and both were founded principally by an individual who was a CP member in 1952. Various sources have advised that CP members in the New York City area have been solicited on various occasions to support the NYCAHUAAC. Three sources have reported that during the Spring of 1962 discussions were held at various closed CP club and committee meetings concerning the support of Mark Lane as a candidate for Congress.

Several sources have also advised that Isidore Gilby Needleman was in frequent touch with Lane and was interested in assisting him in his political campaign in 1960 to become elected to the New York State Legislature.

According to several sources Needleman, an attorney, was formerly employed by Amtorg Trading Corporation, the registered Russian trade agency in the United States. He has also represented current and former CP members in court and before various Congressional committees. He has had custody of CP funds and has described himself as a strict adherent of Marxist-Leninist doctrines. He has also acted as a Soviet espionage agent.

It was reported that a rally was held November 6, 1961, at the McMillan Theater, Columbia University, New York City, to protest the ban by the University against the appearance of several previously scheduled communist speakers. According to the source, Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary of the CP, and Mark Lane were principal speakers at the rally.

"The New York Times" for June 9, 1961, late city edition, on page 31 carried an article concerning the arrest and conviction of Mark Lane on June 8, 1961, at Jackson, Mississippi, as a member of one of two groups of "Freedom Riders" who had been apprehended in that city.

The same newspaper in its edition for April 3, 1962, carried an article on page 4 concerning Mark Lane's having been fined $415 on April 2, 1962, in New York City as a "scofflaw," for ignoring numerous traffic tickets.

Mark Lane's defense brief for Lee Harvey Oswald appeared on pages 5, 8 and 9 of the December 10, 1963, issue of the "National Guardian," which has been cited by the HCUA as having manifested itself as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia.

During an applicant investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in connection with the possible employment of an individual by an agency of the Federal Government, it was determined that the Office of the District Attorney, Queens County, New York, had conducted an investigation of Mark Lane in 1962 for alleged [redacted]

Unless otherwise indicated, all of the above information was furnished to the FBI by sources who have furnished reliable information in the past.

In connection with the Bureau's efforts to trace the sling on Oswald's rifle, the Dallas Office has requested that the sling be returned to Dallas for exhibit to Mr. William R. McEwan, United-Carr Fastener Corporation. Some of the metallic fasteners used in the assembly of the various parts of the sling bear markings indicating they were manufactured by the United-Carr Fastener Corporation.

The sling is presently being maintained in the Room 7410 (Firearms Unit) of the Laboratory.

Since an examination of the sling itself, rather than the use of the photographs which were forwarded to Dallas, may assist in identifying the source of the sling, it is recommended that approval be given to forward this sling to the Dallas Office.

ACTION:

Unless advised to the contrary, the sling will be forwarded to the Dallas Office on 1/10/64, for the purpose outlined above. *

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your inquiry concerning the status of our investigation of Lloyd John Wilson, the 18-year-old youth who on December 19, 1963, at Chicago, Illinois, alleged that during the last week of August, 1963, or the first day or two in September, 1963, he met Lee Harvey Oswald at a wrestling match at the Cow Palace in San Francisco, on which occasion he gave Oswald $1,000 to assassinate the President.

In response to your request, there is enclosed one copy each of reports concerning Wilson dated December 27, 1963, at Seattle, Washington, January 7, 1964, at Chicago, Illinois, and January 18, 1964, at San Francisco, California. There is also enclosed a copy of a memorandum dated December 26, 1963, prepared at El Paso, Texas.

Lloyd John Wilson first came to our attention as the result of an anonymous telephone call to our San Francisco Office on September 9, 1963, as set forth in the enclosed San Francisco report. The allegation concerning Wilson's threatening letter to President John F. Kennedy was furnished to the United States Secret Service, San Francisco, California, on September 9, 1963. Subsequently, we received a name check request from the United States Air Force and all information in our possession concerning Wilson as of December 4, 1963, was furnished to the Air Force on that date.

While Wilson alleged that he met Oswald during a wrestling match held at the San Francisco Cow Palace during the last week of August or the first two days of September, 1963, inquiry in San Francisco has revealed that the only wrestling matches at the Cow Palace during August and September, 1963, were held on August 10, and September 14, 1963. On August 10, 1963, Oswald was in the custody of the New Orleans Police Department and on that date he was interviewed in New Orleans at his request by Agents of this Bureau.

While we are unable to definitely place Oswald on September 14, 1963, our investigation of his activities in the New Orleans area has established that he filed claims with the New Orleans Division of Employment Security on September 3, 10 and 17, 1963. In addition, we have learned that books of the New Orleans Public Library were charged against Oswald's library card on September 9, 1963. Our inquiry has further shown that Oswald was seen in New Orleans by his landlord, Mr. Jesse James Garner, on September 16, 1963. Oswald obtained his Mexican tourist card in New Orleans on September 17, 1963. No information has been developed in our investigation of Oswald to indicate that he left the New Orleans area between late April, 1963, and late September, 1963, except for one overnight trip with his wife to the Jesuit House of Studies at Mobile, Alabama. From our findings concerning the schedule of wrestling matches at the Cow Palace at San Francisco during August and September, 1963, it would not have been possible for Wilson to have met with Oswald on the date he alleged.

On January 3, 1964, the local charge filed against Wilson at Chicago, Illinois, was dismissed in favor of Federal charges filed by the United States Secret Service, and on January 3, 1964, Wilson was held by United States Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike in default of $25,000 bond. We have been advised that in a report of the Psychiatric Institute of the Municipal Court of Chicago, Wilson was diagnosed as "delusional, hostile, and potentially homicidal." In addition, Wilson was diagnosed as possessing a "paranoid condition, maybe true paranoid."

On January 17, 1964, Wilson appeared in United States District Court, Chicago, Illinois, before Judge Abraham L. Marovitz, on which occasion Judge Marovitz ordered Wilson to be hospitalized at the United States Medical Center, Springfield, Missouri, for a period of fifteen days or as much additional time thereafter as necessary to complete a psychiatric examination. We are following the disposition of the case involving Wilson in Chicago, and you will be advised in this regard.

(2) Will ascertain methods of transportation other than by air which could have been utilized by OSWALD on September 25, 1963, which would have enabled him to have been in Austin, Texas, by 1:00 PM and at Houston by 7:00 PM, September 25, 1963.

(3) Will interview DAVID Y. WHITE, Second Mate on the Marjorie Lykes, who was on Voyage 110 of the Marion Lykes in September and October, 1959, regarding OSWALD, who was a passenger on that voyage. The Marion Lykes is due in the Gulf of Mexico on January 28, 1964.

(4) Will continue efforts to identify and locate ANTHONY ATZENHOFER, JOHN CERAVOLO, GEORGE PIAZZA and JOSEPH THOMPSON, who were possibly associated with the Civil Air Patrol at New Orleans at the time OSWALD was alleged to have been a member, for the purpose of interviewing them for any information they may be able to furnish regarding OSWALD.

ADMINISTRATIVE

The basis for the interview with JACK J. FRAZIER was information furnished to the Legat, Mexico, that JACK J. FRAZIER, 901 North Rampart Street, accompanied by another man, had been in Mexico in December, 1962, and January, 1963. The Legat source believed the other man to be identical with OSWALD.

By airtel dated 1/15/64 the Atlanta Office was requested to examine the tickets at Delta Airlines for passage between New Orleans and Houston on 9/25/63 under OSWALD's name and all aliases. The Miami Office was requested to conduct similar investigation at National Airlines and Eastern Airlines.

On 1/6/64 the Mobile Office was advised by teletype to interview WALLACE WILLIAMS, third cook on the SS Gulf Farmer.

FRANK M. MIJARES, JR., 7234 Eagle Pass Street, Houston, Texas, was interviewed at the United States Public Health Service Hospital, New Orleans, Louisiana, where he was receiving treatment as an outpatient.

He advised that he is presently a crew member of the SS Leslie Lykes and during Voyage 110 of the SS Marion Lykes in September - October of 1959 had served on that vessel as bedroom steward.

After examining a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, MIJARES said that he recalled OSWALD as a passenger on the SS Marion Lykes in the fall of 1959. MIJARES stated that OSWALD was not inclined to do much talking and at no time told him the reason for his making the trip to France or talked about himself. MIJARES said he recalled that after the first and second days, subsequent to sailing from New Orleans, OSWALD had instructed him to leave the cabin, which he shared with another young man, alone and for this reason he assumed that OSWALD was sea sick during this period. He also recalled that OSWALD subsequently reprimanded him for not having mopped the floor of his cabin to his satisfaction. According to MIJARES, when OSWALD got off the SS Marion Lykes he did not say goodby and did not leave a tip.

In an effort to locate and interview one ALEXIS H. DAVISON, 431 Riverside Drive, New York City, former Assistant Air Attache at the American Embassy, Moscow, concerning any explanation he may have for the appearance of his mother's name, Mrs. HAL DAVISON, in subject's notebook, the following investigation was conducted:

On January 8, 1964, Mr. SIGBERT BORG, Livingston Hall, Columbia University, 116th Street and Broadway, New York City, made available to SA FRANCIS J. O'BRIEN the records of Columbia University. A review of same disclosed that the building located at 431 Riverside Drive is known as Woodbridge Hall and is occupied by students attending Columbia University. The records failed to reflect any information concerning one ALEXIS H. DAVISON at 431 Riverside Drive, New York City.

Mr. BORG stated that he was personally acquainted with Captain PETER H. DAVISON, who resided with his wife at 431 Riverside Drive from September 1, 1962 until August 31, 1963. BORG stated that Captain DAVISON was in the United States Air Force and while at Columbia University had attended the Russian Institute. BORG stated that Captain DAVISON, prior to his departure from Columbia University, had been raised to the rank of Major in the United States Air Force and after his year of study he returned to the United States Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colorado. BORG advised that Major DAVISON was originally from Atlanta, Georgia, and that his parents still reside there. BORG commented that, at one time, Major DAVISON had been assigned as an Air Attache to the United States Embassy in Bonn, Germany. He stated that he had no knowledge of Major DAVISON ever having been assigned to the United States Embassy in Moscow.

Dear Sir:

I have a lead to persons who knew details of your brothers assassination 6 7 days four months before it occurred. On about July 15th, 1963, two females named Rose Doerfer and Jane Murphy, both lesbians, both partially semitic, and both inclined toward marxism, told me the name of person who was going to kill your brother. They also told me the exact date that the assassination would occur, the town, the assassins age, marital status that he was homosexual, etc.

If I had known at that time that they were serious I might have warned you. I say "might" because I was not an admirer of Mr. Kennedys socialistic efforts. However that whatever the motives were, killing your brother was a pointless, ineffectual move,

Rose and Jane indicated that Oswalds motive involved, among other things a "law protecting adult homosexuals". They mentioned the "Paines",

It is probably to your advantage to find some way of forcing information out of the above mentioned lesbians - if their homosexual gang is allowed to continue they may locate some crazy queer willing to shoot President Johnson. I recall that they were enthusiastic toward that project. They mentioned that some members of the F.B.I. and secret service were "in" on the assassination.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis:

Allegation received that one AMO ALGOZAR, a student at the University of Mexico Law School, reportedly talked to LEE HARVEY OSWALD and unknown American, who was with OSWALD, in Mexico City when latter individuals were planning to go to Cuba. Mexico

DETAILS:

On January 15, 1964, SF T-1 advised that she had received the information set forth below from a neighbor, Miss BARRIE MILLMAN, who is a student at the University of California, Berkeley, California. Mexico

MILLMAN is reportedly engaged to a graduate law student at the University of Mexico in Mexico City. SF T-1 did not know this individual's name at the time she initially contacted this Office.

BARRIE MILLMAN visited her fiance in Mexico City during Christmas time, 1963, at which time he told her that he had met LEE HARVEY OSWALD during OSWALD's "last trip to Mexico".

Elaborating further, SF T-1 related that MILLMAN explained that at the Friends Service Center, Mexico City, her fiance met an American, name unknown, who wanted to go to Cuba and make a first-hand report on the situation there. Later Miss MILLMAN's fiance again met this unknown American at Sanfords Restaurant, Mexico City, and on this occasion, the unknown

American was accompanied by a person MILLMAN's fiance later realized was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. On the occasion of this meeting the unknown American and OSWALD reportedly told MILLMAN's fiance that they were working together to get visas for travel to Cuba and that they planned to go to Cuba together.

On January 16, 1964, SF T-1 advised that she had just learned the identity of Miss MILLMAN's fiance, who is studying at the University of Mexico Law School. She identified this individual as one AMO ALGOZAR and indicated that he is due to graduate from the University of Mexico Law School sometime during February, 1964, and has a grant for study in France.

Characteristics	DUFF has been described as a "con man", pathological liar, and lazy

On 1-10-64, Miss FRANCES BERNARD, 5201 Willis, Dallas, Texas, advised that she had been married to WILLIAM McEWAN DUFF for approximately one month from November to December, 1962, after which she had her marriage annulled. Miss BERNARD said that she telephoned DUFF's uncle, WILLIAM McEWAN, at South San Gabriel, California, at which time she was told that DUFF was a pathological liar. McEWAN told her that DUFF had never worked for Boeing at Seattle and that he had sent DUFF money to take the bus from Seattle to the Los Angeles area.

Miss BERNARD advised that DUFF's British Passport, No. G.213108, indicated that he was a British subject; however, this passport expired 10-19-61 but she has it in her possession since he left it with some of his possessions after he was "thrown out". In this passport book, Miss BERNARD advised there was a photograph of WILLIAM M. DUFF, AF No. 19607309, indicating previous service in the U. S. Air Force. She said there was also a stub for shoe repair, No. 8622, Family Shoe Service, 505 West Lancaster Boulevard, Lancaster, California. However, on the back of this stub was printed the name "MARGARET FAIRCHILD, Box 109, Monte Vista, Colorado."

Miss BERNARD advised that she did not know the significance of this woman's name, but assumed that it was another one of DUFF's girl friends. She also said that it was possible he would contact his uncle, WILLIAM McEWAN, at South San Gabriel, California for money, since he had done this in the past.

On 1-12-64, Mr. DON MAY, General Clerk, Identification Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised that Dallas PD Record 52495 for WILLIAM McEWAN DUFF, 4919 San Jacinto, Dallas, indicated that he was arrested 4-18-63 for investigation of swindle and released 4-18-63. DUFF's FBI Number is 483264E. He was also arrested by the Sheriff's Office, Los Angeles, California, on 12-11-60 for drunk driving under Sheriff's Office No. B743533.

Date January 20, 1964

Mr. ROBERT EDWARD WEBSTER, Room 11, In-City Motel, Main Street, Wellsville, Ohio, advised he had no contact whatsoever with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated his only knowledge of OSWALD was limited to his having overheard a conversation between some Americans at the American National Exhibit in Russia during the latter months of 1959, to the effect that OSWALD had defected from the United States to live in Russia. WEBSTER said he could not recall the identities of the persons who were involved in that conversation. He said OSWALD's name was never mentioned to him by anyone in the U.S.S.R., or in the United States.

WEBSTER stated that after his defection from the United States during the Fall of 1959, he lived common-law with VERA IVANOVNA PLATONOVA at Kondratievski Prospect, House #63, Apartment 18, Leningrad, K-197, U.S.S.R., and was employed as a plastics technician by the Soviet Government at the Plastics Institute of Leningrad where he earned approximately $270.00 per month (the equivalent to a scientist's pay in the U.S.S.R.) until he decided to return to the United States.

WEBSTER stated that on August 18, 1960, a baby girl was born from his aforementioned common-law relationship, and he later adopted this child which was named SVETLANA ROBERTOVNA WEBSTER. He said he occasionally sends money to the U.S.S.R. for the support of this child and occasionally receives a letter from the mother of this child, who continues to reside in the Soviet Union.

He explained that during 1960, a letter written by his father convinced him that he should return to the United States and face his responsibilities. He added his mother at that time suffered a nervous breakdown over his defection to Russia.

He said he first applied for permission to leave Russia about August of 1960 and was advised in October of 1960 that such had been refused. He re-applied for permission to leave during October, 1961, and received notification that such had been approved in March, 1962. He said that it took the United States Government a couple of months to grant him a visa to enter the United States as an immigrant. He advised he plans to become a naturalized United States citizen after the expiration of a waiting period which will conclude about 1967.

WEBSTER stated that upon re-entering the United States in May, 1962, he had been employed by the Luger Boat Company, Minneapolis, Minnesota, as a foreman for about one month during 1962, and then came to Wellsville, Ohio, where he has been employed for approximately one year by Wesco Manufacturing Company, Wellsville, Ohio, as a plastics technician.

WEBSTER stated that since he left the U.S.S.R., he has had no contact with any official of the U.S.S.R., and no pressure of any type had ever been exerted on him by VERA PIATONOVA to cause him to commit any act on behalf of the U.S.S.R.

WEBSTER advised he is 35 years of age, and appeared to be approximately 5' 7"; 145 lbs.; blond hair; blue eyes; fair complexion and medium build.

The Assassination of President Kennedy

An End or a Beginning?

On November 22, 1963, riding through the streets of a great American city justly boastful of thriving growth and wealth, the President of all the people of the United States appeared stimulated by the acclaim at a Fort Worth gathering, and by those who had cheered him along the way.

In Dallas, en route to address a large luncheon group awaiting his arrival, the President must have experienced some anxiety because of the incidents of hatred and violence which had accompanied an earlier visit of his appointed Ambassador to the United Nations, Adlai Stevenson. With maximum possible protection of an alert Secret Service, President John F. Kennedy, unlike the reigning heads of some other nations, exhibited that sense of freedom which is shared as natural right by Americans as he was transported in an open car exposed to public view and to the calculating eye of a hidden assassin.

One man, one gun, one bullet shattered the brain which had been dedicated to the solution of our nation's, and the world's, problems. The uncivilized act shocked all Americans into awareness of the over-riding importance of the President of the United States; an importance which, even in those who disagreed vigorously with his policies and beliefs, suddenly superceded all other feelings, all other considerations.

One man, one gun, one bullet overruled the decision of the majority of voters of this nation who had chosen John E. Kennedy to be Chief Executive of their country, to direct its destinies for four years.

The heavy weight of sorrow and personal loss, and of sympathy for the President's wife and family, for most people was accompanied by a sweeping disbelief that our nation's chosen leader and spokesman could be so swiftly, so unexpectedly, so wantonly destroyed as a vital human being.

In varying ways each of us sensed that his death was, in part, our's. There was some measure of reassurance in the essential decency and justice of most persons, for relatively few reacted with spontaneous rage or desire for vengeance against the assassin. Rather there was a querulous reaching out for understanding of the motivations leading to this abominable act of destruction by one human being against another.

It is hard to know when the emotions of mourning and shock and, perhaps a vaguely undefinable feeling of shared guilt, will drift into the background of experience. Certainly no one who knew the impact of the assassination, of the almost simultaneous shooting of Texas Governor John B. Connally, and of the tragically bizarre occurrences in the minutes and days which followed, will ever forget. And recorded history will remind those who follow us.

No murder occurs without cause, although irrational to others. Each killer is motivated by some force or combination of influences which leads to his act of destruction.

The life of assassin Lee Harvey Oswald was taken by another ruthless killing just two days after his arrest, thus limiting the possibilities for fullest possible understanding of the twisted motivations for committing his immeasurable crime. Certainly the efficiency and resources of the Federal Bureau of Investigation ultimately will make known more than is now available to understand the reasons why this man had appointed himself executioner of President Kennedy and of democratic decision.

But enough is now known of the crime and of the accused criminal to lend emphasis to unresolved problems in our community out of which arise the stimuli for so appalling an act. Lee Oswald, to the degree that we now know of his background and activities, was what many people dismiss as an "oddball" or "crackpot", if they give attention to him at all. In the lives of most of us we have contacts with persons whom, because of unrelenting hatred or abnormal pattern of conduct, we avoid as being in these categories. Such individuals exist in every community.

The heinous acts which occurred in Dallas on November 22, 1963, and in the days immediately thereafter, could have transpired in any American city.

Unfortunately, no large community is free of that lunatic-fringe which is endowed with intelligence, impelled by hate and capable of murder. Nor is any city free of persons who believe themselves beyond the law.

Our nation of peoples has been swept by the emotional impact of President Kennedy's tragic death. If it is to have meaning beyond temporary sympathy and shock, if from it shall be constructed a monument of greater wisdom, then the interment of his remains must stimulate widespread dedication to the solution of those problems which contributed to his death.

For the living, there is an obligation to search out those problems, and those solutions.

There is need to examine exhaustively the short life of Lee Oswald, to determine the influences which led to his abandonment of faith in our system of government and justice, in their stead his acceptance of the philosophy of Marxism, and the eventual conviction that fulfillment of his life goals required the taking of the lives of others.

There is need for evaluation of growing American cynicism towards the political processes and orderly government by law; to face squarely the implications of a popular wise-guy attitude which is titillated by "putting things over" in technical violation of the law. Among other alarming products of such attitudes has been tolerance of the growth of organized crime and racketeering into America's biggest business and one of its most influential forces in shaping the course and character of political government.

Citizens everywhere, community leaders and public officials must generate themselves, and stimulate in others, a demand for integrity in the law enforcement processes. It is the awareness for this need to which our Crime Commission gives impetus - but not enough.

Each murderer in the Dallas tragedy acted as jury, prosecutor, judge and executioner outside the law. And the histories of both accused killers indicate that they were conditioned to disrespect law and its orderly procedures:

Lee Harvey Oswald during 1954 and 1955 attended Beauregard Junior High School in New Orleans, where other students frequently were in conflict with police. He then resided with his mother in a dingy apartment at 126 Exchange Alley, a narrow street extending one block from the main business thoroughfare of Canal Street, to the Iberville Street boundary of the French Quarter.

Their substandard living quarters were above a pool hall, where Oswald is reported to have taken his one close schoolmate, a hangout for gamblers. The bleak street which he called home was occupied also by sordidly operated bars, including some in which aggressive homosexuals and prostitutes were frequenters and others the scene of operations for illegal bookies. This also was when New Orleans Police officers, as part of their corrupt practices, could readily be observed patronizing or on friendly terms with vice and gambling joints.

It is of special interest that Oswald was impressing his school teachers with outstanding performance in the study of civics. As he was being taught the theory of responsible government, in the same teen years he was surrounded by cynical evidences of its betrayal.

Leon Rubinstein, better known as Jack Ruby, the killer of Oswald, had previously indicated his attitude towards law as reflected by a police record of carrying concealed weapons and aggravated assault. For those who understand how profits are derived from operation of a strip-tease joint, Ruby's means of livelihood gives further emphasis to his disdain for functioning within the law. And his disrespect for symbols of law enforcement is appallingly revealed in reports of his hospitality and generosity to some Dallas Police officers and, most important, their acceptance of him as host.

Can it be dismissed solely as coincidence that both accused assassins were exposed to tolerated community conditions which bespoke the rejection of law and acceptance of corruption?

Remembering the ease of Lee Oswald's acquisition of the rifle which destroyed our President and seriously injured Governor Connally; remembering that he also acquired the pistol with which he killed Dallas Policeman J. D. Tippitt and attempted the murder of one of the officers who later apprehended him; recalling that Dallas night club operator and police character Jack Ruby was able to possess and carry the gun with which Oswald was killed in police custody, we must come to grips with, and bring about, far more stringent screening of persons before they are authorized to sell, purchase or possess firearms.

For many years law enforcement officials have emphasized the need for more cautious weapon controls. Proposals in our legislative bodies, for such increased regulation, are invariably met with solid, well-organized opposition from sportsmen's organizations, which understandably feel that such requirements would impose hardships upon them. They must recognize that some additional inconvenience is a small price to pay for reducing, to any degree, the frequency with which deadly weapons reach the hands of deadly persons.

Several years ago a man in his mid-twenties came to the Metropolitan Crime Commission office, placed a loaded, small caliber pistol on the Managing Director's desk, sat down and cried. He stated that because of a long-festering bitterness against alleged injustices of a former boss, he decided to kill him. Having no disqualifying police record, he had no difficulty securing a permit to purchase a gun, which he did, with murder his sole objective. In his particular case it did not happen. His gun was purchased in a shop on Rampart Street, perhaps the same one where Oswald had observed a .45 caliber pistol which he had planned to steal until his schoolmate, in whom he confided, pointed out the burglary detection system.

Greater attention must be given to the related problems of mental health and crimes of violence. In New Orleans, as in every major city, there is a lunatic-fringe, combining intelligence with distorted emotions. Some of them become identifiable through active evidences of destructive hate. Which of them is incapable of duplicating the shocking acts of Oswald and Ruby?

Also we must thoroughly evaluate the merits and demerits of capital punishment as a penalty prescribed by society. As a self-governing people, do we thus create a culture in which killing is acceptable punishment for wrongdoing? Do we plant the seed of logic for independent action by the self-appointed judge and executioner, when taking of human life is considered responsibly-arrived-at decision in the criminal law? Especially with statistical studies failing to establish capital punishment as a deterrent to capital crimes, is the policy of destroying life, in the name of justice, a proper one for civilized society?

We amass national resources of money, skills, public opinion and manpower to compete with foreign and abhorrent ideologies. With these resources we also challenge and overcome the mysteries of outer space.

There is perhaps a greater and more important challenge presented in stark reality by the tragic recent events in Dallas; that we must dedicate more of our resources to the task of closing the gap between philosophy and fact in the rights to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" - to make equal justice under law prevail.

Many of the ingredients of this challenge are now discouraging or disillusioning to those who seek to make democracy work:

widespread demand for increased government services accompanied by clamor against the cost, the scramble to pluck fruits from the tree of democracy while evading responsibility for nourishing its roots;

corrupting pressures on government officials and agencies for special privileges; lack of individual and group indignation in reaction to corrupt practices in government, business and organized labor; spreading trend of court decisions to impose excessive restraints on police in dealing with serious crimes, as in the "exclusionary rule" which prohibits seizure of evidence of a crime if a warrant fails to anticipate such evidence will be found, or the Mallory rule which ignores the difficulties of investigation as it clamps a too-tight lid on confessions;

the growing tide of crime in the U.S., with inattention to the needs of law enforcement agencies, which almost everywhere are undermanned, underequipped and underpaid;

the arrogant posture of organized crime and racketeering in the American scene, met with timid and inadequate legislation at the national level, largely ignored at state and local lawmaking levels;

the crime-deterrent value, and decency, of "speedy justice", too often lost in technical or unjustified postponements of trials;

judges more concerned with partisan politics than with impartial justice; unprofessional parole and pardon procedures which return unreformed criminals to destructive careers; prisons unequipped to accomplish their assigned task; communities unready to help ex-convicts find their way in useful society.

These and many more are gaps to be filled to advance law and order, and to stimulate "government of laws, not of men" as our way of life, bringing vital reality to the inscription on the courthouse facade.

On November 22nd our President, John F. Kennedy, and police officer J. D. Tippitt were both engaged in performance of their duties when fatally struck down by an assassin. The living, in the future performance of citizen and official duties, will determine whether national mourning is shortlived sentiment, or the beginning of dedication to correcting those conditions which mold the atmosphere of evaded responsibility in which these heinous crimes occurred.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Belmont

DATE: 1/21/64

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

The Chicago Office, by letterhead memorandum dated 12/19/63, received in the Bureau on 12/21/63, furnished information concerning one Lloyd John Wilson, aged 18, who two days previously had been discharged from the Air Force after less than two months' service as a "schizoid personality with strong paranoid trends."

On 12/19/63, Wilson, after calling a Chicago newspaper, appeared at the Chicago Office and reported that he met Oswald at a wrestling match at the Cow Palace in San Francisco during the last week of August or first few days of September, 1963, and that he gave Oswald $1000 in cash to assassinate President Kennedy. This letterhead memorandum covers six pages of miscellaneous information concerning Wilson's background and sets forth his activities and interest in the American Nazi Party while he was in California.

On 12/19/63 Wilson was taken into custody by Chicago authorities on a disorderly conduct complaint filed by the Chicago Secret Service and on that date he was held for psychiatric examination by the Psychiatric Institute of Chicago Municipal Court.

After this material was reviewed at the Seat of Government it was disseminated to the Civil Rights Division of the Department inasmuch as it contained information showing Wilson was engaged in neo-Nazi group activities as well as racial activities. The Department subsequently made available this letterhead memorandum to the President's Commission and J. Lee Rankin, on 1/17/64, indicated an interest in Wilson's activities and inquired as to whether the Bureau had more specific information.

Previous Inquiries Made by Bureau concerning Wilson:

On September 9, 1963, San Francisco received an anonymous telephone call alleging that Wilson was forming a White Resistance Organization, that he was in favor of Nazi-type activities, and had written a letter to President Kennedy which was probably not sent but which contained a threat to the President. This information was immediately furnished to the Secret Service by the San Francisco Office and investigation was instituted into the allegation concerning Wilson's organization of a White Resistance group. Inquiry into the latter allegation was completed and the case closed by San Francisco 10/4/63 by letter. Investigation did not verify that Wilson had actually established any such group as claimed.

Based on an inquiry from the Air Force in response to a name check, information available in Bureau files concerning Wilson was made available to the Air Force on 12/4/63.

After Wilson appeared at the Chicago Office on 12/19/63, in view of his statement that he had paid Oswald $1000 to assassinate the President, immediate additional investigation was conducted to determine whether there was any basis for his statement.

Inquiry has shown that the only two wrestling matches at the Cow Palace in August and September, 1963, were matches held on August 10 and September 14, 1963. On August 10, 1963, Oswald was in custody of local authorities in New Orleans, Louisiana (he was arrested 8/9/63) and he was interviewed by Bureau Agents at his request on 8/10/63 in New Orleans. We cannot place Oswald definitely on 9/14/63 as he was out of work from late July, 1963 until he obtained the job at the Texas Schoolbook Depository in Dallas, Texas. We do know, however, that he was seen by his landlord in New Orleans on 9/16/63, that he obtained his Mexican tourist card in New Orleans on 9/17/63, and that he filed claims at the New Orleans Division of Employment Security on September 3, 10, and 17, 1963. In addition, books were charged out against his New Orleans Public Library card on September 9, 1963. Our inquiry of Oswald's activities in the New Orleans area between early May and September 25, 1963, when he departed on his trip to Mexico, has developed no evidence to show that he left the New Orleans area except for an overnight trip with his wife in the Summer of 1963 to the Jesuit House of Studies in Mobile.

From the findings in San Francisco concerning the wrestling matches, it is apparent that Wilson could not have met with Oswald as he alleges during the last week of August or the first few days of September.

Memo to Mr. Belmont from A. Rosen
Re: Lee Harvey Oswald

On January 3, 1964, local charges in Chicago were dropped against Wilson in favor of Federal charges filed there by the Secret Service. Wilson was arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner in Chicago on January 3, and held in default of $25,000 bond. The Psychiatric Institute of the Chicago Municipal Court diagnosed Wilson as "delusional, hostile and potentially homicidal" and said that he was possessed of a "paranoid condition, maybe true paranoid." On January 17, the Federal Court in Chicago remanded Wilson to the U. S. Federal Hospital at Springfield, Missouri, for fifteen days or such additional time as is necessary to complete a psychiatric examination. This aspect is being followed by Chicago.

ACTION:

There is attached a letter to Mr. Rankin furnishing him reports covering investigation conducted by the Bureau relative to Lloyd John Wilson and furnishing him current information relative to Wilson's status relative to his arrest and commitment for psychiatric examination in Chicago, Illinois.

Synopsis: ROBERT J. KAYE was interviewed at Tucson, Arizona, on 1/9/64. KAYE is presently residing at 2116 E. 17th Street and is employed as a serviceman by Falcon Automatic, Inc., a Tucson vending machine company. KAYE repeated his story of meeting unknown man named LEE (LNU) at the Greyhound Bus Terminal in Denver, Colorado, on a Saturday during early October, 1963. Advised that LEE gave him $300.00 for traveling money and promised him another $3,000.00 if he would go to Mexico City and obtain a package from a man who would contact him at a certain building in that city. KAYE claimed LEE (LNU) gave him a small hand drawn map and a calendar on which certain dates were marked and stated that he gave these items to a Secret Service Agent in El Paso, Texas. KAYE advised that he traveled to Mexico City but was not met by anyone and that he eventually returned to El Paso, Texas, and then to Tucson, Arizona. KAYE advised that he never went to Amarillo, Texas, where he was to deliver package to LEE (LNU) and that he never again saw LEE. Believes that LEE is identical with OSWALD but admits that he cannot be certain. KAYE suggests possibility that package which he was to deliver to LEE (LNU) may have contained narcotics.

The following investigation was conducted at Tucson, Arizona:

On December 24, 1963, Clerk DANIEL L. POTTER, Y.M.C.A., 516 N. 5th Avenue, advised that a ROBERT KAYE had stayed there from 11:00 AM, December 12, 1963, until he left during the early morning on December 23, 1963. KAYE's registration card reflects that he listed his date of birth as December 25, 1934; his marital status as single and his residence as 13396 E. Colfax, Denver, Colorado. POTTER advised that on the day before KAYE left he placed a long distance telephone call to his "wife or ex-wife" at Denver, Colorado, and that this call was completed to Las Vegas, Nevada. After talking to his wife, KAYE made the statement that he would have to go back. KAYE left early the next day without leaving a forwarding address.

On January 9, 1964, inquiry at the Falcon Automatic, Inc., 727 S. Campbell Avenue, revealed that ROBERT J. KAYE was employed by this company as a vending machine serviceman.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 1/16/64

ROBERT J. KAYE was interviewed at the office of the Tucson Resident Agency. KAYE was told that he was entitled to be advised by an attorney, that he did not have to make any statement unless he desired to do so and that anything he did say could be used against him in a court of law.

He advised that he is presently living in Apartment 9, 2116 E. 17th Street, Tucson, Arizona. He is employed as a vending machine service mechanic of the Falcon Automatic, Inc., 727 S. Campbell, Tucson, Arizona. KAYE advised that although he could sign his name, he was able to read and write only to a very limited extent.

KAYE advised that sometime in the early part of October, 1963, the exact date not recalled, he was employed as a vending machine serviceman by the Colorado Vending Company which is operated by GLEN JENKINS. This was a small operation and the repair shop was located in a garage in back of KAYE's house.

About this time, JENKINS and KAYE were interested in purchasing an amusement type vending machine from a man by the name of SAM (LNU) who operated a small vending machine business in Denver, Colorado. SAM told KAYE to go down to the Greyhound Bus Terminal in Denver, where he would be able to observe a similar machine.

During early October of 1963, the exact date not recalled, but very likely on a Saturday, KAYE went to the Greyhound Bus Terminal in Denver, Colorado, and there looked at the amusement machine which he and JENKINS intended to buy. While KAYE was looking at this machine in the Greyhound Bus Terminal, a man standing nearby asked KAYE if he had ever seen KAYE before. KAYE said no. KAYE advised that the man then said a few words in Russian such as "What are you doing" or How are you doing". After a short further conversation, KAYE sat down at a table with this man and they both had a cup of coffee. The man told KAYE that his name was LEE (no last name given). LEE then asked KAYE if KAYE would like to make $3,000.00 and advised KAYE that he would only have to pick up a package. He also stated that KAYE would get a free trip out of the transaction. KAYE stated that he said "It sounds too easy - nobody gives away $3,000.00 just like that". KAYE then told LEE that he had to make a service call at the Tower Building. LEE stated that he would go along with KAYE and actually did ride to the Tower Building with KAYE in the station wagon which the latter used during his work. KAYE asked LEE where he would have to go to make this money and LEE advised him he would have to go to Mexico City. During this conversation which took place in the station wagon, LEE took from over the sun visor a strip of four photographs of the type in a picture of a vending machine. KAYE advised that these were test photos which he had taken of various machines after having made repairs to the particular machine. After making the service call at the Tower Building, KAYE drove LEE back to the Greyhound Bus Terminal in Denver, Colorado, and there left him.

On the same evening about 8:30 PM just as KAYE was about to sit down and eat a sandwich, LEE came to the KAYE house. LEE refused to come into KAYE's house and together with KAYE, he sat in his car. KAYE advised that LEE's car was a Chevrolet either a 1959 or a 1960, turquoise in color, probably a two dor and appeared to be in good shape. He stated that it was so dark that he was unable to decipher the license on the car.

LEE advised KAYE that in Mexico City he would have to pick up a package for LEE. LEE told KAYE that when he got to Mexico City, he should walk to a large building which is the former presidential palace. KAYE forgot what LEE called this building and stated he had always referred to it as a museum. The building was located near the biggest park in Mexico City and the park contained a zoo. When he reached the building, KAYE was to go upstairs at about 4:30 PM. This was also to be on a Saturday and KAYE was not exactly sure of the date but believed it was early in November. On the second floor of this building, he was to look at a large picture or a mirror, depicting Mexican history, presidents, indians, priests and so forth. At this time KAYE would be contacted by a man and would follow this man into the nearby restroom. LEE advised KAYE that the man would know him from the photos which LEE had taken from KAYE's station wagon and also from the decided limp with which KAYE walked. This man was to give KAYE a package (not further described). KAYE was not instruded to give this man anything or to say anything to the man.

At this point, KAYE advised that LEE gave KAYE instructions and wrote them down on a small piece of paper and marked the dates on a small paper calendar. The small piece of paper contained a rough map or diagram to assist KAYE in reaching the building in Mexico City. KAYE advised that he gave this small scrap of paper and the small calendar to a Secret Service Agent in El Paso, Texas. Two weeks after picking up the package in Mexico City, KAYE was to meet LEE in the bus terminal in Amarillo, Texas, also on a Saturday. There he would give the package to LEE and LEE was to give him $[illegible].

KAYE asked LEE what the package contained but LEE did not answer this question. During this conversation, LEE took some money out of his right hand pocket, looked at it, put it back in his pocket and then took a dark brown wallet of the folding type from the left rear pants pocket. He took some money from this wallet and gave it to KAYE for traveling expenses. The money was in 50 and 20 dollar denominations and counted to $300.00.

At no time during the conversation did LEE make any threats to KAYE.

KAYE advised that he left Denver on a Monday morning sometime around the end of October. Before leaving, he gave his wife between $90 and $100.00. He did not tell his wife what he was going to do but said he would be back in about a week or a week and a half. Mrs. KAYE did not ask him any questions at the time. KAYE drove to El Paso, Texas, in his own car, a blue 1961 Thunderbird, bearing Colorado license. He advised that he had purchased this car at Denver, Colorado, for $2700. When he reached El Paso, he sold his Thunderbird to a used car dealer. He received $1600 in cash and a 1957 Ford. The Ford was white over orange, four door and had an automatic transmission. He advised that eventually this car threw a rod and he left it in El Paso. Before going to Mexico City, KAYE tried to telephone his wife from El Paso but learned that she had left. At El Paso, KAYE purchased a visitor's permit at the border for $3.00. He advised that he bought this on the Mexican side of the border and that it was to be good for 15 days. He left El Paso and went by bus to Juarez, Chihuahua, and subsequently Mexico City. At Juarez he met a girl by the name of GLORIA (LNU) and stayed with her for about two or three days. KAYE advised that GLORIA was an exotic dancer at a small club in Juarez. In Juarez he had also met a man by the name of MIGUEL (LNU). MIGUEL spoke Spanish and English well and wanted to go to Mexico City, so KAYE paid his fare to Mexico City.

KAYE advised that he and MIGUEL arrived in Mexico City about 6 AM, two days before he was to meet the unknown man. He advised that LEE had given him no description of this man and that he, KAYE, was to be contacted by the man. In Mexico City, along with MIGUEL, he stayed in a small red stone hotel. He advised that this hotel is about three blocks away from the post office in Mexico City. It is about four or five stories in height and around the corner from a well known market place. When he left this hotel, he paid the bill in cash in the amount of 120 pesos. KAYE advised that he paid in pesos rather than in dollars because while at El Paso, he had converted $100 into Mexican pesos and had received something between 1200 or 1300 pesos.

On a Saturday in November, 1963, the exact date he was unable to recall, accompanied by MIGUEL, KAYE went to the monument about noon time. They walked around the park and observed the animals in the zoo. About 3:30 PM, they took the elevator to the second floor of the monument. They found the very large picture which covered an entire wall and depicted the history of Mexican life. He recalled that when they left the elevator on the second floor and followed the sign, the picture was on his left hand side. KAYE waited in the vicinity of the picture and later found the rest-room but was NOT contacted at either place by anyone.

KAYE returned to the hotel with MIGUEL and on the next morning, a Sunday, left Mexico City alone by bus. He traveled first to Chihuahua where he stayed for two days at the home of a man named RAOUL (LNU). He advised that RAOUL had worked at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Hollywood for a number of years as a waiter and spoke very good English. He stated he came to know RAOUL through GLORIA whom he met in Juarez. When he left Chihuahua, he went by bus to Juarez where he stayed with GLORIA for a few days. He then returned to El Paso. He advised that he never went to Amarillo, Texas, that he never again saw the man whom he knew only as LEE. At El Paso he stayed at the Y.M.C.A., which is located in the downtown section of the city. He picked up the 1957 Ford and traded it to an El Paso Ford Dealer (name unknown) for a 1955 four door Oldsmobile, color black. He advised that he paid $200.00 for the Oldsmobile plus the trade-in value on the Ford. Subsequently, he sold the Oldsmobile back to the El Paso Ford Dealer and received $75.00. He advised he did this because the transmission was bad.

After selling the Oldsmobile, he went back to Juarez and tried to get a job. Again he lived with GLORIA and stayed there a couple of weeks.

KAYE advised that on the day following the assassination of President KENNEDY, he saw a picture of LEE OSWALD on TV at El Paso, Texas. KAYE advised that he believes that OSWALD is identical with LEE (LNU) whom he met in Denver, Colorado, but admitted that he cannot be absolutely certain since he saw LEE only briefly on two occasions on the day he met him at Denver.

KAYE advised that after seeing the picture of OSWALD on TV, he went to the Secret Service Office in El Paso, Texas, but found it closed. He returned the next day and furnished all the information concerning his association with LEE, his trip to Mexico City, to a Secret Service Agent. KAYE advised that he gave this agent the map drawn by LEE and the calendar which LEE had given to him. He advised that the Secret Service Agent wrote down apparently what KAYE was telling him and that he, KAYE, signed the paper. KAYE advised that he did not know what was contained on the paper because he cannot read very well.

KAYE described LEE as follows:

Sex	Male
Height	5'9"
Build	Slender

At the time of their meeting, LEE was wearing an open neck sport shirt, a light gray zipper sweater, loose fitting, slacks and no hat. KAYE advised that he walked easily and appeared to have no physical disability. LEE wore no glasses.

At the conclusion of this interview, KAYE recalled that he had once assisted some detectives in Chicago in breaking a dope ring and suggested that the package which LEE wanted him to pick up might have contained dope.

KAYE was fingerprinted and photographed and stated that he would be willing to take a polygraph test if such a test was desired.

At 5:20 PM, 1-20-64, I telephonically contacted ASAC Clark, Dallas, with regard to the three metal boxes of personal correspondence obtained from Mrs. Paine.

I told ASAC Clark that we contemplated furnishing the material to the President's Commission and wanted to be sure of the two following facts:

(1) That Dallas had reviewed this material and that there was nothing pertinent in it and

(2) That Mrs. Paine was aware that we were furnishing the material to the Commission.

I advised ASAC Clark that unless informed to the contrary on the morning of 1-21-64 we would assume the above statements are correct. I told Clark that, of course, in furnishing the material to the Commission we would advise them of Mrs. Paine's request that the material not be made public and that it be returned to her as soon as possible.

ASAC Clark stated that he was quite sure that the material had been reviewed and that there was nothing pertinent in it and also that Mrs. Paine was aware that the material was going to the Commission - that he would check and in the event it was not correct we would be advised early on the morning of 1-21.

Rerep SA John R. Wineberg dated 1/20/64 at Philadelphia in captioned matter.

Bureau notes that SA Wineberg's report contains form FD-302 setting forth results of interview of Joseph Goulden, wherein Goulden declined to identify the law enforcement officer who allegedly furnished information to Goulden that Ruby had gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department by posing as a television cameraman's helper on the day that Oswald was shot. However, there is no mention in this FD-302 that Goulden declined to identify the law enforcement officer in Dallas who allegedly informed him that Oswald was solicited as an informant by the FBI, although such data is set out in the cover pages of SA Wineberg's report. Philadelphia Office should immediately submit an amended FD-302 setting forth complete results of Goulden's interview on 12/16/63 by the Philadelphia Office.

The Dallas Office will note that in SA Wineberg's report of 1/20/64 Goulden indicated that the law enforcement officer, whom he refused to identify, told him that the data he furnished concerning Ruby's obtaining entrance into the Dallas Police Department was being "handled through proper channels." The Dallas Office should immediately contact appropriate officials in the Dallas Police Department to determine if such information was made a matter of record in the Dallas Police Department and, if so, Dallas Office should determine the identity of the original source of these allegations and should interview such source in detail concerning such allegations.

This matter should be given the immediate attention of both offices.

NOTE: Joseph Goulden is a reporter for the "Philadelphia Inquirer" in Philadelphia and prepared an article for the 12/8/63 edition of this newspaper indicating he had been told by a law enforcement officer in Dallas that Oswald had at one time been contacted to become an FBI informant. We instructed Philadelphia by airtel 1/15/64 to expedite recontact of Goulden to fully resolve his source alleging FBI had attempted to recruit Oswald as informant. This lead was covered by Philadelphia Office but was set forth in cover page of SA Wineberg's report. This should be set forth in details of report, inasmuch as the President's Commission received our first report containing the initial interview of Goulden and should have a report setting forth the fact that we recontacted Goulden in our efforts to fully pin down and resolve this unfounded allegation.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Interview of YLARIO ROJAS VILLANUEVA was conducted at Guadalajara on 1/10/64 by SA EDWIN O. JOHNSON, Guadalajara Resident Agent. SA JOHNSON advised that ROJAS gave no outward indication of being a psychopathic case, but did admit that he is desperately in need of money. Flaws in the story of ROJAS, such as his inability to describe the car in which he allegedly traveled with the Cuban from Guadalajara to Ciudad Juarez, his inability to give the name or address of the hotel where he allegedly stayed with the Cuban in Ciudad Juarez, and his inability to furnish the names of the three Cubans with whom he supposedly was in contact for a period of almost three months in Cozumel, would perhaps indicate fabrication of the story on his part.

in late December, 1962, and again in February, 1963, the logical ports of entry in Mexico for such travel would be either Merida, Yucatan, or Cozumel. A check is presently being made of the central Mexican Immigration records to ascertain whether these records reflect any travel on the part of OSWALD into Merida or Cozumel at the times indicated.

Copies of the attached letterhead memorandum were disseminated locally to the Charge d'Affaires of the Embassy and to the CIA.

COPIES

Four extra copies of this letter are attached for forwarding by the Bureau, together with copies of the letterhead memorandum, to Dallas, office of origin, and to El Paso for information and possible use in the future in the event it becomes necessary to conduct investigation there in connection with ROJAS' allegation concerning the trip with the Cuban to Ciudad Juarez where he allegedly met OSWALD.

An undated letter contained in an envelope postmarked December 31, 1963, at Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, was received by Attorney General ROBERT F. KENNEDY. The following is a translation of this letter:

I ask you to forgive these few bold lines addressed to so distinguished a person.

Mr. ROBERT, I am a Mexican by race and nationality. Also, Mr. ROBERT, I am communicating with you because I do not trust anyone in the matter I intend to deal with.

I am referring to the death of your brother. Perhaps, my information may prove quite helpful even though various officials of the United States may be involved and affected by it. I, your servant, am willing to identify them. I will tell you only later; however, with patience. It concerns the plan which I never thought would be carried out.

I used to be a friend of LEE OSWALD, and also of ALBERT, as well as three more people. I knew about the plan, but I never thought that it would turn out to be a true plan.

I lost their friendship because I did not accept to introduce Communist propaganda into my Mexico. To be more specific, I separated from them and never saw them again until I found out about the death of the President, your brother.

Forgive me for not explaining any more, but it is an extremely delicate subject for you and for me. I ask you to see to it that justice is done now that this is in your possession.

Signed YLARIO ROJAS,
Manuel Acuna 1367,
Guadalajara

Upon interview on January 10, 1964, YLARIO ROJAS VILLANUEVA, 1367 Manuel Acuna Street, Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, furnished the following information:

In either June or July, 1962, ROJAS was in Mexico City on a visit and was sitting in a park in the Tlalpan area when he was approached by a Cuban who talked to him about smuggling Cuban propaganda into Mexico. The Cuban said he would see him later in Guadalajara.

Around the middle of August, 1962, the Cuban arrived in Guadalajara in an automobile, a description of which ROJAS was unable to furnish, and drove ROJAS in the automobile to Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua, across from El Paso. They drove at night and arrived at Ciudad Juarez in the forenoon. ROJAS went to a movie in a theater, the name of which he cannot recall, in Ciudad Juarez and apparently the Cuban went over into El Paso.

When the movie was over, ROJAS was picked up in front of the theater by the Cuban, who at that time introduced him to an individual. ROJAS has no independent memory of this individual's name, but recognizes him by photograph as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The three went to a bar where they discussed the introduction of CASTRO propaganda into Mexico via Cozumel, an island located off the coast of the Yucatan Peninsula.

They talked at length, including discussion of everyday matters, for about four hours, and they also did quite a bit of drinking. The Cuban apparently turned his car over to OSWALD, and the Cuban and ROJAS spent the night in a hotel in Ciudad Juarez, name and location of which hotel ROJAS cannot remember. ROJAS said he did not sign a register since the Cuban was paying all the expenses.

ROJAS said the following morning they left Ciudad Juarez on a flight of Aeronaves de Mexico and flew to Monterrey. After a short stop in Monterrey, they proceeded directly to Guadalajara. It is to be noted that Aeronaves de Mexico has no such flight as that described by ROJAS. After arrival in Guadalajara the Cuban gave ROJAS 400 pesos ($32 U.S.) and told him he would receive further instructions at a later date.

In about the latter part of December, 1962, the Cuban came to Guadalajara and gave ROJAS 900 pesos ($72 U.S.) and told him to proceed to Cozumel by bus within about five days. ROJAS went to Cozumel as instructed, arriving there just after Christmas, 1962. There he was met by two Cuban men and a Cuban woman whose first name was CRISTINA. ROJAS explained that, although he cannot recall the names of the Cubans, he has them written down in a notebook which he left with DANIEL SOLIS, a municipal policeman in Cozumel, Mexico. ROJAS stated SOLIS would not deliver the book to anyone but him.

About December 28, 1962, OSWALD arrived in Cozumel, having proceeded there from Jamaica via Compania Mexicana de Aviacion (CMA). OSWALD, the three Cubans, and ROJAS again discussed the introduction of Cuban propaganda into Mexico, taking it off boats on the high seas, then to Cozumel, and from there by boat to the mainland of Yucatan where it would be taken inland by either bus or truck. During the time of these discussions OSWALD and the three Cubans stayed at the Hotel Playa in Cozumel and ROJAS stayed with DANIEL SOLIS.

OSWALD remained in Cozumel for two or three days and then returned to Jamaica by air. The three Cubans and ROJAS continued to reside in Cozumel until about February 15,

[redacted]

1963, when OSWALD again came to Cozumel from Jamaica. On this occasion OSWALD stayed three days in Cozumel. The day after his arrival an American by the name of ALBERT arrived from Jamaica. All conversations between this American, OSWALD, and the three Cubans were in the English language, ROJAS stating that all three Cubans spoke very good English. The Cuban woman, CRISTINA, told ROJAS that they had discussed the elimination of President KENNEDY. She stated that OSWALD was for killing President KENNEDY, but that ALBERT and the Cubans did not agree with OSWALD.

ROJAS stated that he has ALBERT's last name entered in the notebook which is in the possession of DANIEL SOLIS. He claimed he got ALBERT's name from a United States Government credential in the bath house of the Hotel Islena where ALBERT stayed. ALBERT returned to the United States via Jamaica the day after his arrival in Cozumel. ROJAS was told by CRISTINA that OSWALD had stated to the Cubans that he and ALBERT had laid plans to eliminate the President. OSWALD allegedly stated that, no matter what the opposition, he would have to go through with it because otherwise he might lose his life, indicating that he was acting under orders.

ROJAS stayed on in Cozumel until early March, 1963, and then returned by bus to Guadalajara. He stated that he never helped to bring in any Cuban propaganda to Mexico and wanted to break relations with the Cubans. For this reason he moved to his present address in Guadalajara without leaving a forwarding address because he fears the Cubans may try to contact him again.

ROJAS could not explain why he cannot remember the names of the three Cubans in Cozumel after having been with them for nearly three months. He described the first Cuban in Cozumel as a man about 40 years of age, five feet eight to nine inches in height, heavy build, dark brown hair, medium complexion, wearing small mustache. The second Cuban who was in Cozumel was described as about 45 years of age, five feet nine to ten inches in height, medium build, medium dark complexion, short beard, dark brown in color.

[redacted]

CRISTINA was described as a female Cuban, about 29 years of age, five feet three to four inches in height, medium build, medium complexion, black hair, brown eyes.

The American named ALBERT was described as a white American, about 55 years of age, six feet in height, medium build, brown hair, light complexion, wearing Texas type hat. CRISTINA told ROJAS that ALBERT was from Mississippi.

ROJAS stated he is willing to go anywhere if his expenses are paid to make any identification and to pick up his notebook with the full names of the individuals mentioned. It was noted during the interview that he appeared sincere, but stated he is desperately in need of money. He lives in a slum area of Guadalajara. He is 31 years of age, about five feet nine inches in height, medium build, dark brown hair, dark complexion, brown eyes, and has a mustache.

Memorandum

TO: Mr. Belmont

DATE: January 3, 1964

FROM: A. Rosen

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

Memorandum from D. E. Moore to Mr. Sullivan today indicated the New York Office was being instructed to have SA Boguslav return to Dallas early next week to conduct necessary interviews with Mrs. Oswald, after which he would return to New York.

Memorandum from A. Rosen to Mr. Belmont today indicated that Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission had requested Mrs. Oswald, through her attorney, Mr. Thorne, and her business agent, Mr. James Martin, to prepare a statement in her own handwriting covering every detail of her association with Lee Harvey Oswald from the time she met him in Russia until his death on November 24, 1963.

Mr. Rankin at 4:50 p.m., called Malley and advised that he had just had a telephone call from attorney Thorne in Texas advising that Bureau Agents were desirous of making arrangements for an interview with Mrs. Oswald and that any interview at this time would delay Mrs. Oswald in preparing the information that Mr. Rankin had requested. Mr. Rankin was advised that the Bureau did have a number of items that we were desirous of discussing with Mrs. Oswald, and that if it was his desire that our interviews be delayed until the information requested of Mrs. Oswald could be finished, the Bureau will defer its interview for such time as was necessary. Mr. Rankin stated he would appreciate this very much and also requested that we contact attorney Thorne and let him know that our interview would be delayed until Mrs. Oswald had finished the preparation of her statement. Mr. Rankin also commented that we should make it clear to attorney Thorne that the FBI should be advised just as soon as Mrs. Oswald had finished this statement so that there would be no unnecessary delay in the Bureau going ahead with its interview of Mrs. Oswald.

Mr. Rankin was advised that this would be done and that we would follow attorney Thorne on a regular basis to make sure that the Bureau's interview with Mrs. Oswald was handled at the earliest possible time.

In view of the foregoing, the New York Office has been advised that it will not be necessary for SA Boguslav to proceed to Dallas at this time and that subsequent arrangements will be made for his going to Dallas to interview Mrs. Oswald.

ACTION:

The Dallas Office will be advised of the aforementioned developments and will be instructed to contact attorney Thorne in order to be kept apprised of the progress being made by Mrs. Oswald in the preparation of the statement desired by Mr. Rankin so that the Bureau may continue its interviews with her.

Subject's Russian born wife was previously interviewed in detail by Russian speaking Special Agent Anatole Boguslav of New York during the early stages of this investigation. As a result of further investigation, additional interviews with Mrs. Oswald are necessary and it is recommended that Special Agent Boguslav conduct these interviews.

SAC Shanklin, Dallas, has advised that as a result of investigation conducted during the past several weeks, additional interviews with Mrs. Oswald are desirable. SAC Shanklin advised that Special Agent Boguslav, who previously interviewed Mrs. Oswald, was very successful and he recommended that Boguslav come to Dallas to conduct the additional interviews, it being noted that a Russian speaking Agent is necessary. It is estimated it would take three or four days for the interviews to be completed.

Unless advised to the contrary, the New York Office is being instructed to have Special Agent Boguslav return to Dallas early next week to conduct these necessary interviews with Mrs. Oswald, after which he will return to New York.

Memorandum to Belmont from Rosen dated 1/3/64 furnished information concerning Mr. Rankin's request that interviews with Marina Oswald be held in abeyance until she would have time to complete a statement that she was preparing in her own handwriting concerning her relationship with Oswald from the time she met him up until the time of his death on 11/24/63.

SAC Shanklin, Dallas, was telephonically advised of the background concerning this matter. He was further advised that Attorney Thorne, who represents Marina Oswald, had advised Mr. Rankin on 1/3/64 that Bureau personnel were desirous of interviewing Mrs. Oswald and that such interview would delay her in preparing the longhand statement which Mr. Rankin had requested. SAC Shanklin was advised that based on the conversation with Rankin the Dallas Office should withhold their attempts to interview Mrs. Oswald for the time being. Dallas was instructed they should contact Attorney Thorne, notify him that we were withholding our interviews with Mrs. Oswald, and that Thorne should keep the Dallas Office advised concerning Mrs. Oswald's progress in the preparation of her statement so that Bureau interviews could continue at the earliest possible time.

A confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on January 8, 1964, advised that on November 26, 1963, Reverend Douglas E. Bartlett, 1006 Sherman Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey, rented Post Office Box 1363 under the name of "The Mrs. Lee Oswald Fund", the purpose of which was to secure funds to aid Mrs. Oswald. Reverend Douglas, the pastor of the Grant Avenue Presbyterian Church, was assisted by Reverend Lorenz Proli, pastor of the Trinity Reformed Church, both of Plainfield, New Jersey.

The solicitation was advertised in the Plainfield, New Jersey, and other papers, and the deadline was December 10, 1963. On that date, according to this source, the ministers forwarded a check for $4,000 to Reverend Louis Saunder, Executive Secretary of the Fort Worth, Texas, Council of Churches for delivery to Mrs. Oswald.

The following names is a list of return cards on mail received for the fund during the time the solicitation was in operation, according to the source:

"POLITICAL MURDER IS ITS BUSINESS"

Russia's School for Assassins — and the Oswald Case

By GUY RICHARDS

The Soviet Union's own school for assassins, headed by Gen. Nikolay B. Rodin, is getting prime attention from several Western intelligence agencies as a result of the Oswald case.

The school and its far-flung operatives are "Department 13" in the KGB, the Soviet Secret Police.

It was learned yesterday that the Central Intelligence Agency, the German security police and the Warren Commission are pooling resources to find out more about this Russian organization already described in great detail by a former Soviet agent now in German custody.

He is Bogan N. Stashinsky, 31. A confessed double-murderer with the limpid eyes of a gigolo, he is a former "Department 13" man.

'CLUELESS MURDER' EXPERT

After the assassination of President Kennedy it was recalled by the CIA and West German intelligence that Stashinsky—just before he turned himself in to the West in the Summer of 1961—was being readied by his Russian superiors for a new assignment in the Anglo-American field of KGB's "clueless murder" operations.

His department, he testified, was preparing operations against "high level leaders in the United States and England."

Most of the 2½ years Lee Harvey Oswald, accused murderer of President Kennedy, spent in the Soviet Union immediately preceded Stashinsky's surrender.

Though there is still no evidence connecting Oswald with either Department 13 or Stashinsky, the American investigators are determined to explore all such possibilities.

They are mindful that it took years to establish a link between the intelligence chief of the Serbian general staff and the 19-year-old gunman who killed Austrian Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife at Sarajevo, on June 28, 1914.

Many historians believe those murders triggered World War I.

"DEPARTMENT 13" . . . That's the name the Soviet Secret Police gives to its school for assassins. The area of its past and planned operations are reported to include Western Europe, England and the U. S.

B. N. STASHINSKY
Accomplished Killer

The American probers are spurred by the realization that in the weeks following the Dallas crime the public, as well as some of the investigating agencies, seem to have lost sight of the following points:

- That Borgan Stashinsky had presented a graphic account of the methods, plans and policies of the KGB's assassination unit.
- That KGB's advanced studies, weapons and techniques in the field have undoubtedly been passed on to affiliated agencies in Cuba, Poland, Czechoslovakia and other satellite nations.
- That Department 13 has a strong preference for the use of the relatively clueless cyanide spray (twice used by Stashinsky) on victims who can be found in a moment of solitude, but has a host of other devices ready for heads of ~~state and~~ high officials who are closely guarded.
- That the whole sordid technology makes a mockery of the U. S. Communist party statement issued after the Kennedy assassination. It claimed that "nobody who teaches or practices acts of terror and violence is allowed to be a member of the Communist party."

The cyanide spray route to sudden death was the one used with astonishing success by Stashinsky. It is a six-inch long aluminum cylinder containing cyanide poison which, when squirted into the victim's face, brings death in minutes. Shortly thereafter almost all traces of the cause of death vanishes.

WRONG CONCLUSIONS

This was the way Stashinsky killed two leaders of Ukrainian emigres in West Germany, Lev Rebet in 1957 and Stephan Bandera in 1959. Both murders took place in Munich, West Germany.

XEROX
JAN 24 1964

So traceless and elusive did the method prove that Rebet was thought to have died of a heart attack and the truth of what happened to both victims remained unknown until Stashinsky gave himself up to the American Intelligence Center in Berlin, in August, 1961. He was passed on to the West Germans.

His motive for surrendering, he said, was fear that he would soon be liquidated by the KGB.

The Germans took weeks to check out his story. They found his defection brought a wholesale shake-up of the KGB in which 17 officials were fired.

He was put on trial before a German Supreme Court for the murders, and convicted. On Oct. 19, 1963, he was sentenced to eight years in prison. Before he passed out of the limelight he had left a memorable impression of how his seniors applauded a stealthy homicide which left Western police completely up in the air.

A week or two after the Rebet murder he was banqueted in the KGB's Karlshorts "safehouse." He was formally congratulated by his superiors and an unidentified Soviet general and presented with a Contax camera.

After the Bandera murder he was ordered back to Moscow. On the recommendation of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet he was given the Order of the Red Banner. The citation mentioned his "extraordinarily difficult mission" in killing by poison gas gun two enemies of the state.

BACKING UP A MYTH

His debriefing in West Germany also gave officials a look at the thoroughness with which the Russians prepare fraudulent documents to sustain any kind of a myth.

On one occasion he was given a complete set of credentials, birth certificate, working papers, passport, letters, etc., proving he was a man who never existed. On another occasion he was similarly outfitted with documents to prove he was another man who did exist.

This highly-developed flair of the Russians for manufacturing phony papers will not be forgotten by the Warren Commission as some of its members study "the full documentary record of Oswald's stay in the Soviet Union" which the Russians handed over to our State Department.

The CIA, and probably its former director, Allen Dulles, are to be credited with turning the new beam of inquiry on the Russians' murder laboratory.

Mr. Dulles is now a member of the Warren Commission. He devoted several pages to Stashinsky and the Russian assassin bureau in his recently-published book, "The Craft of Intelligence." He identified the leader of the bureau as Gen. Rodin who, as counselor of the Soviet Embassy in London from 1953 to 1961, and under the alias of "General Korovin," was in charge of two key Soviet spies in Britain, George Blake and William John Vassall.

After the latter were apprehended "things get too hot" for the Red general, Mr. Dulles wrote, and he was "recalled and re-assigned to the 'Murder Inc.' branch of the KGB."

Mr. Dulles declined to comment on the matter yesterday because of his status with the Warren Commission. But it would be hard to improve on the observations made by the West German Third Court of Criminal Appeal, after Stashinsky had been tried in Karlsruhe.

"The Soviet Secret Service," said the court, "no longer commits murder arbitrarily and out of its own accord. Murder is now only carried out at the explicit orders of the government. Political murder has now, as it were, become an institution."

The New Orleans office has forwarded to the Bureau copies of a booklet entitled "The Assassination of President Kennedy: An End or a Beginning?" This booklet was published by the Metropolitan Crime Commission of New Orleans, Inc., and was prepared by the Managing Editor Aaron M. Kohn. The Crime Commission is described as "a non-partisan organization of citizens, voluntarily financed, fulfilling citizen responsibilities in law enforcement and the administration of justice." The booklet is summarized as follows:

The booklet gives a very brief summary of events surrounding the assassination and what is publicly known of the background of subject and Jack Ruby. It points out that both of these individuals were conditioned to disrespect law and order which conditioning in part was brought about by subject's substandard living conditions as a youth and by the sordid, criminally corrupt community conditions tolerated by the citizens, to which subject and Ruby were exposed. It is pointed out that many other similar characters are at loose in the U.S. today.

The booklet concludes that there is a need for more (1) stringent screening of persons before they are authorized to sell, purchase or process firearms; (2) greater attention to related problems of mental health; (3) careful evaluation of the merits of capital punishment; and (4) directing more resources toward the development of community responsibility and respect for the law; strengthening law enforcement agencies; improving prison facilities, parole and pardon procedures and assistance to ex-convicts.

It is stated that future performance of citizens and officials will determine whether national mourning for President Kennedy is "shortlived sentiment, or the beginning of dedication to correcting those conditions which mold the atmosphere of evaded responsibility in which these heinous crimes occurred."

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.

On January 7, 1964, a confidential informant of the Atlanta Office furnished a copy of a 33 1/3 rpm phonograph record which was issued by the Defense Legion of Registered Americans (DLRA), Incorporated, which is also known as the Christian Voters and Buyers League. The DLRA was organized in Atlanta in 1962 for the purpose of opposing Communism, Marxism, Mongrelism, Nihilism, etc. The Christian Voters and Buyers League was established within the DLRA to distribute anti-Jewish and anti-Negro phonograph records and literature.

The record, which was received on January 7, 1964, was narrated by Herbert Wallace Butterworth, a former radio announcer who is executive secretary of the DLRA. The DLRA has been explained by Butterworth, who was in 1962 public relations director of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, as being a front organization of the United Klans. James Venable, Legal Counsel for United Klans, is President of the DLRA.

The record as narrated by Butterworth is a long, rambling, incoherent dissertation on the assassination of President Kennedy and surrounding events. It is, of course, extremely anti-Jewish and anti-Negro and through distortion and speculation with complete disregard for true facts, it attempts to show that the "Communist-Jewish conspiracy" was responsible for the assassination and subsequent events.

In the narration Butterworth makes several references to the FBI: (1) that Oswald was caught by the FBI only a few days before President Kennedy's arrival (in Dallas) distributing Castro literature in New Orleans; (2) that the FBI knew he (Oswald) was in Dallas yet never put a single man to trail him as a source of danger; (3) that in spite of what traitor editors across the country write--like Ralph McGill and Eugene Patterson of the Atlanta papers--or the FBI, Lee Oswald did not assassinate President Kennedy and whoever believes he did is a fool.....

(4) that Italians are unanimous in their belief that no expert can fire three shots with a telescopic sight in anywhere near five seconds as claimed by the Dallas Police and the FBI; and (5) that there are too many circumstances between Oswald and Ruby for it to be pure coincidence and nobody knows that better than the Dallas Police and the FBI.

The above statements concerning the FBI with the possible exception of number 2 are completely without foundation in fact as established by the investigation and are typical of the highly critical and vitriolic remarks made by Butterworth concerning the President's Commission, Congress, the Supreme Court, the U. S. Government and every other decent organization and public official mentioned by him in an effort to distort the facts to propagandize his extreme rightist's views.

Statement number 2 is partially true in that the FBI did know that Oswald was in Dallas, however, use of this statement in the DLRA context with their allegation of our not putting a single man to trail Oswald as a source of danger distorts the truth to create a warped impression as there was no information available to the Bureau which would indicate that Oswald was a source of danger as an assassin.

ACTION

In view of the fact that the record deals with the assassination of President Kennedy, a transcript of the record is being forwarded to the President's Commission along with a brief description of the DLRA and Butterworth's connection with the organization. Mr. Rankin is being advised that the "Partusian" as mentioned on page 9 of the transcript, probably refers to Abraham Zapruder, the amateur photographer who took 8 mm. color motion pictures of the assassination.

Re Bureau airtel to Dallas, 1/17/64, and report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated 1/7/64.

The Bureau, by referenced airtel, advised that in referenced report, pages 70 and 71, interview of GENE ROBERTS, he mentioned that Constable T. A. VINES had stated the night manager of the Dobbs House, Dallas, Texas, claimed that OSWALD and JACK RUBY used to come into the restaurant two or three times a week, during early morning hours.

In report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated 12/10/63, at Dallas, page 489 sets forth interview of Constable T. A. VINES, who advised that he had received information from Mr. and Mrs. FRANKLIN SMITH, 111 West Jefferson, Dallas, Texas, to the effect that a customer at their store had inferred that a person, or persons, employed at the Dobbs House, Colorado and Beckley Streets, Dallas, might have information connecting OSWALD with RUBY. On the same date, Mr. and Mrs. FRANKLIN SMITH furnished the identity of the woman who had given them information to the effect that there may have been a connection between OSWALD and RUBY. This individual was Mrs. JOHNNIE GARRITY, 9870 Van Dyke, Dallas. On the same date, Mrs. GARRITY advised that she was in the Dobbs House, at Colorado and Beckley, at approximately noon, one day during the week following the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, and overheard a waitress at the Dobbs House talking to a customer. She said this waitress indicated that OSWALD had had breakfast in the restaurant nearly every morning prior to the assassination of the President, and that RUBY came into the restaurant during the night hours, but that it was always late at night. Mrs. GARRITY said that she did not gain the impression that OSWALD and RUBY were ever in the restaurant at the same time, or that any indication was made that OSWALD and RUBY were associated.

On the same date, SAM ROGERS, Manager, Dobbs House, 1221 North Beckley, advised that he personally never knew OSWALD or RUBY, but he had since the assassination of President KENNEDY recognized OSWALD's picture as being that of an individual who had been a coffee customer in the Dobbs House restaurant. He said he had no information of RUBY'S ever having been a customer in the restaurant.

Page 491, of SA GEMBERLING'S report, dated 12/10/63, sets forth an interview of DOUGLAS LEAKE, an employee of the Dobbs House, 1221 North Beckley, who works the 6 P.M. to 6 A.M. shift. During the period of time leading up to President KENNEDY'S assassination, on 11/22/63, LEAKE worked the 10 P.M. to 6 A.M. shift. He recalled JACK RUBY as a customer in this restaurant, but to the best of his recollection, had not seen RUBY in the restaurant for a year or more prior to 11/22/63. He stated that when RUBY came in, RUBY was either alone or in company with a girl from the club where RUBY worked. He presumed that any of the girls that RUBY had in his company would have been employees of the Carousel Club, in downtown Dallas. He said that the time RUBY usually came to the restaurant was about 1:30 A.M. to 3 A.M., and it was his belief that this was after RUBY closed the club for the night.

LEAKE stated he never knew OSWALD by name until OSWALD received publicity as the result of the assassination of President KENNEDY. He then recognized OSWALD as having been a customer in the Dobbs House about two times in days prior to the assassination. He said to the best of his recollection, OSWALD came to the restaurant alone and that he knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY - he had never seen the two of them together.

In the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated 12/23/63, page 224 sets forth an interview of MARY ADDA DOWLING. DOWLING advised that until recently, she was employed by the Dobbs House, at 1221 North Beckley, Texas and worked during the daytime hours. She stated she was not personally acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but that since OSWALD had received so much publicity after the assassination of President KENNEDY, she recalled that OSWALD was a customer at the Dobbs House and that she had formerly waited on him when he had eaten breakfast, usually between 7 A.M. and 7:30 A.M. She said that OSWALD was in the restaurant on the morning of 11/20/63, at about 10 A.M. She advised that she knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

On 1/20/64, SAM ROGERS, Manager, Dobbs House, 1221 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, advised the night manager of the Dobbs House was DOUGLAS LEAKE, and that just prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, LEAKE worked the 10 P.M. to 6 A.M. shift.

On 1/20/64, Mrs. RAY BRANTLEY, 103 Highland Street, Dallas, Texas, co-proprietor of Ray's Hardware Store, aka Ray's Gun Shop, 736 Singleton Blvd., Dallas, advised that she and her husband had discussed the stories of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, which appeared in the Dallas newspapers in detail, and that they did not believe that OSWALD had ever been a customer in their store and that OSWALD had never purchased any 6.5 mm ammuniton at their store. She stated, however, they have numerous customers during the hunting season and that OSWALD could have been a customer of theirs, but that neither she nor her husband have any recollection of this.

Lee Harvey Oswald - Victim
CIVIL RIGHTS

Both the prosecution and the defense in the forthcoming trial of Jack Ruby for the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald have asked for FBI reports relative to the investigation of Ruby and Oswald. Properly, we have left the decision to the President's Commission, which is studying the assassination of President Kennedy, and to the Department, as to what material should be furnished the prosecution and the defense.

Assistant AG Miller has indicated no material will be given to either the prosecution or the defense relative to the investigation of Oswald. The Department is reviewing the investigative reports relative to Jack Ruby for the purpose of removing any confidential material and thereafter making these reports available to District Attorney Wade in Dallas, through US Attorney Barefoot Sanders. Wade will select material he thinks is pertinent to the ~~defense~~ prosecution and thereafter the Department will pass on whether this material should be made available to him for that purpose.

The Department also contemplates furnishing Ruby's defense counsel with a list of names and addresses of persons who have furnished information bearing on Ruby's mental condition. It appears that Mr. Rankin of the President's Commission is awaiting a Departmental decision before expressing the Commission's views as to what should be furnished the prosecution and the defense.

Necessarily, we have to take the position that it is a decision for the President's Commission and the Department to make as to what information we have developed goes to the prosecution and the defense. However, we have in mind that any material which is to be furnished will be from FBI reports and, consequently, the FBI will be involved in any criticism of the material itself. Bearing in mind that we have interviewed anybody and everybody who had information concerning the assassination of the President, concerning Oswald, and concerning Ruby, our reports contain a great deal of information that can be classified as rumor and gossip, and character-assassination type of information. Considerable information is from persons who are mentally disturbed. We ran out the information wherever possible to substantiate or disprove it. Nevertheless, in a great many instances the allegation will appear in one report and the investigation to prove or disprove it will appear in a later report.

If the information in these reports is misused, or comes into the hands of unauthorized persons, there is a strong possibility that there will be complaints, both on the part of persons who gave the information and persons against whom allegations were made. For example, we conducted investigation into the background of Ruth Paine and her husband, Michael Paine, in view of the close association between the Paines and the Oswalds, and reports of this investigation were furnished to the Commission. We are sending over today a 354-page report on allegations received concerning persons who made alleged threats, or had knowledge of the assassination of President Kennedy, aside and apart from any association with Oswald or Ruby. We talked to a great many "crackpots" and emotional people who made wild allegations, and the results of the interviews are in these reports.

ACTION:

We do not know whether the courts will abide by any decision the Presidential Commission or the Department makes as to restrictions on furnishing information to the prosecution and defense. In order to alert the Department and the President's Commission, we prepared letters under date of 1/18/64 to Assistant AG Miller of the Department, and to Lee Rankin of the President's Commission, in which we pointed out that if information in these reports is misused, or becomes a matter of public knowledge, it would reflect most unfavorably upon the Department of Justice and the President's Commission.

We have done all we could. Above all don't want anything withheld.

At the Clifton T. Perkins Hospital, will display enclosed photographs to TRAPNELL, to determine if he identifies the pictured places as those where he claims he accompanied one MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES, whom he alleges to be involved in the assassination.

If TRAPNELL should state these are the places, attempt to develop information concerning any other contacts of TRAPNELL at Miami other than FUENTES, and the latter's alleged co-conspirators.

Will also attempt to develop information concerning the residence location of FUENTES, any car he might have had, any employment, or the names of any other persons at Miami who might know him.

Will determine from TRAPNELL how he knows the name of MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES, since, although he claims to have been in the U.S. Army with FUENTES, the St. Louis Office has advised by teletype to the Bureau 1/9/64, that there is no Army service record for any MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES.

Efforts at Miami, Fla. to locate a pool hall and the office of an anti-CASTRO organization where GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL, inmate of the Clifton T. Perkins State Hospital, Jessup, Md., claims he met accomplice of OSWALD and OSWALD himself about 5/63, resulted negatively.

UJO:GK

The following investigation is based on statements of GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL, who was interviewed on November 23, 1963, while an inmate at the Clifton T. Perkins Hospital for mental defectives at Jessup, Maryland. He claimed to have recognized LEE HARVEY OSWALD as one of four persons in a pro-CASTRO group which he previously reported as plotting to kill U. S. Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY:

When TRAPNELL, on August 19, 1963, furnished the information concerning the plot to assassinate the Attorney General, he was located in the County Jail at Chestertown, Maryland. He identified the conspirators in Miami, Florida, as MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES, ANTONIO VENTURA BART, the latter's wife, CECILIA, and Mr. SOUSA.

Investigation during August, 1963, into the alleged plot against Attorney General KENNEDY failed to develop the identities of the co-conspirators or the building where the meeting of the co-conspirators and TRAPNELL, in Miami, was alleged to have occurred.

Upon interview on November 23, 1963, TRAPNELL stated the conspirator he had identified in August, 1963, as ANTONIO VENTURA BART was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who had been introduced to him as OSWALDO. Also, upon interview on November 23, 1963, TRAPNELL stated he had met MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES about May or June, 1963, in a pool hall located on Flagler Street, Miami, Florida. He went with FUENTES from the pool hall to a building located on the Tamiami Trail and 9th, 10th, or 11th Streets, where he met the co-conspirators of FUENTES, including one introduced as OSWALDO.

TRAPNELL described the pool hall where he met FUENTES as located on Flagler Street, four or five blocks west of the bridge (Miami River bridge). He said the pool hall was a Cuban hangout with a Spanish name, which is translated to "The Blue Star," or something similar. Also, the pool hall was described as a combination bar and pool room, with two pool tables on the right and a bar on the left, as viewed from the entrance. Further, in the same block as the pool hall, according to TRAPNELL, was a store where Cuban cigars were made.

On January 10, 1964, observation conducted along West Flagler Street, Miami, Florida, in an effort to locate the pool hall referred to by TRAPNELL, resulted in locating the "El Tunero" pool hall at 479 W. Flagler Street. This pool hall has no bar, and contained three pool tables. It is located next to the Varadero Cafe at 481 W. Flagler, which is painted blue-green, and which advertises "Estrella" (star) coffee. There is no store or business engaged in the manufacture of cigars located in the block with the "El Tunero" pool hall, which block is the second one west of the Miami River Bridge on Flagler Street. Observations along West Flagler Street for ten blocks west of the Flagler Street Bridge revealed no combination pool hall-bar such as described by TRAPNELL.

On January 10, 1964, SIMON CAMACHO, owner of the Camacho cigar-making business located at 307 W. Flagler Street (east of the bridge), advised that there is no pool hall in the block in which his store is located, and that the only other cigar-manufacturing business on West Flagler Street is located at West Flagler and 18th Avenue.

At 1872 W. Flagler Street, Miami, it was observed that the Havana Tobacco Cigar Company is located, and that there is no pool hall in that block or area.

With respect to the building where TRAPNELL said FUENTES introduced him to co-conspirators in the assassination plot against Attorney General KENNEDY, TRAPNELL recalled as follows, during the interview on November 22, 1963:

Upon leaving the pool room on Flagler Street with MIGUEL FUENTES, they proceeded west on Flagler Street and drove to the area of Tamiami Trial and the intersection of 9th, 10th, or 11th Streets, where there was a small building on the corner with the words "Popular Front," or "Student Union," written in Spanish thereon. This building was one story, and inside was located a mess hall-type table of metal frame, collapsible legs, and soft top. Also inside was a closet, and to the rear, a latrine and a rear door. A group of houses were said to be located at the rear of this building.

A search for this building was conducted on January 10, 1964. It is noted that the Tamiami Trail in Miami is Southwest 8th Street, and that Southwest 9th, 10th, and 11th Streets run parallel to Tamiami Trail. Accordingly, the search was conducted to include Tamiami Trail and Southwest 9th, 10th, and 11th Avenues, the avenues running perpendicular to the streets in Miami.

A street-by-street search for a building such as described by TRAPNELL was conducted in the area from West Flagler Street on the north, to Southwest 11th Street on the south, and from 8th Avenue on the east, to 12th Avenue on the west. The only building observed to be similar to that described by TRAPNELL was one located on the southwest corner of the intersection of Southwest 1st Street and 11th Avenue.

It was observed that this is a multiple unit office or store-type building, and the corner unit of the building is occupied by the Cuban exile organization Partido Revolucionario Cubano - Autentico (PRC) (Cuban Revolutionary Party - Authentic). A large sign over the doorway of this office carries the name of the organization, and on the window of the office are the Spanish words "Delegacion General en el Exilio" (General Delegation in Exile).

On January 10, 1964, NOEL DEL PINO PEREZ, Secretary of the PRC, stated that that office has been located in the same building at 1100 S. W. 1st Street for the past two years. He said he never heard of MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES or GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL, and had no indication that an individual possibly identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD had ever visited the offices of the PRC.

It was noted that the office of the PRC is basically one large room which is partitioned into a cubicle office, and another cubicle used for general storage. Also, at the rear of the office is a washroom and a door is located at the back of the office, opening into an alleyway. Across the alleyway is a small frame house. The storage cubicle in the office was observed to contain no firearms or related material. In the front of the office there is a short, bare wood-top table supported by two wooden horses.

On January 13, 1964, photographs were taken of the El Tunero Pool Hall located next to the Varadero Cafe in the 400 Block of West Flagler Street, and of the offices of the PRC located at 1100 S. W. 1st Street Miami, for subsequent display to GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL.

New York, January 8th, 1964

Mr. Robert F. Kennedy
Attorney General of
The United States of America
Legal Department
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir,

Two weeks before the assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy at Dallas, a man named Miguel Erice, alias Nono, who lives at 22 Menahan St., Brooklyn 21, N.Y. contacted Lee Oswald. This is a fact. I was not told how, I guess by telephone because he did not travel to Dallas.

This man, the day after the crime, was very scared that the accused maybe have left some proof of this contact. Erice, is a Cuban born "American Citizen for many years only because he has to accomplish a MISSION here". He belongs to the Communist Party and is Pro-Castro. He hates this country and if he has not gone to Cuba he says, it is because of his "mission".

This man is a plumber and makes a good living but he lives miserably in a basement, stranged from his wife and sons. He built a house in Babylon, L.I. which he sold immediately. Nobody knows how he uses his mony, we guess on subversive activities. He has been accused many times and F.B.I. agents have searched his appartment, but they have not found anything there, of course. The neighborhood knows about his activities since he tries to convince young people of his ideas. I dont know this man myself but I was told about him and since those who know him are affraid to talk, I am trying this chance. This man, I was told, has not feelings, he is a traitor to America.

Some day after the assassination, this man, who is not a christian and does not believe in anything date to attend a Mass offered in the memory of the President Kennedy in a neighborhood Church just to show the F.B.I. agents that he had nothing to do with so horrible crime and that he was a sympathizer of the President.

I am writing this letter because I think it is my duty since no one who knows the story is willing to help solve this mystery. I hope and trust that if this man is really guilty he will be brought to justice.

A citizen

DETAILS: AT ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

A review on January 21, 1964, of the military service records on file at the Military Personnel Records Center, for WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF, Serial Number AF 19 607 309, indicated he enlisted in the U. S. Air Force on December 6, 1957, and entered on active duty on the same date at Los Angeles, California. He received an undesirable discharge under other than honorable conditions on December 18, 1959, as an Airman Basic at McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey, by reason of unfitness.

His record reflected he was tried and convicted by a Summary Court-Martial, September 24, 1959, for [redacted] of the U. S. Air Force. He was sentenced to be confined at hard labor for thirty days and to forfeit $60.

His record also indicated he received two article 15's (company punishments). One was on April 9, 1959, for operating a private motor vehicle without a valid U. S. Air Force's (illegible) driving permit and for failure to report a vehicle accident within twenty-four hours to the Air Police; he was reduced to the grade of Airman Basic and reprimanded. The other was on December 15, 1958, for drinking and having on his possession approximately twelve ounces of whiskey while on duty; he was reduced to Airman Basic and reprimanded.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of any kind. It is the property of the FBI, and is loaned to your agency; it and/or its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

His record contained a clinical record with consultation sheet dated September 28, 1959, which reflected a diagnosis [redacted]. It was also indicated he has been characterized by his aunt as being an habitual liar. He has applied for American citizenship and has little worry over the fact that his possible discharge from the service would make him ineligible for citizenship.

The record reflected only one additional address, that of 719 South Maple Avenue, Monterey Park, California, 1959. His Social Security Number was shown as 572-54-0914.

His record failed to reflect any pertinent information in addition to that previously reported.

53 JAN 28 1964

The Dallas office has advised that the whereabouts of OSWALD has been sufficiently established for the period October 15, 1962 to November 24, 1963, to have precluded his having lived with a prostitute in Cleveland, during early 1963.

AT CLEVELAND, OHIO

The following investigation was conducted by SA EDWARD P. GAZUR on the dates indicated:

Officer JOHN BERRY, Third District Vice Squad, Cleveland Police Department, on January 8, 1964, informed that he arrested NANCY JANE RITZ, nee MC CLAIN, on September 25, 1963, together with WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, JR., and FRANKLIN REYNOLDS. He stated that NANCY JANE RITZ is a prostitute who was conducting her profession from the Greyhound Bus Depot, 1465 Chester Avenue, Cleveland, during September, 1963, for which she was eventually arrested. He stated that his investigation revealed that FRANKLIN REYNOLDS was her procurer and that WILLIAM A. MARLOWE was an individual who was living in a common-law relationship with NANCY JANE RITZ. He pointed out that at the time of arrest it was assumed that NANCY JANE RITZ was actually married to WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, although it was determined that she was married to an individual named RITZ.

Officer BERRY noted that he has not seen NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE since their arrest and, inasmuch as they are no longer in the neighborhood of the Greyhound Bus Depot, assumes that they have left Cleveland. In this respect, he noted that NANCY JANE RITZ was carrying on her immoral dates at the Ohio, Dakota and Grand Hotels which are in the immediate neighborhood of the Greyhound Bus Depot.

He stated that FRANKLIN REYNOLDS is a small-time hoodlum and gambler who hangs out evenings at the Greyhound Bus Depot waiting to meet destitute girls whom he feels he can place in this elicit profession. He stated that he last saw FRANKLIN REYNOLDS during November, 1963, and has not seen him since. He stated that this is odd, inasmuch as REYNOLDS can be located any night of the week at the Greyhound Bus Depot. He stated that REYNOLDS is a resident of the Town Apartments, 2344 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland. Officer BERRY related that he, as well as all members of the Vice Squad, knows NANCY JANE RITZ, and should she be still in the area of the Third District Vice Squad her presence would come to their attention.

Officer BERRY was recontacted on January 13, 1964, and again on January 20, 1964. On both occasions, he related that all members of the Vice Squad are on the lookout for NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, however, no information has come to their attention that they are still in the Cleveland area. He stated that each of the members of the Vice Squad have contacted their sources and, as a consequence, all avenues have been alerted.

Officer W. C. DOTY, Scientific Investigations Unit, Cleveland Police Department, on January 9, 1963, related that their records reflect that WILLIAM ALBERT MARLOWE, JR., FBI #849 560D, a white male, was arrested on September 26, 1963, and charged with hustling. He was released on a suspicious person's waiver on September 27, 1963.

Cleveland Police Department records reflect that WILLIAM ALBERT MARLOWE, JR., was born December 2, 1942, at Cleveland, Ohio, and he lists a residence of 1320½ West Filmore Street, Phoenix, Arizona. His parents are WILLIAM and MARY MARLOWE, JR., and he was previously arrested on May 18, 1963, on stolen auto charges; released same date on a suspicious person's waiver.

These records further reflect that FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT REYNOLDS, a white male, with FBI # 628 454 D, was arrested on September 26, 1963, for hustling and was released on September 27, 1963, on a suspicious person's waiver. His mother is listed as KATHERINE and his residence is listed as 2344 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland.

These records further reflect that NANCY JANE RITZ, nee MC CLAIN, aka., NANCY MARLOWE, "SUGAR", was arrested September 26, 1963, and charged with prostitution. She was referred to the Cleveland Municipal Court on this charge for which she received a sixty-day jail sentence and costs which were suspended, and she was placed on probation. She has a prior arrest on May 18, 1963, on a charge of "stolen auto", and she was released on the same date on a suspicious person's waiver.

NANCY JANE RITZ is a white female, 5' 5" tall, 115 lbs., black hair, blue eyes, pock-marked face, and she has a scar above her wrist. She was born December 25, 1941, at Shelby, Michigan, and her spouse is listed as EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ. Her Cleveland Police Department number is 114 323 and her addresses are listed as 879 West River Street, Elyria, Ohio and 245 Fifth Street, Elyria.

Miss L. C. ABBOTT, Probation Officer, City of Cleveland Probation Office, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 9, 1964, related that she handled the probation for NANCY JANE RITZ who was sentenced by the Cleveland Municipal Court on September 27, 1963, at which time she was sentenced to sixty days in jail and costs which were suspended.

Miss ABBOTT stated that her records reflect that NANCY JANE RITZ was placed on "inactive probation", on September 27, 1963, and that her only contact with her was on this date. She stated that inactive probation means that the individual is not required to report to the probation office and can leave the state at any time. However, should the individual be arrested within a period of one year from the date of sentencing, the individual's probation can then be revoked.

She stated that her records reflect that NANCY JANE RITZ comes from a broken home, and that she never knew her mother. Her father, ERNEST MC CLAIN, 1051 Fountain Street,

Grand Rapids, Michigan, is presently married to LOIS MC CLAIN, and NANCY JANE has never been able to adjust herself to this marriage. These records reflect that NANCY JANE RITZ was married to EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ, on June 17, 1962, at Lorain, Ohio, and they were separated during April, 1963, because EDWARD RITZ was unable to hold a steady employment. NANCY JANE RITZ came to Cleveland, Ohio from Phoenix, Arizona, with WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and Probation Office records reflect that it was her idea to prostitute herself to financially help MARLOWE, and that it was the first time that she had ever prostituted herself. These records also indicate WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, JR., had been a friend of EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ, and it was through this relationship that MARLOWE and NANCY JANE met.

Mr. RAYMOND STITT, Chief Investigator, Cuyahoga County Welfare Department, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 9, 1964, produced a Welfare application for EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ.

This record reflects that EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ, on April 2, 1963, applied for relief and was rejected on the same date as "ineligible because childless couple".

Mr. STITT noted that this was a telephonic application and that EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ and his wife did not appear at the office.

Background contained in this record reflects that EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ, born February 17, 1942, and NANCY JANE RITZ, born December 25, 1941, had been in Cleveland, for one day and they were "homeless". They recorded their last address as 224 Park Street, Willard, Ohio, and noted that they had come to Cleveland the previous day from Willard, Ohio. EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ noted in his application that he enlisted in the United States Air Force, on May 21, 1958, at Willard, Ohio, and was honorably discharged August 3, 1961. His Air Force Serial Number is listed as AF 15624314.

In respect to the above, it should be noted that this was a telephonic application, and the possibility exists that WILLIAM A. MARLOWE at this point was assuming the identity of EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ in order to obtain the relief.

Miss T. ROGERS, Room Clerk, Ohio Hotel, 1527 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, produced a registration record which reflects that a Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM MARLOWE, no address, checked in the hotel on September 25, 1963, and stayed overnight.

Miss ROGERS viewed pictures of both NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, however, she stated that these individuals are not known to her.

Miss ROGERS caused a review to be made of all hotel registration records from January 1, 1963 through the present, however, no further record could be located for NANCY JANE RITZ, WILLIAM A. MARLOWE or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She stated that no one resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD has ever resided at the Ohio Hotel.

Mrs. MARY ALICE BENNETT, Owner, Dakota Hotel, 2045 East 18th Street, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, checked her registration records from January 1, 1963 until the present, and could find no record pertaining to WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, NANCY JANE RITZ, or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She viewed photographs of NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and advised that she has seen both of these individuals in the immediate area during the Fall of 1963, but has not seen them since. She stated that no one resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD has ever resided at the Dakota Hotel.

Mrs. ELLEN CHITHAM, Floorlady, Dakota Hotel, on January 9, 1964, identified photographs of WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ as individuals who have stayed at the Dakota Hotel on at least two occasions during a period from the Summer of 1963 to the Fall of 1963.

She stated that she recalls that on occasions that these two people were at the hotel they would be guests for overnight only and recalls that the individual identified as WILLIAM MARLOWE would leave the hotel in the morning and leave the girl in the hotel room. On one occasion, he remarked that he was going to the Greyhound Bus Depot to meet a man on business.

In respect to the above, she stated that she has not seen RITZ or MARLOWE since the Fall of 1963, and felt that if they were still in the neighborhood she would be cognizant of their presence.

In view of the above, all hotel registration cards for the period June, 1963 through November, 1963, were reviewed, however, none could be identified with MARLOWE and RITZ.

Mr. GEORGE POULAS, Owner, Grand Hotel, 2107 East 18th Street, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, reviewed all his hotel registration records from the period January 1, 1963 through the present, and could find no reference to NANCY JANE RITZ, WILLIAM A. MARLOWE or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He further advised that he did not recognize WILLIAM MARLOWE or NANCY JANE RITZ as individuals he has seen in the neighborhood or at the hotel.

Mrs. ANGIE POULAS, wife of the owner, Grand Hotel, on January 9, 1964, related that the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ looks familiar to her, although she does not know this individual. She recalls seeing a white female with a pock-marked face, whose hair was extremely long and stringy. It was for this reason that she remembered this individual, however, does not recall when she last saw this individual, although she believes it was some time ago. She noted that she also operates the Grand Restaurant which is in the Grand Hotel building and that this individual may have been a customer at the restaurant.

MYRTLE HALL, Waitress, Grand Restaurant, on January 9, 1964, advised that the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ looks familiar, although she is not positive and further noted that it is actually no one she knows, but rather someone she may have seen in the restaurant. In this respect, she stated that she does not recall when she last saw this individual but believes it must have been some time ago. She stated that the photograph of WILLIAM A. MARLOWE does not look like anyone she knows.

Mrs. HELEN PUMA, Desk Supervisor, YWCA, 1716 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, related that the YWCA has no present registration for NANCY JANE RITZ, aka., and further noted that registrations since the first of January, 1963, contain no reference to this individual. She added that she usually knows all the girls staying at the YWCA by sight, however, noted that the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ does not look like anyone who has ever stayed at the YWCA.

EDNA BRANNING, Telephone Operator, YWCA, on January 9, 1964 viewed the photographs of WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ. She stated that she has never seen WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, although there is something familiar about the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ. She was positive that NANCY JANE RITZ had never resided at the YWCA inasmuch as she is in a position to observe all the girls entering and leaving the premises, however, felt it may have been someone she may have seen in the neighborhood. In this connection, she stated that she has not seen this individual whom she believes may be identical to NANCY JANE RITZ, since probably the Summer of 1963.

LIL PEARSON, Manager, Open Kitchen Restaurant, 1612 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, stated that she has never seen WILLIAM A. MARLOWE on the premises. However, she did state that the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ looks like a customer who used to stop in at the restaurant occasionally during late 1963. However, she has not seen this person for about the past five months. She stated that she never spoke to this individual concerning her personal background and would have no idea where she is presently located.

RUTH BARTLEY, Waitress, and LARRY WINNTERS, Handyman, Open Kitchen Restaurant, on January 9, 1964, viewed photographs of NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and advised that they had never seen these individuals.

Mr. HOWARD BORHAM, Manager, Town House Apartments, 2344 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on January 10, 1964, related that FRANKLIN REYNOLDS and his brother, DONALD REYNOLDS, were tenants of his apartment from February 26, 1963 until December 10, 1963. He stated that DONALD REYNOLDS lived alone at the apartment from approximately the first of December, 1963, until he vacated the apartment and advised that his brother, FRANKLIN REYNOLDS, had gone to Kentucky. Mr. BORHAM stated that he had no forwarding address for FRANKLIN REYNOLDS, although his brother, DONALD, advised that FRANKLIN would be back in Cleveland around March, 1964, and that he would probably rent another apartment at the Town House Apartments.

Officer ROBERT RIEDTHALER, Cleveland House of Correction, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 10, 1964, related that FRANKLIN R. REYNOLDS was committed to the House of Correction on November 30, 1963, and is presently incarcerated.

He stated that FRANKLIN REYNOLDS was sentenced to eight months on a charge of assault and battery and petty larceny by the Court of Common Pleas, and he was fined $300 and court costs of $39.75. FRANKLIN REYNOLDS will be released on July 13, 1964, if he pays the fine and court costs, otherwise he will be released on December 19, 1964.

FRANKLIN R. REYNOLDS was interviewed in the House of Correction, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 10, 1964. He stated that he was born April 26, 1933, in Cleveland, Ohio, and that he last resided at 2344 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

He stated that he first met NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE during April, 1963, at the Greyhound Bus Depot, Cleveland. He stated that they appeared to be destitute and in dire need of some help, and he, therefore, bought them some food. He stated that since this initial contact with them he saw them on numerous occasions during the period April, 1963 until he was arrested with MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ, on September 26, 1963.

He stated that it was always his impression that WILLIAM MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ were married to one another, and he always knew her as NANCY MARLOWE. He stated that during the period that they resided in Cleveland, they had no permanent place of residence, but rather they used the Greyhound Bus Depot as a place where they would sleep. He explained that NANCY and WILLIAM kept their clothing in a bus station locker and would use the washroom facilities of the depot for sanitary purposes. In addition, they would purchase what food they needed locally or else if they had enough money would eat in the nearby restaurants.

He stated that WILLIAM MARLOWE and NANCY JANE would solicit "dates" from men they would meet at the Greyhound Bus Depot and if they were lucky enough to solicit a customer would have the customer rent a hotel room at either the Ohio or Dakota Hotels where NANCY JANE would later meet the customer.

FRANKLIN REYNOLDS noted that NANCY JANE and WILLIAM did not have very much luck in soliciting male customers inasmuch as NANCY JANE is considered unattractive and had an unkempt and unclean appearance.

FRANKLIN REYNOLDS stated that he has not seen WILLIAM MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ since the time of their arrests. He also stated that had either WILLIAM MARLOWE or NANCY JANE been in the neighborhood of the Greyhound Bus Depot he would have known of this, and this surely would have come to his attention prior to his own incarceration on November 30, 1963.

He stated that he has no idea of the present whereabouts of NANCY JANE and WILLIAM MARLOWE, although he does recall that some time prior to their arrests they both left Cleveland and went to Phoenix, Arizona, for a visit, where WILLIAM MARLOWE's parents are alleged to reside. They later returned just prior to their arrest, on September 26, 1963.

CV 105-7674

AT ELYRIA, OHIO

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT H. WILSON, on January 14, 1964:

WILLIAM GWIN, President, Northwestern Adjustment Company, 304 Robinson Building, Elyria, Ohio, advised he recalled that NANCY RITZ was employed by the former owner of that company, HOWARD HEAD, in 1962. She rented HEAD's house at 819 West River Street, Elyria, during this employment which only lasted about one month. He recalled that when she obtained the job she was practically destitute. He stated he knew nothing of her background and inasmuch as Mr. HEAD is no longer with the company and is located out of town, he knew of no one who could furnish any information concerning NANCY RITZ. Mr. GWIN stated he has an account in the amount of approximately $20.00 he had tried to collect from NANCY RITZ but had never been able to locate her after she left her employment. He stated her husband's name was EDWARD, and he identified the Cleveland Police Department photograph of NANCY RITZ as being identical with the one who had worked in Elyria.

Mrs. SALLY HILDEBRANDT, Elyria Credit Bureau, advised a file was opened in October, 1962, for EDWARD and NANCY RITZ whose address was 245 Fifth Street, Elyria. No previous address was listed, and the only information in the files was that a hardware company wrote off a loss of $94.00 for an uncollectable account in 1963.

Mrs. MARY SHURLEY, Record Room, Elyria Police Department, advised the files of that department contain no record of EDWARD or NANCY RITZ.

T. P. DUKEMAN, 243 Fifth Street, Elyria, Ohio, advised the former owners of the residence at 245 Fifth Street have moved out of town. He did recall that about two years ago a NANCY and EDWARD RITZ rented a small apartment at 245 Fifth Street, but they only were at that address for a period of a month or less, and they moved out and no one knew of their forwarding address. He stated they did not associate with the people in that neighborhood, and no one knew anything concerning them.

CV 105-7674

AT WILLARD, OHIO

The following investigation was conducted by SA RICHARD W. SHIMER, on January 15, 1964:

Mrs. ORRA TURNER, 224 Park Street, advised that she has owned the house at this address for the past three years and has lived in the house continuously and at no time during the past three years did either EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ or NANCY RITZ ever live in it. She said she did not know either of them.

Mrs. KENNETH COX, 304 Park Street, next door neighbor to 224 Park Street, advised that EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ lived at 224 Park Street many years ago with his grandfather, HARRY RITZ, who died five years ago. EDWARD was only a young boy at the time, and the grandfather finally put him in a home.

She said that about one year ago EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ and his wife, NANCY RITZ, came to her front door on a Sunday and told her they were broke. They attempted to borrow some money from her, but she did not loan them any. They stayed only a few minutes and then left, and she has not seen them since. She identified the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ, nee MC CLAIN, as the NANCY who was with RITZ at the time they visited her. She said she is sure neither of them are presently in Willard as Willard is a small town, and she would see them or hear about them if they were here. She said EDWARD RITZ came to Willard because he thought his grandfather, HARRY RITZ, might have left the house to him or mentioned him in some way in his will, and as he was broke, he was in dire need of money. She said EDWARD RITZ has no relatives in Willard, since his grandfather died years ago. She said MICHAEL RITZ's mother, IDEALL RITZ, went to Lorain, Ohio, about eight years ago, but she does not know if IDELL RITZ has remarried or anything about her.

Mrs. NEVA CHRIST, Clerk, Jackson's Drug Store, Myrtle Avenue, advised that she knew EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ to see him, but has not seen him around Willard for years.

The following were contacted, but could not offer any information concerning EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ or NANCY RITZ:

INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

In accordance with previous arrangements, Mr. Henry B. Montague, Chief Postal Inspector, made available to Liaison Agent O'Connor on January 21, 1964, the proposed reply of the Post Office (PO) to the President's Commission looking into the assassination of President Kennedy. As you are aware, the PO and other Government agencies have been requested by the Commission to furnish any pertinent information relating to the assassination.

The PO reply sets forth the investigative efforts by the Postal Inspectors to develop circumstances concerning the use of PO boxes by Oswald, particularly as it pertained to the rifle used in the assassination. Oswald was questioned November 24, 1963, by Dallas Police, Secret Service, and Inspector Harry D. Holmes of the PO concerning rental of PO boxes in the Main Dallas PO as well as the Terminal Annex and in the New Orleans PO. In each instance, Oswald maintained he made his own arrangements for rental and denied knowledge of any use of the alias A. J. Hidell, which was the name used by Oswald in obtaining the rifle used in the assassination. Generally, the interview of Oswald was nonproductive as Oswald was extremely arrogant and noncooperative.

PO Inspectors conducted several interviews of individuals in the Dallas area at the request of the Bureau and Secret Service, which interviews generally shed little light on Oswald's activities prior to and immediately following the assassination.

Each point set out in the PO reply was checked through the files pertaining to the subject as well as Jack Ruby. It was ascertained the pertinent partsof the PO investigations concerning this matter were contained in our investigative reports.

NOTE: Lasaga is former professor psychology, Villanueva University, Havana. He wrote lengthy speculative paper on possible motives of Oswald in assassination of the President. His premises are largely incorrect as they are drawn from newspaper accounts. Included in his paper was allegation that Oswald, when in Mexico City, met secretly with the Cuban Ambassador in a restaurant on outskirts of city and later talked with Ambassador in Ambassador's car so they would not be overheard. This article was presented by Lasaga to White House and when pressed for details as to source of allegation, turned out he received it fourth hand. Allegation has been disproven. However, Legat and MM have not as yet reported in form to disseminate. We received article from Department and we wish to now advise Commission and Department of results.

Enclosed herewith to the Bureau is one Xerox copy of a manuscript pertaining to OSWALD. One copy is also enclosed for Dallas.

EDWARD ELLIS SMITH, 1849 Webster St., Palo Alto, California, is currently self-employed as an author and now engaged in the preparation of a book regarding Stalin. SMITH, a former CIA Agent, was Assistant Military Attache at the U. S. Embassy, Moscow, USSR, from 1948-50, and U. S. State Department Security Officer, U. S. Embassy, Moscow, from 1954-56.

SMITH advised SA WAYNE K. WELCH on 1/17/64 that he had recently collaborated with STEFAN ~~T.~~ POSSONY, 23262 Montclair Way, Los Altos, California, Director of the International Political Studies Program, Hoover Institute, Stanford University in POSSONY's preparation of an article regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This treatise is based upon data regarding OSWALD which has been published in various English and Russian language publications in this country and abroad and contains conclusions and observations drawn from the knowledge of SMITH and POSSONY regarding espionage activity and intelligence goals of the Soviets. SMITH said that he did not agree with all aspects of POSSONY's essay, in particular the portion which is somewhat critical of the FBI in an indirect manner.

SMITH advised that he believed that the untitled manuscript was submitted by POSSONY on about 1/16/64 to the American Security Council, 1025 Connecticut Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., in anticipation that the article will be printed in the regular publication of the ASC. SMITH noted that the article might not be of interest to the ASC, in which case POSSONY would attempt to sell the article elsewhere. He advised that POSSONY supplements his salary through the publication of various books and articles.

As a matter of interest to the Bureau, SMITH made available a copy of the manuscript, which was reproduced, and the original returned to SMITH on 1/17/64. SMITH noted that POSSONY is a completely loyal citizen, but has a naturally possessive interest in the manuscript, and would probably be disturbed if he became aware that SMITH had made a copy available to the Bureau prior to publication and without POSSONY's authorization. SMITH therefore requested that the manuscript under no circumstances be distributed to another Government agency or to the Warren Commission.

If the Bureau desires that dissemination be made of the document, it is requested that San Francisco be advised, at which time SMITH and/or POSSONY will be interviewed to obtain POSSONY's authorization. San Francisco indices contain no pertinent data regarding POSSONY.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Rosen

DATE: 1/21/64

FROM : J. R. Malley

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission stated that since the Commission has reviewed a large number of Bureau reports relative to the investigation of Oswald, the Commission was quite interested in the actual evidence which had been accumulated in the Oswald case as well as in the voluminous miscellaneous material that had been obtained by the Dallas Police Department from the room occupied by Oswald, as well as from the Paine residence where Mrs. Oswald maintained her residence and was visited by Oswald on weekends in Irving, Texas.

Mr. Rankin stated he wanted to make it extremely clear that the Commission did not desire to disturb any evidence in any way and that if any evidence was in the possession of the Bureau which should not be handled by a Commission representative, this should be made very clear so that there would be no interference with the Bureau's operation. It was pointed out to Mr. Rankin that the material obtained which belonged to Oswald was quite extensive and it would take considerable time for a representative of the Commission to actually physically examine all of the various items.

Mr. Rankin was advised that a check would be made in order that suitable arrangements for displaying the various items could be made. Assistant Director Conrad advised that the material referred to is very carefully arranged in a large number of boxes and that this material could be displayed to a representative of the President's Commission at any time they desired.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended Mr. Rankin be advised the material is available at the Bureau for examination by representatives of the President's Commission at any time they desire to look over this material.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

The following observations and recommendations are submitted for your consideration in connection with the proposal of the President's Commission to furnish all reports in the Ruby and Oswald cases to the prosecution and defense attorneys for the Ruby murder trial in Dallas:

1. We believe that the FBI has done a good job of investigation in this matter both before and after the assassination. We have nothing to hide and if all of the facts were to be made public and reviewed by the public, it is felt that the Bureau would not be criticized by reasonable people and legitimate organizations. However, in this instance, we are caught in the crosscurrents between the left and the right and each is trying to make a big conspiracy out of the assassination. They as well as others who have political or personal axes to grind will seize upon every opportunity to criticize the investigation as illustrated by some of the publicity since the assassination.

2. The issue in the murder trial is very narrow - whether Ruby was sane - and unless the attorneys intend to make a spectacle of it, the contents of our reports should not be disclosed. However there is the definite danger that attempts will be made to persuade the jury that Ruby's action was justified because subject was directed by the Russians or the Cubans. Parts of our reports may be lifted out of context and by omission or innuendo the impression left that there was in fact such a conspiracy and that our investigation which failed to uncover it was incomplete.

The manner in which the reports were written add to this danger. The allegations were reported as received and then run out. The results of investigation may be hundreds of pages from the raw allegation and spread among several Dallas reports or those of other field offices. Time and the volume of information did not permit reporting the results of investigation along with the allegation.

Memo for Mr. Sullivan
Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the above facts be pointed out to the Commission; that we suggest that there be stringent conditions against publicizing our reports if they are given to the attorneys; and that we tell the Commission that we will set the record straight in any instance where only part of the facts are lifted from our reports and publicized.

3. Before disseminating our raw reports to the Commission we were careful to classify only those which included classified information from another agency or where it was necessary to protect a Bureau source. In some instances only a small portion of the report was of this nature but in accordance with classification rules, the whole report was classified.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that we inform the Commission concerning the specific portions of the classified reports which cannot be declassified and which should, therefore, not be furnished to the attorneys in the Ruby prosecution.

4. There is a danger that the Bureau will be criticized for reporting rumor, gossip or other information which might be embarrassing to various individuals. Because of the nature of this case, the field was instructed to report everything. The reports, therefore, contain every allegation about Oswald, his acquaintances and associates; critical statements made by various individuals about President Kennedy and his family; allegations by mental cases; other persons trying to be helpful, et cetera. To assist in evaluating the information, we included in the reports data from our files regarding many of the persons who furnished information particularly those who had a history of mental instability. We also included in the reports such things as the report of the autopsy of President Kennedy which the family did not want publicized; a statement of a captain of police in Dallas that he could not rely upon what General Walker said, et cetera. Some gossip could be regarded as libelous.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that we specifically point out to the Commission that the reports contain information of this kind which in some instances could cause embarrassment to some citizens and in others could be considered by the persons named as unwarranted publication.

5. There is a danger that demands may be made upon the Bureau to identify our confidential sources of information. In these reports wherever possible we attributed the information to the original sources but we did use T symbols to cover such sources as [redacted] people who requested their identities concealed and our own confidential informants who for the most part were utilized to characterize persons or organizations mentioned in the reports.

RECOMMENDATION

Although we can answer inquiries concerning Western Union or bank sources by advising that a subpoena should be issued to obtain the information, it is recommended that we point out to the Commission that we cannot disclose the other sources without compromising our informants, damaging our relations with other agencies or breaching confidences, all of which would be detrimental to our future investigative operations.

It is believed that the above recommended action will serve to alert the Commission as to the dangers of releasing our reports and put us in a better position in the event such release later results in criticism of the Bureau.

The following individuals advised IC EUGENE T. ADAMS, on January 13, 1964, that a check of the records of their respective organizations failed to disclose information concerning WILLIAM McEWAN DUFF, also known as William McEwayn McDuff, Bill Duff, "Scottie," "Scotty":

DELBERT WILSON, Director, Central Files Section, Drivers License Bureau, Oklahoma Department of Public Safety, 410 N. Walnut, Street;

KENNETH HUBBART, Identification Records, Oklahoma County Sheriff's Office;

JEAN WEBB, Records Clerk, Oklahoma City Police Department;

Mrs. ERMA DIVAN, Secretary, Oklahoma City Retailers Association, 514 West Sheridan Avenue.

On January 17, 1964, Mr. J. B. PRICE, Manager, Oklahoma State Employment Office, 101 Northeast 6th Street, Oklahoma City, advised that a check of his files reflect no record of DUFF having applied for employment through this office.

On January 17, 1964, Mr. HENRY J. MACMILLAN, Manager, Oklahoma State Employment Office, (Industrial Office) 325 N.W., 3rd Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised his records reflect no information pertaining to DUFF.

CLIFF ROBERTS, Investigator, Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 410 N. Walnut, furnished the following information:

In the Spring of 1963, ROBERTS was working as a private investigator in partnership with BILL KEESTER, a former member of the Oklahoma City Police Department. ROBERTS and KEESTER had done some insurance work for the law firm of CLYDE J. WATTS, who is one of the attorneys representing former General EDWIN WALKER, in Dallas, Texas.

A short time after the attempted shooting of General WALKER in the Spring of 1963, WATTS hired ROBERTS and KEESTER to go to Dallas to investigate the shooting incident. BILL DUFF, a former employee of General WALKER, had been developed as a suspect in this shooting and had been questioned by the Dallas Police Department. DUFF had been alleged to have remarked to some one that he was the person who shot WALKER. General WALKER was convinced that DUFF was guilty of the shooting and instructed ROBERTS and KEESTER to attempt to prove DUFF's guilt. ROBERTS and KEESTER were convinced that DUFF had nothing to do with the shooting but to satisfy WALKER they worked on the case for a period of about nine days.

ROBERTS and KEESTER made contact with DUFF in an undercover capacity and indicated to him they were working on a plan to shoot WALKER. They offered DUFF $5,000.00, to participate in this shooting and DUFF indicated he was willing to participate. During the discussions with DUFF relative to this plan DUFF never made any admissions reflecting he was guilty of the previous shooting attempt. DUFF would pretend to have some knowledge of the previous shooting, but ROBERTS considered this was merely an act on DUFF's part to impress ROBERTS and KEESTER.

ROBERTS considered DUFF to be a complete phoney in every respect and was convinced DUFF went along with ROBERTS and KEESTER merely in an attempt to get some money out of them.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI.

ROBERTS and KEESTER made a tape recording of their last discussion with DUFF concerning the plan to shoot WALKER, and turned this recording over to the Dallas Police Department.

ROBERTS has not seen or heard from DUFF since the investigation in Dallas in the Spring of 1963, and has no knowledge of his present whereabouts. He stated DUFF probably learned from the Dallas Police Department subsequent to the investigation that ROBERTS and KEESTER were private investigators and he has no reason to believe DUFF will ever attempt to contact either of them. ROBERTS continues to maintain contact with BILL KEESTER and knows that KEESTER has no knowledge of DUFF's current whereabouts.

ROBERTS advised he has no information indicating DUFF was acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

OC 105-783

On January 20, 1964, Sergeant ALTON McDANIEL, U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 621 North Robinson, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised his records reflect WILLIAM M. DUFF, born November 4, 1931, Grangemouth, Scotland, enlisted as a Private in the U. S. Army at Oklahoma City, on August 6, 1963, and was assigned Service Number RA 18 678 666. McDANIEL stated DUFF was sent to Ft. Polk, Louisiana for basic training, but since basic training lasts for only 60 days, he would now be assigned to some other base in the United States or abroad.

McDANIEL advised DUFF listed his permanent address as c/o ANNIE DUFF, Mother, 1900 McNab, Long Beach, California.

Synopsis:

SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON, a Cuban exile at Miami, Fla. attended Newspaper Writers Convention in Mexico City during 11/20-29/63. While in Mexico City, Cuban exile (FNU) BORRELL NAVARROS, employed by Mexican newspaper "Excelsior", told him LEE HARVEY OSWALD had met with a Cuban Embassy official in a Mexico City restaurant during OSWALD's visit to Mexico City about the end of 9/63. On his return to Miami, DIAZ informed ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA, another exile Cuban newspaperman, of the alleged contact of OSWALD and the Cuban Embassy official. FERNANDEZ VARELA, in turn, told JOSE I. LASAGA, a Cuban exile psychologist at Miami, of the contact. LASAGA, in submitting a paper to the White House on the psychological motivations of OSWALD, included information that OSWALD, while in Mexico City in 9/63, met the Cuban Ambassador in a Mexico City restaurant, and they drove off in the Ambassador's car so they could talk privately. LASAGA said he received this information from FERNANDEZ VARELA, who received it from DIAZ VERSON. DIAZ VERSON specifically stated he did not tell FERNANDEZ VARELA that it was the Cuban Ambassador, and said nothing about a car ride by OSWALD and the Cuban Embassy official. DIAZ VERSON said he considered the information received by him from BORRELL NAVARROS as speculative.

Interviews of SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON, ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA, and JOSE I. LASAGA, all Cuban exiles at Miami, Florida, were conducted pursuant to information that LASAGA had submitted a paper to the White House on "Possible Psychological Motivations in the Assassination of President KENNEDY." In his paper, LASAGE, Chief Clinical Psychologist of the Catholic Welfare Service of Miami, Florida, pursued the hypothesis that the motivation of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY was the influence of FIDEL CASTRO or a CASTRO agent, and that this motivation was developed during OSWALD's trip to Mexico during the period September 27 to October 3, 1963.

The paper of Dr. LASAGA also contained the allegation that OSWALD engaged in an extended interview with the Cuban Ambassador in Mexico whom he had met in a restaurant on the outskirts of Mexico City, and with whom he departed from the restaurant in the Ambassador's car, so that their conversation would not be overheard. In response to specific inquiry, Dr. LASAGA advised a member of the White House staff that he had received the report concerning the contact of LEE HARVEY OSWALD with the Cuban Ambassador from ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA, an employee of the Voice of Cuba in Miami who, in turn, had received it from SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON. DIAZ VERSON reportedly had been in Mexico City following the assassination doing investigative work on behalf of an unnamed principal.

SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON, 58 years of age, residing at 8770 S. W. 21st Street, Miami, stated he arrived in the United States as an exile from the Cuban regime of FIDEL CASTRO on March 19, 1959. He stated he had been Chief of the National Police in Cuba as of 1933, that he had been Chief of the Cuban Military Intelligence Service during the period 1948 - 1952, and that he is primarily, by profession, a newspaperman.

He said he had been in charge of the news desk for the newspaper "Excelsior" published at Havana, Cuba, until it was shut down by the CASTRO regime in August, 1961. DIAZ stated he had been President of the Anti-Communist League of Cuba, and has always been actively opposed to the Communist threat. He pointed out that he has written several anti-Communist books since coming to the United States in exile, and is currently working on one to be entitled, "The Fifth Horseman of the Apocalypse," which deals with Communism.

Mr. DIAZ stated that on November 20, 1963, he traveled from Miami to Mexico City to attend a Congress of the International Federation of Professional Newspaper Organizations (FIOPP), which lasted until November 29, 1963. He stated that on the evening of November 25, 1963, while he was present in the offices of the Mexico City newspaper "Excelsior," he became aware that the Mexican Federal Police had placed under arrest a Mexican citizen named SYLVIA DURAN, who was an employee of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City. He said that the Mexican Police had determined that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, on his arrival in Mexico City in the latter part of September, 1963, had contacted DURAN, and had stayed in her home in Mexico City. DURAN was further reported to have placed OSWALD in contact with personnel of the Cuban Embassy, Mexico City.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mr. DIAZ stated that this information was published in the November 26, 1963, edition of the newspaper "Excelsior." He stated that the Mexican Police and the press, following the assassination of President KENNEDY, were greatly concerned over the visit of OSWALD to Mexico City, because of the speculation that the assassination was planned in Mexico.

Mr. DIAZ continued that while on this visit to Mexico City, he also had contact with a newspaperman who lives in exile in Mexico City named Dr. BORRELL NAVARROS. He said Dr. BORRELL is a Medical Doctor, and is employed with the Mexican newspaper "Excelsior." He said Dr. BORRELL had told him that OSWALD, on the day after his arrival in Mexico City in the latter part of September, 1963, had gone to a restaurant called El Caballo Blanco in Mexico City, together with SYLVIA DURAN, where they met a functionary of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City. He said no mention was made by Dr. BORRELL that OSWALD and the official of the Cuban Embassy left the restaurant in a car to engage in private conversation.

Mr. DIAZ said that he did not attach any particular importance or accuracy to this meeting of OSWALD and an employee of the Cuban Embassy at the restaurant, because he did not believe Dr. BORRELL had any firm sources for this information, and further, he regarded Dr. BORRELL as a person who tended to invent details for a story.

Mr. DIAZ also stated that the alleged meeting at the above restaurant was never reported in the Mexico City newspapers, and this also tended to discredit Dr. BORRELL's information, in the opinion of Mr. DIAZ.

Mr. DIAZ stated he returned to Miami from Mexico City on November 29, 1963, and shortly thereafter, had occasion to speak with Dr. ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA, whom he described as a former newspaperman in Cuba, and currently directing an anti-CASTRO radio program called "The Voice of Cuba." He said he related to Dr. FERNANDEZ the events which had transpired during his visit to Mexico City which were, for the most part, a matter of public information there, concerning the reported contact of OSWALD with an official of the Cuban Embassy.

Mr. DIAZ stated that his trip to Mexico City was strictly personal travel made at his own expense, and that the trip was in no way related to any mission or inquiry by him on behalf of any other person or organization.

Do 1/15/64

SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON, 8770 S. W. 21st Street, Miami, stated his information concerning the alleged meeting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and the Cuban Embassy official in a Mexico City restaurant, about the end of September, 1963, came from the Cuban exile, Dr. BORRELL NAVARROS, employed by the Mexico City newspaper "Excelsior." Mr. DIAZ stated that in relating the information to ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA at Miami, he referred to the person meeting OSWALD as a Cuban Embassy employee, or official, and not as the Cuban Ambassador. He said he did not mention to FERNANDEZ the use of a car by OSWALD and the Cuban Embassy official. Mr. DIAZ stated that to the best of his recollection, BORRELL NAVARROS told him it was a Cuban Embassy officer involved, and not the Cuban Ambassador; also, BORRELL did not tell DIAZ the Cuban official and OSWALD had left the Mexico City restaurant, where they allegedly met, in a car. Mr. DIAZ stated the Mexico City restaurant may have been named the Caballo Bayo, instead of the Caballo Blanco.

Mr. DIAZ said he had made no notes of his conversation with Dr. BORRELL, and he reiterated that he regarded the information of BORRELL as highly questionable.

Dr. ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA, resident at 3880 N. E. 6th Avenue, Miami, stated that he is in exile from the CASTRO regime in Cuba, and that he had been an attorney in Cuba, and also an editor for the Cuban newspaper "Informacion." He said he is engaged presently in work for the radio program "Voz de Cuba" (Voice of Cuba), which is directed against the CASTRO regime, and he also directs the publication of the Spanish language propaganda leaflet entitled, "Informe Sobre Cuba," (Report on Cuba).

Dr. FERNANDEZ stated that he had known SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON in Cuba as a former police chief during the 1930's, and as a police reporter for the Havana newspaper "Excelsior."

Dr. FERNANDEZ stated that when DIAZ VERSON returned to Miami from Mexico City in the latter part of November, 1963, DIAZ VERSON advised him that while in Mexico City he had had contact with other newspaperman there and had learned that the Mexican Federal Police had arrested a Mexican citizen, SYLVIA DURAN, an employee of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City, because of her connection between OSWALD and the Cuban Embassy.

Dr. FERNANDEZ said DIAZ VERSON also told him that OSWALD had stayed at the home of DURAN, and subsequently met with the Cuban Ambassador in Mexico City at a restaurant called Caballo Bayo, accompanied by SYLVIA DURAN. Dr. FERNANDEZ said he understood from DIAZ VERSON that DURAN, the Cuban Ambassador to Mexico, whose name FERNANDEZ did not know, and OSWALD, reportedly went for a ride together in a car. Dr. FERNANDEZ said that the federal police in Mexico City reportedly had turned over the information concerning these incidents involving OSWALD to the United States Embassy in Mexico City.

Dr. FERNANDEZ stated that he has regular contact with Dr. JOSE LASAGA, a psychologist for Catholic Welfare Service at Miami, and he related to Dr. LASAGA the information received from SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON. He said he told Dr. LASAGA at the time that while DIAZ VERSON is an honest person, all the statements of DIAZ were not necessarily true, as he believed DIAZ VERSON was inclined to embellish a story to make it more interesting.

Dr. FERNANDEZ stated that DIAZ VERSON had gone to Mexico City from Miami to deliver a speech before an association of newspapermen gathering there. He said he did not tell Dr. LASAGA that DIAZ VERSON was acting on behalf of an unknown principal.

Date 1/15/64

ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA, 3880 N. W. 6th Avenue, Miami, Florida, maintained that SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON of Miami had told him the person reportedly meeting with LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Mexico City was the Cuban Ambassador, and not just an Embassy officer. Dr. FERNANDEZ stated that according to what DIAZ VERSON told him, the Ambassador and OSWALD had left the Mexico City restaurant together in a car.

Dr. FERNANDEZ said it was possible that slight changes in the specifics of the information received by him from DIAZ VERSON might have occurred in its transmittal to him, and in the succeeding transmittal to Dr. JOSE I. LASAGA, of Miami, from Dr. FERNANDEZ.

Dr. JOSE IGNACIO LASAGA, 50 years of age, residing at 2340 N. E. 7th Avenue, Miami, stated that he came from Cuba as an exile in January, 1962. He stated he had graduated from the University of Havana with a Doctor's Degree in Philosophy, which was an equivalent of a degree in psychology, and that he subsequently had taken graduate work at Harvard University.

He said he is currently engaged as the Chief Clinical Psychologist for Catholic Welfare Service at Miami, Florida, working primarily with Cuban youths. He said he had taken considerable interest as a psychologist in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and he had set forth the facts relative to the assassination, and his hypothesis as to the motivation of OSWALD in a paper which he submitted to the White House. He said in submitting his psychological paper, he had also included information from Dr. ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA relative to the reported contacts by OSWALD with Cuban agents in Mexico City. He said FERNANDEZ at the time informed him that the information had been received from SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON, whom Dr. LASAGA knows slightly. He stated that his information concerning the reported contact of OSWALD with a Cuban Embassy official came only from ANGEL FERNANDEZ, and he, Dr. LASAGA, had not contacted SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON in this matter.

Dr. LASAGA stated he included this information, which originated with DIAZ VERSON, in the paper submitted to the White House because he wanted to emphasize his point of view that OSWALD had contact with Cuban agents. He pointed out that his hypothesis is that OSWALD was motivated to commit the assassination only after his visit to Mexico City, having there received the necessary impetus to carry out the assassination.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He stated he did not mention the name of SYLVIA DURAN in connection with the reported contact of OSWALD and the Cuban Ambassador in Mexico City because the fact that DURAN, a Mexican citizen, was involved, was not pertinent to his hypothesis. He said it was his understanding from Dr. ANGEL FERNANDEZ that it was the Cuban Ambassador to Mexico City, name not known, and not some other official of the Cuban Embassy, with whom OSWALD had contact.

Dr. LASAGA stated that although he did not know for whom SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON may have made the trip to Mexico City, he assumed that it would have been subsidized by someone or some agency. He said it was possible, however, that DIAZ VERSON had made the trip for his own purposes and at his own expense.

Dr. LASAGA stated he had in the past acted as a delegate-general for the anti-CASTRO organization Movimiento Recuperacion Revolucionaria (Revolutionary Recovery Movement), and still cooperates with that organization giving lectures, but is no longer a member of the Executive Committee.

He said he is currently engaged in writing a book on the psychological motivations of Communism.

He said BUCHANAN identified himself as a friend of FRANK FIORINI. SANDERS stated he (himself) had never met BUCHANAN.

Previous interview of FRANK FIORINI conducted on 11/27/63 regarding an article appearing in the 11/26/63 issue of the Pompano Beach, Florida "Sun-Sentinel" under the byline of JIM BUCHANAN is contained in Miami report 12/3/63 in instant case.

FIORINI is the subject of Bufile 2-1499 and Miami file 2-192.

Likewise, an interview on 11/29/63 of JOHN MARTINO, referred to in this report as a friend of JAMES BUCHANAN, is set out in the Miami report of 12/3/63 in instant case.

Miami report of SA WILLIAM M. DREW, JR., 12/2/63, in the caption "AMERICANS FOR FREEDOM; IS - CUBA - HAITI; NM" (Bufile 105-123828 and Miami file 105-8068) reflects that JAMES BUCHANAN of the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel" was associated with leaders of Americans for Freedom, and was described as the author of a series of articles critical of the present Administration's efforts in regard to Cuba. This report further reflected that BUCHANAN, in addition to being a newspaper writer, was getting involved personally in revolutionary activities pertaining to Haiti and Cuba.

Miami file 47-4019, Bufile 47-48702, pertains to a fugitive investigation on JERRY BUCHANAN, FBI #148937D, the brother of JAMES BUCHANAN. That case involved the use of U.S. Army identification in the name JESSE L. MURPHY by JERRY BUCHANAN in cashing three stolen checks at Miami. That file reflects the brother of JERRY BUCHANAN as JAMES CHARLES BUCHANAN, and the parents as JAMES and MARY BUCHANAN, 3543 Northwest 33rd Street, Miami.

Miami file 2-317, Bufile 2-1712, also pertains to JERRY BUCHANAN, FBI #148937D, and this case was based on recruiting activities by JERRY BUCHANAN for the Anti-Communist International Brigade of FRANK FIORINI. The same file reflects JERRY BUCHANAN was sent to the Florida State Penitentiary as of 7/28/61 for three years as a Parole Violator from a forgery conviction.

FRANK FIORINI, involved in Cuban revolutionary activities, who was also quoted in article, believes article written by his friend, JIM BUCHANAN, a writer for the "Sun-Sentinel". FIORINI said he occasionally furnishes BUCHANAN with information, who sometimes changes the information to effect anti-CASTRO propaganda. FIORINI said the statements concerning OSWALD as attributed to him in the article are false.

It is to be recalled that the November 26, 1963, edition of the Pompano Beach, Florida, "Sun - Sentinel" carried an article by JIM BUCHANAN, "Sun - Sentinel" writer, which was entitled, "OSWALD, G-2 had contact?" The article by BUCHANAN stated that FRANK FIORINI, head of the Anti-Communist International Brigade, had stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had telephone conversations with the Cuban G-2 (intelligence organization); during November, 1962, had contacted Miami-based supporters of FIDEL CASTRO; had handed out pro-CASTRO literature in Miami in November, 1962; and, had tried to infiltrate anti-CASTRO organizations at Miami.

Upon interview concerning the article that appeared in the Pompano Beach "Sun - Sentinel," FRANK FIORINI, on November 27, 1963, stated he had not seen the article, but had made some off-hand comments to BUCHANAN on November 26, 1963. FIORINI stated his comments were guesses, speculation and rumor, based on information concerning OSWALD carried in the press. FIORINI stated BUCHANAN mis-quoted him in that he, FIORINI, had no information OSWALD contacted the Cuban Government, or had passed out pro-CASTRO literature, or tried to infiltrate anti-CASTRO organizations at Miami.

On December 3, 1963, JAMES BUCHANAN, who identified himself as a reporter for the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel," telephonically contacted the Miami Office of the FBI, stating he was wondering about LEE HARVEY OSWALD's connection in Miami with the Students Revolutionary Directorate (DRE). BUCHANAN related that OSWALD had tried to infiltrate the DRE, and that the DRE had recently published a bulletin indicating that orders to assassinate President JOHN F. KENNEDY had come from Cuba. BUCHANAN also stated he had information from DRE members that the FBI had taken charge of, or confiscated, several DRE bulletins, and that the FBI had taken three DRE members to Washington, D. C, for intensive interviews about the assassination.

At the time of his call, BUCHANAN was advised that no comment could be made to him concerning the FBI investigation in this matter.

On December 4, 1963, the following article appeared in the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel," published at Pompano Beach, Florida:

"COVER-UP BY FBI CHARGED

"MIAMI - A member of the Cuban Student Directorate here Tuesday charged the Federal Bureau of Investigation with 'suppressing the facts' in their report on a probe into the slaying of former President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

"The organization, known as DRE, is one of the staunchest foes of Cuban dictator FIDEL CASTRO.

"The DRE spokesman said the FBI had 'seriously erred' in stating that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was not involved with Cuba in the Bureau's report which reported the assassination to be 'a one-man job.'

"To top it off, DRE said the FBI had prevented it from circulating an organizational bulletin detailing OSWALD's visit to the Miami area last year. The spokesman said the FBI had 'taken charge' of the bulletin which speculated that orders for the deadly conspiracy had descended from Havana.

"Three members of DRE were taken to Washington by the Justice Department to give testimony on OSWALD's presence here during the missile crisis last November, according to the spokesman.

MM 105-8342
JJO:GK

"'That testimony was not even mentioned in the report,' the spokesman said. "We read about the report in today's Miami News and we could not believe it.'

"He said the FBI was one of the few remaining official U. S. agencies which Cuban exiles feel they can trust. He said betrayals by the Central Intelligence Agency in the past had forced the exiles to ignore official channels in getting their underground information to the attention of Congress.

"DRE following the assassination revealed that OSWALD had come to Miami to infiltrate the active anti-CASTRO organizations in order to get names of underground operatives inside Cuba. DRE said he was discovered by their office in Miami and challenged to defend his pro-CASTRO convictions in a debate.

"OSWALD refused. Later he was reported to have brawled with exiles in Bayfront Park, on Biscayne Boulevard.

"DRE said OSWALD was successful in joining their New York organization prior to his Miami visit, but was not given opportunities to betray any DRE agent inside Cuba.

"OSWALD also tried to infiltrate several other major organizations in Miami, including the Anti-"Communist International Brigade, which is headed by Maj. FRANK FIORINI, a former commander of CASTRO's air force.

"FIORINI said his outfit turned down OSWALD's application because they could not find out anything about his background."

A verbatim repetition of the foregoing article from the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel" appeared editorially in the December 5, 1963, issue of the Charleston, South Carolina, "News and Courier," and in the December 23, 1963, issue of "The Augusta Courier," published at Augusta, Georgia. The article, as it appeared in the Charleston and Augusta papers, contained these additional two paragraphs not appearing in the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel." They are:

"The spokesman said DRE was considering taking its information directly to the committee appointed by President LYNDON B. JOHNSON. DRE reportedly has 'proof' that OSWALD contacted the Cuban G-2 in the Migamar section of Havana during the crisis.

"The FBI in Miami had 'no comment' on the allegations."

JJO:GK

On December 9, 1963, JOSE ANTONIO GONZALEZ LANUSA, Intelligence Officer for the Students Revolutionary Directorate (DRE), with offices at 1705 S. W. 3rd Avenue, Miami, Florida, upon reading the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel" article of December 4, 1962, entitled, "Cover-Up by FBI Charged," stated the article is in complete error with respect to any allegation by the DRE that the Federal Bureau of Investigation is charged by the DRE with suppressing facts in the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

LANUSA stated he had not made any such announcement to any news reporter, and was not aware that any other member of the DRE authorized to make releases in the name of the DRE had furnished the information as set out in the "Sun-Sentinel" article. He stated, specifically, that the allegation that the FBI had "taken charge" of the bulletin published by the DRE concerning the events of the assassination was completely false. He said that no members of the DRE had gone to Washington, D. C., on request of the Justice Department to furnish testimony concerning OSWALD's alleged presence at Miami during the missile crisis in the fall of 1962. He stated that the DRE possesses no information that OSWALD had ever set foot in Miami, and that statements by an alleged spokesman for the DRE, as contained in the "Sun-Sentinel" article to the effect OSWALD was active at Miami, were likewise untrue.

LANUSA said OSWALD had never attempted to infiltrate the DRE organization at New York, as alleged in the "Sun-Sentinel" article.

JJO:GK

On December 19, 1963, JOSE LANUSA was re-contacted, at which time he stated he had made inquiries among the various leaders and members of the DRE at Miami, but was unable to ascertain who the alleged DRE spokesman, quoted in the "Sun-Sentinel" article, might be. He said he had contacted each of the DRE officers who are authorized to make statements in behalf of the DRE, and none of them had made any statement to the press concerning this matter, and none was acquainted with any reporter from the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel."

Mr. LANUSA stated that inasmuch as the article that appeared in the December 4, 1963, Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel" referred to information by FRANK FIORINI, he, LANUSA, believed that a possible spokesman, although completely unauthorized for the DRE, may be EDUARDO DIAZ LANZ. Mr. LANUSA stated DIAZ LANZ is a member of the DRE and is a friend of FIORINI.

With regard to the alleged suppression of the DRE bulletin concerning the assassination, as alleged in the "Sun-Sentinel" article, Mr. LANUSA advised that the only bulletin pertaining, specifically, to the assassination, as edited by the DRE, was one written in Spanish. He said this bulletin had been published by the DRE at Miami on ~~December~~ November 26, 1963, and was identical with the one of which he had voluntarily furnished a copy to the FBI, Miami, on November 27, 1963.

LUIS FERNANDEZ ROCHA, Secretary-General of the Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (DRE) (Cuban Student Directorate), stated he had been made aware of the article which appeared in the December 4, 1963, edition of the Pompano Beach, Florida, "Sun Sentinel" newspaper, and his inquiries as to the identity of the alleged DRE spokesman mentioned in the article resulted negatively. He stated that the only DRE officers authorized to make announcements in the English language are JOSE ANTONIO LANUSA and JOAQUIN PINILLOS, and neither of these members had made any such statements as contained in the "Sun Sentinel" article.

The article in question was then reviewed with FERNANDEZ point by point, with the following results:

The DRE has no knowledge of any incident in which the FBI was responsible for "suppressing the facts" relative to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

The DRE had never taken the position or made the assertion that the FBI had "seriously erred" in submitting a report which reportedly held that LEE HARVEY OSWALD performed a "one-man job" and was not involved with Cuba.

The DRE had no knowledge of, and had never alleged, that the FBI had prevented it from circulating an organizational bulletin dealing with a visit of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the Miami area during 1962. It was noted by FERNANDEZ upon reading the "Sun Sentinel" article that the DRE spokesman was alleged to have said the FBI had "taken charge" of the bulletin, which speculated that orders for the assassination had emanated from Havana.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

FERNANDEZ stated such an allegation was false, and he had no idea on what basis such a charge might have been made.

FERNANDEZ stated that DRE members had never gone to Washington, D. C., at the request of the Justice Department for the purpose of testifying on the presence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at Miami during the Cuban missile crisis (October, 1962), as alleged in the "Sun Sentinel" article.

FERNANDEZ stated that the only invitation to the DRE to testify at Washington came in September, 1963, when he and two other DRE officials, JUAN MANUEL SALVAT and JOSE ANTONIO LANUSA, were scheduled to testify before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) on September 17, 1963, relative to the trip by American college students to Cuba during the summer of 1963. He said that appearance before the HCUA did not transpire because other matters came up on the HCUA agenda which resulted in postponements of the DRE appearance.

FERNANDEZ added that no DRE member had made any appearance before any official committee of the United States Government with respect to the Cuban missile crisis.

FERNANDEZ stated that the alleged comment by a DRE spokesman in the "Sun Sentinel" article relative to betrayals by the CIA was another complete falsehood.

He stated the DRE had no evidence whatsoever that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had ever been in the Miami area, as stated in the "Sun Sentinel" article and, therefore, as far as the DRE was concerned, the "Sun Sentinel" statements that OSWALD had attempted to infiltrate anti-CASTRO organizations at Miami, and had brawled with exiles in Bayfront Park, Miami, were statements without any foundation in fact. He said such statements would not have been made by any spokesman for the DRE.

He said likewise, the "Sun Sentinel" statement that OSWALD had attempted to join the DRE in New York was a falsehood. He said the only information concerning the activities of OSWALD of which the DRE had direct knowledge were the contacts of OSWALD with members of the DRE organization in New Orleans, Louisiana, during the summer of 1963.

With respect to the reference contained in the articles which appeared in the Charleston, South Carolina, "News and Courier," and the Augusta, Georgia, "Courier," that the DRE was considering taking its information to the committee appointed by President LYNDON B. JOHNSON, FERNANDEZ stated this was also a statement without basis in reality. The statement contained in the Charleston and Augusta papers that the DRE reportedly had proof that OSWALD contacted the G-2 (Cuban intelligence) in Havana during the missile crisis was, according to FERNANDEZ, another falsehood.

JOAQUIN MARTINEZ DE PINILLOS, in charge of publishing the bi-weekly English language newsletter, "The Cuban Report" for the Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (DRE), at Miami, Florida, upon reading the article allegedly quoting a DRE spokesman, which appeared in the Pompano Beach, Florida, "Sun Sentinel" on December 4, 1963, stated the article was utterly erroneous, and had not been the result of any statements by him.

Mr. PINILLOS stated that about the beginning of December, 1963, DRE member EDUARDO DIAZ LANZ had told him a news reporter would come to the DRE offices to see PINILLOS. DIAZ LANZ did not name the reporter or the newspaper employing him, and such a reporter never made contact with PINILLOS. PINILLOS said he did not know if this had any connection with the article which appeared in the "Sun Sentinel."

PINILLOS displayed a letter dated January 9, 1964, directed to the Cuban Student Directorate at Miami, Florida. This letter stated as follows:

"Dear Sirs:

"Thanks to Mr. Harry Weaver of Radio Station WOKE here in Charleston, I finally have your address.

"Mr. Weaver mentioned that you have a tape for $5 that has statements by HARVEY OSWALD. I am enclosing a check for $5 and would you please send me a copy of this tape. Please mark the package airmail and also postage due.

JOSE ANTONIO GONZALEZ LANUSA, Intelligence Officer for the Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (DRE) at Miami, Florida, stated he had developed no information leading to the identity of the alleged DRE spokesman who was quoted in the Pompano Beach, Florida, "Sun Sentinel" article of December 4, 1963.

LANUSA stated that in approximately the last week of December, 1963, he received a telephone call from United States Congressman (First Name Unknown) JOHANSEN (apparently AUGUST E. JOHANSEN of Michigan, assigned to the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA)), whom LANUSA believed was from the State of Ohio. He said he had previously met Mr. JOHANSEN in Washington, D. C., through Mr. DANIEL JAMES, who had headed up the Citizens Committee for a Free Cuba at Washington, D. C. Mr. LANUSA said that Congressman JOHANSEN called him to inquire about the Cuban situation, and LANUSA proceeded to the Skyways Motel, near the Miami International Airport, to see Mr. JOHANSEN.

LANUSA said that Mr. JOHANSEN showed him a newspaper clipping containing approximately the same information as set out in the article which appeared in the December 4, 1963, issue of the "Sun Sentinel." Mr. LANUSA recalled that the article appeared under the by-line of JAMES BUCHANAN, and he thought the name of the newspaper affiliation was the "Sun Times; he was not sure whether it was Pompano or Palm Beach, Florida, or either city, but believed it may have been one of these.

He said upon reading the article, he informed Congressman JOHANSEN that it was not the truth, but that it contained partial truth that was twisted around. Mr. LANUSA explained by this he meant that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did have contact with the DRE, although it was all at New Orleans, Louisiana, and not at either Miami, Florida, or New York City, and that a brawl between OSWALD and Cuban exiles had occurred, though this was also in New Orleans, and not in Bayfront Park, Miami, Florida.

FRANK FIORINI, 2515 N. W. 122nd Street, Miami, Florida, stated he has been involved in Cuban revolutionary matters since 1958, and currently heads an anti-CASTRO organization founded by himself called the Anti-Communist International Brigade (AIB). With respect to reference made to him in the news article which appeared in the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel" on December 4, 1963, Mr. FIORINI stated as follows:

He is a good friend of JIM BUCHANAN, who is a writer for the "Sun-Sentinel," which newspaper utilizes the printing plant of the "Fort Lauderdale News" at Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He said BUCHANAN is a member of the AIB, and is actively interested in the Cuban situation. He said that from time to time he furnishes information concerning the Cuban situation to BUCHANAN, and BUCHANAN sometimes changes the information in order to effect anti-CASTRO propaganda.

With specific reference to the statement appearing in the "Sun-Sentinel" of December 4, 1963, to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD attempted to infiltrate several organizations in Miami, including the Anti-Communist International Brigade, FIORINI stated this was false. He said that it also followed that the statement in the "Sun-Sentinel," quoting FIORINI as saying the AIB turned down OSWALD's application because they could not find out anything about his background, was also false.

Mr. FIORINI stated that although the December 4, 1963, article does not reflect JIM BUCHANAN as the writer, FIORINI believed by the context of the article that it was composed by BUCHANAN. He said that he had offered to introduce BUCHANAN to officers of the Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (DRE) (Student Revolutionary Directorate) at Miami, so that BUCHANAN would have sources of news information in that organization, but the introduction did not transpire.

He said BUCHANAN, however, has contact with EDUARDO DIAZ LANZ, a Cuban exile who arrived in the United States in the summer of 1963,and who is a member of the DRE. FIORINI stated that possibly the statements attributed to a DRE spokesman, as contained in the "Sun-Sentinel" article of December 4, 1963, were based on information BUCHANAN obtained from DIAZ LANZ.

FIORINI said he has no evidence that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was ever in Miami, Florida, and did not believe EDUARDO DIAZ LANZ had any such evidence.

Mr. FIORINI stated JIM BUCHANAN of the "Sun Sentinel" is not identical with or related to the JAMES BUCHANAN who is a reporter for the "Miami Herald," published at Miami, Florida.

EDUARDO DIAZ LANZ, 2941 Bird Avenue, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida, 25 years of age, stated he had arrived in Miami as an exile from Cuba in June, 1963. He stated he has been an associate of FRANK FIORINI, whom he described as an American citizen involved in Cuban revolutionary matters. He said he did not recall having been introduced to any newspaperman by FIORINI. He said that at the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY, FIORINI told him he had a friend with a newspaper who would be interested in the information which the DRE (Cuban Student Directorate) possessed concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

DIAZ said he himself is a member of the DRE in charge of matters dealing with the Havana underground. He said he had shown FIORINI a copy of the Extra of the bi-weekly newspaper "Trinchera" published by the DRE, which gave coverage to the assassination. DIAZ made available a copy of the Extra dated November 23, 1963, and stated he had heard a rumor at the DRE that the FBI or the police at Miami had detained DRE members who were distributing this edition of "Trinchera" in the streets of Miami, confiscating the copies of "Trinchera."

DIAZ stated that shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY, he brought FIORINI to the DRE offices in Miami, where FIORINI talked to DRE member ANGEL HERNANDEZ POJO. He said HERNANDEZ POJO speaks some English, whereas FIORINI speaks very little Spanish. DIAZ said he did not know what conversation may have transpired between FIORINI and HERNANDEZ. DIAZ said FIORINI had indicated to him he would bring his newspaper friend to the DRE; however, DIAZ did not believe FIORINI had done so.

DAMASO OLIVA, editor of "Trinchera," described as the official publication of the DRE (Cuban Students Directorate) at Miami, stated that on November 24, 1963, the Sunday following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, members of the DRE engaged in distributing an Extra edition of "Trinchera," at churches in the Miami area. This edition, dated November 23, 1963, set out letters written by CARLOS BRINGUIER, DRE delegate at New Orleans, Louisiana, describing activities of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at New Orleans.

Mr. OLIVA stated that at the Immaculate Conception Church in Hialeah, Florida, and at the Little Flower Church in Coral Gables, Florida, the police of those communities called the DRE representatives distributing "Trinchera" from the churches and examined the edition of "Trinchera" which was being distributed. The police in both places instructed the DRE members not to distribute more of the material, as complaints would be received from the priests of the churches.

Mr. OLIVA stated the police did not detain any DRE member or confiscate the Extras, but told the members to cease distribution, or they would be taken to the police stations.

HERNANDEZ said that during a period of about two weeks, in the latter part of November and beginning of December, 1963, FIORINI made about four appearances in the DRE, and on one occasion, gave a lecture to DRE members on DRE organization.

HERNANDEZ stated while he was one of the members who spoke with FIORINI, he did not discuss the matter of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he, HERNANDEZ, does not know any newspaperman. He stated specifically that he did not know any newspaperman with the Pompano Beach, Florida, "Sun Sentinel."

On January 16, 1964, MM T-1, who has been involved in Cuban revolutionary matters at Miami for several years, and who is personally acquainted with FRANK FIORINI and also with newspaperman JIM BUCHANAN of the Pompano Beach, Florida "Sun-Sentinel", stated as follows:

It has been his observation that BUCHANAN writes articles on the Cuban situation which present speculation and rumor as fact. He said BUCHANAN resorts to sensationalism in his style of writing. He said BUCHANAN adopts the attitude that the United States Government is not acting firmly enough in the Cuban problem. MM T-1, upon reading the article that was printed in the December 4, 1963 edition of the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel", stated that the article appeared to him to have been written by BUCHANAN. Noting the reference to FRANK FIORINI in the article, MM T-1 stated he guessed FIORINI was the source of the material set out in the article, and that there was no other spokesman. MM T-1 stated FIORINI represents himself as"the inside man" with all the Cuban organizations at Miami.

MM T-1 continued that BUCHANAN is a good friend of JOHN MARTINO of Miami Beach, Florida, who, in past weeks, has been engaged in speaking appearances concerning Cuba. MARTINO bases his appeal as a speaker on the subject of FIDEL CASTRO and Cuba upon the fact that MARTINO was incarcerated by the CASTRO regime for a period of several years.

MM T-1 stated MARTINO had, in the past, mentioned to him that BUCHANAN had some connection with the Pompano Beach newspaper, which gave MM T-1 the impression that BUCHANAN had more than an employee status with the newspaper; that is, might have some part ownership in the newspaper.

On November 29, 1963, JOHN MARTINO, 2326 Alton Road, Miami Beach, Florida, was interviewed relative to a report that he possessed information concerning the activities of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, including information that OSWALD had distributed pro-CASTRO literature in Miami. MARTINO, upon interview, stated he had received his information from Cuban exiles in Miami, and would not reveal his sources. He admitted he did not know how accurate the information might be, and that he had no proof the information was true. He said that although his information was hearsay, he believed it.

On January 16, 1964, records at the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Broward County, at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, case #L63-845, reflected a libel suit, claiming damages in excess of $200,000.00 had been filed on December 11, 1963, against the Gore Newspapers Company, alleging a libelous article in the October 11, 1963 edition of the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel". This suit was brought by WILMA and DONALD BAINES, doing business as "Porky's" in Oakland Park, a suburb of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, charging that an article written by one OTT CEFKIN had resulted in diverse losses to "Porky's", and was libelous in nature. The suit indicated that the Gore Newspapers Company is a Delaware corporation, which owns the Pompano Beach "Sun-Sentinel". The address of the Gore Newspapers Company was indicated as 320 Southeast First Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, which is the offices of the "Fort Lauderdale News", a daily newspaper published at Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Oswald has been identified as passenger on Mexican "Red Arrow" bus traveling from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City from afternoon 9/26 to morning 9/27/63. Dr. and Mrs. John McFarland of Liverpool, England, who sat in front of Oswald, stated subject told them he was Secretary of FPCC in New Orleans and was on way to Mexico City en route Cuba to meet Castro, as he could not get to Cuba from United States. According to McFarlands, Oswald sat next to 80-year-old male United States citizen who looked to be in 60's and who claimed to have lived in Mexico and Tennessee. This individual said he was retired schoolteacher who taught in India and Arabia and was writing book on Lisbon Earthquake of 1775.

En route to Mexico City, two young women, Patricia Winston and Pamela Mumford, boarded bus evening 9/26/63 at Monterrey. Oswald told them he lived in Russia for two years and had hard time getting out; said he had been to Japan; did not indicate he was traveling to Cuba; said he was from Fort Worth or Dallas. According to girls, subject traveled alone; carried one piece of luggage, small zipper bag. He recommended girls stay at Hotel Cuba, Mexico City, as he stayed there several times before and it was inexpensive; told them he was not staying at Hotel Cuba this trip. According to girls, sitting next to Oswald was an Englishman who lived in Mexico for 30 years; who was in late 60's; heavy build, greying hair, balding, who had English accent and who was believed retired. En route this individual, who is believed to be identical with the elderly male described by the McFarlands, commented to effect, "This young man appears to have been in Mexico before."

Re:. LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Check at Hotel Cuba failed to locate record of Oswald as guest from June, 1962, through 10/3/63. Oswald known to have been registered at Hotel Del Comercio, Mexico City, from 9/27 through 10/1/63. Believed he stayed at hotel night of 10/1/63 and that he traveled from Mexico City to Nuevo Laredo by bus between morning 10/2/63 through early morning 10/3/63 when he arrived at Nuevo Laredo.

The elderly male sitting next to Oswald during 9/26/63 - 9/27/63 trip to Mexico City is believed to be male traveling under name John Howard Bowen. Two photographs of male said to be Bowen, enclosed herewith, have been obtained from newspaper morgue, Knoxville. Winston and Mumford stated male depicted in sun hat not known to them but they believed man wearing suit standing in front of stone building is identical with elderly male sitting next to Oswald on bus.

Enclosed are copies of self-explanatory cables Legat, Mexico City, dated 1/21 and 1/23/64. Note that Bowen appears to be identical to one Albert (Alberto) Osborne, Baptist missionary at Texmelucan, Mexico, who was interviewed at Texmelucan 1/7/64, at which time he furnished false information concerning Bowen and his travel in United States. If dual identity has been assumed by Osborne, reason for this not known, but from information developed by Knoxville it would appear that Osborne may have been utilizing dual identity for many years. Records Identification Division negative re Osborne or Bowen. Bufiles show that Albert Osborne, born 11/12/1898 at Grimsby, England, who in 1958 was Canadian citizen and clergyman, was subject of PCFM investigation in 1958 based on suspicion of Mexican authorities as to his bona fides. Investigation Canada developed only that Osborne was issued Canadian passport 1953 when residing at YMCA, Vancouver, and was granted landed status in Canada in July, 1917.

In early January, John Howard Bowen contacted acquaintance at Laredo, Texas, and advised that he had been interviewed by FBI in Mexico and was en route to Austin for further interview.

Interview Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Dykes identified in Legat, 1/23/64, cable to develop all available background data concerning Osborne, aka Bowen. Display enclosed photographs in effort to identify. Ascertain if Dykes' have any information concerning question of dual identity and reason therefor. Endeavor to locate Osborne and set lead for interview. Interview is to establish all background data re Osborne; whether or not he has used dual identity and reason therefor, and why he misrepresented identity to Legat when interviewed 1/7/64. Interview is to develop all information he has concerning Oswald during trip to Mexico City via "Red Arrow" bus and activities of Oswald while in Mexico between 9/27 and morning 10/2/63. Ascertain when Osborne returned to Texmelucan after arrival Mexico City 9/27/63 and if he remained in Mexico City prior to returning to his residence. Develop facts as to his place of residence and activities Mexico City. Osborne is also to be questioned concerning representations he made to McFarlands en route Mexico City and as to the basis of his remark concerning Oswald's prior travel to Mexico.

ALCARAZ IS ENGAGED TO BARRIE MILLMAN. DURING 1962 AND 1963, ALCARAZ WAS ACQUAINTED IN MEXICO CITY WITH YOUNG AMERICAN NAMED STEVE KENNAN, DESCRIBED BY HIM AS ABOUT 23-24 YEARS OF AGE AND PRO-COMMUNIST FROM SOME CITY IN PENNSYLVANIA. KENNAN WAS DESIROUS OF SECURING VISA TO GO TO CUBA BUT SO FAR AS ALCARAZ KNOWS NEVER HAD ANY SUCCESS. ALCARAZ FREQUENTLY SAW KENNAN IN SANBORNS RESTAURANT LOCATED IMMEDIATELY ADJACENT TO AMERICAN EMBASSY.

ALCARAZ SAID THAT WHEN MILLMAN VISITED HIM IN MEXICO CITY IN DECEMBER 1963 THEY DISCUSSED ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY. IT WAS PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE AT THAT TIME THAT OSWALD HAD BEEN IN MEXICO CITY PRIOR TO ASSASSINATION AND ALCARAZ SAID THAT HE DID MENTION POSSIBILITY TO MILLMAN THAT KENNAN AND OSWALD MAY HAVE BEEN ACQUAINTED SINCE BOTH WERE REPORTEDLY ADHERENTS OF COMMUNIST IDEALOGY AND BOTH HAD VISITED MEXICO. HE STATED VERY DEFINITELY THAT HE HAD NEVER MET OSWALD IN COMPANY OF KENNAN ALTHOUGH HE HAD SEEN OTHER AMERICANS IN COMPANY OF KENNAN AT SANBORNS

ALCARAZ EXAMINED PHOTOGRAPHS OF OSWALD AND STATED THAT HE CANNOT IDENTIFY THESE PHOTOGRAPHS AS BEING POSSIBLY IDENTICAL WITH ANYONE HE HAD EVER SEEN IN MEXICO AND DEFINITELY CANNOT IDENTIFY PHOTOGRAPHS OF OSWALD AS ANYONE HE EVER SAW IN COMPANY OF KENNAN.

VON PEACOCK, ACTING DIRECTOR OF FRIENDS SERVICE CENTER IN MEXICO CITY, TODAY VIEWED PHOTOGRAPHS OF OSWALD AND STATED HE WAS DEFINITELY CERTAIN OSWALD HAD NEVER VISITED FRIENDS SERVICE CENTER HERE. HE FELT THAT HE WOULD HAVE KNOWN OF ANY CONTACT OSWALD MIGHT HAVE HAD WITH CENTER IF SUCH CONTACT HAD TAKEN PLACE. PEACOCK IS ACQUAINTED WITH ALCARAZ AND HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF ANY CONNECTION BETWEEN ALCARAZ AND OSWALD.

ALCARAZ MENTIONED IN INTERVIEW THAT HE HAD NEVER DISCUSSED POSSIBILITY OF FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN KENNAN AND OSWALD WITH ANYONE BUT BARRIE MILLMAN AND THAT THIS DISCUSSION WAS PURELY SPECULATIVE. ALTHOUGH ALCARAZ WAS NOT INFORMED OF SOURCE OF INFORMATION ON WHICH HE WAS QUESTIONED, HE STATED IT WAS RATHER OBVIOUS THAT MILLMAN MUST HAVE DISCUSSED THEIR CONVERSATION WITH SOMEONE IN CALIFORNIA.

Enclosed is one copy each of Legat cables numbered 305 and 311 dated 1/21 and 1/23/64. Dallas note Bureau will handle setting forth of leads regarding location and interview of Osborne-Bowen. Dallas furnish to San Antonio the two photographs said to be of Bowen which were furnished by Knoxville 12/24/63 airtel.

San Antonio refer to page eight of your 1/17/64 report this case. On receipt of photographs, display same to Oscar Ferrino to determine if he identifies both pictures to be photos of Bowen. Does Ferrino know Bowen as Albert Osborne? If so, develop specifics. Has Osborne or Bowen been interviewed at Austin?

NOTE:

Man named John Bowen sat next to subject during bus trip from Texas to Mexico City 9/26-27/63. He engaged subject and other passengers in conversation and may have information concerning Oswald's activities in Mexico City. This man told various stories as to his background and our investigation of him led us to belief he was Baptist missionary who spent many years in Mexico. On 1/7/64 Legat interviewed Albert Osborne, a missionary at Texmelucan. He furnished considerable information (false) concerning Bowen, who he said was in U. S. It now turns out that photograph of man said to be Bowen has been identified by witnesses in Mexico as Osborne, who was known at American Express, Mexico City under name Bowen. Reason for dual identity not known.

Re Bureau airtel January 15, 1964, authorizing an interview with ALBERT GUY BOGARD with the use of the polygraph.

On January 24, 1964, BOGARD appeared at the Dallas Office and advised he was willing to be interviewed with the polygraph. He related to SAS ARTHUR E. CARTER and C. RAY HALL that on Saturday night, January 11, 1964, while working as manager of the Bent L-Bow Tavern in Dallas, Texas, several men came into the tavern, asked to see the manager, and when BOGARD appeared, they proceeded to hit him about the head with a beer bottle, then knocked him down and stomped him about the head. He said he had never seen these men before, could not identify them, and he had no idea why they assaulted him. He said he was hospitalized at Baylor Hospital, Dallas, Texas, for concussion and head cuts, from January 11, 1964, to January 18, 1964. He was treated by Dr. [redacted] REYNOLDS. Since release, he has been taking Dramamine, for dizziness, and last took this medication at about 11:00 PM on January 23, 1964. He also advised he was hospitalized at the North Louisiana Sanitarium, Shreveport, Louisiana, following a car wreck in 1951, for a fractured skull. He also alleged that on June 6, 1959, he had a "light heart attack" at Shreveport, Louisiana, but did not consult a doctor for two days afterward. He then contacted a Dr. SANDERS, Sanders Clinic, Kings Highway, Shreveport, Louisiana, who examined him and had an electrocardiogram made, then gave him some pills and told him to go to bed for about a week. BOGARD said that since that time, he has had chest pains from time to time. While he was in Baylor Hospital at Dallas, Texas, in January, 1964, he told his doctor about these pains, and an electrocardiogram was made, but his doctor told him this showed that everything was normal.

On January 24, 1964, SA HALL telephonically contacted Dr. B. A. MC REYNOLDS, Medical Towers Building, 712 North Washington, Dallas, Texas, who advised that as a surgeon, he treated ALBERT GUY BOGARD for a head injury at Baylor Hospital, in January, 1964. He said BOGARD had a traumatic injury to the middle ear, which has caused dizziness. He prescribed Dramamine, for the dizziness, and has not seen BOGARD since release from the hospital. Dr. MC REYNOLDS suggested that if BOGARD had taken Dramamine at about 11:00 PM on January 23, 1964, this medication would probably interfere with a polygraph examination on January 24, 1964, in that the results would be inconclusive. After BOGARD complained of chest pains, Dr. MC REYNOLDS had an electrocardiogram made, and his study of that showed no previous heart damage or present indication of any heart disorder. He suggested, however, that Dr. LOYD CONYERS be contacted, as Dr. CONYERS had previously treated BOGARD, and could furnish more information regarding any heart trouble BOGARD might have.

BOGARD was then advised that he would be contacted later regarding a polygraph examination, after he had had an opportunity to recover more fully from his recent hospitalization.

On January 24, 1964, SA C. RAY HALL telephonically contacted Dr. LOYD W. CONYERS, Medical Arts Building, Dallas, Texas. Dr. CONYERS advised he last saw ALBERT GUY BOGARD as a patient on September 18, 1963, and BOGARD was complaining of a whiplash injury to his neck, following an automobile accident. Dr. CONYERS' examination showed no basis for such a complaint. BOGARD has been to see him a number of times, and appears to be a chronic complainer. Dr. CONYERS has never found any physical basis for any of his complaints. He once had an electrocardiogram made on BOGARD, and found no evidence of any heart damage or disease. In view of BOGARD's chronic complaints, he has suspected that BOGARD may be attempting to fake injuries and collect from insurance companies. However, he knows of no such attempts to defraud any insurance company.

Prior to further consideration of a polygraph examination with BOGARD, additional investigation into his background is being conducted. For the information of New Orleans, the statement of BOGARD in this matter is set forth in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, December 23, 1963, Dallas, commencing on page 214. ALBERT GUY BOGARD is a white male, American, born December 30, 1924, at Coushatta, Louisiana. His wife is ILA C. BOGARD, 3029 Gorton Road, Shreveport, Louisiana; ex-wife, Mrs. LESLIE J. (MIRIAM) SPURGEONS, address unknown, Shreveport, Louisiana; parents Mr. and Mrs. A. T. BOGARD, Route 1, Coushatta, Louisiana. He has Social Security Number 433-30-3486, and served in the U. S. Navy from April 24, 1944 to November 22, 1947. He has worked as an automobile salesman at Shreveport, Louisiana, and Dallas, Texas.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

We have been advised that authorities of the State of Texas, including District Attorney Henry Wade and his assistant, William Alexander, appeared before the Commission concerning the article which appeared in "The Nation" magazine in which it is alleged that Lee Harvey Oswald was an informant of the FBI.

We have previously made available to the Commission full information concerning our contacts with Oswald. So that there may be no doubt as to our relations, here are the facts:

Our first interview of Lee Harvey Oswald took place June 26, 1962, at Fort Worth, Texas, shortly after Oswald returned from Russia. This interview was conducted by Special Agents B. Tom Carter and John W. Fain and was for the purpose of ascertaining whether Oswald had been given any Soviet intelligence assignments in this country. Oswald was requested to advise this Bureau in the event he was contacted in this country by an individual under suspicious circumstances suggesting that it was a Soviet intelligence approach. Oswald agreed to do so. Results of this interview are set out in the report of Special Agent John W. Fain dated July 10, 1962, at Dallas, Texas, captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, Internal Security - R," copies of which have been furnished to the Commission.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Our next interview of Oswald took place on August 16, 1962, at Fort Worth, Texas. This interview was conducted by Special Agents Arnold J. Brown and John W. Fain and it was for the purpose of again alerting Oswald to the possibility that the Soviet intelligence service might, at any time attempt to use him or obtain information through him. Oswald stated he could see no reason why the Soviets would desire to contact him; however, he promised his cooperation in reporting to the FBI any information coming to his attention in this regard. Results of this interview are set out in the report of Special Agent John W. Fain dated August 30, 1962, at Dallas, Texas, captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, Internal Security - R," copies of which have been furnished to the Commission.

Our next interview of Oswald took place on August 10, 1963, at the First District Station, New Orleans Police Department, New Orleans, Louisiana, at his request. During such interview Oswald furnished details concerning his arrest by the New Orleans Police Department on August 9, 1963, on a charge of disturbing the peace by creating a scene. He also furnished data concerning his background and activities in regard to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. Results of this interview are set out in the report of Special Agent Milton R. Kaack dated October 31, 1963, at New Orleans, Louisiana, captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, Internal Security - R - Cuba," copies of which have been furnished to the Commission.

The above interviews are the extent of our contacts with Lee Harvey Oswald prior to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. We did not interview Oswald in Dallas, Texas, or in Irving, Texas, prior to the assassination of President Kennedy.

In regard to the data in "The Nation" article which alleges that Oswald had Agent Hosty's home phone and office phone numbers and car license number in his possession, you are advised that Special Agent James P. Hosty's name, office telephone number and automobile license number, one digit off, appeared in Oswald's address book. For your information, Special Agent Hosty furnished his name and office telephone number to Mrs. Ruth Paine when Agent Hosty interviewed her concerning the whereabouts of Lee Harvey Oswald on November 1 and 5, 1963. Agent Hosty did not give Mrs. Paine the license number of his automobile and presumably Mrs. Paine may have jotted such number down on her own initiative unknown to Agent Hosty.

Following the arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald in connection with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, Agents of this Bureau interviewed Oswald at the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas. The purpose of these interviews was to obtain from Oswald any admissions he might make concerning the killing of the President or other data pertinent to the assassination, as well as to obtain any information Oswald might furnish of a security nature. Results of these interviews of Oswald were set out in the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald, also known as L. H. Oswald, Lee Oswald, Lee H. Oswald, Leslie Oswald, A. Hidell, A. J. Hidell, Alek J. Hidell, Alek James Hidell, O. H. Lee; Assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 11/22/63, Dallas, Texas, AFO," copies of which have been furnished to the Commission.

Lee Harvey Oswald was never used by this Bureau in an informant capacity. He was never paid any sums of money for furnishing information and he most certainly never was an informant of the FBI. In the event you have any further questions concerning the activities of the FBI in this case, we would appreciate being contacted directly.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

SUBJECT: MRS. [redacted]
[redacted]
ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA

On the afternoon of January 21, 1964, captioned individual, who appeared to be emotionally tense, visited FBI Headquarters and was interviewed by SA James R. Healy, Crime Research Section.

Mrs. [redacted] who described herself as a housewife, wished to report information she felt pertinent to the investigation surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy. She stated that at about 6:30 p. m. on November 10, 1963, she noticed a man and woman, accompanied by a small child, leave the residence of her next door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] Arlington, and that from observing later newspaper photographs of Lee Harvey Oswald and his wife she is convinced that the couple she observed were the Oswalds. She stated she only saw them about a minute or so from a distance of approximately 20 feet, that it was partially dark and that she heard the woman speak perfect English.

Mrs. [redacted] then related that she has long suspected Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] of being communist sympathizers, that they are un-American and have caused her considerable anquish by placing their trash cans on her property, blocking her water drains, etc. Mrs. [redacted] added that she feels she is living on the edge of a communist nest, that other neighbors are also communist sympathizers and that she is being constantly followed.

Mrs. [redacted] was thanked for her information and told it would be given appropriate consideration.

Bufiles reflect that she was an applicant for a position of clerk with the Bureau in January, 1952, was offered a probationary appointment, but accepted one with the Department of Defense. (67-498740)

TO : Mr. Mohr

DATE: January 22, 1964

FROM : C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: DON REYNOLDS INFORMATION REGARDING CASE INVOLVING ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Don Reynolds is the unscrupulous owner of an insurance company in Silver Spring, Maryland. Walter Jenkins called me from the White House at approximately 5:30 p.m. today. He asked that I come over and see him immediately.

Upon seeing Jenkins, he told me that Pierre Salinger had just advised him and the President that an [redacted] executive by the name of [redacted] who has offices at [redacted] Northwest, and who operates the company known as [redacted] that Reynolds had given him information concerning the assassination of the President approximately two weeks ago.

Reynolds told [redacted] that President Johnson was soon to be impeached. He stated that, "J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI had collected sufficient data to prove that President Johnson was involved in the assassination of the late President Kennedy." Reynolds stated that Governor Connally of Texas had been an accomplice of President Johnson's in the assassination of the late President Kennedy. Reynolds also told [redacted] that Clint Murchison had kept Oswald in a hotel in Dallas for several days prior to the assassination.

Salinger told the President that [redacted] is a very reputable individual and a person that would not give inaccurate information.

While I was in Jenkins' Office obtaining the above information, the President walked in and stated that he would appreciate the FBI interviewing Reynolds and pinning this information down as expeditiously as possible. I told the President I knew the Director would instruct that we get on this matter immediately. After the President left, Jenkins requested that we not interview [redacted] inasmuch as the President does not want Salinger to know this information was given to anyone else.

ACTION: It is suggested this memorandum be forwarded to the General Investigative Division and that Reynolds be interviewed as expeditiously as possible in connection with the above allegation.

PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11-22-63
DALLAS, TEXAS

Mr. J. Lee Rankin advised that he was aware of the information that had been set forth in Bureau reports relative to correspondence had by Lee Harvey Oswald with the Communist Party, USA, the Socialist Workers Party and the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. Mr. Rankin stated that even though considerable information had been developed through the Bureau's sources and through interviews conducted by the Bureau he desired that each of these organizations be contacted officially by the Bureau at the request of the President's Commission and that each group be requested to make available copies of all correspondence, and any other material that they might have available relative to Oswald.

Mr. Rankin was advised that his request would be complied with and results furnished to him as soon as possible. Appropriate instructions have been issued to the field to have this request handled immediately.

During the conversation with Mr. Rankin, he mentioned that the Commission had met on the afternoon of January 21, 1964, and that the members of the Commission had quite a number of questions and were desirous of seeing a great deal of material. At this point, Mr. Rankin was asked if there was anything that the Bureau might do to render assistance in answering any questions that had been raised by the Commissioners. Mr. Rankin replied that he could not reveal what went on at the Commissioners' meeting.

[redacted] has made numerous allegations against various persons including BROUDER BRUNDAGE, Tecumseh, Oklahoma. [redacted] stated in September, 1959, that he is continually persecuted by a Mr. BROWDER BRUNDAGE who he claimed has influenced his father against him and causes his relatives to commit him to a hospital. He stated he had spent the past seven months in a hospital at Norman, Oklahoma. [redacted]

In July, 1961, [redacted] appeared at the Oklahoma City Office and furnished a five page handwritten statement relating a vague and garbled story of being persecuted by the Communists. In the statement he identified those persecuting him as follows:

In this letter [redacted] stated that an FBI man at Fort Smith, Arkansas, told him how to trap PEARL. He added that PEARL is the daughter of Mrs. [redacted], Shawnee, Oklahoma. He indicated that PEARL had killed two husbands, one at Weatherford and one in Florida in 1941. He stated that this group had also robbed a bank and a post office.

In August, 1961, [redacted] communicated with the Oklahoma City Office on three occasions indicating he was committed to the Central State Hospital at Norman, Oklahoma, and alleging that he was sane. In one letter he alleged that crooks had taken 1200 bed sheets from the hospital and shipped them to PEARL in Florida and then to Cuba. He also alleged BROUDER took $40,000. worth of equipment from the hospital.

It is noted that the anonymous letter received by the San Antonio Office was postmarked at Norman, Oklahoma, where the Central State Hospital (Oklahoma State mental hospital) is located. NOTE: By airtel 1/14/64 San Antonio advised of receipt of an anonymous communication on 1/11/64 postmarked 1/6/64 at Norman, Oklahoma. This letter alleges Browder - Brundage "brain washed" Oswald and also promised him $10,000. The letter at times does not make sense, however alleges individuals are communists and that Jack Ruby was hypnotized when he shot Oswald. Investigation by Oklahoma City indicates probable originator of this communcation to be [redacted], a former resident of Tecumseh, Oklahoma, and an inmate of a state mental hospital at Norman, Oklahoma, where the anonymous communication was postmarked.

While it is quite apparent the anonymous communication does not contain any information of value, it is very possible the originator of this communication might communicate with Secret Service or the President's Commission. It is felt we should assemble the facts of our investigation and furnish same to Secret Service as a cooperative gesture and also be in a position to answer any possible inquiry from the President's Commission.

There is enclosed for the Bureau and Dallas one copy of a news letter dated 11/22/63 at Dallas, Texas, written by HILAIRE DU BERRIER.

For the information of the Dallas Office, DU BERRIER is the subject of Bureau case file 61-10904 and the case entitled "HILAIRE DU BERRIER, aka; IS - FRANCE; RA - FRANCE." He is a political writer, who makes his living by lecturing and writing news letters.

On 1/20/64, DU BERRIER contacted the NYO and advised that he was mailing on that date a news letter which he wrote from the home of General WALKER, in Dallas, Texas, on the night of the assassination of President KENNEDY. This letter was received on 1/22/64. In the letter, he underlined a portion, "A man driving a blue Mercury stopped before the Walker residence, ran up on the lawn and threw the American flag to the ground.

On 1/22/64, he telephonically contacted the NYO and gave the following story:

press a story by JEAN CAMBELL carried an almost identical story, setting forth that sometime prior to the shooting a MRS. WHITWORTH, of Irving, Texas, recalled that a blue and white Mercury sedan, 1958 or 1959 model, parked at her store and a man resembling OSWALD, with his wife and two children, entered her store and asked if she could put a telescopic sight on a rifle. She advised him that she did not have the facilities to perform this but directed him to a place that could do it for him. DU BERRIER pointed out that it is quite possible that the owner of the Mercury that went to Irving, Texas, is probably the individual mentioned in the enclosed newsletter. DU BERRIER then suggested that the owner in all probability is of the extreme left wing political persuasion. He could offer nothing further in this regard other than that he suggested that the car mentioned in the European articles and the car that pulled up to the WALKER residence, mentioned in the news letter, might possibly have been a two-tone Mercury rather than solid blue, with the top being blue and the body being white or cream-colored.

DU BERRIER stated that he is going on a nationwide lecture tour and that he can be contacted through the American Opinion Lecture Bureau, Brookfield, Massachusetts. The individual handling his bookings and who would most likely know his itinerary is one DOUGLAS MORSE, of that lecture bureau.

The above is being forwarded to Dallas for their information. From past experience with DU BERRIER, it is quite possible that in his lecture tour he would readily be quoted as saying that he has furnished valuable information to the FBI in regard to the shooting of President KENNEDY.

THE FOLLOWING LETTER FROM OUR EUROPEAN CORRESPONDENT IS FOR YOUR PRIVATE INFORMATION

Dallas, Texas
The night of November 22, 1963

TO THE ECONOMIC COUNCIL

Your correspondent was in Dallas the day the President was killed. There had been much discussion among conservatives prior to the President's visit, but none of a violent nature. Stated simply: the President was not popular among an opposition that was growing. Dallas authorities were determined to impose a surface picture of mass support. White House publicity men had been hard at work for weeks in advance, and a flow of statements from the police department and the sheriff's office, literally, warned those opposed to the President and his policies that any expressions of opinion contrary to the official would receive harsh treatment.

Under such conditions there was resentment, but, again, this resentment was against the suppression of America's right to free speech and it was never violent. An airplane towed a banner above the President's motorcade in Houston proclaiming, "Co-existence is treason". There were reports that a sky-writer had been hired to write, "CUBER?" above the motorcade in Dallas. In neither city was the enthusiasm shown that the press would have us believe.

On November 21, the day before the President's arrival in Dallas, piles of hand-bills started appearing on the tops of automobiles to blow off in the streets then cars were started. Each bore a front-and-profile convict-type picture of John F. Kennedy and the words, "WANTED FOR TREASON". Seven charges followed. A large sign appeared at Love Field when the President arrived bearing the words, "HELP JFK STAMP OUT DEMOCRACY".

The litterbug ordnance would have been used against hand-bill distributors had they been caught. Police were desperately searching for legal means of muzzling every one. Such was the climate of the city into which the President ventured on a visit that was obviously political.

The moment the shooting of the President was announced and without waiting for tangible information, a concentrated attack on known conservatives started. A good percentage of the telephoners were women. The first to come into General Walker's residence was a woman shouting, "We'll get you, you bastards!" Vicious insults and threats continued through the day. A man driving a blue Mercury stopped before the Walker residence, ran up on the lawn and threw the American flag to the ground.

There is no doubt that had it been established that any non-leftwinger did the shooting, extreme leftists, and with no hindrence from the authorities, would have used it as a pretext to get their enemies.

The first foreign comment to be heard over Dallas TV was Moscow's report that the assassination "was undoubtedly the work of the extreme Right". A deliberate attempt appears to have been made to circulate that version in Europe.

When it was learned that a "Fair Deal for Cuba Committee" member, a former Marine who had tried to take out nationalization papers in Russia, had been arrested as a suspect, no Dallas conservative received a phone call of apology from those who had telephoned threats and insults earlier in the day.

Towards evening Dallas TV watchers were given a view of Boston leftwinger, Gordon Hall, earnestly playing down the responsibility of the faction from which the assassin actually came and exploiting the tragedy as ammunition against the Right. Urged Mr. Hall, our officials must not disregard organizations just because they are small and do not seem to be dangerous. A plea that the authorities crack down on the four-fifths of the political spectrum of which Mr. Hall disapproves followed, though these were almost in disapproving of the deed. It would appear, from the sympathetic ear Mr. Hall was given by his interviewer and all indications in Dallas as this is written, that the criminal assassination of President Kennedy will be twisted around to serve the ends of the camp that produced the slayer.

A significant fact emerges from the still-confused and tragic event in Dallas: It is the capacity and eagerness for violence of the American extreme left, not simply the segment that produced gunman Oswald, but the militant Left in general. Here the true threat to America becomes more and more evident. Yet, though Dallas police swarmed the city and did all but declare the community under martial law, none of the prowling cars that passed and repassed and appeared to be "casing" the homes of [illegible] conservatives as General Walker through the afternoon and night was stopped for questioning. Police protection there was none. In effect, if subversives cared to seize the favorable moment of emotion for action they were, literally told to go ahead.

Hilaire du Berrier

Synopsis: SP/4 NELSON DELGADO, Battery D, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, N.J., advised 1/15/64 that he knew the subject from approximately December, 1958, to June, 1959, while both assigned to Marine Corps stationed at Santa Ana, Calif. DELGADO and OSWALD discussed socialism and Cuba. DELGADO said OSWALD visited Cuban Consulate, Los Angeles, Calif. DELGADO, subject, and two other males visited Mexico on one occasion. DELGADO believed he taught OSWALD the Spanish language. DELGADO said subject spoke Russian. Two soldiers presently assigned with SP/4 DELGADO learned simple Spanish phrases from DELGADO. DELGADO considered braggart and interested in women by fellow soldiers but not known as liar. Spanish-speaking Agent describes DELGADO's Spanish as poor.

DETAILS:

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date 1/22/64

SP/4 NELSON DELGADO, Battery D, 4th Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel Site, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised that he was born June 3, 1939, at Brooklyn, New York. He said he presently resides with his wife at 30 Oakwood Road, Leonardo, Middletown Township, New Jersey. He said he had no children. SP/4 NELSON DELGADO said that he was a member of the United States Marine Corps from November, 1956, until November 1, 1959, and his Marine serial number was 16 44 884. He said that he was honorably discharged from the United States Marine Corps. After a short time as a civilian in Brooklyn, New York, DELGADO said he enlisted in the United States Army on November 2, 1960. He said that he is now assigned as a cook with the title Mess Steward in Battery D.

DELGADO advised that he was assigned to Marine Control Squadron 9, Santa Ana, California, from July 1, 1958, to sometime in June, 1959, as a radar operator. DELGADO was assigned to Quonset Hut 34 from the time he arrived at Santa Ana until approximately June, 1959, when he asked to be transferred from this hut. DELGADO said that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was assigned to Marine Control Squadron 9 during the same period. He said that both OSWALD and himself were assigned to the same radar section and the same shift. At that time, DELGADO declared, he was very young, having only recently left school. DELGADO said that he was a "loner," and OSWALD apparently had few friends at the base. As a result in December, 1958, they became friendly. DELGADO said that one of the reasons he described himself as a "loner" was that because of his Puerto Rican background he did not get along too well with the other Marines. DELGADO said, however, that he found that OSWALD and himself got along well together.

DELGADO said that at this time while in the Marine Corps he was very young and, thinking back now, considers himself to have been very immature. DELGADO said that he was always the subject of remarks which were made by other Marines because of his heavy weight condition. DELGADO said that he has since come to realize that his feelings while in the Marine Corps were immature, and he has since changed his ideas somewhat. He said that he now realizes that he would have gotten along much better in those days if he had a better sense of humor, which he feels he has developed since then. DELGADO said that in January, 1959,

by SAs RICHARD B. MURDOCK and JAMES A. MARLEY, JR./aas Date dictated 1/21/64

he learned that OSWALD had been having some trouble in the quonset hut to which he had originally been assigned, and OSWALD asked to be transferred. DELGADO said that he had been friendly for some time with OSWALD, and he was not sure but he thought it was because of this friendship that OSWALD was assigned to Hut 34, the same hut that DELGADO occupied. DELGADO pointed out, however, that there were three empty bunks in the hut at the time OSWALD was assigned there. Concerning Hut 34, DELGADO said during the period that he and OSWALD occupied this hut there were, he believes, a total of six Marines who passed through or resided with them. He recalls one, a Pfc. WALD. DELGADO recalls that in January, 1960, WALD was transferred to Atsuki, Japan, for assignment with the 1st Marine Air Control Squadron. DELGADO said that he remembers that OSWALD and WALD did not get along too well, but he believes that WALD would know of OSWALD's and DELGADO's friendship. SP/4 DELGADO continued and said that about this time, because of his interest in Puerto Rican matters, he was very interested in the situation in Cuba. He said that he personally supported CASTRO's overthrow of the BATISTA government. DELGADO said that his statements concerning the events in Cuba apparently pleased OSWALD because their friendship became better after DELGADO started to talk about Cuba.

However, OSWALD did discuss other things with him and on one occasion claimed to be an atheist and liked to quote sections from the Bible to show DELGADO how wrong the Bible was at times. DELGADO claimed that these things made him realize that OSWALD simply wanted someone to talk to who at least thought along the same lines he did. OSWALD discussed religion and politics, that is the Democratic and Republican Parties, on occasions; but because DELGADO was not well versed in politics of the day, OSWALD did not pursue the political discussions for any length of time. DELGADO said he also disliked discussions with OSWALD concerning the Bible, and they soon dropped this topic of conversation. DELGADO pointed out that whenever the conversation got around to Cuba and CASTRO, OSWALD would talk indefinitely. DELGADO pointed out that it was his opinion that OSWALD did not like to become violent in any discussions he was having; and on more than one occasion if the person he was talking with lost his temper or appeared to be getting violent in attitude, he would cut off the conversation by leaving the area.

OSWALD discussed socialism on many occasions with DELGADO, but he never discussed communism or used the word communist. Although the word was not used, DELGADO later formed the opinion that OSWALD was a Marxist. OSWALD was always praising the socialist form of government and said on more than one occasion that the United States would eventually have a revolution which would then secure a real democracy. It was not DELGADO's belief that the word revolution meant anything violent, or at least it was his impression at that time that OSWALD meant nothing violent by these statements. DELGADO said that OSWALD never brought up any ideas or statements concerning how this revolution should be brought about. DELGADO said OSWALD did try to explain his ideas on socialism to DELGADO by trying to make a comparison of the military life with life under the socialist form of government. OSWALD said that men and women had been able to live under the rule of one man or officer while in the military, and it did not seem that they would have any objection to be able to live under a socialistic form of government. DELGADO said that he did not fully understand OSWALD's intent in comparing a socialist government with the military life, and it is his belief that OSWALD did not fully understand socialism because of the example he gave.

OSWALD was not a braggart, according to DELGADO, but he never missed an opportunity to impress those around him with his intelligence. He did not waste his time discussing his ideas with anyone who did not have a real background in the subject under discussion. He would react the same way to someone who wanted to make a big joke of his discussions.

DELGADO said that he has spoken Spanish all his life and can write short phrases in Spanish and can even write letters to his wife and relatives in Spanish. He said that he always considered his ability to speak both Spanish and English something he had over others in the military. He said he never missed the opportunity to teach Spanish to anyone who was really interested. DELGADO said that OSWALD indicated an interest in learning the Spanish language; that he attempted to teach him the best way he knew how; and it was his opinion that OSWALD learned much Spanish from him. DELGADO said that the subject bought a Spanish dictionary; and over the months that he knew OSWALD, he spent a good deal of time with this Spanish dictionary. DELGADO said that he and OSWALD were assigned to an area where no one except officers were allowed to speak. He said he referred to this area himself as the silent area. DELGADO said that most of the Marines were assigned to four-hour shifts on their radar screens; and in order to wile away the time since they could not talk, most Marines wrote letters or short notes on scratch paper to each other. DELGADO said that he and OSWALD took this opportunity to continue their Spanish discussions, and he would jot down Spanish phrases or English translations and OSWALD would do the same. It was DELGADO's opinion that by the time he left Santa Ana, OSWALD could speak and understand the Spanish language. DELGADO concluded his opinion of OSWALD's ability in the Spanish language by saying that he himself considered a person proficient in Spanish if that person could speak Spanish well and be understood in the Spanish language. He added that it was his opinion that OSWALD learned enough Spanish to get across his ideas in the Spanish language. DELGADO admitted that he himself was not able to teach OSWALD how to write the Spanish language because he had no ability in the use of Spanish grammar.

DELGADO said that because of their common interest in languages, DELGADO learned that OSWALD spoke Russian. OSWALD attempted to teach some Russian phrases to DELGADO, but the best DELGADO could learn was "da" and "nyet." According to DELGADO, OSWALD was continually complaining about the military life as a United States Marine. However, looking back at the period, he does not believe that OSWALD complained much more about the Marines than he himself or other Marines did at that time. Because of the nature of their assignment at Santa Ana Marine Base, DELGADO said the Marines were required to fire their rifle only once a year. Sometime in the spring of 1959, the whole group, including OSWALD, went to a nearby rifle range for their annual firearms schedule. OSWALD, like most Marines, took an interest in the "pool" which was started for the Marine getting the highest score. However, DELGADO said neither he nor OSWALD came close to winning. DELGADO said that one of the requirements for this annual firearms session was that all Marines had to qualify on the rifle. DELGADO said that it has always been his opinion that OSWALD "penciled in" his qualifying score. DELGADO said it was his further opinion that OSWALD was not a good rifle shot and that he never showed any unusual interest in his rifle or other guns and appeared less interested in weapons than the average Marine assigned to the Santa Ana base.

DELGADO said that much of their conversation and, he believes, close relationship stemmed from the fact that he and

OSWALD agreed on CASTRO and Cuba. DELGADO said that they often discussed TRUJILLO and the Dominican Republic. Both he and DELGADO agreed that TRUJILLO must be removed. DELGADO observed that since he himself was content to see Cuba free from the control of BATISTA, this also was OSWALD's only interest in Cuba. However, it became apparent after many discussions concerning CASTRO, Cuba, and the Dominican Republic that OSWALD wanted to do something personally to assist CASTRO and Cuba. Therefore, one day, while assigned in the radar section, DELGADO said he jotted down a note to OSWALD saying that if he were as sincerely interested in helping the Cubans as OSWALD said he was, he would write to the Cuban Embassy, Washington, D. C. DELGADO pointed out that this conversation took place by using short phrases, and it was at the time that the United States was supporting CASTRO. One conversation with OSWALD concerning CASTRO came about when the newspapers printed the story of a man who allegedly deserted the United States Army, had gone to Cuba, and had been made a Major by CASTRO. DELGADO said that one of the things OSWALD discussed about this Major was that he understood the man's role as "trigger man" for CASTRO. DELGADO said that OSWALD contended that he supported the job this man was doing by removing the enemies of the CASTRO government.

As a result of DELGADO's comment to OSWALD, he said he was very surprised about five to six days later when OSWALD told him that he had received an answer from the Cuban Consulate in Los Angeles. DELGADO said that up to this time OSWALD received very little mail and wrote very few letters. He said these letters, from his personal knowledge, were usually to his mother or from his mother. DELGADO recalls that weeks would go by, particularly in late December and early January, when the subject received no mail from anyone. However, after writing to the Cuban Consulate, he began to receive mail at least weekly and on occasions several times during the week. DELGADO said that he later learned that this mail came from the Cuban Consulate. DELGADO said he learned this when he had asked OSWALD for a particular tie that he wished to wear when he left the base. OSWALD told DELGADO that the tie was in his locker and that he could get it himself. DELGADO said that when he went to get the tie he noticed the letters that the subject had been receiving, and one of them bore the seal of the Cuban Consulate, another appeared to be a Russian newspaper, and there was some other mimeographed material which DELGADO believed also came from the Cuban Consulate.

DELGADO said that it was his habit to visit relatives or friends in Los Angeles whenever he had the week end off. He said he attempted on many occasions to have OSWALD accompany him to Los Angeles. He said that OSWALD was never interested; but after he had received some correspondence which DELGADO assumed was from the Cuban Consulate, he started to accompany DELGADO to Los Angeles. DELGADO said that they would leave the base on Friday after work; and when they arrived in Los Angeles, OSWALD would leave. At first DELGADO did not know where OSWALD was going; but after several of these trips to Los Angeles, he asked OSWALD where he was going, and he said to visit the Cuban Consulate in Los Angeles. However, DELGADO added that he never accompanied the subject to the Cuban Consulate, nor did he ever see him enter the Cuban Consulate.

During another discussion OSWALD stated that he did not think much of the United States's stand supporting CASTRO because the United States waited until CASTRO had thrown BATISTA out of Cuba before this country offered to help him. At about this time the newspapers contained a story about two Americans who had gone to Russia. He recalls that OSWALD told him at this time that he, like the two Americans, could get to Russia if he wanted to by going to Tijuana, Mexico, to Cuba, and then to Moscow. DELGADO said that at that time he did not think that OSWALD meant anything in particular. Later they were discussing extradition treaties, because of a news item in the local newspaper. He said this news item concerned an American who had gone to Argentina because he was in trouble with the law. DELGADO recalls that he said that if he ever got in trouble in the United States he would go to Argentina because they had no extradition in that country. OSWALD, however, insisted that he would go to Russia using the same route the Americans had when they went through Mexico to Cuba and on to Russia.

DELGADO said that OSWALD occupied a good bit of his time reading books, and he had a copy of "Das Kapital." OSWALD had asked DELGADO to read this book, but DELGADO looked at it and never read it. DELGADO said that OSWALD had another book called "The Farm" or "On the Farm" which OSWALD discussed and summarized for DELGADO. He recalls the book as a satire on capitalists, using pigs as capitalists and other farm animals as the people. DELGADO said that he remembers this book fairly well, but he does not recall reading it completely.

DELGADO recalled that the subject never had any regular visitors at the base; but on one night when he, DELGADO, was Corporal of the Guard, OSWALD was working at the radar net when the Sergeant of the Guard called to have OSWALD sent to the main gate. DELGADO said that he remembers securing a relief for OSWALD, and OSWALD went to the main gate where he talked to a man for about 45 minutes. OSWALD never told DELGADO who the person was he met at the gate, but it has always been DELGADO's opinion that it was not a member of his family because he believes they would have been allowed on the base.

Among other things DELGADO said he recalled about OSWALD was the fact that he appeared to enjoy classical music and would often talk at length concerning the opera. He never discussed girls and apparently wished to have nothing to do with them. OSWALD never showed any interest in sports, and he neither played baseball or football nor talked about these subjects. Besides everything else, the above characteristics, according to DELGADO, were some of the reasons that no one else bothered with OSWALD.

However, during the early spring of 1959, DELGADO and two Negro Marines, one of whom might have been a Pvt. WATTS, decided to go to Tijuana, Mexico, for a good time. He recalled that the two Negro Marines, who were assigned to the base, did not particularly wish to have OSWALD along but that he was able to convince OSWALD to go with them. DELGADO said that he did not believe that OSWALD had ever been to Tijuana; but when they arrived in Mexico, it was OSWALD who picked out the "Flamingo Bar" as a good place to have a good time. OSWALD described the two bartenders, one a man, who he said was a homosexual, and a woman. He also told them that he heard that the Flamingo had a good show. DELGADO said, looking back on the incident at this time, he feels that the bartender seemed to know OSWALD when the group entered; but if this were true, OSWALD did not indicate that he knew him. DELGADO said that OSWALD did not drink much, but he seemed to enjoy himself. He said after the show they went looking for a house to secure girls. He said that at this point OSWALD appeared just as interested as the others in finding a good place. DELGADO said that all four did find a girl for themselves, after which they returned to a small hotel where each rented his own room. DELGADO does not recall the name of the hotel, but it was near a jai alai court in Tijuana. DELGADO said he could not recall the date that all the above took place, but he remembers that while he was with his girl friend or at some other place in Tijuana, he lost his wallet. DELGADO said that he and OSWALD and the two others went to the Shore Police Naval Station at the Tijuana gate to report this loss. DELGADO said that they returned to the Santa Ana base on Sunday, and OSWALD seemed to have enjoyed the week end as well as anyone else.

DELGADO said that among those who were at the Santa Ana base at the same time as he and OSWALD was a Sgt. W. FUNK. However, it was DELGADO's opinion that Sgt. FUNK would not have known OSWALD well because he was only assigned to the base for about four to six weeks prior to OSWALD's leaving the area. DELGADO described FUNK as having been transferred from Japan; and by the time OSWALD left, most of the Marines did not have much respect for Sgt. FUNK. However, on one occasion Sgt. FUNK caught OSWALD acting improperly while on duty and reported him. OSWALD received what was then termed company punishment and was made to march around the field with a full field pack, during which march Sgt. FUNK put OSWALD through the close-order drill sections of the Marine Manual. From that time on, OSWALD had nothing good to say about Sgt. FUNK and one time told of reporting the incident to the Marine Inspector General, but to DELGADO's knowledge he never did.

Cpl. JAMES BOTELHO was assigned to the Santa Ana Marine Base at approximately the same time that DELGADO was but was not in the same hut with OSWALD. He did work on the same shift with OSWALD and DELGADO. BOTELHO did not associate with OSWALD and had little to do with him. DELGADO did recall on one occasion BOTELHO had a "big" argument with OSWALD over socialism, and OSWALD left in disgust.

Pfc. HENRY R. ROUSSEL, JR., was assigned to the Santa Ana base about four to eight weeks prior to OSWALD's leaving the base. He lived in the same quonset hut area, but not in Hut 34 and was not on the same work shift with OSWALD. One of the unusual things about OSWALD was that since ROUSSEL and OSWALD were from New Orleans, there should have been some conversation about this fact. However, there never was any interest shown in each other.

DELGADO advised that speaking generally as far as Pfc. HENRY R. ROUSSEL, JR., and BOTELHO were concerned, they did not have much in common with OSWALD because they were interested in sports and girls, and these things hardly interested OSWALD.

A Sgt. CALL was assigned to the same platoon but was not assigned in the same quonset area as the subject. However, CALL and OSWALD did get along, and on one occasion OSWALD discussed his book "Das Kapital" with CALL. Further, CALL and OSWALD had in common the fact they both enjoyed classical music.

Another Marine, a Pfc. OSBORNE, was assigned to the same platoon during OSWALD's time and came from Texas. According to DELGADO, OSBORNE would discuss Texas with anyone at any time. Although OSWALD said that he came from Texas, he was not friendly with OSBORNE.

DELGADO declared any Marine assigned to the Santa Ana base from December, 1958, to about June, 1959, should be able to verify the fact that he and OSWALD were friendly. In addition, Sgt. LUSK, the Sergeant Major of the company, made the remark when he was disciplining DELGADO that he was getting to be just like OSWALD who always did everything backwards.

Pfc. DAVID MURRAY was assigned to the same section with DELGADO and OSWALD and knew them both. DELGADO claimed to have taught MURRAY Spanish while both were still in school at Biloxi, Mississippi. He believed MURRAY should know that DELGADO taught OSWALD Spanish although he never heard MURRAY and OSWALD speak this language to each other.

Lt. Col. TOSDAHL was the Commanding Officer of the base at the time both OSWALD and DELGADO were stationed at Santa Ana. TOSDAHL was the kind of commanding officer who liked to know each Marine by his first name. DELGADO felt he should know of the association between himself and OSWALD.

Toward the end of May or early June, 1959, DELGADO said that he personally became convinced that CASTRO was not the best thing for the Cuban people, and he started to argue this point with OSWALD. OSWALD claimed that DELGADO did not know what he was talking about because the American newspapers never print the real truth. Discussions concerning the Dominican Republic also came up at this time, and it became apparent to DELGADO that OSWALD really felt that something should be done to remove TRUJILLO. On one occasion he suggested that both DELGADO and himself go to Cuba, become officers in CASTRO's army, and go on to help the Dominican Republic. DELGADO said that about this time he began to think that OSWALD was acting strangely, but he did not believe he meant what he said; however, he did become more and more arrogant and argumentative whenever Cuba or the Dominican Republic came up in conversation. DELGADO said about this time the newspapers had published a story concerning a Corporal in CASTRO's army. DELGADO recalls that this story dealt with the shooting of this Corporal for some minor violation by other CASTRO soldiers. DELGADO said that this completely disillusioned him concerning CASTRO. DELGADO said that since OSWALD would not even discuss this matter, both he and OSWALD became less friendly, and things became uncomfortable for him in the quonset hut. Therefore, even though he was the noncommissioned officer in charge of Hut 34, he asked Sgt. FUNK for a transfer to another barracks. At about the same time, DELGADO said he returned to his home on leave.

When DELGADO returned to the base, OSWALD had already been discharged; and about this time he made headlines in the local newspapers because he had defected to Russia. DELGADO recalls that about this time he and all other personnel at the base were interviewed by investigators concerning any knowledge OSWALD had of secret information.

DELGADO advised he never heard from OSWALD again. DELGADO stated he had given his home address to the subject as 303 47th Street, Brooklyn, New York, which was his address when he went into the Marine Corps; but in 1960 the buildings were torn down. In any case, the subject never contacted him.

On January 15, 1964, RICHARD B. MURDOCK, a Spanish-speaking Special Agent, during the course of interview with NELSON DELGADO set out in this report, evaluated DELGADO's Spanish ability as follows:

DELGADO is similar to many persons of Spanish extraction born and educated in the United States who heard the language spoken in the home and in their Spanish-speaking neighborhoods. However, DELGADO, like others, never made any real effort to learn the language. DELGADO has a good understanding of the spoken language, but has a limited speaking vocabulary of Spanish. DELGADO has to mix English words with his Spanish words to fully express himself. DELGADO has very faulty grammar and no training in the written Spanish word.

DELGADO knows Spanish words only as he has heard them spoken and, at times, writes Spanish words with one or more syllables missing. DELGADO's speaking ability in Spanish is very poor. DELGADO would not be considered proficient in the Spanish language by anyone who reads and writes the language above the high school level.

Lieutenant WILLIAM J. LAWLESS, Executive Officer, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 17, 1964, that he has known SP/4 NELSON DELGADO since approximately March, 1963. He said it was about this time that DELGADO was transferred from a European assignment to Battery D as mess steward.

LAWLESS described DELGADO as a good soldier, but one who tends to exaggerate most incidents that occur to him personally. He stated that DELGADO is not offensive or derogatory in his exaggerations but likes to build himself up by these exaggerations. LAWLESS said that DELGADO likes to think of himself as a "ladies man". LAWLESS said that because DELGADO is somewhat heavy, he is the subject of joking by other soldiers, particularly in the mess hall. He stated he believes that DELGADO exaggerates his accomplishments with women to compensate for the jibes that he receives while on duty.

Lieutenant LAWLESS said he has never known DELGADO to lie nor to do anything in the line of duty which would make him appear to be other than a good soldier.

S/Sgt. MELVIN FORD, Mess Steward, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 15, 1964, that he is SP/4 NELSON DELGADO's immediate superior. FORD said that he first met DELGADO during late 1962 or early 1963, while both were assigned to the same mess hall in Europe. However, FORD said they were not assigned to the same unit. He said he would describe DELGADO as a good soldier, who has an excellent attitude while working. FORD felt DELGADO tended to exaggerate events but was unable to specifically point out circumstances particularly known to him.

First Sergeant ALFRED C. ROBINSON, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 17, 1964, that SP/4 NELSON DELGADO has been assigned at Battery D as a mess steward from February, 1963, to the present time. He said he was transferred from a unit in Germany at that time. ROBINSON said that in his capacity as First Sergeant, he knows NELSON DELGADO well and has never had to discipline or control him in any way since his assignment to the base. He stated DELGADO knows his job well and does it efficiently.

SP/5 LLOYD GREGORY, Operations Sergeant, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 15, 1964, that he has known SP/4 NELSON DELGADO since DELGADO was assigned to the missile base in February, 1963. GREGORY said that because of the nature of his own assignment, he has a close association with DELGADO. GREGORY described DELGADO as a good cook and not necessarily interested in military life as such.

Sergeant GEORGE BRADFORD, Specialist, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 15, 1964, that he has known SP/4 NELSON DELGADO for approximately four years. He said that he was assigned with DELGADO in Europe and went out socially with him on occasion. Sergeant BRADFORD noted he has learned a few Spanish phrases and words from DELGADO but due to lack of interest he has never gone much further than this into the language. He considered DELGADO to be a soldier who was capable in his military assignment. He indicated DELGADO tended to exaggerate but could not recall any specific instances to confirm this.

SP/5 BILLY JONES, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, advised he is attempting to learn the Spanish language with the help of DELGADO but feels DELGADO is not a qualified Spanish teacher since he has only helped him in certain simple Spanish terms.

On December 11, 1963, ELSTETH KULIK, 402 Mount Prospect Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, telephone number 485-1541, advised SA JOHN T. MURPHY she has known JOHN MURRET, New Orleans, Louisiana, for the past two and one-half years as a personal friend. She stated he has telephoned her occasionally, the last time in September, 1963, and she last saw him during the summer of 1963.

Miss KULIK declared she did not know MURRET's father or mother and did not know their relationship with anyone else, in particular with OSWALD.

Miss KULIK noted up to June, 1963, she had resided at 1 Mohican Place, Lake Hiawatha, New Jersey, at which time she had telephone number 334-1034.

Mrs. ANN GARRET, Box 150, Vernon, New Jersey, another alleged telephone contact of MURRET, on December 11, 1963, advised SAs RICHARD C. LEE and WILLARD ST. MARIE, JR., that she does not know anyone in New Orleans and never received a telephone call from that city. She stated she does not know JOHN MURRET or his family or ELSTETH KULIK, and definitely did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She was of the opinion the call could have been a wrong number call which she would have no occasion to remember.

S/Sgt. MELVIN FORD, Mess Steward, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 15, 1964, that he is SP/4 NELSON DELGADO's immediate superior. FORD said that he first met DELGADO during late 1962 or early 1963, while both were assigned to the same mess hall in Europe. However, FORD said they were not assigned to the same unit. He said he would describe DELGADO as a good soldier, who has an excellent attitude while working.

FORD said that he believes DELGADO suffers from an inferiority complex because of his weight condition and being of Puerto Rican background. However, he stated DELGADO tends to exaggerate circumstances or events in which he has participated, particularly in reference to women. FORD said that he knows of no unusual interest on DELGADO's part in young girls and to the contrary, DELGADO usually brags about his conquests of older women despite the fact that he is married.

FORD stated that since DELGADO does his job well, he and DELGADO get along and DELGADO has never caused him any trouble. As a matter of fact, DELGADO's personality helps keep the spirits of some of the troops at a high level.

First Sergeant ALFRED O. ROBINSON, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 17, 1964, that SP/4 NELSON DELGADO has been assigned at Battery D as a mess steward from February, 1963, to the present time. He said he was transferred from a unit in Germany at that time. ROBINSON said that in his capacity as First Sergeant, he knows NELSON DELGADO well and has never had to discipline or control him in any way since his assignment to the base.

He stated that DELGADO knows his job well and he does it efficiently. He has a tendency to exaggerate any incident in which he is involved and is usually bragging or praising a particular food served that day in the mess hall if he had anything to do with it.

ROBINSON stated that DELGADO exaggerates concerning his personal love life and that it is his feeling that this is because of his own physical appearance. He stated there appears to be some truth to the statements concerning his extracurricular activities with women because information reached him that DELGADO had met a woman, married to a soldier at another military base, and had apparently been successful with her. ROBINSON said, however, that this was never verified nor was any formal complaint made by anyone to the military concerning DELGADO.

ROBINSON said that if activities of this nature had continued, he would have felt it necessary to bring this to DELGADO's attention, but because of his bragging and exaggerations, he felt he could not be sure what would have been the real facts in this matter.

SP/5 LLOYD GREGORY, Operations Sergeant, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 15, 1964, that he has known SP/4 NELSON DELGADO since DELGADO was assigned to the missile base in February, 1963. GREGORY said that because of the nature of his own assignment, he has a close association with DELGADO.

GREGORY said he would describe DELGADO as a good cook, interested in his phase of Army life, but not necessarily interested in the military life as such. GREGORY has noticed that DELGADO appears to carry a slight chip on his shoulder because of his Puerto Rican background.

GREGORY stated that DELGADO tends to exaggerate particularly when describing his relationship with women. He said that he knows of no abnormal interest on DELGADO's part in young girls.

He said he personally believes that most of DELGADO's statements concerning his conquests of women are not based on fact because he has met DELGADO's wife, and he feels that DELGADO and his wife appear to have a normal husband and wife relationship.

Sergeant GEORGE BRADFORD, Specialist, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 15, 1964, that he has known SP/4 NELSON DELGADO for approximately four years. He said that he was assigned with DELGADO in Europe and went out socially with him on occasion.

Sergeant BRADFORD said that since both he and DELGADO had more free time while in Europe, DELGADO did attempt to teach him simple phrases and songs in the Spanish language. BRADFORD said that he believed DELGADO could teach him how to use simple phrases in Spanish, but he did not have the interest that would be necessary to learn the language. He said that since he and DELGADO have arrived at the Holmdel, New Jersey site, they have not continued their discussions concerning the Spanish language. However, BRADFORD said occasionally DELGADO will say something in Spanish or he will learn a new Spanish phrase from DELGADO.

BRADFORD said that he considered DELGADO a mature soldier, capable of his military assignment, but somewhat immature when it came to his relationship with women. He said that although DELGADO would brag about his conquests of women, these did not alway prove to be true.

BRADFORD said that DELGADO does tend to exaggerate, but he has never known him to lie about any pertinent fact.

SP/5 BILLY JONES, Battery D, Fourth Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, Holmdel, New Jersey, advised on January 15, 1964, that he is presently attempting to learn how to speak Spanish with the help of SP/4 NELSON DELGADO. DELGADO has been very helpful to him and has helped him with certain simple Spanish phrases and is willing to listen to him speak those Spanish words and phrases which he has learned. JONES said he has secured a Spanish dictionary and an elementary Spanish book. He said he has often asked DELGADO for his assistance, and he would say that DELGADO is teaching him Spanish.

JONES stated that it is only his intention to learn enough Spanish to be able to be understood because he expects to be assigned, in his next military assignment, near the Mexican border. JONES does not believe DELGADO is a qualified Spanish teacher, but in learning to speak or understand the Spanish language, he feels that DELGADO can be of great assistance to him.
